2. Written revisions of the specifications shall be made available to each of the offerors and shall provide for an expeditious response.

3. Information derived from revised maximum guaranteed price proposals shall not be disclosed to competing offerors.

(2) After all costs of the project have been determined upon the basis of the construction bidding, the costs shall be apportioned among the owners of benefited property pursuant to the method of assessment previously determined in the ordinance of initiation and the ordinance of determination. However, in determining the apportionment of individual costs for purposes of affording to the owners of benefited property the privilege of paying the assessment levies in full on a lump-sum basis, the urban-county government shall exclude amounts required for the creation of the debt service reserve fund, capitalized interest costs, and any bond discount which the government may allow in connection with the sale of bonds to provide funds for the costs of construction not paid initially by the owners of benefited properties on a lump-sum basis.

The sheriff shall be entitled to a fee of one percent (1%) of the amount collected by him.

(5) Nothing contained in this subsection shall be construed to prevent the trustees of a fire protection district located in a city or county which provides emergency ambulance service from using funds derived from taxes for the purpose of providing supplemental emergency medical services so long as the mayor of the city or the county judge/executive of the county, as appropriate, certifies to the trustees in writing that supplemental emergency medical services are reasonably required in the public interest. For the purposes of this subsection, "supplemental emergency medical services" may include EMT, EMT-D, and paramedic services rendered at the scene of an emergent accident or illness until an emergency ambulance can arrive at the scene.

Provided, further, that no resolution of the board imposing an ad valorem tax shall go into effect until the expiration of thirty (30) days after the first publication of the notice. If during the thirty (30) days next following the first notice of said resolution, a petition signed by a number of constitutionally qualified voters equal to fifteen percent (15%) of the votes cast within the area affected at the last preceding general election, stating the residence of each signer, and verified as to signatures and residence by the affidavits of one (1) or more persons is presented to the county judge/executive protesting against passage of such resolution or if the fiscal court passes a resolution suspending the tax, the resolution shall be suspended from going into effect. The county judge/executive shall notify the board of the sanitation tax district of the receipt of the petition or of the suspension of the resolution or both. If the resolution is not repealed by the board, the board shall submit to the voters of the area to be taxed, at the next regularly-scheduled November election, the question as to whether the tax shall be levied. The question as it will appear on the ballot shall be filed with the county clerk not later than the second Tuesday in August preceding the regular election. If a majority of the votes cast upon the question oppose its passage, the resolution shall not go into effect. If a majority of the votes cast upon the question favor its passage, the resolution shall go into effect as of January 1 of the year succeeding the year in which the election is held.

(2) When such tax levy has been fully approved, the property valuation administrator, with the cooperation of the board shall note on the tax rolls the taxpayers and valuation of the property subject to such tax. The county clerk shall compute the tax on the regular state and county tax bills in such manner as may be directed by regulation of the Department of Revenue[~~Cabinet~~].

(3) Such ad valorem taxes shall be collected by the sheriff in accordance with the general law and accounted for to the board. The sheriff shall be entitled to a fee of one percent (1%) of the amount collected.

Section 98. KRS 91.4885 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The court shall order the master commissioner to sell, pursuant to the provisions of KRS 426.560 to 426.715, except as otherwise provided in this section, each parcel separately by individual count number. The court shall further order that a report of the sale be made by the master commissioner to the court for further proceedings under the provisions of KRS 91.484 to 91.527.

(2) Prior to the master commissioner's setting each parcel for sale pursuant to court order, the collector shall file with the Circuit Court clerk an affidavit as to the most recent certified tax assessment of each parcel to be sold. The most recent certified assessment of a property shall be the property valuation administrator's last assessment which shall have been certified by the Kentucky Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] to the county clerk, as required by KRS 133.180.

(3) The most recent certified assessment as sworn to in the affidavit furnished by the collector shall be used in all actions brought under KRS 91.484 to 91.527 to determine the owner's equity of redemption as provided by KRS 91.511(2).

Section 99. KRS 91.511 is amended to read as follows:

(1) At any time prior to the sale of the property any person having any right, title or interest in, or lien upon, any parcel of real estate described in the petition may discharge any city lien or satisfy a judgment in favor of the city as to said parcel of real estate by paying to the collector all of the sums mentioned therein, including the principal, interest, penalties, and costs then due.

(2) If the property is sold pursuant to the judgment or order of the court and does not bring its most recent assessed value certified by the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] to the county clerk as required by KRS 133.180, the owner may redeem it within sixty (60) days from the day of the sale, by paying the purchaser the original purchase money and interest at eighteen percent (18%) per annum. Any owner who redeems his land shall take a receipt from the purchaser and lodge it with the clerk of the court. The receipt shall be entered upon the records of the court.

(3) The owner may tender the redemption money to the purchaser, his agent or attorney, if found in the county where the land lies or in the county in which the judgment was obtained or order of sale made. If the money is refused, or if the purchaser does not reside in either of the counties, the owner may, before the expiration of the right of redemption, go to the clerk of the court in which the judgment was rendered or the order made, and make affidavit of the tender and refusal, or that the purchaser or his agent or attorney do not reside in either of the counties. He may then pay to the clerk the redemption money, and the clerk shall give receipt therefor and file the affidavit among the papers of the action.

(4) When the right of redemption exists, the owner may remain in possession of the property until it expires. Real property so sold shall not be conveyed to the purchaser until the right of redemption has expired. If it is redeemed, the sale shall, from and after the redemption or from and after the deposit of the redemption money with the clerk, be null and void.

(5) In the event of failure to redeem within the period provided for redemption, the owner or any other party in interest shall be barred forever of all his right, title and interest in and to the parcel of real estate described in the petition.

(6) Upon redemption, as permitted by this section, the person redeeming shall be entitled to a certificate of redemption from the collector describing the property in the same manner as it is described in the petition and the collector shall thereupon note on his records the word "redeemed" and the date of the payment opposite the description of the parcel of real estate.

Section 100. KRS 96.820 is amended to read as follows:

(1) For the purposes of this section, unless the context requires otherwise:

  (a) "Taxing jurisdiction" shall mean each county, each school district, each municipality, and each other special taxing district located within the state.

  (b) "State" shall mean the Commonwealth of Kentucky.

  (c) "Tax equivalent" shall mean the amount in lieu of taxes computed according to this section which is required to be paid by each board to the state and to each taxing jurisdiction in which the board operates and required by subsection (11) of KRS 96.570 to be included in resale rates.

  (d) "Tax year" shall mean the twelve (12) calendar-month period ending with December 31.

  (e) "Current tax rate" shall mean the actual levied ad valorem property tax rate of the state and of each taxing jurisdiction which is applicable to all property of the same class as a board's property subject to taxation for the tax year involved.

  (f) "Book value of property" or "book value of property owned by the board" shall mean the sum of:

    1. The original cost (less reasonable depreciation or retirement reserve) of a board's electric plant in service on December 31 of the immediately preceding calendar year located within the state, used and held for use in the transmission, distribution, and generation of electric energy, and

    2. The cost of the material and supplies owned by a board on December 31 of the immediately preceding calendar year. For the purpose of this definition, "electric plant in service" shall mean those items included in the "electric plant in service" account prescribed by the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission uniform system of accounts for electric utilities, and "material and supplies" shall mean those items included in the accounts grouped under the heading "material and supplies" in the said system of accounts.

  (g) "Adjusted book value of property" or "adjusted book value of property owned by the board" shall mean the book value of property owned by the board excluding manufacturing machinery as interpreted by the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] for franchise tax determination purposes.

  (h) The "adjustment factor" shall be one hundred twenty-five percent (125%) for the tax year 1970. For each tax year thereafter, it shall be the duty of the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] to compute the adjustment factor for that tax year as follows: For each five (5) percentage points or major fraction thereof by which the adjustment ratio for electric utility property for the immediately preceding tax year exceeded or was less than one hundred sixteen percent (116%), five (5) percentage points shall be added to or subtracted from one hundred twenty-five percent (125%). For the purposes of this computation, "adjustment ratio for electric utility property" shall mean the ratio of total assessed value to total property value for all public service corporations distributing electric energy to more than fifty thousand (50,000) retail electric customers within the state. "Total assessed value" shall mean the total actual cash value assigned by the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] for ad valorem property tax purposes to the property of such corporations located within the state (properly adjusted for property under construction). "Total property value" shall mean the sum of:

1. The depreciated original cost of the total utility plant in service of such corporations within the state, and
2. The book value of material and supplies of such corporations located within the state, both as derived from published reports of the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, or in the absence thereof, from information provided to the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] by such corporations.

(i) "Electric operations" shall mean all activities associated with the establishment, development, administration, and operation of any electric system and the supplying of electric energy and associated services to the public, including without limitation the generation, purchase, sale, and resale of electric energy and the purchase, use, and consumption thereof by ultimate consumers.

(2) It shall be the duty of each board, on or before April 30, to certify to the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] the book value of property owned by the board and the adjusted book value of property owned by the board and located within the state and within each taxing jurisdiction in which the board operates. A copy of the certification shall also be sent by the board to each such taxing jurisdiction. The book value of property and adjusted book value of property shall be determined, and the books and records of the board shall be kept in accordance with standard accounting practices, and the books and records of each board shall be subject to inspection by the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] and by representatives of the affected taxing jurisdictions and to adjustment by the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] if found not to comply with the provisions of this section. Upon the receipt of the required certification from a board, the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] shall make any inspection and adjustment, hereinabove authorized, as it deems necessary, and no earlier than September 1 of each year the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] shall certify to the board and to the county clerk of each county in which the board operates the book value of property owned by the board and the adjusted book value of property owned by the board, located within each taxing jurisdiction in which the board operates and within the state. At the same time, the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] shall certify to the board and to the county clerk the adjustment factor for the tax year. The county clerk shall promptly certify the book value of property, the adjusted book value of property, and the adjustment factor certified by the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~], to the respective taxing jurisdiction in which the board operates.

(3) (a) Each board shall pay for each tax year, beginning with the tax year 1970, to the state and to each taxing jurisdiction in which the board operates, a tax equivalent from the revenues derived from the board's electric operations for that tax year, computed according to this subsection.

(b) The tax equivalent for each tax year payable to the state shall be the total of:

1. The book value of the property owned by the board within the state, multiplied by the adjustment factor, multiplied by the current tax rate of the state, less thirty cents ($0.30), plus
2. The state's portion of the amount payable under paragraph (d) of this subsection.

(c) The tax equivalent for each tax year payable to each taxing jurisdiction in which the board operates shall be the total of:

1. The adjusted book value of property owned by the board within the taxing jurisdiction, multiplied by the adjustment factor, multiplied by the current tax rate of the taxing jurisdiction; provided, however, for the purpose of this calculation the tax rate for school districts shall be increased by thirty cents ($0.30), plus
2. The taxing jurisdiction's portion of the amount payable under paragraph (d) of this subsection.

(d) For purposes of this subsection, "amount payable" shall mean four-tenths of one percent (0.4%) of the book value of property owned by the board located within the state. The state shall be paid the same proportion of the amount payable as the payment to the state under subparagraph 1. of paragraph (b) of this subsection represents of the total payments to the state and all taxing jurisdictions in which the board operates required by subparagraph 1. of paragraph (b) and subparagraph 1. of paragraph (c) of this subsection. Each taxing jurisdiction in which the board operates shall be paid the same proportion of the amount payable as the payment to the taxing jurisdiction under subparagraph 1. of paragraph (c) of this subsection represents of the total payments to the state and all taxing jurisdictions in which the board operates required by subparagraph 1. of paragraph (b) and subparagraph 1. of paragraph (c) of this subsection. Under the regulations the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] may prescribe, upon the board's receipt from the state and taxing jurisdictions of notice of the amount due under subparagraph 1. of paragraph (b) and subparagraph 1. of paragraph (c) of this subsection, the board shall compute the portion of the amount payable which is due the state and each taxing jurisdiction in which the board operates.

(e) Payment of the tax equivalent under this section for each tax year shall be made by each board to the state within thirty (30) days after receipt by the board of the certification from the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] required by subsection (2) of this section and shall be made directly to each taxing jurisdiction in which the board operates within thirty (30) days from the date of the certifications by the county clerk required by subsection (2) of this section. The state and each taxing jurisdiction in which a board operates shall have a superior lien upon the proceeds of the sale of electric energy by that board for the amounts required by this section to be paid to it.

(4) Except as hereinafter provided, the tax equivalents computed under this section shall be in lieu of all state, municipal, county, school district, special taxing district, other taxing district, and other state and local taxes or charges on the tangible and intangible property, the income, franchises, rights, and resources of every kind and description of any municipal electric system operating under KRS 96.550 to 96.900 and on the electric operations of any board established pursuant thereto, and the tax equivalent for any tax year computed and payable under this section to the state or to any taxing jurisdiction in which any board operates shall be reduced by the aggregate amount of any tax or charge within the meaning of this sentence which is imposed by the state, or by any taxing jurisdiction in which a board operates, on the board, the electric system, or the board's electric operations. Provided, however, that if any school district in which property of a board is located has elected, or does hereafter elect, to apply the utility gross receipts license tax for schools to all utility services as provided by KRS 160.613 through KRS 160.617, or as may hereafter be provided by other statutes, the amount of such utility gross receipts license tax shall not reduce, or in any manner affect, the amount payable to any such board or boards under the provisions of this section. It is the intent and purpose of this provision to eliminate all sums received by any such board or boards by reason of the utility gross receipts license tax from any computation of the amount payable under this section to any such board or boards, irrespective of the manner in which that payment is computed, so that, in no event, shall any sum received by any school district by reason of the utility gross receipts license tax reduce, directly or indirectly, the amount payable to such district under this chapter. Provided, further, that if the state shall levy a statewide retail sales or use tax on electric power or energy, collected by retailers of the energy from the vendees or users thereof, and imposed at the same rate or rates as are generally applicable to the sale or use of personal property or services, including natural or artificial gas, fuel oil, and coal as well as electric power or energy, the retail sales or use tax shall not be deemed to be a tax or charge within the meaning of the first sentence of this subsection, and the tax equivalent payable for the tax year to the state under this section shall not be reduced on account of such retail sales or use tax.

(5) (a) Notwithstanding subsection (3) of this section, until the first tax year in which the total of:

1. The tax equivalent payable to the state, or to any taxing jurisdiction in which the board operates, computed under subsection (3) of this section, plus

2. The additional amounts permitted to be paid to the state or taxing jurisdiction without deduction under the second and third sentences of subsection (4) of this section, exceeds the minimum payment to the state or taxing jurisdiction specified in paragraph (b) of this subsection, the tax equivalent for each tax year payable to the state or taxing jurisdiction shall be an amount equal to the minimum payment computed under paragraph (b) of this subsection.

(b) For purposes of this subsection, the minimum payment to the state or to any taxing jurisdiction in which the board operates shall mean an amount equal to the total of:

1. The largest actual payment made by the board pursuant to this section to the state or to the taxing jurisdiction for any of the tax years 1964, 1965, or 1966, plus

2. The state's or taxing jurisdiction's pro rata share of an amount equal to four-tenths of one percent (0.4%) of the increase since July 1, 1964, in the book value of property owned by the board within the state. For the purposes of this paragraph "pro rata share" shall mean the same proportion of the amount computed under this subparagraph as the largest actual payment in lieu of taxes made by the board to the state or taxing jurisdiction for the applicable tax year under subparagraph 1. of this paragraph represents of the total amount of the largest actual payments in lieu of taxes made by the board to the state and to all taxing jurisdictions in which it operated for any of the applicable tax years.

(c) The provisions of paragraph (e) of subsection (3) of this section shall apply to all payments required under this subsection.

(d) This subsection shall not be applicable for the first tax year specified in paragraph (a) of this subsection or for any tax year thereafter, except however, that tax year 1977 shall not be deemed as the "first tax year" as specified in paragraph (a) and this subsection shall continue to apply in such cases.

Section 101. KRS 96.895 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Except for payments made directly by the Tennessee Valley Authority to counties, the total fiscal year payment received by the Commonwealth of Kentucky from the Tennessee Valley Authority, as authorized by section 13 of the Tennessee Valley Authority Act, as amended, shall be prorated thirty percent (30%) to the general fund of the Commonwealth and seventy percent (70%) among counties, cities, and school districts, as provided in subsection (2) of this section.

(2) The payment to each county, city, and school district shall be determined by the proportion that the book value of Tennessee Valley Authority property in such taxing district, multiplied by the current tax rate, bears to the total of the book values of Tennessee Valley Authority property in all such taxing districts in the Commonwealth, multiplied by their respective tax rates, provided, however, each public school district for the purposes of this calculation shall have their tax rate increased by thirty cents ($0.30).

(3) As soon as practicable after the amount of payment to be made to the Commonwealth of Kentucky is finally determined by the Tennessee Valley Authority, the Kentucky Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] shall determine the book value of Tennessee Valley Authority property in each county, city, and school district and shall prorate the total payments received from the Tennessee Valley Authority, except payments received directly from the Tennessee Valley Authority, among the distributees as provided in subsection (2) of this section. The Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] shall certify the payment due each taxing district to the Finance and Administration Cabinet which shall make the payment to such district.

(4) As used in subsections (2) and (3) of this section, "Tennessee Valley Authority Property" means land owned by the United States and in the custody of the Tennessee Valley Authority, together with such improvements (including work in progress but excluding temporary construction facilities) as have a fixed situs thereon if and to the extent that such improvements either:

(a) Were in existence when title to the land on which they are situated was acquired by the United States; or

(b) Are allocated by the Tennessee Valley Authority or determined by it to be allocable to power; provided, however, that manufacturing machinery as interpreted by the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] for franchise tax determination shall be excluded along with ash disposal systems and, coal handling facilities, including railroads, cranes and hoists, crushing and conveying equipment. As used in said subsections "book value" means original cost unadjusted for depreciation as reflected in Tennessee Valley Authority's books of account. "Book value" shall be determined, for purposes of applying said subsections, as of the June 30 used by the Tennessee Valley Authority in computing the annual payment to the Commonwealth which is subject to redistribution by the Commonwealth.

(5) This section shall be applicable to all payments received after September 30, 1985, from the Tennessee Valley Authority under Section 13 of the Tennessee Valley Authority Act as amended.

Section 102. KRS 96A.320 is amended to read as follows:

(1) As used in KRS 96A.310 to 96A.370, the term "mass transportation program" shall mean the provision of necessary funds by public bodies to transit authorities created pursuant to KRS Chapter 96A with which to acquire, operate, and preserve mass transportation facilities. A "mass transportation program" may also include a method for the public body or public bodies to finance principal and interest payments on any general obligation bonds issued pursuant to KRS 96A.120, or to finance transportation-related facilities to promote the movement of vehicles and people. Urban-county governments which initiate a "mass transportation program" may include in this program the improvement of existing roads and the construction of new roads.

(2) Public bodies which have been parties to the creation and establishment of transit authorities, or who constitute the membership of such transit authorities, may, acting either individually or jointly, submit to either the electorates of such public bodies, or the electorate of the transit area encompassed by any such transit authority, but only in the manner and pursuant to the procedures set forth in KRS 96A.310 to 96A.370, one (1) or more proposals for the approval of a mass transportation program to be financed by additional voted levies of ad valorem taxes upon all taxable property in such public body or public bodies. Such additional voted levies of ad valorem taxes upon all taxable property in any such public body shall never exceed in the aggregate the limits prescribed by the Constitution of Kentucky for any such public body.

(3) Public bodies which have been parties to the creation and establishment of transit authorities, or who constitute the membership of such transit authorities, may, acting either individually or jointly, submit to either the electorates of such public bodies, or the electorate of the transit area encompassed by any such transit authority, but only in the manner and pursuant to the procedures set forth in KRS 96A.310 to 96A.370, one (1) or more proposals for the approval of a mass transportation program to be financed by voted levies of occupational license fees. Such voted levies of occupational license fees shall not exceed one percent (1%) of:

(a) Salaries, wages, commissions, and other compensation earned by persons for work done and services performed or rendered; and

(b) The net profits of businesses, trades, professions, or occupations from activities conducted in the public body, or the transit area, except public service companies, banks, trust companies, combined banks and trust companies, combined trust, banking and title companies, any savings and loan association whether state or federally chartered, and in all other cases where a public body is prohibited by law from imposing a license fee.

(b) Any sales tax levied for said purpose shall be in addition to the sales tax authorized by Chapter 139 of the Kentucky Revised Statutes. Said public transportation sales tax shall be collected and administered under the provisions of Chapter 139 of the Kentucky Revised Statutes and the rules and regulations of the Kentucky Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~].

(5) The Kentucky Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] shall refund that portion of the sales tax collected as a public transportation tax to the public body or bodies imposing said tax.

(6) Notwithstanding any other provision contrary hereto, a mass transportation program financed by a public body or public bodies from said sales tax shall be restricted by the following order of priorities, to wit:

(5) An assessment or reassessment moratorium certificate may be transferred or assigned by the holder of the certificate to a new owner or lessee of the property.

In addition to all other rights or privileges afforded Kentucky taxpayers, and notwithstanding any provisions of the Kentucky Revised Statutes to the contrary, the provisions of KRS 131.041 to 131.081 shall apply with regard to all taxes administered by the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~].

Section 108. KRS 131.081 is amended to read as follows:

The following rules, principles, or requirements shall apply in the administration of all taxes subject to the jurisdiction of the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~].

(1) The department[~~cabinet~~] shall develop and implement a Kentucky tax education and information program directed at new taxpayers, taxpayer and industry groups, and department[~~cabinet~~] employees to enhance the understanding of and compliance with Kentucky tax laws, including the application of new tax legislation to taxpayer activities and areas of recurrent taxpayer noncompliance or inconsistency of administration.

(2) The department[~~cabinet~~] shall publish brief statements in simple and nontechnical language which explain procedures, remedies, and the rights and obligations of taxpayers and the department[~~cabinet~~]. These statements shall be provided to taxpayers with the initial notice of audit; each original notice of tax due; each denial or reduction of a refund or credit claimed by a taxpayer; each denial, cancellation, or revocation of any license, permit, or other required authorization applied for or held by a taxpayer; and, if practical and appropriate, in informational publications by the department[~~cabinet~~] distributed to the public.

(3) Taxpayers shall have the right to be assisted or represented by an attorney, accountant, or other person in any conference, hearing, or other matter before the department[~~cabinet~~]. The taxpayer shall be informed of this right prior to conduct of any conference or hearing.

(4) The department[~~cabinet~~] shall perform audits and conduct conferences and hearings only at reasonable times and places.

(5) Taxpayers shall have the right to make audio recordings of any conference with or hearing by the department[~~cabinet~~]. The department[~~cabinet~~] may make similar audio recordings only if prior written notice is given to the taxpayer. The taxpayer shall be entitled to a copy of this department[~~cabinet~~] recording or a transcript as provided in KRS 61.874.

(6) If any taxpayer's failure to submit a timely return or payment to the department[~~cabinet~~] is due to the taxpayer's reasonable reliance on written advice from the department[~~cabinet~~], the taxpayer shall be relieved of any penalty or interest with respect thereto, provided the taxpayer requested the advice in writing from the department[~~cabinet~~] and the specific facts and circumstances of the activity or transaction were fully described in the taxpayer's request, the department[~~cabinet~~] did not subsequently rescind or modify the advice in writing, and there were no subsequent changes in applicable laws or regulations or a final decision of a court which rendered the department's[~~cabinet's~~] earlier written advice no longer valid.

(7) Taxpayers shall have the right to receive a copy of any audit of the department[~~cabinet~~] by the Auditor of Public Accounts relating to the department's[~~cabinet's~~] compliance with the provisions of KRS 131.041 to 131.081.

(9) Taxpayers shall have the right to an installment payment agreement for the payment of delinquent taxes, penalties, and interest owed, provided the taxpayer requests the agreement in writing clearly demonstrating his inability to pay in full and that the agreement will facilitate collection by the department[~~cabinet~~] of the amounts owed. The department[~~cabinet~~] may modify or terminate an installment payment agreement if it determines the taxpayer has not complied with the terms of the agreement; the taxpayers' financial condition has sufficiently changed; the taxpayer fails to provide any requested financial condition update information; the taxpayer gave false or misleading information in securing the agreement; or the taxpayer fails to timely report and pay any other tax due the Commonwealth. The department[~~cabinet~~] shall give written notice to the taxpayer at least thirty (30) days prior to modifying or terminating an installment payment agreement unless the department[~~cabinet~~] has reason to believe that collection of the amounts owed will be jeopardized in whole or in part by delay.

(13) The department[~~cabinet~~] shall not evaluate individual officers or employees on the basis of taxes assessed or collected or impose or suggest tax assessment or collection quotas or goals.

(14) Taxpayers shall have the right to bring an action for damages against the Commonwealth to the Board of Claims for actual and direct monetary damages sustained by the taxpayer as a result of willful, reckless, and intentional disregard by department[~~cabinet~~] employees of the rights of taxpayers as set out in KRS 131.041 to 131.081 or in the tax laws administered by the department[~~cabinet~~]. In the awarding of damages pursuant to this subsection, the board shall take into consideration the negligence or omissions, if any, on the part of the taxpayer which contributed to the damages. If any proceeding brought by a taxpayer is ruled frivolous by the board, the department[~~cabinet~~] shall be reimbursed by the taxpayer for its costs in defending the action.

(15) Taxpayers shall have the right to privacy with regard to the information provided on their Kentucky tax returns and reports, including any attached information or documents. Except as provided in KRS 131.190, no information pertaining to the returns, reports, or the affairs of a person's business shall be divulged by the department[~~cabinet~~] to any person or be intentionally and without authorization inspected by any present or former commissioner[~~secretary~~] or employee of the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~], member of a county board of assessment appeals, property valuation administrator or employee, or any other person.

Claims for refund of paid assessments may be made under KRS 134.580 and denials appealed under KRS 131.340. The protest shall be accompanied by a supporting statement setting forth the grounds upon which the protest is made. Upon written request, the department[~~cabinet~~] may extend the time for filing the supporting statement if it appears the delay is necessary and unavoidable. The refusal of the extension may be reviewed in the same manner as a protested assessment.

(2) After a timely protest has been filed, the taxpayer may request a conference with the department[~~cabinet~~]. The request shall be granted in writing stating the date and time set for the conference. The taxpayer may appear in person or by representative. Further conferences may be held by mutual agreement.

(3) After considering the taxpayer's protest, including any matters presented at the final conference, the department[~~cabinet~~] shall issue a final ruling on any matter still in controversy, which shall be mailed to the taxpayer. The ruling shall state that it is a final ruling of the department[~~cabinet~~], generally state the issues in controversy, the department's[~~cabinet's~~] position thereon and set forth the procedure for prosecuting an appeal to the Kentucky Board of Tax Appeals.

(4) The taxpayer may request in writing a final ruling at any time after filing a timely protest and supporting statement. When a final ruling is requested, the department[~~cabinet~~] shall issue such ruling within thirty (30) days from the date the request is received by the department[~~cabinet~~].

(5) After a final ruling has been issued, the taxpayer may appeal to the Kentucky Board of Tax Appeals pursuant to the provisions of KRS 131.340.

Section 110. KRS 131.130 is amended to read as follows:

Without limitation of other duties assigned to it by law, the following powers and duties are vested in the Department of Revenue[~~Cabinet~~]:

(1) The department[~~cabinet~~] may make administrative regulations, and direct proceedings and actions, for the administration and enforcement of all tax laws of this state.

(2) The department[~~cabinet~~], by representatives appointed by it in writing, may take testimony or depositions, and may examine the records, documents, files, and equipment of any taxpayer or of any person whose records, documents, or equipment will furnish knowledge concerning the tax liability of any taxpayer, when it deems this reasonably necessary for purposes incident to the performance of its functions. The department[~~cabinet~~] may enforce this right by application to the Circuit Court in the county wherein the person is domiciled or has his principal office, or by application to the Franklin Circuit Court, which courts may compel compliance with the orders of the department[~~cabinet~~].

(3) The department[~~cabinet~~] shall prescribe the style, and determine and enforce the use or manner of keeping, of all assessment and tax forms and records employed by state and county officials, and may prescribe forms necessary for the administration of any revenue law by the promulgation of an administrative regulation pursuant to KRS Chapter 13A incorporating the forms by reference.

(4) The department[~~cabinet~~] shall advise on all questions respecting the construction of state revenue laws and the application thereof to various classes of taxpayers and property.

(5) Attorneys employed by the Finance and Administration Cabinet and approved by the Attorney General as provided in KRS 15.020 may prosecute all violations of the criminal and penal laws relating to revenue and taxation. If a Finance and Administration[~~Revenue~~] Cabinet attorney undertakes any of the actions prescribed in this subsection, he shall be authorized to exercise all powers and perform all duties in respect to the criminal actions or proceedings which the prosecuting attorney would otherwise perform or exercise, including but not limited to the authority to sign, file, and present any and all complaints, affidavits, information, presentments, accusations, indictments, subpoenas, and processes of any kind, and to appear before all grand juries, courts, or tribunals.

(6) In the event of the incapacity of attorneys employed by the Finance and Administration Cabinet or at the request of the secretary of the Finance and Administration[~~Revenue~~] Cabinet, the Attorney General or his designee shall prosecute all violations of the criminal and penal laws relating to revenue and taxation. If the Attorney General undertakes any of the actions prescribed in this subsection, he shall be authorized to exercise all powers and perform all duties in respect to the criminal actions or proceedings which the prosecuting attorney would otherwise perform or exercise, including but not limited to the authority to sign, file, and present any and all complaints, affidavits, information, presentments, accusations, indictments, subpoenas, and processes of any kind, and to appear before all grand juries, courts, or tribunals.

(7) The department[~~cabinet~~] may require the Commonwealth's attorneys and county attorneys to prosecute actions and proceedings and perform other services incident to the enforcement of laws assigned to the department[~~cabinet~~] for administration.

(8) The department[~~cabinet~~] may conduct research in the fields of taxation, finance, and local government administration, and publish its findings, as the commissioner[~~secretary~~] may deem wise.

(9) The department[~~cabinet~~] may make administrative regulations necessary to establish a system of taxpayer identifying numbers for the purpose of securing proper identification of taxpayers subject to any tax laws or other revenue measure of this state, and may require such taxpayer to place on any return, report, statement, or other document required to be filed, any number assigned pursuant to such administrative regulations.

(10) The department[~~cabinet~~] may, when it is in the best interest of the Commonwealth and helpful to the efficient and effective enforcement, administration, or collection of sales and use tax, motor fuels tax, or the petroleum environmental assurance fee, enter into agreements with out-of-state retailers or other persons for the collection and remittance of sales and use tax, the motor fuels tax, or the petroleum environmental assurance fee.

(11) The department[~~cabinet~~] may enter into annual memoranda of agreement with any state agency, officer, board, commission, corporation, institution, cabinet, department, or other state organization to assume the collection duties for any debts due the state entity and may renew that agreement for up to five (5) years. Under such an agreement, the department[~~cabinet~~] shall have all the powers, rights, duties, and authority with respect to the collection, refund, and administration of those liquidated debts as provided under:

(a) KRS Chapters 131, 134, and 135 for the collection, refund, and administration of delinquent taxes; and

(b) Any applicable statutory provisions governing the state agency, officer, board, commission, corporation, institution, cabinet, department, or other state organization for the collection, refund, and administration of any liquidated debts due the state entity.

(1) Each employer subject to KRS Chapter 342 shall file annually with the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~], in accordance with administrative regulations, a report providing the policy number and the name and address of the employer's workers' compensation insurance carrier.

(2) The report may be made available to other state agencies notwithstanding the confidentiality provisions of KRS 131.190.

Section 112. KRS 131.140 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The department[~~cabinet~~] shall requisition the Finance and Administration Cabinet to furnish to local officials an adequate supply of forms for listing property for taxation and other forms and blanks the state is required by law to provide. The books and records prescribed for use by property valuation administrators, county clerks, sheriffs and other county tax collectors shall be designed to promote economical operation, adequate control, availability of useful information, and safekeeping. The forms prescribed for listing intangible property shall be designed to secure a detailed list to provide convenient checking of valuations with available sources of information, and to safeguard the confidential character of the intangible property assessment.

(2) The department[~~cabinet~~] may confer with, advise and direct local officials respecting their duties relating to taxation, and shall supervise the officials in the performance of those duties. The department[~~cabinet~~] shall provide to the property valuation administrators up-to-date appraisal manuals outlining uniform procedures for appraising all types of real and personal property assessed by them. The property valuation administrators shall follow the uniform procedures for appraising property outlined in these manuals. The department[~~cabinet~~] shall maintain and make accessible to all property valuation administrators a statewide commercial real property comparative sales file. The department[~~cabinet~~], by authorized agents, may visit local governmental units and officers for investigational purposes, when necessary.

(3) The Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] shall conduct a biennial performance audit of each property valuation administrator's office. This audit shall include, but shall not be limited to, an inspection of maps and records, an appraisal study of real property, and an evaluation of the overall effectiveness of the office. Each property valuation administrator's office shall provide the department[~~cabinet~~] with access to its files, maps and records during the audit. The department[~~cabinet~~] shall prepare a report on assessment equity and quality for each county based on the performance audit, and shall provide a copy to the Legislative Research Commission.

(4) The department[~~cabinet~~] shall arrange for an annual conference of the property valuation administrators, or the county officers whose duty it is to assess property for taxation, to give them systematic instruction in the fair and just valuation and assessment of property, and their duty in connection therewith. The conference shall continue not more than five (5) days. The officers shall attend and take part in the conference, unless prevented by illness or other reason satisfactory to the commissioner[~~secretary~~]. Any officer willfully failing to attend the conference may be removed from office by the Circuit Court of the county where he was elected. If the officer participates in all sessions of the conference, one-half (1/2) of his actual and necessary expenses in attending the conference shall be paid by the state, and the other half shall be paid by the county from which he attends. Each officer shall prepare an itemized statement showing his actual and necessary expenses, and if it is found regular and supported by proper receipts it shall be approved by the department[~~cabinet~~] before payment.

Section 113. KRS 131.150 is amended to read as follows:

(1) When the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] reasonably believes that any taxpayer has withdrawn from the state or concealed his assets or a material part thereof so as to hinder or evade the assessment or collection of taxes, or has desisted from any taxable activity in the state, or has become domiciled elsewhere, or has departed from this state with fraudulent intent to hinder or evade the assessment or collection of taxes, or has done any other act tending to render partly or wholly ineffective proceedings to assess or collect any such taxes, or contemplates doing any of these acts in the immediate future, or that any tax claim for any other reason is being endangered, such tax liability shall become due and payable immediately upon assessment or determination of the amount of taxes due, as authorized in this section.

(2) Under any of the circumstances set out in subsection (1) of this section, the department[~~cabinet~~] may make a tentative assessment or determination of the taxes due, and may proceed immediately to bring garnishment, attachment or any other legal proceedings to collect the taxes so assessed or determined to be due. Notwithstanding the provisions of KRS 131.180(1), if the tax so assessed is due to the failure of the taxpayer to file a required tax return a minimum penalty of one hundred dollars ($100) shall be assessed unless the taxpayer demonstrates that the failure to file was due to reasonable cause as defined in KRS 131.010(9). This penalty shall be applicable whether or not any tax is determined to be due on a subsequently filed return or if the subsequently filed return results in a refund. No bond shall be required of the department[~~cabinet~~] in such proceedings. The taxpayer may stay legal proceedings by filing a bond in an amount sufficient in the opinion of the department[~~cabinet~~] to cover the taxes, penalties, interest, and costs. If no legal proceedings have been instituted, the department[~~cabinet~~] may require a bond adequate to cover all taxes, penalties, and interest. On making bond, exception to the assessment or determination of tax liability may be filed in the same manner and time as provided in KRS 131.110. If no exceptions are filed to the tentative assessment or determination, it shall become final.

(3) The department[~~cabinet~~] may require any such taxpayer to file with it forthwith the reports required by law or regulation, or any additional reports or other information necessary to assess the property or determine the amount of tax due.

(4) If the department[~~cabinet~~] fails to exercise the authority conferred by this section, such taxpayer shall report and pay all taxes due as otherwise provided by law.

Section 114. KRS 131.155 is amended to read as follows:

(1) As used in this section, the term "electronic fund transfer" means an electronic data processing medium that takes the place of a paper check for debiting or crediting an account and of which a permanent record is made.

(2) Notwithstanding any statutory provisions to the contrary, the department[~~cabinet~~] may require any person who is required to collect or remit taxes and fees administered by the department[~~cabinet~~] or any person who acts on the taxpayer's behalf to remit those taxes and fees to the department[~~cabinet~~] by electronic fund transfer. The transfer shall be made on or before the date the tax is due using the debit method or other means as prescribed by the department[~~cabinet~~] by the promulgation of an administrative regulation. The department[~~cabinet~~] may permit the filing of the tax return following the date of the tax payment. Payment by electronic fund transfer may be required if:

(a) The average payment per reporting period is ten thousand dollars ($10,000) or more for each tax or fee required to be collected or remitted;

(b) The payment for each tax or fee required to be collected or remitted is made on behalf of one hundred (100) or more taxpayers; or

(c) The aggregate of the funds to be remitted on behalf of others is ten thousand dollars ($10,000) or more for each tax or fee required to be collected or remitted.

(3) The department[~~cabinet~~] shall promulgate administrative regulations establishing electronic fund transfer requirements for the payment of taxes and fees administered by the department[~~cabinet~~].

(4) The department[~~cabinet~~] may waive the requirement that a qualifying taxpayer remit the payment by electronic fund transfer if the taxpayer is unable to remit funds electronically.

(5) Taxpayers and any other persons who are required to collect or remit taxes administered by the department[~~cabinet~~] by electronic fund transfer shall be entitled to receive refunds for any overpayment of taxes or fees, on or after July 1, 2001, by electronic fund transfer.

Section 115. KRS 131.160 is amended to read as follows:

If any taxpayer required to make bond for the payment of taxes fails to pay the taxes when due, the department[~~cabinet~~] shall notify him and his surety by mailing notice to their last known addresses. If, after expiration of a reasonable time from the date of the notice, the amount due remains unpaid, the commissioner[~~secretary~~] shall proceed by suit to collect the amount due, including the penalties, interest and costs. The defaulting taxpayer need not be made a party to any suit brought against his surety.

Section 116. KRS 131.170 is amended to read as follows:

The Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] may, when extension is not otherwise provided for, grant a reasonable extension of time for filing reports or returns whenever, in its judgment, good cause therefor exists. The department[~~cabinet~~] shall keep a record of such extensions. Except where a taxpayer is abroad, no extension shall be granted for more than six (6) months, and in no case for more than one (1) year. If any extension operates to postpone a tax payment, interest at the tax interest rate as defined in KRS 131.010(6) shall be collected. The department[~~cabinet~~] may condition the extension upon a bond sufficient to cover any tax and penalty determined to be due. The department[~~cabinet~~] may, on request, permit a person to file a tax return or report or pay tax on a date other than that prescribed by statute, or to change the fiscal period covered by such return or report, if the variation will not ultimately effect a reduction in revenue.

Section 117. KRS 131.175 is amended to read as follows:

Notwithstanding any other provisions of KRS Chapters 131 to 143A, for all taxes payable directly to the Department of Revenue[~~Cabinet~~], the sheriff or the county clerk, the commissioner[~~secretary~~] shall have authority to waive the penalty, but not interest, where it is shown to the satisfaction of the department[~~cabinet~~] that failure to file or pay timely is due to reasonable cause.

Section 118. KRS 131.180 is amended to read as follows:

The provisions of this section shall be known as the "Uniform Civil Penalty Act." Penalties to be assessed in accordance with this section shall apply as follows unless otherwise provided by law:

(1) Any taxpayer who files any return or report after the due date prescribed for filing or the due date as extended by the department[~~cabinet~~] shall, unless it is shown to the satisfaction of the department[~~cabinet~~] that the failure is due to reasonable cause, pay a penalty equal to two percent (2%) of the total tax due for each thirty (30) days or fraction thereof that the report or return is late. The total penalty levied pursuant to this subsection shall not exceed twenty percent (20%) of the total tax due; however, the penalty shall not be less than ten dollars ($10).

(2) Any taxpayer who fails to withhold or collect any tax as required by law, fails to pay the tax computed due on a return or report on or before the due date prescribed for it or the due date as extended by the department[~~cabinet~~] or, excluding underpayments determined pursuant to subsections (2) and (3) of KRS 141.990, fails to have timely paid at least seventy-five percent (75%) of the tax determined due by the department~~[cabinet]~~ shall, unless it is shown to the satisfaction of the department~~[cabinet]~~ that the failure is due to reasonable cause, pay a penalty equal to two percent (2%) of the tax not withheld, collected, or timely paid for each thirty (30) days or fraction thereof that the withholding, collection, or payment is late. The total penalty levied pursuant to this subsection shall not exceed twenty percent (20%) of the tax not timely withheld, collected, or paid; however, the penalty shall not be less than ten dollars ($10).

(3) Any taxpayer who fails to pay any installment of estimated tax by the time prescribed in KRS 141.044 and 141.305 or who, pursuant to subsections (2) or (3) of KRS 141.990, is determined to have a declaration underpayment shall, unless it is shown to the satisfaction of the department~~[cabinet]~~ that the failure or underpayment is due to reasonable cause, pay a penalty equal to ten percent (10%) of the amount of the underpayment or late payment; however, the penalty shall not be less than twenty-five dollars ($25).

(4) If any taxpayer fails or refuses to make and file a report or return or furnish any information requested in writing by the department~~[cabinet]~~, the department~~[cabinet]~~ may make an estimate of the tax due from any information in its possession, assess the tax at not more than twice the amount estimated to be due, and add a penalty equal to five percent (5%) of the tax assessed for each thirty (30) days or fraction thereof that the return or report is not filed. (3) No refund or credit shall be granted for any interest, fee, or penalty paid prior to the time the taxpayer requests amnesty pursuant to KRS 131.420.

The imposition of penalties or criminal action shall not invalidate any waiver granted under KRS 131.410. With the exception of the cost of collection fee imposed under subsection (1) of KRS 131.440, all assessments issued by the department~~[cabinet]~~ under KRS 131.410 to 131.445 may be protested by the taxpayer in the same manner as other assessments pursuant to the terms of this chapter.

Section 135. KRS 131.430 is amended to read as follows:

The department~~[cabinet]~~ shall promulgate administrative regulations as necessary, issue forms and instructions, and take all actions necessary to implement the provisions of KRS 131.410 to 131.445. The department~~[cabinet]~~ shall extensively publicize the tax amnesty program in order to maximize the public awareness of and participation in the program.

Section 136. KRS 131.440 is amended to read as follows:

(1) In addition to all other penalties provided under KRS 131.180, 131.410 to 131.445, and 131.990 and any other law, there is hereby imposed after the expiration of the tax amnesty period the following cost of collection fees:

(a) A cost of collection fee of twenty-five percent (25%) on all taxes which are or become due and owing to the department[~~cabinet~~] for any reporting period, regardless of when due. This fee shall be in addition to any other applicable fee provided in this subsection;

(b) Taxes which are assessed and collected after the amnesty period for taxable periods ending or transactions occurring prior to December 1, 2001, shall be charged a cost of collection fee of twenty-five percent (25%) at the time of assessment; and

(c) For any taxpayer who failed to file a return for any previous tax period for which amnesty is available and fails to file the return during the amnesty period, the cost of collection fee shall be fifty percent (50%) of any tax deficiency assessed after the amnesty period.

(2) The commissioner[~~secretary~~] of revenue shall have the right to waive any penalties or collection fees when it is demonstrated that any deficiency of the taxpayer was due to reasonable cause as defined in KRS 131.010(9). However, any taxes that cannot be paid under the amnesty program because of the exclusions in subsection (2) of KRS 131.410 shall not be subject to these fees.

(3) The provisions of subsection (1) of this section shall not relate to any account which has been protested pursuant to KRS 131.110 as of the expiration of the amnesty period and which does not become due and owing, or to any account on which the taxpayer is remitting timely payments under a payment agreement negotiated with the department[~~cabinet~~] prior to or during the amnesty period.

(4) The fee levied under subsection (1) of this section shall not apply to taxes paid pursuant to the terms of the amnesty program nor shall the judgment penalty of twenty percent (20%) levied under KRS 135.060(3) apply in any case in which the fee levied under this section is applicable.

Section 137. KRS 131.445 is amended to read as follows:

(1) After the expiration of the tax amnesty period, the department[~~cabinet~~] shall vigorously pursue all civil, administrative, and criminal penalties authorized by state and federal law for all taxes found to be due the Commonwealth.

(2) In addition to all other penalties provided under KRS 131.180, 131.410 to 131.445, and 131.990 and any other law, any taxpayer who willfully fails to make a return or willfully makes a false return, or who willfully fails to pay taxes owing or collected, with intent to evade payment of the tax or amount collected, or any part thereof, shall be guilty of a Class D felony.

Section 138. KRS 131.500 is amended to read as follows:

(1) In addition to any other remedy provided by the laws of the Commonwealth, if any person has been assessed for a tax the collection of which is administered by the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] as provided by the laws of the Commonwealth and if the person has not sought administrative or judicial review of the assessment as provided for in KRS 131.110, or if the person has sought but exhausted all administrative and judicial review so that the assessment is final, due, and owing, the commissioner[~~secretary~~] of revenue or his delegate may cause a demand to be made on the person for the payment thereof. If the tax remains unpaid for thirty (30) days after the demand, the commissioner[~~secretary~~] or his delegate may levy upon and sell all property and rights to property found within the Commonwealth belonging to the person or on which there is a lien provided by KRS 134.420, except the property that is exempt from an execution on a judgment in favor of the Commonwealth as provided in KRS Chapter 427, for the payment of the amount of the tax, penalty, interest, and cost of the levy.

(2) As soon as practicable after seizure of property, notice in writing shall be given by the commissioner[~~secretary~~] or his delegate to the owner of the property. The notice shall be given to the owner either in person or by certified mail to his last known address. The notice shall specify the sum demanded and shall contain, in the case of personal property, an account of the property seized and, in the case of real property, a description with reasonable certainty of the property seized.

(3) The commissioner[~~secretary~~] or his delegate shall as soon as practicable after the seizure of the property cause a notification of the sale of the seized property to be published in the newspaper with the largest circulation within the county wherein such seizure is made. The notice shall be published once each week for three (3) successive weeks. In addition, the notice shall be posted at the courthouse and three (3) other public places in the county where the seizure is made for fifteen (15) days next preceding sale. The notice shall specify the property to be sold, and the time, place, manner, and condition of the sale thereof.

(4) If any property liable to levy is not divisible, so as to enable the commissioner[~~secretary~~] or his delegate by sale of a part thereof to raise the whole amount of the tax, penalty, interest, and cost of the levy, the whole of the property shall be sold.

(5) The time of sale shall not be less than thirty (30) nor more than ninety (90) days from the time the seizure is made. The place of sale shall be within the county in which the property is seized, except by special order of the commissioner[~~secretary~~].

(6) The sale shall not be conducted in any manner other than by public auction, or by public sale under sealed bids. In the case of the seizure of several items of property, the commissioner[~~secretary~~] or his delegate may offer the items for sale separately, in groups, or in the aggregate and accept whichever method produces the highest aggregate amount.

(7) The commissioner[~~secretary~~] or his delegate shall determine whether payment in full shall be required at the time of acceptance of a bid, or whether a part of the payment may be deferred for such period, not to exceed one (1) month, as he may determine to be appropriate. If payment in full is required at the time of acceptance of a bid and is not then and there paid, the commissioner[~~secretary~~] or his delegate shall forthwith proceed to again sell the property as provided in subsection (6) of this section. If the conditions of the sale permit part of the payment to be deferred, and if such part is not paid, within the prescribed period, suit may be instituted in the Franklin Circuit Court or the Circuit Court of the county where the sale was conducted against the purchaser for the purchase price or such part thereof as has not been paid, together with interest at the rate of twelve percent (12%) per annum from the date of the sale; or, in the discretion of the commissioner[~~secretary~~], the sale may be declared to be null and void for failure to make full payment of the purchase price and the property may again be advertised and sold as provided in this section. If readvertisement and sale occur, any new purchaser shall receive the property or rights to property, free and clear of any claim or right of the former defaulting purchaser, of any nature whatsoever, and the amount paid upon the bid price by the defaulting purchaser shall be forfeited.

(8) If the commissioner[~~secretary~~] or his delegate determines that any property seized is liable to perish or become greatly reduced in price or value by keeping, or that the property cannot be kept without great expense, he shall appraise the value of the property and, if the owner of the property can be readily found, the commissioner[~~secretary~~] or his delegate shall give him notice of the determination of the appraised value of the property. The property shall be returned to the owner if, within the time specified in the notice, the owner pays to the commissioner[~~secretary~~] or his delegate an amount equal to the appraised value, or gives bond in the form, with the sureties, and in the amount as the commissioner[~~secretary~~] or his delegate determines to be appropriate in the circumstances. If the owner does not pay the amount or furnish the bond in accordance with this subsection, the commissioner[~~secretary~~] or his delegate shall as soon as practicable make public sale of the property without regard to the advertisement requirements or the time limitations contained in subsections (3) and (5) of this section.

(9) No proceedings under this section shall be commenced more than ten (10) years after the assessment becomes final.

(10) The term "levy" as used in this section shall include the power of distraint and seizure by any means. Except as otherwise provided in KRS 131.510(2)(a), a levy shall extend only to property possessed and obligations existing at the time thereof. In any case in which the commissioner[~~secretary~~] or his delegate may levy upon property or rights to property, he may seize and sell the property or rights whether real, personal, tangible or intangible.

(11) Notwithstanding the provisions of KRS Chapters 45, 45A, and 56, the department[~~cabinet~~] may take all necessary steps to provide for the protection, maintenance, or transportation of all property seized by the department[~~cabinet~~] pursuant to the provisions of this section, including, but not limited to, negotiating directly for the procurement of contractual services, including professionals, supplies, materials, equipment, or the leasing of real and personal property. Every effort shall be made to effect a competitively established price for purchases made pursuant to this section. The department[~~cabinet~~] shall report any procurements of contractual services, supplies, materials, equipment, or the leasing of real and personal property, to the secretary of the Finance and Administration Cabinet within sixty (60) days of the transaction. Nothing in this section shall preclude the department[~~cabinet~~] from complying with the provisions of KRS Chapters 45 and 56 relating to the requirements to report the purchase or lease of real property or equipment to the Capital Projects and Bond Oversight Committee.

(1) Levy may be made with respect to any unpaid tax only after the department[~~cabinet~~] has given notice and demand to such person in writing of the intention to make such levy. Such notice and demand shall be given in person, or shall be sent by certified mail to such person's last known address, no less than ten (10) days before the date of levy.

(2) (a) The effect of a levy on salary or wages payable to or received by a person shall be continuous from the date such levy is first made until the liability out of which such levy arose is satisfied or becomes unenforceable by reason of lapse of time.

(b) With respect to a levy described in paragraph (a) of this subsection, the department[~~cabinet~~] shall promptly release the levy when the liability out of which such levy arose is satisfied or becomes unenforceable by reason of lapse of time, and shall promptly notify the person upon whom such levy was made that such levy has been released.

Section 140. KRS 131.520 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Any person in possession of or obligated with respect to property or rights to property subject to levy upon which a levy has been made shall, upon demand of the commissioner[~~secretary~~] or his delegate, surrender such property or rights or discharge such obligation to the commissioner[~~secretary~~] or his delegate, except such part of the property or rights as is, at the time of such demand, subject to an attachment or execution under any judicial process.

(2) Any person who fails or refuses to surrender any property or rights to property subject to levy shall be liable in his own person and estate to the Commonwealth in a sum equal to the value of the property or rights not so surrendered, but not exceeding the amount of taxes for the collection of which such levy has been made, together with costs and interest on such sum at the rate of twelve percent (12%) per annum from the date of such levy. Any amount other than costs recovered under this paragraph shall be credited against the tax liability for the collection of which such levy was made.

(3) Any person in possession of or obligated with respect to property or rights to property subject to levy upon which a levy has been made who, upon demand by the commissioner[~~secretary~~] or his delegate, surrenders such property or rights to property or discharges such obligation to the commissioner[~~secretary~~] or his delegate shall be discharged from any obligation or liability to the delinquent taxpayer with respect to such property or rights to property arising from such surrender or payment.

(1) Any person whose property has been levied upon shall have the right to pay the amount due, together with the expense of the proceeding, to the commissioner[~~secretary~~] or his delegate at any time prior to the sale thereof and upon such payment the commissioner[~~secretary~~] or his delegate shall cause such property to be restored to him and all further proceedings in connection with the levy on such property shall cease from the time of such payment.

(2) The owner of any real property sold as provided in KRS 131.500(1), his heirs, executors, or administrators, or any person having an interest therein, or a lien thereon, or any person in his behalf, shall be permitted to redeem the real property sold or any particular tract of such property, at any time within one hundred twenty (120) days after the date of the sale. Such property or tract of property shall be permitted to be redeemed only upon payment to the purchaser, or in case he cannot be found in the county in which the property to be redeemed is situated, then to the commissioner[~~secretary~~] or his delegate, for the use of the purchaser, his heirs, or assigns, the amount paid by such purchaser and interest thereon at the rate of twenty percent (20%) per annum from the date of sale.

(3) In the case of property sold pursuant to KRS 131.500(1), the commissioner[~~secretary~~] or his delegate shall give to the purchaser a certificate of sale upon payment in full of the purchase price. The certificate shall set forth a description of the property purchased, for whose taxes the property was sold, and the price paid therefor.

(4) In all cases where property is sold pursuant to KRS 131.500(1), except real property, the certificate of sale issued pursuant to subsection (3) of this section shall have the following effect:

(a) Shall be prima facie evidence of the rights of the commissioner[~~secretary~~] or his delegate to make such sale, and of the regularity of the proceeding of the sale; and

(b) Shall transfer to the purchaser all right, title and interest of the taxpayer in and to the property sold; and

(c) If such property consists of stock, shall be notice, when received, to any corporation, company, or association of such transfer, and shall be authority to such corporation, company, or association to record the transfer on its books and records in the same manner as if the stocks were transferred or assigned by the party holding the same, in lieu of any prior certificate, which shall be void, whether canceled or not; and

(d) If the subject of sale is securities or other evidences of debt, shall be a good and valid receipt to the person holding the same, as against any person holding or claiming to hold possession of such securities or other evidences of debt; and

(e) If such property consists of a motor vehicle, shall be notice, when received by any public official charged with the registration of title to motor vehicles, of such transfer and shall be authority to such official to record the transfer on his books and records in the same manner as if title to such motor vehicle were transferred or assigned by the party holding the same, in lieu of any original or prior title, which shall be void, whether canceled or not.

(5) In the case of any real property sold pursuant to KRS 131.500(1) and not redeemed in the manner and within the time provided in subsection (2) of this section, the commissioner[~~secretary~~] or his delegate shall execute in accordance with the laws of the Commonwealth, to the purchaser of such real property upon surrender of the certificate of sale, a deed to the real property so purchased by him, reciting the facts set forth in the certificate. The deed executed pursuant to this subsection shall have the following effect:

(a) Shall be prima facie evidence of the rights of the commissioner[~~secretary~~] or his delegate to make such sale, and of the regularity of the proceedings of the sale; and

(b) If the proceedings of the commissioner[~~secretary~~] or his delegate have been substantially in accordance with the provisions of KRS 131.500, such deed shall be considered and operate as a conveyance of all right, title and interest the taxpayer has in and to the real property thus sold at the time the lien of the Commonwealth attached thereto.

(6) A certificate of sale of personal property given or a deed to real property executed pursuant to this section shall discharge such property from all liens, encumbrances, and titles over which the lien of the Commonwealth, with respect to which the levy was made, had priority.

Section 142. KRS 131.540 is amended to read as follows:

(1) It shall be lawful for the commissioner[~~secretary~~] or his delegate, under regulations prescribed by the commissioner[~~secretary~~], to release the levy upon all or part of the property or rights to property levied upon where the commissioner[~~secretary~~] or his delegate determines that such action will facilitate the collection of the liability, but such release shall not operate to prevent any subsequent levy.

(2) If the commissioner[~~secretary~~] determines that property has been wrongfully levied upon, it shall be lawful for the commissioner[~~secretary~~] to return the specific property levied upon, or an amount of money equal to the amount of money levied upon, or any amount of money equal to the amount of money received by the commissioner[~~secretary~~] from a sale of such property.

(3) Property may be returned at any time. An amount equal to the amount of money levied upon or received from such sale may be returned at any time before the expiration of four (4) years from the date of such levy.

Section 143. KRS 131.550 is amended to read as follows:

(1) When the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] reasonably believes that any taxpayer has divested himself by gift, conveyance, assignment, transfer of, or charge upon any property, whether real, personal, tangible or intangible, with the intent to hinder or evade the collection of any tax assessed or to be assessed by the department[~~cabinet~~] or declared by the taxpayer on a return filed with the department[~~cabinet~~], any transferee of such property may be assessed by the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] an amount equal to the lesser of the amount of tax assessed against the transferor taxpayer or the fair market value of the property so transferred. However, no assessment shall be made pursuant to this section against a transferee who takes the property for full and valuable consideration in money or money's worth, unless it appears that such transferee had notice of the intent of the transferor taxpayer to hinder or evade the collection of any tax.

(2) Any assessment made by the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] against a transferee pursuant to subsection (1) of this section is, except as provided in this section, subject to the same provisions and limitations as in the case of the taxes for which the liabilities were incurred.

(3) The period of limitation for assessment of any liability against a transferee pursuant to subsection (1) of this section shall be as follows:

(a) In the case of an initial transferee, within one (1) year after the expiration of the period of limitation for assessment against the transferor taxpayer; and

(b) In the case of the liability of a transferee of a transferee, within one (1) year after the expiration of the period of limitation for assessment against the preceding transferee, but not more than three (3) years after the expiration of the period of limitation for assessment against the initial transferor taxpayer.

(4) The notice of any assessment against a transferee made pursuant to subsection (1) of this section shall be either given to the transferee in person or sent by mail to such transferee's last known address.

Section 144. KRS 131.560 is amended to read as follows:

Notwithstanding the provisions of KRS 44.030 or 131.190, the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] shall withhold the Kentucky individual income tax refund otherwise due a taxpayer under KRS Chapter 141 who owes overdue child support or is indebted to any state agency, officer, board, commission, corporation, institution, cabinet, department or other state organization which has complied with the requirements of KRS 131.565. After satisfaction of any undisputed delinquent tax liability due the Department of Revenue [~~Cabinet~~]from such taxpayer, the tax refund balance so withheld shall, except as provided in KRS 131.565, be transmitted as soon as practicable to the state agency having established a claim therefor. In the case of multiple state agency claims against the same tax refund, the agency having the larger pending claim shall have priority after satisfaction of any undisputed delinquent tax liabilities due the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~].

Section 145. KRS 131.565 is amended to read as follows:

(1) For purposes of this section, "state agency" or "state agencies" shall include the Court of Justice as defined in KRS 45.241.

(2) No state agency shall request the withholding of any individual income tax refund unless there is specific provision in statute or administrative regulation for debtor appeal and hearing rights for that particular debt.

(3) State agencies having the statutory and regulatory provisions described in subsection (2) of this section shall establish claims against Kentucky individual income tax refunds by notifying the commissioner[~~secretary~~] of revenue in writing by a date established by the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] and, by dates agreed to by the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] and each state agency, shall furnish a list of all liquidated debts due the agency for which withholding is required for individual income tax refunds due to be paid to the debtor of the claimant agency. This list shall be submitted in such form and contain such information as may be required by the commissioner[~~secretary~~] of revenue to facilitate identification of the refunds to be withheld. As used in this section the term "liquidated debt" means a legal debt for a sum certain, which has been certified by the claimant agency as final due and owing. The claimant agency must have made reasonable efforts to collect such debt, and must have provided the debtor the opportunity for appeal and formal hearing as provided by statute. The claimant agency shall send thirty (30) days' prior written notification to the debtor of the intention to submit the claim to the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] for setoff as provided in KRS 131.570.

(4) The individual income tax refund withholding procedures provided in KRS 131.560 to 131.595 shall be in lieu of the procedures set forth in KRS 427.130 and 44.030 only with regard to sums due to a debtor from the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~].

(5) No state agency shall request the withholding of any individual income tax refund unless the debt for which withholding is requested is in a liquidated amount.

(6) Each state agency requesting the withholding of any individual income tax refund shall indemnify the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] against any and all damages, court costs, attorneys fees and any other expenses related to litigation which arises concerning the administration of KRS 131.560 to 131.595 as it pertains to a refund withholding action requested by such agency.

(7) Those state agencies requesting the withholding of individual income tax refunds shall, on a per unit cost or other equitable basis determined by the Department of Revenue[~~Cabinet~~], reimburse the Department of Revenue[~~Cabinet~~] for all development, implementation and administration costs incurred but not otherwise funded under the provisions of KRS 131.560 to 131.595.

(8) The Department of Revenue[~~Cabinet~~] may decline the withholding of individual income tax refunds from agencies if the request would adversely impact the operation of the Department of Revenue[~~Cabinet~~].

Section 146. KRS 131.570 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Upon determining that a pending individual income tax refund is subject to setoff as authorized under this section, the debtor shall be notified in writing by the Department of Revenue[~~Cabinet~~] of the claim made against such refund by the named claimant agency, and of the Department of Revenue's[~~Revenue Cabinet's~~] intention to set off the refund against the debt to the claimant agency. The notice shall provide that the debtor within thirty (30) days from the date of the notice may request a hearing before the claimant agency as provided by statute. No issues at such hearing may be considered that have been litigated previously and the debtor, after being given due notice of rights of appeal, must exercise such rights in a timely manner. The decision of the claimant agency shall be subject to appeal as all other decisions rendered by the claimant agency. No funds shall be transferred to a claimant agency until the debtor's appeal rights have been exhausted.

(2) Any excess of the pending refund amount over the total claim filed against such refund shall be promptly issued to the taxpayer by the Department of Revenue[~~Cabinet~~].

(3) In the event funds transmitted to a claimant agency are subsequently determined by the claimant agency to be in excess of the liquidated debt, such claimant agency shall promptly refund the excess to the taxpayer.

(4) In the event the Department of Revenue[~~Cabinet~~] erroneously transfers funds to a claimant agency, the claimant agency shall immediately upon notification thereof reimburse the Department of Revenue[~~Cabinet~~] for the amount erroneously transmitted to such agency. The Department of Revenue[~~Cabinet~~] shall promptly refund to the taxpayer the appropriate amount of such returned funds with interest as provided in KRS 131.183(2).

Section 147. KRS 131.575 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Any individual income tax refund determined as a consequence of taxpayers filing separate returns on a combined Kentucky individual income tax form may be apportioned by the Department of Revenue[~~Cabinet~~] between the spouses based on the ratio of the adjusted gross incomes of each spouse to the total adjusted gross income. The amount of the refund computed to be due the spouse who is not indebted to the claimant agency shall be refunded by the Department of Revenue[~~Cabinet~~] to such spouse. In the event such refunded amount has been transmitted to the claimant agency, the Department of Revenue[~~Cabinet~~] shall recover such amount from the claimant agency as provided in KRS 131.570(4).

(2) Any individual income tax refund determined as a consequence of taxpayers filing a joint Kentucky individual income tax return shall be deemed as coupled together in interest or liability and shall be subject to transfer to a claimant agency in its entirety.

Section 148. KRS 131.580 is amended to read as follows:

The Department of Revenue[~~Cabinet~~] may promulgate rules and regulations necessary to develop, implement and administer the provisions of KRS 131.560 to 131.595.

Section 149. KRS 131.585 is amended to read as follows:

There is hereby created within the Department of Revenue[~~Cabinet~~] a state debt offset account, which will be subject to the provisions of the restricted fund group, as provided in KRS 48.010(13)(f), and all funds collected under KRS 131.565(6) shall be credited thereto with only the expenses of the Department of Revenue[~~Cabinet~~] related to development, implementation and administration of KRS 131.560 to 131.595 to be paid therefrom. This account shall not lapse.

(3) Neither a tobacco product manufacturer nor a brand family shall be included or retained in the directory if the Attorney General determines, in the case of a nonparticipating manufacturer, that:

(b) Degree of productivity of the soil;

(c) Risk of flooding;

(d) Improvements to and on the land that relate to the production of income;

(2) (a) An annual ad valorem tax for state purposes of one and one-half cents ($0.015) upon each one hundred dollars ($100) of value shall be paid upon the following classes of intangible personal properties, when the intangible personal properties have not acquired a taxable situs without this state:

1. Accounts receivable, notes, bonds, credits, and any other intangible property rights arising out of or created in the course of regular and continuing business transactions substantially performed outside this state;

(3) "Affiliated company" shall mean a parent corporation or subsidiary corporation, and any corporation principally engaged in business outside the United States in which the owner or the person assessed directly or indirectly owns or controls not less than ten percent (10%) of the outstanding voting stock.

(4) With respect to the intangible properties taxed pursuant to subsection (2) of this section, no other ad valorem tax shall be levied by the state or any county, city, school, or other taxing district on the intangible properties, or directly or indirectly against the owner.

(5) Thirty cents ($0.30) of the thirty-one and one-half cents ($0.315) state tax rate on real property and thirty cents ($0.30) of the forty-five cents ($0.45) state tax on tangible personalty subject to local taxation shall be considered as local school district tax levies for purposes of computing any direct payments of state or federal funds to said districts as replacement for ad valorem taxes lost on property acquired by a governmental agency. Should the equivalency ever be less than thirty cents ($0.30), as certified by the Department of Education, the direct payments shall be reduced proportionately.

(6) The provisions of subsection (1) of this section notwithstanding, the state tax rate on real property shall be reduced to compensate for any increase in the aggregate assessed value of real property to the extent that the increase exceeds the preceding year's assessment by more than four percent (4%), excluding the assessment from property which is subject to tax increment financing pursuant to KRS Chapter 65 and the assessment from leasehold property which is owned and financed by a tax-exempt governmental unit, or tax-exempt statutory authority under the provisions of KRS Chapter 103 and entitled to the reduced rate of one and one-half cents ($0.015) pursuant to subsection (1) of this section. In any year in which the aggregate assessed value of real property is less than the preceding year, the state rate shall be increased to the extent necessary to produce the approximate amount of revenue that was produced in the preceding year from real property.

(7) By July 1 each year, the department[~~cabinet~~] shall compute the state tax rate applicable to real property for the current year in accordance with the provisions of subsection (5) of this section and certify the rate to the county clerks for their use in preparing the tax bills. If the assessments for all counties have not been certified by July 1, the department[~~cabinet~~] shall, when either real property assessments of at least seventy-five percent (75%) of the total number of counties of the Commonwealth have been determined to be acceptable by the department[~~cabinet~~], or when the number of counties having at least seventy-five percent (75%) of the total real property assessment for the previous year have been determined to be acceptable by the department[~~cabinet~~], make an estimate of the real property assessments of the uncertified counties and compute the state tax rate.

(8) If the tax rate set by the department[~~cabinet~~] as provided in subsection (6) of this section produces more than a four percent (4%) increase in real property tax revenues, excluding the revenue from property which is subject to tax increment financing pursuant to KRS Chapter 65 and the revenue from leasehold property which is owned and financed by a tax-exempt governmental unit, or tax-exempt statutory authority under the provisions of KRS Chapter 103 and entitled to the reduced rate of one and one-half cents ($0.015) pursuant to subsection (1) of this section, the rate shall be adjusted in the succeeding year so that the cumulative total of each year's property tax revenue increase shall not exceed four percent (4%) per year.

(9) The provisions of subsection (6) of this section notwithstanding, the assessed value of unmined coal certified by the department[~~cabinet~~] after July 1, 1994, shall not be included with the assessed value of other real property in determining the state real property tax rate. All omitted unmined coal assessments made after July 1, 1994, shall also be excluded from the provisions of subsection (6) of this section. The calculated rate shall, however, be applied to unmined coal property, and the state revenue shall be devoted to the program described in KRS 146.550 to 146.570, except that four hundred thousand dollars ($400,000) of the state revenue shall be paid annually to the State Treasury and credited to the Kentucky Coal Council for the purpose of public education of coal-related issues.

(10) Effective on or after January 1, 1990, an ad valorem tax for state purposes of five cents ($0.05) upon each one hundred dollars ($100) of value shall be paid upon goods held for sale in the regular course of business, which, on or after January 1, 1999, includes machinery and equipment held in a retailer's inventory for sale or lease originating under a floor plan financing arrangement; and raw materials, which includes distilled spirits and distilled spirits inventory, and in-process materials, which includes distilled spirits and distilled spirits inventory, held for incorporation in finished goods held for sale in the regular course of business.

(11) An ad valorem tax for state purposes of ten cents ($0.10) per one hundred dollars ($100) of assessed value shall be paid on the operating property of railroads or railway companies that operate solely within the Commonwealth.

(13) An ad valorem tax for state purposes of one and one-half cents ($0.015) per one hundred dollars ($100) of assessed value shall be paid on federally documented vessels not used in the business of transporting persons or property for compensation or hire, or for other commercial purposes.

The deposit tax shall be paid to the department[~~cabinet~~] by the financial institution with which the deposit is made, as the agent of the depositor, on or before March 1 following the date of the report provided for in KRS 132.040.

(1) Every person having on September 1 of any year a savings account, in Kentucky in any credit union organized under the laws of this state or doing business in this state shall pay an annual tax to the state equal to one-tenth of one cent ($0.001) upon each one hundred dollars ($100) of the savings account, and no deduction therefrom shall be made for any indebtedness. The tax shall be paid to the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] by the credit union with which the savings account is made, as agent of the member on or before November 1 of each year. The credit union may charge to and deduct from the savings account of each member the amount of tax so paid on his behalf. A lien is hereby given to the credit union on the funds belonging to the respective member on which the tax has been so paid. The broker may then report to the department~~[cabinet]~~ the name and post office address of such customer and the information as to securities held or carried for him, and file therewith the customer's affidavit. The broker shall then be relieved from making any further report and from collecting or paying any taxes for the customer.

The broker may charge to and collect from each customer his portion of the tax levied upon the securities held or carried for him. If the broker fails to pay the taxes when due, he shall be liable for interest thereon at the tax interest rate as defined in KRS 131.010(6), and an additional penalty of ten percent (10%) upon the amount of the taxes with interest.

Section 175. KRS 132.130 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Effective January 1, 1967, every owner, proprietor, or custodian of a bonded warehouse or of premises under the control and supervision of the United States Internal Revenue Service, in which distilled spirits are stored shall between January 1 and February 1 of each year file with the Department of Revenue~~[Cabinet]~~ a report sworn to by him showing the quantity and kind of distilled spirits in the bonded warehouse or premises as of January 1 of that year; the quantity and kind of spirits on which the federal tax has been paid or is due; what distilled spirits have been removed from the bonded warehouse or premises for transfer in bond out of this state during the preceding twelve (12) months; the county, city, and taxing district in which such distilled spirits were certified for taxation; the fair cash value of the distilled spirits estimated at a price it would bring at a fair voluntary sale; and such other facts pertaining to the distilled spirits as the department~~[cabinet]~~ may require.

At the same time, all taxes and interest on such distilled spirits due the state, county, or other taxing district shall be paid to the officers entitled to receive them. The report required by this section shall be made whether or not any distilled spirits are stored in the bonded warehouse or premises at the time the report is due.

Section 176. KRS 132.140 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The Department of Revenue~~[Cabinet]~~ shall fix the value of the distilled spirits for the purpose of taxation, assess the same at its fair cash value, estimated at the price it would bring at a fair voluntary sale, and keep a record of its valuations and assessments. The department~~[cabinet]~~ shall immediately notify the owner or proprietor of the bonded warehouse or premises of the amount fixed.

(2) If any owner, proprietor, or custodian of a bonded warehouse or premises fails to make the report required by KRS 132.130, the department~~[cabinet]~~ shall ascertain the necessary facts required to be reported. For that purpose the department[~~cabinet~~] shall have access to the records of the owner, proprietor, or custodian; and the assessment shall be made and taxes collected thereon, with interest and penalties, as though regularly reported.

(3) The assessment made under (1) of this section shall be reviewed according to KRS 131.110.

The report shall be filed by the county clerk in his office, and certified by him to the proper collecting officer of the county, city, or taxing district for collection. The spirits, in addition to the tax for state purposes, shall be taxed for county, school, and city purposes at the prevailing rates of taxation on tangible personal property in the respective counties, school districts, and cities in which the spirits are stored, but the combined rate of taxation for city and school purposes in cities of the first class shall not exceed one dollar and twenty-five cents ($1.25) on each one hundred dollars ($100) of assessed value of the spirits.

(1) Any person having custody of distilled spirits in a bonded warehouse or premises on the day as of which the assessment is made shall be liable for all taxes due thereon, together with all interest and penalties that may accrue. Any owner, proprietor, or custodian of such distilled spirits who pays the taxes, interest and penalties on the distilled spirits shall have a lien thereon for the amount paid, with legal interest from day of payment.

(2) Taxes on distilled spirits which are subject to the provisions of KRS 132.160(1)(a) shall become due and payable in the manner provided by KRS 134.020 except that taxes due the state shall be paid directly to the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~].

Section 180. KRS 132.220 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Deposits belonging to a resident of Kentucky in any financial institution, as defined in KRS 136.500, and unmanufactured tobacco insofar as it is subject to taxation by KRS 132.190 and 132.200, shall be listed, assessed, and valued as of January 1 of each year. Money in hand shall be listed, assessed, and valued as of January 1 of each year. Notes, bonds, accounts, and other credits, whether secured by mortgage, pledge, or otherwise, or unsecured, and all interest in the property, unless otherwise provided by law, shall be listed, assessed, and valued as of the beginning of business on January 1 of each year. All other taxable property and all interest in other taxable property, unless otherwise specifically provided by law, shall be listed, assessed, and valued as of January 1 of each year. It shall be the duty of all persons owning or having any interest in any real property taxable in this state to list or have listed the property with the property valuation administrator of the county where it is located between January 1 and March 1 in each year, except as otherwise provided by law. It shall be the duty of all persons owning or having any interest in any intangible personal property or tangible personal property taxable in this state to list or have listed the property with the property valuation administrator of the county of taxable situs or with the department[~~cabinet~~] between January 1 and May 15 in each year, except as otherwise prescribed by law. The filing date for an individual's intangible property tax return may be extended to the extended federal income filing date approved by the Internal Revenue Service for that individual. If an individual extends the filing date for the intangible return, no discount shall be allowed upon the payment of the intangible tax. All persons in whose name property is properly assessed shall remain bound for the tax, notwithstanding they may have sold or parted with it.

(2) Any taxpayer may list his property in person before the property valuation administrator or his deputy, or may file a property tax return by first class mail. Any real property correctly and completely described in the assessment record for the previous year, or purchased during the preceding year and for which a value was stated in the deed according to the provisions of KRS 382.135, may be considered by the owner to be listed for the current year if no changes that could potentially affect the assessed value have been made to the property. However, if requested in writing by the property valuation administrator or by the department[~~cabinet~~], any real property owner shall submit a property tax return to verify existing information or to provide additional information for assessment purposes. Any real property which has been underassessed as a result of the owner intentionally failing to provide information, or intentionally providing erroneous information, shall be subject to revaluation, and the difference in value shall be assessed as omitted property under the provisions of KRS 132.290.

(3) If the owner fails to list the property, the property valuation administrator shall nevertheless assess it. The property valuation administrator may swear witnesses in order to ascertain the person in whose name to make the list. The property valuation administrator, his employee, or employees of the department[~~cabinet~~] may physically inspect and revalue land and buildings in the absence of the property owner or resident. The exterior dimensions of buildings may be measured and building photographs may be taken; however, with the exception of buildings under construction or not yet occupied, an interior inspection of residential and farm buildings, and of the nonpublic portions of commercial buildings shall not be conducted in the absence or without the permission of the owner or resident.

(4) Real property shall be assessed in the name of the owner, if ascertainable by the property valuation administrator, otherwise in the name of the occupant, if ascertainable, and otherwise to "unknown owner." The undivided real estate of any deceased person may be assessed to the heirs or devisees of the person without designating them by name.

(5) Real property tax roll entries for which tax bills have not been collected at the expiration of the one (1) year tolling period provided for in KRS 134.470, and for which the property valuation administrator cannot physically locate and identify the real property, shall be deleted from the tax roll and the assessment shall be exonerated. The property valuation administrator shall keep a record of these exonerations, which shall be open under the provisions of KRS 61.870 to 61.884. If, at any time, one of these entries is determined to represent a valid parcel of property it shall be assessed as omitted property under the provisions of KRS 132.290. Notwithstanding other provisions of the Kentucky Revised Statutes to the contrary, any loss of ad valorem tax revenue suffered by a taxing district due to the exoneration of these uncollectable tax bills may be recovered through an adjustment in the tax rate for the following year.

(6) All real property exempt from taxation by Section 170 of the Constitution shall be listed with the property valuation administrator in the same manner and at the same time as taxable real property. The property valuation administrator shall maintain an inventory record of the tax-exempt property, but the property shall not be placed on the tax rolls. A copy of this tax-exempt inventory shall be filed annually with the department[~~cabinet~~] within thirty (30) days of the close of the listing period. This inventory shall be in the form prescribed by the department[~~cabinet~~]. The department[~~cabinet~~] shall make an annual report itemizing all exempt properties to the Governor and the Legislative Research Commission within sixty (60) days of the close of the listing period.

(7) Each property valuation administrator, under the direction of the department[~~cabinet~~], shall review annually all real property listed with him under subsection (6) of this section and claimed to be exempt from taxation by Section 170 of the Constitution. The property valuation administrator shall place on the tax rolls all property that is not exempt. Any property valuation administrator who fails to comply with this subsection shall be subject to the penalties prescribed in KRS 132.990(2).

Individuals or corporations listing property for taxation with the property valuation administrator or the county board of supervisors shall reveal the face value of all intangibles listed, except cash or bank deposits, on the form prescribed by the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] for listing intangible property. A reduction of fifty cents ($0.50) shall be made from the property valuation administrator's compensation for each list he accepts upon which there is an omission to reveal the face value of any intangible property listed, except cash or bank deposits.

Section 182. KRS 132.260 is amended to read as follows:

Every person providing rental space for the parking of mobile homes and recreational vehicles shall by February 1 of each year report the name of the owner and type and size of all mobile homes and recreational vehicles not registered in this state under KRS 186.655 on his premises on the prior January 1 to the property valuation administrator of the county in which the property is located. The report shall be made in accordance with forms prescribed by the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] and shall be signed and verified by the chief officer or person in charge of the business. The property valuation administrator may make a personal inspection and investigation of the premises on which mobile homes and recreational vehicles are located, for the purpose of identifying and assessing such property. No person in charge of such premises shall refuse to permit the inspection and investigation.

Section 183. KRS 132.285 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Except as provided in subsection (3) of this section, any city may by ordinance elect to use the annual county assessment for property situated within such city as a basis of ad valorem tax levies ordered or approved by the legislative body of the city. Any city making such election shall notify the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] and property valuation administrator prior to the next succeeding assessment to be used for city levies. In such event the assessment finally determined for county tax purposes shall serve as a basis of all city levies for the fiscal year commencing on or after the county assessment date. Each city which elects to use the county assessment shall annually appropriate and pay each fiscal year to the office of the property valuation administrator for deputy and other authorized personnel allowance, supplies, maps and equipment, and other authorized expenses of the office one-half of one cent ($0.005) for each one hundred dollars ($100) of assessment; provided, that sums paid shall not be less than two hundred fifty dollars ($250), nor more than forty thousand dollars ($40,000) in a city having an assessment subject to city tax of less than two billion dollars ($2,000,000,000) or fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) in a city having an assessment subject to city tax of more than two billion dollars ($2,000,000,000). This allowance shall be based on the assessment as of the previous January 1. Each property valuation administrator shall file a claim with the city and the city shall order payment in an amount not to exceed the appropriation authorized by this section. The property valuation administrator shall be required to account for all moneys paid to his office by the city and any funds unexpended by the close of each fiscal year shall carry over to the next fiscal year. Notwithstanding any statutory provisions to the contrary, the assessment dates for such city shall conform to the corresponding dates for the county, and such city may by ordinance establish additional financial and tax procedures that will enable it effectively to adopt the county assessment. The legislative body of any city adopting the county assessment may fix the time for levying the city tax rate, fiscal year, due and delinquency dates for taxes and any other dates that will enable it effectively to adopt the county assessment, notwithstanding any statutory provisions to the contrary. Any such city may, by ordinance, abolish any office connected with city assessment and equalization; except that in the case of a city assessor who is elected by the qualified voters of the city, the office may not be abolished before the end of the term of such assessor. Any city which elects to use the county assessment shall have access to the assessment records as soon as completed and may obtain a copy of that portion of the records which represents the assessment of property within such city by additional payment of the cost thereof. Once any city elects to use the county assessment, such action cannot be revoked without notice to the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] and the property valuation administrator six (6) months prior to the next date as of which property is assessed for state and county taxes.

(2) In the event any omitted property is assessed by the property valuation administrator as provided by KRS 132.310 such assessment shall be considered as part of the assessment adopted by the city according to subsection (1) of this section.

(3) For purposes of the levy and collection of ad valorem taxes on motor vehicles, cities shall use the assessment required to be made pursuant to KRS 132.487(5).

(4) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1) of this section, each city which elects to use the county assessment for ad valorem taxes levied for 1996 or subsequent years, and which used the county assessment for ad valorem taxes levied for 1995, shall appropriate and pay to the office of the property valuation administrator for the purposes set out in subsection (1) of this section an amount equal to the amount paid to the office of the property valuation administrator in 1995, or the amount required by the provisions of subsection (1) of this section, whichever is greater.

Section 184. KRS 132.310 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Any person who has failed to list for taxation any property omitted from assessment, except such as is subject to assessment by the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~], may at any time list such property with the property valuation administrator. The property valuation administrator shall proceed to assess any omitted real property and shall within ten (10) days from the date the real property was listed notify the taxpayer of the amount of the assessment. The notice shall be given as provided in KRS 132.450(4). The Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] shall assess any omitted personal property and provide notice to the taxpayer in the manner provided in KRS 131.110.

(2) The property valuation administrator may at any time list and assess any real property which may have been omitted from the regular assessment. Immediately upon listing and assessing omitted real property, the property valuation administrator shall notify the taxpayer of the amount of the assessment. The notice shall be given as provided in KRS 132.450(4). If the property valuation administrator fails to assess any omitted real property, the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] may initiate assessment and collection procedures under the same provisions it uses for omitted personal property.

(3) The notice to the taxpayer required by subsections (1) and (2) of this section shall specify a date and time at which the county board of assessment appeals will hear the taxpayer's protest of the omitted assessment. For purposes of hearing appeals from omitted assessments the county judge/executive shall notify the chairman of the board of assessment appeals of the date set for hearing and may authorize one (1) member of the board to hear the appeal and issue a ruling of his decision on the assessment, which shall be appealable, to the Kentucky Board of Tax Appeals as provided by KRS 131.340(2).

(4) Any property voluntarily listed as omitted property for taxation under this section shall be subject to penalties provided in KRS 132.290(3). Omitted property listed for taxation under this section by the property valuation administrator shall be subject to the penalties provided in KRS 132.290(4).

Section 185. KRS 132.320 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Any person who has failed to list for taxation his intangible personal property or tangible personal property, in whole or in part, because he was not called upon by the property valuation administrator or for any other reason, may at any time list the property with the department[~~cabinet~~] by reporting to the department[~~cabinet~~] the full details and a correct description of the omitted property and its value. The department[~~cabinet~~] may determine and fix the fair cash value, estimated at the price it would bring at a fair voluntary sale, of the property so reported and listed for taxation.

(2) Any person dissatisfied with or aggrieved by the finding or ruling of the department[~~cabinet~~] may appeal the finding or ruling in the manner provided in KRS 131.110.

(3) The department[~~cabinet~~] may promulgate administrative regulations, and develop forms for the listing and assessment of the property assessed or to be assessed for taxation. The tax assessed shall be paid to and collected by the department[~~cabinet~~]. Taxes collected by the department[~~cabinet~~] on behalf of the county, school, and other local taxing districts shall be distributed to each district at least quarterly. From each distribution, the department[~~cabinet~~] shall deduct a fee which represents an allocation of department[~~cabinet~~] operating and overhead expenses incurred in assessing and collecting the omitted tax. The fee shall be determined by the department[~~cabinet~~] and shall apply to all omitted taxes collected after December 31, 1997.

(4) All property assessed pursuant to this section shall be liable for the payment of the taxes, interest, and penalties provided by law for failure to list the property with the property valuation administrator or other assessment board, commission, or authority within the time and in the manner prescribed by law, except that if the taxpayer voluntarily lists property under this section the twenty percent (20%) penalty provided to be paid to the department[~~cabinet~~] shall not apply, unless the taxpayer on an appeal from the action of the department[~~cabinet~~] attempts to reduce the assessment and is unsuccessful.

(5) If after demand by the department[~~cabinet~~], any taxpayer refuses to voluntarily list any intangible or tangible personal property omitted from assessment, the department[~~cabinet~~] shall make an estimate of the fair cash value of the omitted intangible or tangible personal property from the information in its possession and assess the property for taxation and require payment of the taxes, penalties, and interest due to the state and local taxing districts from the person assessed. Notice of the assessment shall be mailed to the taxpayer or the taxpayer's agent. The finality and review of any assessment made pursuant to this section shall be governed by the provisions of KRS 131.110.

The field agents, accountants and attorneys of the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] shall cause to be listed for taxation all property omitted by the property valuation administrators, county board of assessment appeals, department[~~cabinet~~] or any other assessing authority, for any year omitted. The agent, accountant or attorney proposing to have the property assessed shall file in the office of the county clerk of the county in which the property may be liable to assessment a statement containing a description and value of the property or corporate franchise proposed to be assessed, the name and place of residence of the owner, his agent or attorney, or person in possession of the property, if known, and the year the property was unassessed. The county clerk shall thereupon issue a summons against the owner, or person in possession of the property if the owner is unknown, to show cause within ten (10) days after the service of the summons, why the property or corporate franchise shall not be assessed at the value named in the statement filed. No decision shall be rendered against the alleged owner unless the statement filed contains a description of the property sought to be assessed that will enable the county judge/executive to identify it. The summons shall be executed by the sheriff by delivering a copy thereof to the owner, or if he is not in the county to his agent, attorney or person in possession of the property. If the property is real property, and the owner is known but is absent from the state and has no attorney or agent in this state and no one is in possession of the property, the summons shall be served by posting it in a conspicuous place upon the property; if the property consists of tangible personal property the summons shall be placed in a conspicuous place where the property is located. In the case of tangible and intangible personal property, where the owner and his place of residence are unknown and no one (1) has possession of the property, an action for assessment shall be instituted by filing the petition above mentioned and procuring constructive service against the owner under the provisions of rules 4.05, 4.06, 4.07 and 4.08 of the Rules of Civil Procedure. In all of the above cases an attachment of the property omitted from assessment may be procured from the District Court against the owner, at the time of the institution of the action or thereafter, and without the execution of a bond by the Commonwealth or its relator, by the representative of the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] making an affidavit that the property described in the petition is subject to state, county, school or other taxing district tax, and is unassessed for any taxable year.

(1) Within ten (10) days after the summons has been served, or within thirty (30) days after the warning order against the defendant whose name and place of residence are unknown has been made, if it appears to the county judge/executive that the property is liable for taxation and has not been assessed, the county judge/executive shall enter an order fixing the value at the fair cash value estimated as required by law. The county judge/executive shall certify the assessment of the property and its value, together with such other facts as may be required by law or directed by the county judge/executive to appear in the order, to the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] and to the sheriff of the county, together with the amount of penalty and cost of assessment, in order that the taxes due the state, county, school or any other taxing district may be collected, with the penalty and costs. If the property is not liable for taxes, the county judge/executive shall make an order to that effect. Either party may appeal from the decision of the county judge/executive to the Circuit Court, and then to the Court of Appeals as in other civil cases, except that no appeal bond shall be required where the appeal is by the commissioner[~~secretary~~] of revenue acting as the relator.

(2) If the owner of the property fails to pay the tax assessed, interest, penalties and costs, the lien under the attachment may be enforced and a sufficiency of the property sold to pay the obligation to the state, county, school or other taxing district. All persons owning property that is assessed as herein provided shall, in addition to the taxes and interest from the time the taxes should have been paid, pay the costs of the proceedings and a penalty of twenty percent (20%) on the amount of the taxes due, except where the property was duly listed and the taxes paid thereon within the time prescribed by law, and except where some different penalty is expressly provided by law.

(3) The taxes, costs and penalties shall be collected and accounted for as other taxes and penalties are required to be collected, and by the same officers. The county clerk shall enter all such assessments in a book to be kept for that purpose, showing the date of the assessment, the name of the person against whom the assessment is made, the location and description of the property assessed, and the value thereof. The officer collecting the taxes shall, when they are paid, notify the clerk of the payment, and the payment shall be noted by the clerk opposite the entry of the assessment.

The county clerk shall, upon the filing of a statement by an agent, accountant or attorney of the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] for the assessment of omitted property, enter the name of the person signing the statement as attorney for the department[~~cabinet~~], and enter the name of the county attorney as attorney for the state, county, school and other taxing districts for which the commissioner[~~secretary~~] of revenue is authorized to act as relator in such proceeding. The county attorney shall appear and prosecute or assist in the prosecuting of the proceeding in all the courts to which it may be taken for trial. If there is a judgment assessing the property for taxation, the judgment in each case shall recite whether or not the county attorney was present and assisted in the trial of the proceeding. When he is present and assists in the proceeding he shall be allowed as compensation for his services ten percent (10%) of the amount of state and county taxes assessed and collected pursuant to the judgment. The state and county shall be liable respectively for the payment only of the percentage allowance of compensation to the county attorney on the amount that each collects, and this shall be paid to the county attorney within thirty (30) days after the collection of the taxes, and charged against the fund to which the tax was credited.

(1) Any assessment of accounts receivable, notes, or bonds or other intangible or tangible personal property that were listed with the property valuation administrator or with the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] as provided by KRS 132.220 may be reopened by the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] within five (5) years after the due date of the return, unless the assessed value thereof is the face value in the case of accounts receivable and notes or the quoted value in the case of bonds, or has been established by a court of competent jurisdiction. If upon reopening the assessment the department[~~cabinet~~] finds that the assessment was less than the fair cash value and should be increased, it shall give notice thereof to the taxpayer, who may within forty-five (45) days thereafter protest to the department[~~cabinet~~] and offer evidence to show that no increase should be made. After the department[~~cabinet~~] has disposed of the protest, the taxpayer may appeal from any such additional assessment as provided by KRS 131.110 and 131.340.

(2) Upon such assessment becoming final the department[~~cabinet~~] shall certify the amount due to the taxpayer. The tax bill shall be handled and collected as an omitted tax bill, and the additional tax shall be subject to the same penalties and interest as the tax on omitted property voluntarily listed.

Section 190. KRS 132.370 is amended to read as follows:

(1) There shall be a property valuation administrator in each county in lieu of a county assessor. Property valuation administrators shall be state officials and all deputies and assistants of their offices shall be unclassified state employees.

(2) Property valuation administrators shall be elected in the year in which county elections are held and shall enter upon the discharge of the duties of their office on the first Monday in December after their election and continue in office for a period of four (4) years, and until the election and qualification of their successors. Property valuation administrators shall possess the qualifications required by Section 100 of the Constitution and by KRS 132.380 and shall be eligible for reelection.

(3) The property valuation administrators and all deputies and assistants of their offices who qualify as full-time employees shall be eligible for participation in the provisions of KRS 18A.205, 18A.230 to 18A.355, and 61.510 to 61.705.

(4) A property valuation administrator may be removed from office by the Circuit Court of his county, upon petition of any taxpayer, or by the commissioner[~~secretary~~] of revenue for any of the following grounds: willful disobedience of any just or legal order of the department[~~cabinet~~], or for misfeasance or malfeasance in office or willful neglect in the discharge of his official duties, including but not limited to intentional underassessment or overassessment of properties and chronic underassessment of properties. For purposes of this section and KRS 134.385, "chronic underassessment" shall mean a widespread pattern and practice of assessing properties at levels substantially below fair market value which persists for a period of two (2) or more years as disclosed by randomly selected sample appraisals conducted under the provisions of KRS 133.250, special audits conducted pursuant to KRS 134.385, or other means.

(5) If the commissioner[~~secretary~~] determines that a property valuation administrator should be removed from office, the property valuation administrator shall be notified in writing, and the notice of intent to remove shall state the specific reasons for removal. The notice shall also advise the property valuation administrator of his right to a preremoval conference and an administrative hearing.

(6) A property valuation administrator may request a preremoval conference to appear with or without counsel before the commissioner[~~secretary~~] or his designee to answer the charges against him. The preremoval conference shall be requested in writing within six (6) working days of the date on which the notice of intent to remove is received, and a preremoval conference shall be scheduled within seven (7) working days of the date on which the request is received. The commissioner[~~secretary~~] or his designee shall render a decision within five (5) working days of the conclusion of the preremoval conference. Failure of a property valuation administrator to request a preremoval hearing shall not waive his right to contest his removal through an administrative hearing.

(7) If an action to remove a property valuation administrator is initiated by the commissioner[~~secretary~~] of revenue, the property valuation administrator shall have the right to appeal and upon appeal an administrative hearing shall be conducted in accordance with KRS Chapter 13B. Appeal of the final order of the commissioner[~~secretary~~] of revenue may be filed in a Circuit Court of an adjacent judicial circuit in accordance with KRS Chapter 13B, notwithstanding the provisions of KRS Chapter 18A.

(8) If a property valuation administrator is removed from office as provided in subsections (4) to (7) of this section, he shall be ineligible to serve in the office at any future date and shall forfeit any and all certification from the Department of Revenue~~[Cabinet]~~ pertaining to the office.

(9) Notwithstanding the provisions of KRS 18A.110(5)(c), the department~~[cabinet]~~ shall promulgate administrative regulations allowing property valuation administrators and their deputies to receive lump-sum payments for accrued annual leave and compensatory time when separated from employment because of termination by the employer, resignation, retirement, or death.

Section 191. KRS 132.375 is amended to read as follows:

Whenever a vacancy occurs in the property valuation administrator's office, the commissioner~~[secretary]~~ of revenue shall designate a qualified department~~[cabinet]~~ employee to carry on the duties of the office until the vacancy is filled by appointment or by election. The department~~[cabinet]~~ employee so designated shall be compensated from Department of Revenue~~[Cabinet]~~ funds in the same manner and at the same rate as compensated prior to his receiving the designation, plus necessary expenses, including travel. The individual shall have all the powers and be subject to all the administrative regulations applying to property valuation administrators.

Section 192. KRS 132.380 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Before any person's name shall appear before the voters on election day as a candidate for the office of property valuation administrator in any primary or general election, except as a candidate to succeed himself in office, or before he may be appointed property valuation administrator, except as an interim appointee as provided by KRS 132.375, he shall hold a certificate issued by the Department of Revenue~~[Cabinet]~~, showing that he has been examined by it and that he is qualified for the office. All certificates issued shall expire one (1) year from the date of issuance, except for the certificates issued to successful candidates of the 1997 exam. Those certificates shall remain valid until after the November, 1998 election. The examinations shall be written and formulated so as to test fairly the ability and fitness of the applicant to serve as property valuation administrator. The Department of Revenue~~[Cabinet]~~ shall hold the examinations in at least one (1) place in each Supreme Court district during the month of November of each year immediately preceding each year in which property valuation administrators are to be elected. The Department of Revenue~~[Cabinet]~~ shall advise each county attorney of the time and place of the examination, and the county attorney shall post a notice thereof in a conspicuous place in the courthouse two (2) weeks before the examination is given. Any person desiring to take an examination shall appear at the time and place designated.

(2) If, after the giving of the examination, as provided in subsection (1), there is only one (1) person qualified to be a candidate in the county, the Department of Revenue~~[Cabinet]~~ shall hold a second examination prior to the filing date in each Supreme Court district where necessary. Applicants from only those counties having not more than one (1) person qualified shall be eligible to take the examination. Notice of the second examination shall be posted in the manner provided in subsection (1).

(3) Whenever there is a vacancy in the office of property valuation administrator to be filled by appointment or by election, and there is not more than one (1) person holding a valid certificate and eligible for appointment or election, the Department of Revenue~~[Cabinet]~~ may hold a special examination for applicants seeking a certificate for the office. If, after the giving of a special examination, only one (1) person is qualified, the county judge/executive may request a second examination. Special examinations shall be held in the same manner as regular examinations.

(4) Examinations shall be given and graded in accordance with rules of the department~~[cabinet]~~ published at the time of the examination. Within ten (10) days after the examination, a certificate of fitness and qualification to fill the office of property valuation administrator shall be issued by the Department of Revenue~~[Cabinet]~~ to each person passing the examination.

(5) Examination records shall be preserved by the department~~[cabinet]~~ for twelve (12) months after the examination, and the record of any person who took the examination may be seen by him at the office of the Department of Revenue~~[Cabinet]~~ in Frankfort, Kentucky.

Section 193. KRS 132.385 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The department~~[cabinet]~~ shall develop and administer a program for the purpose of providing education and training in the technical, legal, and administrative aspects of property tax administration for property valuation administrators, deputy property valuation administrators, and department~~[cabinet]~~ employees. Courses may be created and taught by department~~[cabinet]~~ personnel or the department~~[cabinet]~~ may adopt specific courses offered by appropriate professional organizations.

(2) The department~~[cabinet]~~ shall develop and administer, in cooperation with the property valuation administrators, a certification program for property valuation administrators, deputy property valuation administrators, and department~~[cabinet]~~ employees. A professional designation, "certified Kentucky assessor" (CKA), shall be awarded to those individuals successfully meeting the standards established by this program. Minimum requirements shall include one hundred twenty (120) hours of classroom instruction, passage of subject matter examinations, and three (3) years of experience in Kentucky property tax administration. An advanced designation, "senior Kentucky assessor" (SKA), shall be awarded to those individuals successfully completing an additional ninety (90) hours of classroom instruction, passage of subject matter examinations, and an additional two (2) years of experience in Kentucky property tax administration. Correspondence course credit administered by the department[~~cabinet~~] may be substituted for no more than thirty (30) hours of the one hundred twenty (120) hours required for the "certified Kentucky assessor" (CKA) designation, and for no more than fifteen (15) hours of the additional ninety (90) hours required for the "senior Kentucky assessor" (SKA) designation.

Section 194. KRS 132.400 is amended to read as follows:

Before entering upon the duties of office, the property valuation administrator shall execute a bond conditioned upon the faithful performance of the duties of the office with a surety to be approved by the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~]. In counties containing a city of the first class or consolidated local government, the bond shall be in the sum of one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000); in counties containing a city of the second class, fifty thousand dollars ($50,000); in all other counties, twenty thousand dollars ($20,000).

Section 195. KRS 132.420 is amended to read as follows:

The property valuation administrator shall, subject to the direction, instruction, and supervision of the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~], make the assessment of all property in his county except as otherwise provided, prepare property assessment records, and have other powers and duties relating to assessment as may be prescribed by law or by the department[~~cabinet~~].

(1) Each property valuation administrator shall assess at its fair cash value all property which it is his duty to assess except as provided in paragraph (c) of subsection (2) of this section. In the case of securities which are regularly bought and sold through stock exchanges, the price at which such property closed on the last regular business day preceding the assessment day shall be prima facie evidence of the fair cash value of such property. The property of one (1) person shall not be assessed willfully or intentionally at a lower or higher relative value than the same class of property of another, and any grossly discriminatory valuation shall be construed as an intentional discrimination. The property valuation administrator shall make every effort, through visits with the taxpayer, personal inspection of the property, from records, from his own knowledge, from information in property schedules, and from such other evidence as he may be able to obtain, to locate, identify, and assess property.

(2) (a) In determining the total area of land devoted to agricultural or horticultural use, there shall be included the area of all land under farm buildings, greenhouses and like structures, lakes, ponds, streams, irrigation ditches and similar facilities, and garden plots devoted to growth of products for on-farm personal consumption but there shall be excluded, land used in connection with dwelling houses including, but not limited to, lawns, drives, flower gardens, swimming pools, or other areas devoted to family recreation. Where contiguous land in agricultural or horticultural use in one (1) ownership is located in more than one (1) county or taxing district, compliance with the minimum requirements shall be determined on the basis of the total area of such land and not the area of land which is located in the particular county or taxing district.

(b) Land devoted to agricultural or horticultural use, where the owner or owners have petitioned for, and been granted, a zoning classification other than for agricultural or horticultural purposes qualifies for the agricultural or horticultural assessment until such time as the land changes from agricultural or horticultural use to the use granted by the zoning classification.

(c) When the use of a part of a tract of land which is assessed as agricultural or horticultural land is changed either by conveyance or other action of the owner, the right of the remaining land to be retained in the agricultural or horticultural assessment shall not be impaired provided it meets the minimum requirements, except the minimum ten (10) contiguous acre requirement shall not be applicable if any portion of the agricultural or horticultural land has been acquired for a public purpose as long as the remaining land continues to meet the other requirements of this section.

(d) When in the opinion of the property valuation administrator any land has a value in excess of that for agricultural or horticultural use the property valuation administrator shall enter into the tax records the value of the property according to its fair cash value. When the property valuation administrator determines that the land meets the requirements for valuation as agricultural or horticultural land, the valuation for tax purposes shall be its agricultural or horticultural value.

(3) When land which has been valued and taxed as agricultural land for five (5) or more consecutive years under the same ownership fails to qualify for the classification through no other action on the part of the owner or owners other than ceasing to farm the land, the land shall retain its agricultural classification for assessment and taxation purposes. Classification as agricultural land shall expire upon change of use by the owner or owners or upon conveyance of the property to a person other than a surviving spouse.

(4) If the property valuation administrator assesses any property, except stocks and bonds at the market value listed in recognized publications, at a greater value than that listed by the taxpayer or assesses unlisted property, the property valuation administrator shall serve notice on the taxpayer of such action. The notice shall be given by first-class mail or as provided in the Kentucky Rules of Civil Procedure.

(5) Any taxpayer may designate on the property schedule any property which he does not consider to be subject to taxation, and it shall be the duty of the property valuation administrator to obtain and follow advice from the department[~~cabinet~~] relative to the taxability of such property.

Section 197. KRS 132.460 is amended to read as follows:

The property valuation administrator, or an authorized deputy, shall attend all hearings before the county board of assessment appeals and before the Kentucky Board of Tax Appeals relative to his assessment and submit to examination and fully disclose to them such information as he may have and any other matters pertinent to the inquiry being made. He shall be entitled to reimbursement from the county for expenses incurred in official business outside his county. If the Department of Revenue[~~Cabinet~~] directs him to perform official duties outside of his county, the expenses shall be paid from the appropriation for the payment of the salaries of the property valuation administrators. Such reimbursement shall be paid on the same basis as employees of the Commonwealth are paid for travel expenses.

(1) (a) The registration of a motor vehicle with a county clerk in order to operate it or permit it to be operated upon the highways of the state shall be deemed consent by the registrant for the motor vehicle to be assessed by the property valuation administrator from a standard manual prescribed by the Department of Revenue[~~Cabinet~~] for valuing motor vehicles for assessment unless the registrant appears before the property valuation administrator to assess the vehicle. The standard value of motor vehicles shall be the average trade-in value prescribed by the valuation manual unless information is available that warrants any deviation from the standard value.

(b) The registration of a recreational vehicle with the county clerk in order to operate it or permit it to be operated upon the highways shall be deemed consent by the registrant thereof for the recreational vehicle to be assessed by the property valuation administrator at a valuation determined from a standard manual prescribed by the Department of Revenue[~~Cabinet~~] for valuing recreational vehicles for assessment unless the registrant appears in person before the property valuation administrator to assess the vehicle.

(2) The registration of a motor vehicle on or before the date that the registration of the vehicle is required is prima facie evidence of ownership on January 1.

(3) This section does not apply to motor vehicles or recreational vehicles owned and operated by public service companies, common carriers, or agencies of the state and federal governments.

Section 199. KRS 132.486 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The Department of Revenue[~~Cabinet~~] shall develop and administer a centralized ad valorem assessment system for intangible personal property and tangible personal property. This system shall be designed to provide on-line computer terminals and accessory equipment in every property valuation administrator's office in the state in order to create and maintain a centralized personal property tax roll database.

(2) State income tax returns and return preparation instructions shall be revised to facilitate the preparation of the personal property tax return; however, the personal property tax return shall be a separate document and shall be listed with the property valuation administrator in the county of taxable situs according to the provisions of KRS 132.220(1) or with the Department of Revenue[~~Cabinet~~]. The Department of Revenue[~~Cabinet~~] shall promulgate administrative regulations and develop forms for the listing and assessment of personal property.

(3) Appeals of personal property assessments shall not be made to the county board of assessment appeals. Personal property taxpayers shall be served notice under the provisions of KRS 132.450(4) and shall have the protest and appeal rights granted under the provision of KRS 131.110.

(4) No appeal shall delay the collection or payment of taxes based upon the assessment in controversy. The taxpayer shall pay all state, county, and district taxes due on the valuation which the taxpayer claims as the true value as stated in a protest filed under KRS 131.110. When the valuation is finally determined upon appeal, the taxpayer shall be billed for any additional tax and interest at the tax interest rate as defined in KRS 131.010(6), from the date the tax would have become due if no appeal had been taken. The provisions of KRS 134.390 shall apply to the tax bill.

(1) The department[~~cabinet~~] shall develop and administer a centralized ad valorem tax system for all motor vehicles as defined in KRS 186.010. This system shall be designed to allow the collection of state, county, city, urban-county government, school, and special taxing district ad valorem taxes due on each motor vehicle at the time of registration of the motor vehicle by the party charged with issuing the registration. The department[~~cabinet~~] shall supervise and instruct the property valuation administrators and other officials with respect to their duties in relation to this system.

(2) Except as otherwise provided by law, the tax rate levied by the state, counties, schools, cities, and special tax districts on motor vehicles shall not exceed the rate that could have been levied on motor vehicles by the district on the January 1, 1983 assessments. All counties, schools, cities, and special taxing districts proposing to levy an ad valorem tax on motor vehicles shall submit to the department[~~cabinet~~] on or before October 1 of the year preceding the assessment date, the tax rate to be levied against valuations as of that assessment date. Any district that fails to timely submit the tax rate shall receive the rate in effect for the prior year.

(3) The compensating tax rate and maximum possible tax rate allowable for counties, schools, cities, and special taxing districts on property other than motor vehicles for the 1984 and subsequent tax periods shall be calculated excluding all valuations of and tax revenues from motor vehicles from the base amounts used in arriving at these general rates.

(4) The Transportation Cabinet shall provide access to all records of motor vehicle registrations to the department[~~cabinet~~] and the property valuation administrators as necessary to prepare and maintain a complete tax roll of motor vehicles throughout each year.

(5) The property valuation administrator shall, subject to the direction, instruction, and supervision of the department[~~cabinet~~], have responsibility for assessing all motor vehicles other than those assessed under KRS Chapter 136 as part of public service companies. The department[~~cabinet~~] may provide standard valuation guidelines for use in valuation of motor vehicles.

(6) The property valuation administrator shall provide to the department[~~cabinet~~] by December 1 of each year a recapitulation of motor vehicles to be assessed as of January 1 of the next year.

(7) Procedures for protest, appeal, and correction of erroneous assessments shall be the same for motor vehicles as for other properties subject to ad valorem taxes.

Section 201. KRS 132.490 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Each county clerk shall, by March 1 of each year, unless the time is extended by the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~], make and certify to the various property valuation administrators complete statements of all purchase money notes, mortgage notes and other obligations for money due, except those owned by banks, trust companies or real estate title insurance companies, as shown by the conveyances, mortgages and liens in his office. The statements shall distinctly show the dates of execution and maturity of the notes or other evidences of indebtedness, the consideration, the date of filing or recording, the amount, and the county of the residence of the owner, payee, beneficial holder thereof or other person liable for taxes thereon.

The provisions of this section do not apply to mortgages made by corporations to trustees to secure bond issues made by them in the regular course of business, except as provided in paragraph (c) of subsection (1) of this section.

(3) The information thus obtained shall be communicated by the department[~~cabinet~~] to the property valuation administrator and the board of assessment appeals of the respective counties in which the true owners of the debts reside.

Section 204. KRS 132.550 is amended to read as follows:

(1) After the county clerk has completed the services required of him upon delivery of the tax rolls and schedules to him by the property valuation administrator, he shall then calculate the taxes due the state, county, school, county polls, and school polls, for each individual taxpayer, opposite their name in the tax rolls, upon the form prescribed by the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~]. The rolls and forms shall be a permanent record of the county clerk's office.

(2) For performing the services required by this section the county clerk shall be paid the sum of fifteen cents ($0.15) for each tax list on the tax rolls, one-half (1/2) of this sum to be paid by the state, and the other one-half (1/2) to be paid by the county.

Should a property valuation administrator for any reason vacate the office in any year during his term of office, he shall be paid only for the calendar days actually served during the year.

(2) The salary schedule for property valuation administrators provides for nine (9) levels of salary based upon the population of the county in the prior year as determined by the United States Department of Commerce, Bureau of the Census annual estimates. To implement the salary schedule, the department[~~cabinet~~] shall, by November 1 of each year, certify for each county the population group applicable to each county based on the most recent estimates of the United States Department of Commerce, Bureau of the Census. The salary schedule provides four (4) steps for yearly increments within each population group. Property valuation administrators shall be paid according to the first step within their population group for the first year or portion thereof they serve in office. Thereafter, each property valuation administrator, on January 1 of each subsequent year, shall be advanced automatically to the next step in the salary schedule until the maximum salary figure for the population group is reached. If the county population as certified by the department[~~cabinet~~] increases to a new group level, the property valuation administrator's salary shall be computed from the new group level at the beginning of the next year. A change in group level shall have no affect on the annual change in step. Prior to assuming office, any person who has previously served as a property valuation administrator must certify to the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] the total number of years, not to exceed four (4) years, that the person has previously served in the office. The department[~~cabinet~~] shall place the person in the proper step based upon a formula of one (1) incremental step per full calendar year of service:

(3) (a) For calendar year 2000, the salary schedule in subsection (2) of this section shall be increased by the amount of increase in the annual consumer price index as published by the United States Department of Commerce for the year ended December 31, 1999. This salary adjustment shall take effect on July 14, 2000, and shall not be retroactive to the preceding January 1.

(b) For each calendar year beginning after December 31, 2000, upon publication of the annual consumer price index by the United States Department of Commerce, the annual rate of salary for the property valuation administrator shall be determined by applying the increase in the consumer price index to the salary in effect for the previous year. This salary determination shall be retroactive to the preceding January 1.

(c) In addition to the step increases based on service in office, each property valuation administrator shall be paid an annual incentive of six hundred eighty-seven dollars and sixty-seven cents ($687.67) per calendar year for each forty (40) hour training unit successfully completed based on continuing service in that office and, except as provided in this subsection, completion of at least forty (40) hours of approved training in each subsequent calendar year. If a property valuation administrator fails without good cause, as determined by the commissioner[~~secretary~~] of the Kentucky Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~], to obtain the minimum amount of approved training in any year, the officer shall lose all training incentives previously accumulated. No property valuation administrator shall receive more than one (1) training unit per calendar year nor more than four (4) incentive payments per calendar year. Each property valuation administrator shall be allowed to carry forward up to forty (40) hours of training credit into the following calendar year for the purpose of satisfying the minimum amount of training for that year. This amount shall be increased by the consumer price index adjustments prescribed in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this subsection. Each training unit shall be approved and certified by the Kentucky Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~]. Each unit shall be available to property valuation administrators in each office based on continuing service in that office. The Kentucky Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] shall promulgate administrative regulations in accordance with KRS Chapter 13A to establish guidelines for the approval and certification of training units.

(4) Notwithstanding any provision contained in this section, no property valuation administrator holding office on July 14, 2000, shall receive any reduction in salary or reduction in adjustment to salary otherwise allowable by the statutes in force on July 14, 2000.

(5) Deputy property valuation administrators and other authorized personnel may be advanced one (1) step in grade upon completion of twelve (12) months' continuous service. The Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] may make grade classification changes corresponding to any approved for department[~~cabinet~~] employees in comparable positions, so long as the changes do not violate the integrity of the classification system. Subject to availability of funds, the department[~~cabinet~~] may extend cost-of-living increases approved for department[~~cabinet~~] employees to deputy property valuation administrators and other authorized personnel, by advancement in grade.

(6) Beginning with the 1990-1992 biennium, the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] shall prepare a biennial budget request for the staffing of property valuation administrators' offices. An equitable allocation of employee positions to each property valuation administrator's office in the state shall be made on the basis of comparative assessment work units. Assessment work units shall be determined from the most current objective information available from the United States Bureau of the Census and other similar sources of unbiased information. Beginning with the 1996-1998 biennium, assessment work units shall be based on parcel count per employee. The total sum allowed by the state to any property valuation administrator's office as compensation for deputies, other authorized personnel, and for other authorized expenditures shall not exceed the amount fixed by the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~]. However, each property valuation administrator's office shall be allowed as a minimum such funds that are required to meet the federal minimum wage requirements for two (2) full-time deputies.

following fiscal year to the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] a budget request for his office which shall be based upon the number of employee positions allocated to his office under subsection (6) of this section and upon the county and city funds available to his office and show the amount to be expended for deputy and other authorized personnel including employer's share of FICA and state retirement, and other authorized expenses of the office. The Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] shall return to each property valuation administrator, no later than July 1, an approved budget for the fiscal year.

(8) Each property valuation administrator may appoint any persons approved by the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] to assist him in the discharge of his duties. Each deputy shall be more than twenty-one (21) years of age and may be removed at the pleasure of the property valuation administrator. The salaries of deputies and other authorized personnel shall be fixed by the property valuation administrator in accordance with the grade classification system established by the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] and shall be subject to the approval of the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~]. The Personnel Cabinet shall provide advice and technical assistance to the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] in the revision and updating of the personnel classification system, which shall be equitable in all respects to the personnel classification systems maintained for other state employees. Any deputy property valuation administrator employed or promoted to a higher position may be examined by the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] in accordance with standards of the Personnel Cabinet, for the position to which he is being appointed or promoted. No state funds available to any property valuation administrator's office as compensation for deputies and other authorized personnel or for other authorized expenditures shall be paid without authorization of the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] prior to the employment by the property valuation administrator of deputies or other authorized personnel or the incurring of other authorized expenditures.

(9) Each county fiscal court shall annually appropriate and pay each fiscal year to the office of the property valuation administrator as its cost for use of the assessment, as required by KRS 132.280, an amount determined as follows:

Assessment Subject to County Tax of:

$100,000,000	150,000,000	$0.004 for each $100 of the first $100,000,000 and $0.002 for each $100 over $100,000,000.
150,000,000	300,000,000	$0.004 for each $100 of the first $150,000,000 and $0.003 for each $100 over $150,000,000.
300,000,000	----	$0.004 for each $100.

(10) The total sum to be paid by the fiscal court to any property valuation administrator's office under the provisions of subsection (9) of this section shall not exceed the limits set forth in the following table:

Assessed Value of Property Subject to County Tax of:
At Least	But Less Than	Limit
----	$700,000,000	$25,000
$700,000,000	1,000,000,000	35,000

2,000,000,000	2,500,000,000	75,000
2,500,000,000	5,000,000,000	100,000
5,000,000,000	-----	175,000

This allowance shall be based on the assessment as of the previous January 1 and shall be used for deputy and other personnel allowance, supplies, maps and equipment, travel allowance for the property valuation administrator and his deputies and other authorized personnel, and other authorized expenses of the office.

(11) Annually, after appropriation by the county of funds required of it by subsection (9) of this section, and no later than August 1, the property valuation administrator shall file a claim with the county for that amount of the appropriation specified in his approved budget for compensation of deputies and assistants, including employer's shares of FICA and state retirement, for the fiscal year. The amount so requested shall be paid by the county into the State Treasury by September 1, or paid to the property valuation administrator and be submitted to the State Treasury by September 1. These funds shall be expended by the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] only for compensation of approved deputies and assistants and the employer's share of FICA and state retirement in the appropriating county. Any funds paid into the State

Treasury in accordance with this provision but unexpended by the close of the fiscal year for which they were appropriated shall be returned to the county from which they were received.

(12) After submission to the State Treasury or to the property valuation administrator of the county funds budgeted for personnel compensation under subsection (11) of this section, the fiscal court shall pay the remainder of the county appropriation to the office of the property valuation administrator on a quarterly basis. Four (4) equal payments shall be made on or before September 1, December 1, March 1, and June 1 respectively. Any unexpended county funds at the close of each fiscal year shall be retained by the property valuation administrator, except as provided in KRS 132.601(2). During county election years the property valuation administrator shall not expend in excess of forty percent (40%) of the allowances available to his office from county funds during the first five (5) months of the fiscal year in which the general election is held.

(13) The provisions of this section shall apply to urban-county governments and consolidated local governments. In an urban-county government and a consolidated local government, all the rights and obligations conferred on fiscal courts or consolidated local governments by the provisions of this section shall be exercised by the urban-county government or consolidated local government.

(14) When an urban-county form of government is established through merger of existing city and county governments as provided in KRS Chapter 67A or when a consolidated local government is established through merger of existing city and county governments as provided by KRS Chapter 67C, the annual county assessment shall be presumed to have been adopted as if the city had exercised the option to adopt as provided in KRS 132.285, and the annual amount to be appropriated to the property valuation administrator's office shall be the combined amount that is required of the county under this section and that required of the city under KRS 132.285, except that the total shall not exceed one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) for any urban-county government or consolidated local government with an assessment subject to countywide tax of less than three billion dollars ($3,000,000,000), one hundred twenty-five thousand dollars ($125,000) for an urban-county government or consolidated local government with an assessment subject to countywide tax between three billion dollars ($3,000,000,000) and five billion dollars ($5,000,000,000), and two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000) for an urban-county government or consolidated local government with an assessment subject to countywide tax in excess of five billion dollars ($5,000,000,000). For purposes of this subsection, the amount to be considered as the assessment for purposes of KRS 132.285 shall be the amount subject to taxation for full urban services.

(15) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (9) of this section, the amount appropriated and paid by each county fiscal court to the office of the property valuation administrator for 1996 and subsequent years shall be equal to the amount paid to the office of the property valuation administrator for 1995, or the amount required by the provisions of subsections (9) and (10) of this section, whichever is greater.

(1) The property valuation administrator of each county shall receive an annual expense allowance of three thousand six hundred dollars ($3,600) to be paid from the State Treasury in monthly installments of three hundred dollars ($300). Property valuation administrators shall not be required to keep records verifying expenditures from this expense allowance.

(2) The expense allowance provided in subsection (1) of this section shall be used by the property valuation administrator for expenses incurred in the performance of his duties. The allowance is to provide the necessary funds for payment of all expenditures of the property valuation administrator not directly associated with the assessment of property in his particular county.

(3) Each property valuation administrator shall annually, within each calendar year, participate in a minimum of thirty (30) classroom hours of professional instruction conducted or approved by the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~]. Any property valuation administrator failing to meet the department's[~~cabinet's~~] requirements for any calendar year shall not receive the three thousand six hundred dollar ($3,600) annual expense allowance provided in subsection (1) of this section for the subsequent calendar year.

(4) The annual requirement for participation in classroom instruction shall be reduced to fifteen (15) hours for any property valuation administrator awarded the "senior Kentucky assessor" (SKA) professional designation under the provisions of KRS 132.385.

Section 208. KRS 132.601 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The property valuation administrator of any county may, after receiving an approved budget from the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] under the provisions of KRS 132.590, obligate and spend any of the local funds accruing to his office under the provisions of KRS 132.590 or KRS 132.285, over and above that actually used in compensating his deputies and assistants, for the purchase of any maps, lists, charts, materials, supplies or equipment, or for other expenses necessary to the proper assessment of property or preparation and maintenance of assessment rolls and records.

(2) The property valuation administrator shall maintain a bank account for the management of local funds received by his office under the provisions of KRS 132.590 and 132.285. Beginning with the 1990-1992 biennium, at the end of each fiscal year a cumulative carryover of local funds equivalent to the total annual local appropriation for the ending fiscal year or five thousand dollars ($5,000), whichever is greater, shall be retained. Any funds in excess of this amount shall be refunded by the property valuation administrator no later than August 1 to the appropriating local governments in direct proportion to their respective appropriations.

(3) Expenditures made by the office of the property valuation administrator under the provisions of subsection (1) of this section shall be governed by procurement procedures adopted by the fiscal court in the county administrative code required by KRS 68.005. However, after approval of the annual budget for the office of the property valuation administrator provided in KRS 132.590 by the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~], the necessity of the expenditure shall not be questioned by the fiscal court. The Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] shall have neither authority nor responsibility in the auditing of expenditures made by the property valuation administrator from locally appropriated funds. The Auditor of Public Accounts shall assume the responsibility.

Section 209. KRS 132.605 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The fiscal court of each county shall have jurisdiction and the power to purchase and supply to the property valuation administrator any maps, lists, charts, materials, supplies, equipment or instruments which are reasonably necessary for a complete and accurate assessment of property in the county. The Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] is authorized to purchase and loan any property valuation administrator such maps, lists, charts, materials, supplies, equipment or instruments as are urgently needed by any property valuation administrator, provided that the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] keeps a record thereof.

(2) The fiscal court of any county shall provide for the maintenance of all maps, lists, charts, materials, supplies, equipment or instruments owned by a county or supplied to it by the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] or by any source in cooperation with the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] for the purpose of facilitating the assessment of property.

Section 210. KRS 132.620 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] shall recover from any property valuation administrator all compensation paid to him for assessments that were unauthorized or excessive when and to the extent it is determined by a final order of the board of assessment appeals, Kentucky Board of Tax Appeals, or a court of competent jurisdiction that such assessments were unauthorized or excessive. Whenever the property valuation administrator fails to render the services required of him or he performs any of his duties in such a manner as to fail to comply substantially with the requirements of the law, he shall be required to pay a sum that will reasonably compensate the Commonwealth of Kentucky for its costs in rendering the duties required to be performed by the property valuation administrator. The Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] shall notify the property valuation administrator by certified mail, return receipt requested, of any amount charged to be due under this section and a statement of the reasons therefor. The property valuation administrator shall be entitled to a hearing before the Kentucky Board of Tax Appeals, and an appeal may be taken from the final action of the Kentucky Board of Tax Appeals to the courts as provided by law.

(2) Any sum that may become due from any property valuation administrator by reason of this section may be deducted from any amount that the Commonwealth of Kentucky may become obliged to pay such property valuation administrator, or it may be collected from the bondsman of the property valuation administrator.

Section 211. KRS 132.645 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The property valuation administrator of each county shall be paid from the State Treasury each month as provided in KRS 132.590.

Section 212. KRS 132.645 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The property valuation administrator of each county shall be paid from the State Treasury each month as provided in KRS 132.590.

(2) Deputies, other authorized personnel, and other authorized expenditures of the property valuation administrator's office shall be paid from the State Treasury monthly as approved by the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] as provided in KRS 132.590 (2).

Section 213. KRS 132.660 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] shall have authority to order an emergency assessment of all or any part of the taxable property in any taxing district to be made by one (1) or more persons appointed for that purpose by the department[~~cabinet~~], whenever: there has been no regular assessment; the records of an assessment have been destroyed, mutilated or lost; complaint is made by the owners of not less than ten percent (10%) in value of the taxable property in the taxing district; or investigation of the department[~~cabinet~~] discloses that the assessment of property in such taxing district is so grossly inequitable or fiscally infeasible that an emergency exists. The order directing such emergency assessments shall state the reasons therefor and a copy shall be filed in the office of the county clerk where the property lies. Such order, when filed, shall void any assessment for the assessment year for which the emergency assessment is made. Any person appointed to make such an emergency assessment shall have the same powers and duties as the property valuation administrator. Whenever the tax roll has been completed under an emergency assessment and the tentative valuations have been determined, the department[~~cabinet~~] shall cause to be published pursuant to KRS Chapter 424, a notice as to the date when the tax roll will be ready for inspection and the time available for such purpose; also a copy of the notice shall be posted at the courthouse door. If any property is assessed at a greater value than that listed by the taxpayer or unlisted property is assessed, the taxpayer shall be charged with notice of such action by reason of the inspection period, and no further notice need be given of such action taken before the beginning of the inspection period. At the close of the inspection period, the tax roll shall be delivered to the county clerk and the county judge/executive shall immediately convene the board of assessment appeals to hear and determine any appeals from such emergency assessment. The board shall remain in session for the time and shall receive the compensation as provided in KRS 133.030(3). Appeals shall be taken and heard from such emergency assessments in the same manner as appeals from regular assessments.

(2) The department[~~cabinet~~] may appoint the property valuation administrator to make an emergency assessment provided he was not at fault, and if the property valuation administrator is so appointed he shall receive reasonable compensation for his services in making this assessment, which shall not affect in any manner the payment to him of any compensation that he has received for himself or on behalf of a deputy or that may be due him, for services in making the regular assessment. Whenever through the property valuation administrator's fault an emergency assessment is ordered, the property valuation administrator shall become liable for the cost thereof as provided in KRS 132.620, such cost to be limited to the amount due or paid him in accordance with the provisions of KRS 132.590.

Section 214. KRS 132.670 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The Department of Revenue[~~Cabinet~~] shall prepare detailed maps identifying every parcel of real property within each county of the state. Each county shall furnish to the department[~~cabinet~~] adequate facilities in the county courthouse in which to work. The Department of Revenue[~~Cabinet~~] shall prescribe methods and specifications for the mapping of property. Personnel authorized to assist in making property identification maps under this section may be given the same authority as a deputy property valuation administrator. Locally employed mapping project personnel shall be compensated in the same manner as deputies or assistants in the property valuation administrator's office.

(2) The Department of Revenue[~~Cabinet~~] shall conduct a biennial review of the quality of maps and ownership records in each county. If, in the first review conducted under these provisions, the maps and records in any county fail to meet the minimum standards established by the department[~~cabinet~~], the department[~~cabinet~~] shall assume responsibility for remapping, revision, and updating under the provisions of subsection (1) of this section. Minimum maintenance standards to be followed by each property valuation administrator shall be established by the department[~~cabinet~~].

Section 215. KRS 132.672 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The Department of Revenue[~~Cabinet~~] is authorized to establish an account entitled the "mapping project account" which is a fund created within the restricted fund group set forth in KRS 45.305. The purpose of this account is to provide funds for the mapping project as set forth in KRS 132.670. This account shall not lapse.

(2) There is hereby authorized to be deposited into this account the balance of the money heretofore deposited in the "Kentucky Wastewater Revolving Fund" created pursuant to KRS 107.600, now repealed.

Section 216. KRS 132.690 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Each parcel of taxable real property or interest therein subject to assessment by the property valuation administrator shall be revalued during each year of each term of office by the property valuation administrator at its fair cash value in accordance with standards prescribed by the Department of Revenue[~~Cabinet~~] and shall be physically examined no less than once every four (4) years by the property valuation administrator or his assessing personnel. In accordance with procedures prescribed by the Department of Revenue[~~Cabinet~~], the property valuation administrator shall submit an assessment schedule to the department[~~cabinet~~] and shall maintain a record of physical examination and revaluation for each parcel of real property which includes, in addition to other relevant information, the inspection dates.

(2) The right of any individual to appeal the assessment on his property in any year as provided in KRS 133.120 shall in no way be affected by this section.

(3) If the property valuation administrator fails to revalue property as required by this section, the Department of Revenue[~~Cabinet~~] shall have the authority to order an emergency revaluation in the same manner as provided for emergency assessments by KRS 132.660. Any property valuation administrator willfully violating the provisions of subsection (1) of this section or who refuses to comply with the directions of the Department of Revenue[~~Cabinet~~] to correct the assessment shall have his compensation suspended by the department[~~cabinet~~] and shall be subject to removal from office as provided by KRS 132.370(4) and shall be subject to the provisions of KRS 132.620 and 61.120.

(4) Nothing in this section shall prohibit action by the Department of Revenue[~~Cabinet~~] under the provisions of KRS 133.150 or 132.660 in any year in which the department[~~cabinet~~] determines such action to be necessary.

Section 217. KRS 132.810 is amended to read as follows:

(1) To qualify under the homestead exemption provision of the Constitution, each person claiming the exemption shall file an application with the property valuation administrator of the county in which the applicant resides, on forms prescribed by the Department of Revenue[~~Cabinet~~]. The assessed value of property on which homestead exemption is claimed shall not be increased because of valuation expressed on the application form filed with the property valuation administrator, and whenever it becomes known that the valuation of property subject to the homestead tax exemption has been increased because of valuation expressed on the application form, adjustment shall be made the following year so that the total tax paid by the taxpayer is the same as if the increase had not been made.

(2) (a) Every person filing an application for exemption under the homestead exemption provision must be sixty-five (65) years of age or older during the year for which application is made or must have been classified as totally disabled under a program authorized or administered by an agency of the United States government or by any retirement system either within or without the Commonwealth of Kentucky on January 1 of the year in which application is made.

(b) Every person filing an application for exemption under the homestead exemption provision must own and maintain the property for which the exemption is sought as his personal residence.

(c) Every person filing an application for exemption under the disability provision of the homestead exemption must have received disability payments pursuant to the disability and must maintain the disability classification for the entirety of the particular taxation period.

(d) Every person filing for the homestead exemption who is totally disabled and is less than sixty-five (65) years of age must apply for the homestead exemption on an annual basis.

(e) Only one (1) exemption per residential unit shall be allowed even though the resident may be sixty-five (65) years of age and also totally disabled, and regardless of the number of residents sixty-five (65) years of age or older occupying the unit, but the sixty-five hundred dollars ($6,500) exemption shall be construed to mean sixty-five hundred dollars ($6,500) in terms of the purchasing power of the dollar in 1972. Every two (2) years thereafter, if the cost of living index of the United States Department of Labor has changed as much as one percent (1%), the maximum exemption shall be adjusted accordingly.

(f) The real property may be held by legal or equitable title, by the entireties, jointly, in common, as a condominium, or indirectly by the stock ownership or membership representing the owner's or member's proprietary interest in a corporation owning a fee or a leasehold initially in excess of ninety-eight (98) years. The exemption shall apply only to the value of the real property assessable to the owner or, in case of ownership through stock or membership in a corporation, the value of the proportion which his interest in the corporation bears to the assessed value of the property.

(g) A mobile home, recreational vehicle, when classified as real property as provided for in KRS 132.751, or a manufactured house shall qualify as a residential unit for purposes of the homestead exemption provision.

(h) When title to property which is exempted, either in whole or in part, under the homestead exemption is transferred, the owner, administrator, executor, trustee, guardian, conservator, curator, or agent shall report such transfer to the property valuation administrator.

(3) Notwithstanding any statutory provisions to the contrary, the provisions of this section shall apply to the assessment and taxation of property under the homestead exemption provision for state, county, city, or special district purposes.

(4) The provisions of this section shall become effective with the 1982 taxable year and persons eligible for a homestead exemption under this section, who have not previously filed under the age provision of the homestead exemption, shall file applications by December 31 of the taxation period.

(a) The homestead exemption for disabled persons shall terminate whenever those persons no longer meet the total disability classification at the end of the taxation period for which the homestead exemption has been granted. In no case shall the exemption be prorated for persons who maintained the total disability classification at the end of the taxation period.

(b) Any totally disabled person granted the homestead exemption under the disability provision shall report any change in disability classification to the property valuation administrator in the county in which the homestead exemption is authorized.

(c) Any person making application and qualifying for the homestead exemption before payment of his property tax bills for the year in question shall be entitled to a full or partial exoneration, as the case may be, of the property tax due to reflect the taxable assessment after allowance for the homestead exemption.

(d) Any person making application and qualifying for the homestead exemption after property tax bills have been paid shall be entitled to a refund of the property taxes applicable to the value of the homestead exemption.

(5) In this section, "taxation period" means the period from January 1 through December 31 of the year in which application is made, unless the person maintaining the classification dies before December 31, in which case "taxation period" means the period from January 1 to the date of death.

Section 218. KRS 132.815 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Each electrical inspector certified under KRS 227.489 shall submit a monthly report to the Department of Revenue[~~Cabinet~~] showing the names and addresses of all persons, firms, or corporations for which inspections were conducted for new buildings, new or relocated mobile homes, and other new or relocated structures during the preceding month. Each building, mobile home, or other structure shall be identified by county and property address, or property location in those instances where the address is insufficient to reveal the physical location of the property.

(2) The information provided shall be used for the purpose of making and maintaining accurate assessment records. The Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] shall provide to each electrical inspector the necessary forms and instructions for filing the report required under subsection (1).

Section 219. KRS 132.820 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The department[~~cabinet~~] shall value and assess unmined coal, oil, and gas reserves, and any other mineral or energy resources which are owned, leased, or otherwise controlled separately from the surface real property at no more than fair market value in place, considering all relevant circumstances. Unmined coal, oil, and gas reserves and other mineral or energy resources shall in all cases be valued and assessed by the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] as a distinct interest in real property, separate and apart from the surface real estate unless:

(a) The unmined coal, oil and gas reserves, and other mineral or energy resources are owned in their entirety by the surface owner;

(b) The surface owner is neither engaged in the severance, extraction, processing, or leasing of mineral or other energy resources nor is he an affiliate of a person who engages in those activities; and

(c) The surface is being used by the surface owner primarily for the purpose of raising for sale agricultural crops, including planted and managed timberland, or livestock or poultry.

For purposes of this section, "affiliate" means a person who directly or indirectly owns or controls, is owned or controlled by, or is under common ownership or control with, another individual, partnership, committee, association, corporation, or any other organization or group of persons.

(2) Each owner or lessee of property assessed under subsection (1) of this section shall annually, between January 1 and April 15, file a return with the department[~~cabinet~~] in a form as the department[~~cabinet~~] may prescribe. Other individuals or corporations having knowledge of the property defined in subsection (1) of this section gained through contracting, extracting, or similar means may also be required by the department[~~cabinet~~] to file a return.

(3) Any property subject to assessment by the department[~~cabinet~~] under subsection (1) of this section which has not been listed for taxation, for any year in which it is taxable, by April 15 of that year shall be omitted property.

(4) After the valuation of unmined minerals or other energy sources has been finally fixed by the department[~~cabinet~~], the department[~~cabinet~~] shall certify to the county clerk of each county the amount liable for county, city, or district taxation. The report shall be filed by the county clerk in his office, and shall be certified by the county clerk to the proper collecting officer of the county, city, or taxing district for collection.

(5) The notification, protest, and appeal of assessments under subsection (1) of this section shall be made pursuant to the provisions of KRS Chapter 131.

(6) No appeal shall delay the collection or payment of taxes based upon the assessment in controversy. The taxpayer shall pay all state, county, and district taxes due on the valuation which the taxpayer claims as the true value as stated in the protest filed under KRS 131.110. When the valuation is finally determined upon appeal, the taxpayer shall be billed for any additional tax and interest at the tax interest rate as defined in KRS 131.010(6), from the date the tax would have become due if no appeal had been taken. The provisions of KRS 134.390 shall apply to the tax bill.

(7) The collection of tax bills generated from the assessments made under subsection (1) of this section shall be made pursuant to the provisions of KRS Chapter 134.

Section 220. KRS 132.990 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Any person who willfully fails to supply the property valuation administrator or the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] with a complete list of his property and such facts with regard thereto as may be required or who violates any of the provisions of KRS 132.570 shall be fined not more than five hundred dollars ($500).

Section 222. KRS 133.020 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The county board of assessment appeals shall be composed of reputable real property owners residing in the county at least five (5) years. The appointing authorities may appoint qualified property owners residing in adjacent counties when qualified members cannot be secured within the county. The board shall consist of three (3) members, one (1) to be appointed by the county judge/executive, one (1) to be appointed by the fiscal court, and one (1) to be appointed by the mayor of the city with the largest assessment using the county tax roll or appointed as otherwise provided by the comprehensive plan of an urban-county government. Beginning with the 1995 appeals, the mayor's appointment shall serve for four (4) years, the county judge/executive's appointment shall serve for three (3) years, and the fiscal court's appointment shall serve for two (2) years. Each person appointed thereafter shall serve for three (3) years. If no city in the county uses the county assessment, the county judge/executive shall appoint two (2) members. Board members appointed prior to July 14, 1994, shall be eligible for reappointment by the appointing authority if they meet the requirements of subsection (2) of this section. A board member who has served for a full term shall not be eligible for reappointment. However, he shall be eligible for appointment after a hiatus of three (3) years. If the number of appeals to the board of assessment appeals filed with the county clerk exceeds one hundred (100), temporary panels of the board may be appointed with approval of the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~]. Each temporary panel shall consist of three (3) members having the same qualifications and appointed in the same manner as the board members. The number of additional panels shall not exceed one (1) for each one hundred (100) appeals in excess of the first one hundred (100). The county judge/executive shall designate one (1) of the members of the board of assessment appeals to serve as chairman of the board. If additional panels are appointed, as provided in this subsection, the chairman of the board of assessment appeals shall designate one (1) member of each additional panel as chairman of the panel. A majority of the board or of any panel may determine the action of the board or panel respectively and make decisions. Each panel of the board shall have the same powers and duties given the board by KRS 133.120, except the action of any panel shall be subject to review and final approval by the board.

(2) Each member of the board shall have extensive knowledge of real estate values, preferably in real estate appraisal, sales, management, financing, or construction. In counties with cities of the first, second, or third class, the member appointed by the mayor shall be a certified real estate appraiser unless the mayor provides sufficient proof to the department[~~cabinet~~] of his inability to secure a certified real estate appraiser.

(3) The board shall be subject to call by the county judge/executive at any time prescribed by law.

(4) The members of the county board of assessment appeals, and any panel of the board, before undertaking their duties, shall take the following oath, to be administered by the county judge/executive: "You swear (affirm) that you will, to the best of your ability, discharge the duties required of you as a member of the county board of assessment appeals, and that you will fix at fair cash value all property assessments brought before you for review as prescribed by law."

(5) The department[~~cabinet~~] shall prepare and furnish to each property valuation administrator guidelines and materials for an orientation and training program to be presented to the board by the property valuation administrator or his deputy each year.

(6) A board member shall produce evidence of his qualifications upon request of the department[~~cabinet~~]. A board member shall be replaced by the appointing authority upon proof of the member's failure to meet the qualifications of the position. Any vacancy on the board shall be filled by the appointing authority that appointed the member to be replaced. The appointee shall have the qualifications required by statute for the board member appointed by the particular appointing authority and shall hold office only to the end of the unexpired term of the member replaced.

(7) Members of the county board of assessment appeals, and any temporary panel, shall abstain from hearing or ruling on an appeal for any property in which they have any personal or private interests.

Section 223. KRS 133.030 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The county board of assessment appeals shall convene each year at the county seat no earlier than twenty-five (25) days and no later than thirty-five (35) days following the conclusion of the tax roll inspection period provided for in KRS 133.045; except that no meeting shall be held until the tax roll has been completed and the inspection period has been held as provided by law, or until revaluation of the property has been completed by the property valuation administrator at the direction of the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] as provided by KRS 132.690 or by the department[~~cabinet~~] itself as provided by KRS 133.150. All records of the property valuation administrator, including all data concerning property sales within the preceding year, shall be available to the board while meeting.

(2) The first regular meeting day of the board shall be devoted to the orientation and training program provided for in KRS 133.020(5), to a review of the assessment of the property valuation administrator and his deputies, and to a review of the appeals filed with the county clerk as clerk of the board, including a review of recent sales of comparable properties provided in accordance with the provisions of subsection (1) of this section, and an inspection of the properties involved in the appeals when in the opinion of the board such inspection will assist in the proper determination of fair cash value.

(3) The board of assessment appeals shall continue in session only such time as is necessary to hear appeals. The board shall not continue in session more than one (1) day, if there are no appeals to be heard, nor more than five (5) days after it convenes in each year, unless an extension of time is authorized by the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] upon request of the county judge/executive. Each board member shall be paid one hundred dollars ($100) for each day he serves. This compensation shall be paid one-half (1/2) out of the county levy and the other half out of the State Treasury.

(4) Members of temporary panels of the board shall serve the time necessary for hearing appeals but in no case more than five (5) days except upon approval of an extension of time by the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~]. Compensation of panel members shall be in the same manner and at the same rate as provided for members of the board.

Section 224. KRS 133.040 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The property valuation administrator shall complete the tax roll of all real property in his county before the first Monday in April of each year in accordance with law, and on or before that date he shall file with the department[~~cabinet~~], on forms provided by the department[~~cabinet~~], a recapitulation of all property assessed on the tax roll with his official certificate attached. The recapitulation shall show the assessment of property by type of property and by taxing district. Within fifteen (15) calendar days after receiving the recapitulation, the department[~~cabinet~~] shall direct the property valuation administrator to make any changes that are necessary to correct the assessment. The department[~~cabinet~~] shall preserve all recapitulations and schedules or a photographic facsimile for a period of seven (7) years from the assessment date.

(2) At the time the property valuation administrator submits his property recapitulations to the department[~~cabinet~~], he shall submit a copy of the recapitulations to the county judge/executive, the treasurer or chief officer of each special district in the county, the chief administrative officer of the urban-county, and the superintendent of each local school district in his county.

(3) Beginning with the 1995 assessment year, if the property valuation administrator has not submitted an acceptable recapitulation to the department[~~cabinet~~] by the first Monday in August, the department[~~cabinet~~] shall, within fifteen (15) days, conduct an investigation into the reasons for the failure. The department[~~cabinet~~] shall notify the property valuation administrator in writing of his right to appear before the commissioner[~~secretary~~] or his designee during the investigation to provide an explanation for the failure to submit an acceptable recapitulation. At any time after the completion of an investigation resulting in a finding that the failure to submit an acceptable recapitulation was not reasonably justified, the department[~~cabinet~~] may declare an emergency assessment under the provisions of KRS 132.660.

(4) If the commissioner[~~secretary~~] determines upon the conclusion of the investigation that the failure to submit an acceptable recapitulation was not reasonably justified, the commissioner[~~secretary~~] shall notify the property valuation administrator in writing of the department's[~~cabinet's~~] findings, and of the department's[~~cabinet's~~] intent to suspend the property valuation administrator's compensation as of the date of the notification and until the date an acceptable recapitulation is submitted. The notification shall inform the property valuation administrator that the amount of compensation suspended under this subsection is subject to forfeiture as provided in subsection (5) of this section.

(5) The property valuation administrator may, within ten (10) days of the date of notice provided for in subsection (4) of this section, request in writing a formal administrative hearing before a department[~~cabinet~~] hearing officer appointed by the commissioner[~~secretary~~]. All hearings shall be conducted in accordance with KRS Chapter 13B. If in the recommended order:

(a) The hearing officer determines, and the commissioner[~~secretary~~] agrees, that the failure to submit an acceptable recapitulation was not reasonably justified, the commissioner[~~secretary~~] shall reaffirm the notice of forfeiture provided for in subsection (4) of this section and issue a final order in writing to the property valuation administrator.

(b) The hearing officer determines, and the commissioner[~~secretary~~] agrees, that the failure to submit an acceptable recapitulation was reasonably justified, the commissioner[~~secretary~~] shall notify the property valuation administrator in a final order, and compensation suspended under subsection (4) of this section shall be paid with interest at the tax interest rate defined in KRS 131.010(6).

(6) If the property valuation administrator does not request in writing a formal administrative hearing within the time prescribed in subsection (5) of this section, the commissioner[~~secretary~~] shall reaffirm the notice of forfeiture provided for in subsection (4) of this section and issue a final order in writing to the property valuation administrator.

(7) The property valuation administrator may appeal the commissioner's[~~secretary's~~] final order in the same manner, and subject to the same provisions as set forth in KRS 132.370(7).

(8) A property valuation administrator who fails to submit an acceptable recapitulation, within the times prescribed in subsection (3) of this section and after a previous finding that a prior year's failure to submit an acceptable recapitulation was determined to not be reasonably justified, shall be subject to removal from office as provided by KRS 132.370(4).

Section 225. KRS 133.045 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The real property tax roll being prepared by the property valuation administrator for the current year, shall be open for inspection in the property valuation administrator's office for thirteen (13) days beginning on the first Monday in May of each year and shall be open for inspection for six (6) days each week, one (1) of which shall be Saturday. In case of necessity, the department[~~cabinet~~] may order a reasonable extension of time for the inspection period of the tax roll or it may order that the inspection period be at a different time than that provided in this section. However, the final day of the inspection period shall not be Saturday, Sunday, or a legal holiday.

(2) The property valuation administrator shall cause to be published once during the week before the beginning of the inspection period, as provided in subsection (1) of this section, in a display type advertisement, the following information:

(a) The fact that the real property tax roll is open for public inspection;

(b) The dates of the inspection period;

(c) The times available for public review of the real property tax roll;

(d) The fact that any taxpayer desiring to appeal an assessment shall first request a conference with the property valuation administrator to be held prior to or during the inspection period; and

(e) Instructions which provide details on the manner in which a taxpayer who has had a conference with the property valuation administrator may file an appeal, if he is aggrieved by an assessment made by the property valuation administrator.

The cost of the notice shall be paid by the fiscal court of the county. The notice shall also be posted at the courthouse door. Failure to publish or post notices when the inspection period is at the regular time as provided in this section shall not invalidate assessments made by the property valuation administrator and recorded on the tax roll prior to the inspection period.

Section 226. KRS 133.047 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Notwithstanding the provisions of KRS 61.870 to 61.884, when the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] has completed action on the assessment of property in any county and has certified the assessment to the county clerk of that county, as provided for in KRS 133.180, the property tax roll, or a copy of the property tax roll, shall be retained in the office of the property valuation administrator for maintenance as an open public record for five (5) years. The property tax roll shall be available for public inspection during the regular working hours of the office of the property valuation administrator as provided for in KRS 132.410(2).

(2) Any person inspecting a property tax roll shall do so in a manner not unduly interfering with the proper operation of the custodian's office.

(3) Personal property tax returns, accompanying documents, and assessment records, with the exception of the certified personal property tax roll, shall be considered confidential under the provisions of KRS 131.190.

(4) Real property tax returns and accompanying documents submitted by a taxpayer shall be considered confidential under the provisions of KRS 131.190. Other real property records in the office of the property valuation administrator shall be subject to the provisions of KRS 61.870 to KRS 61.884. However, notwithstanding the provisions of KRS 61.874 the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] shall develop and provide to each property valuation administrator a reasonable fee schedule to be used in compensating for the cost of personnel time expended in providing information and assistance to persons seeking information to be used for commercial or business purposes. Any person seeking information on his own property, or any other person, including the press, seeking information directly related to property tax assessment, appeals, equalization, requests for refunds, or similar matters shall not be subject to fees for personnel time.

(5) The Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] shall provide advice, guidelines, and assistance to each property valuation administrator in implementing the provisions of KRS 61.870 to 61.884.

Section 227. KRS 133.110 is amended to read as follows:

(1) After submission of the final real property recapitulation or certification of the personal property assessment, the property valuation administrator may correct clerical, mathematical, or procedural errors in an assessment or any duplication of assessment. Changes in assessed value based on appraisal methodology or opinion of value shall not be valid. All corrections shall be reviewed by the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] and those changes determined by the department[~~cabinet~~] to be invalid shall be rescinded. Any taxpayer affected by this rescission shall not be subject to additional penalties.

(2) Notwithstanding other statutory provisions, for property subject to a tax rate that is set each year based on the certified assessment, any loss of property tax revenue incurred by a taxing district due to corrections made after the tax rate has been set may be recovered by making an adjustment in the tax rate to be set for the next tax year.

Section 228. KRS 133.120 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Any taxpayer desiring to appeal an assessment on real property made by the property valuation administrator shall first request a conference with the property valuation administrator or his designated deputy. The conference shall be held prior to or during the inspection period provided for in KRS 133.045. Any person receiving compensation to represent a property owner at a conference with the property valuation administrator for a real property assessment shall be an attorney, a certified public accountant, a certified real estate broker, a Kentucky licensed real estate broker, an employee of the property owner, or any other individual possessing a professional appraisal designation recognized by the department[~~cabinet~~]. A person representing a property owner before the property valuation administrator shall present written authorization from the property owner which sets forth his professional capacity and shall disclose to the property valuation administrator any personal or private interests he may have in the matter, including any contingency fee arrangements. Provided however, attorneys shall not be required to disclose the terms and conditions of any contingency fee arrangement. During this conference, the property valuation administrator or his deputy shall provide an explanation to the taxpayer of the constitutional and statutory provisions governing property tax administration, including the appeal process, as well as an explanation of the procedures followed in deriving the assessed value for the taxpayer's property. The property valuation administrator or his deputy shall keep a record of each conference which shall include, but shall not be limited to, the initial assessed value, the value claimed by the taxpayer, an explanation of any changes offered or agreed to by each party, and a brief account of the outcome of the conference. At the request of the taxpayer, the conference may be held by telephone.

(2) Any taxpayer still aggrieved by an assessment on real property made by the property valuation administrator after complying with the provisions of subsection (1) of this section may appeal to the board of assessment appeals. The taxpayer shall appeal his assessment by filing in person or sending a letter or other written petition stating the reasons for appeal, identifying the property for which the appeal is filed, and stating to the county clerk the taxpayer's opinion of the fair cash value of the property. The appeal shall be filed no later than one (1) workday following the conclusion of the inspection period provided for in KRS 133.045. The county clerk shall notify the department[~~cabinet~~] of all assessment appeals and of the date and times of the hearings. The board of assessment appeals may review and change any assessment made by the property valuation administrator upon recommendation of the county judge/executive, mayor of any city using the county assessment, or the superintendent of any school district in which the property is located, if the recommendation is made to the board in writing specifying the individual properties recommended for review and is made no later than one (1) work day following the conclusion of the inspection period provided for in KRS 133.045, or upon the written recommendation of the department[~~cabinet~~]. If the board of assessment appeals determines that the assessment should be increased, it shall give the taxpayer notice in the manner required by subsection (4) of KRS 132.450, specifying a date when the board will hear the taxpayer, if he so desires, in protest of an increase. Any real property owner who has listed his property with the property valuation administrator at its fair cash value may ask the county board of assessment appeals to review the assessments of real properties he believes to be assessed at less than fair cash value, if he specifies in writing the individual properties for which the review is sought and factual information upon which his request is based, such as comparable sales or cost data and if the request is made no later than one (1) work day following the conclusion of the inspection period provided for in KRS 133.045. Nothing in this section shall be construed as granting any property owner the right to request a blanket review of properties or the board the power to conduct such a review.

(3) The board of assessment appeals shall hold a public hearing for each individual taxpayer appeal in protest of the assessment by the property valuation administrator filed in accordance with the provisions of subsection (2) of this section, and after hearing all the evidence, shall fix the assessment of the property at its fair cash value. The department[~~cabinet~~] may be present at the hearing and present any pertinent evidence as it pertains to the appeal. The taxpayer shall provide factual evidence to support his appeal. If the taxpayer fails to provide reasonable information pertaining to the value of the property requested by the property valuation administrator, the department[~~cabinet~~], or any member of the board, his appeal shall be denied. This information shall include, but shall not be limited to, the physical characteristics of land and improvements, insurance policies, cost of construction, real estate sales listings and contracts, income and expense statements for commercial property, and loans or mortgages. The board of assessment appeals shall only hear and consider evidence which has been submitted to it in the presence of both the property valuation administrator or his designated deputy and the taxpayer or his authorized representative.

(4) Any person receiving compensation to represent a property owner in an appeal before the board shall be an attorney, a certified public accountant, a certified real estate appraiser, a Kentucky licensed real estate broker, an employee of the taxpayer, or any other individual possessing a professional appraisal designation recognized by the department[~~cabinet~~]. He shall also keep an accurate record of all disbursements made by him, showing the amount, to whom paid, the time of payment, and on what account. He shall so arrange and keep his books that the amounts received and paid on account of separate and distinct appropriations shall be exhibited in separate and distinct accounts. He shall balance his books on the first day of each month, so as to show the correct amount on hand belonging to each fund on the day the balance is made. The books shall be paid for as other county records.

(3) The sheriff shall keep his books and accounts in the manner and form required by the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~].

(4) The books of the sheriff shall be open at all times to the inspection of the Auditor of Public Accounts, the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~], the fiscal court or any member thereof, the Commonwealth's and county attorneys, and any taxpayer or person having any interest therein.

Section 252. KRS 134.190 is amended to read as follows:

(1) A sheriff who believes, on reasonable grounds, that any person from whom a tax is due is about to conceal or remove his property from the state, county or taxing district shall immediately collect the taxes in the manner provided for the collection of taxes, costs and penalties of delinquent taxpayers.

(2) Anyone holding royalties or payments derived from property shall, if requested by the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~], sheriff, or collector, remit payment for delinquent taxes due on that property. However, the amount remitted shall not exceed the total amount being held. The delinquent tax payment may be deducted from the royalties or payments owed to the property owner. The property tax bill receipt shall be evidence of payment and authorization for deduction.

Section 253. KRS 134.215 is amended to read as follows:

(1) An outgoing sheriff, as soon as his successor has been qualified and inducted into office and his official bond approved, shall immediately vacate his office, deliver to his successor all books, papers, records, and other property held by virtue of his office, and make a complete settlement of his accounts as sheriff, except as otherwise provided in this section.

(2) All unpaid tax bills and bills upon which partial payments have been accepted in the possession of the sheriff upon the date of expiration of his term shall be turned over to the incoming sheriff, who shall collect and account for them as provided by law. The outgoing sheriff shall take a receipt from the incoming sheriff for the unpaid and partially paid tax bills. This receipt shall show in detail for each unpaid and for each partially paid tax bill the total amount due each taxing district as shown upon the tax bills. Provided, however, in counties containing a population of seventy thousand (70,000) or over, the receipt shall show the total amount due each taxing district as shown upon the unpaid and partially paid tax bills. The receipt shall be signed and acknowledged by the incoming sheriff before the county clerk, filed with the county judge/executive, and recorded in the order book of the county judge/executive in the manner required by law for recording the official bond of the sheriff. A certified copy of the receipt as recorded in the order book of the county judge/executive shall be filed with the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~]. The outgoing sheriff and his bondsmen or sureties shall be relieved in securing his quietus and in the final settlement of his accounts of all responsibility for collecting and accounting for the amounts covered by the receipt, and the incoming sheriff shall be charged with full responsibility for collecting and accounting for these amounts as otherwise provided by law for the collection and accounting for taxes. If a county's population that equaled or exceeded seventy thousand (70,000) is less than seventy thousand (70,000) after the most recent federal decennial census, then the provisions of KRS 64.368 shall apply.

(3) Each outgoing sheriff shall make a final settlement with the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] and the fiscal court and taxing district of his county by March 15 immediately following the expiration of his term of office for all charges of taxes made against him and for all money received by him as sheriff and to obtain his quietus, and immediately thereafter he shall deliver these records to the incumbent sheriff.

(4) For purposes of accounting for unpaid and partially paid tax bills, either the outgoing sheriff, the incoming sheriff, or both, may, by giving advance notice by publication pursuant to KRS Chapter 424, refuse to accept payment of ad valorem taxes during any or all of that portion of their terms of office from January 1 through January 15. Irrespective of whether the office refuses to accept payment of taxes during any or all of this fifteen (15) day period, both the incoming and outgoing sheriffs shall have working access to the office facilities and to the records and mail of the sheriff's office relating to the payment, collection, and refund of ad valorem taxes on property. Interest shall not be assessed or collected for the period during which payment of taxes is prohibited under the terms of this section.

(5) The outgoing sheriff shall be allowed and paid in accordance with KRS 64.140 and 64.530 the reasonable expenses actually incurred in preparing the receipt required under this section. Reasonable expenses actually incurred may include office expenses and salaries of himself, deputies, and employees paid in accordance with the schedule of the previous year or the amount paid an auditor necessary in determining, verifying, and recording the unpaid and partially paid tax bills turned over to the incoming sheriff.

Section 254. KRS 134.240 is amended to read as follows:

The bond of the sheriff executed pursuant to KRS 134.230 shall be, in substance, as follows: "We, A B (sheriff), and C D and E F, his sureties, bind and obligate ourselves, jointly and severally, to the Commonwealth of Kentucky, that the said A B (sheriff), shall faithfully perform his duties. Witness our signature this .... of ....." The bond shall be executed in duplicate. One (1) duplicate shall be filed and recorded in the county clerk's office, and the other shall be sent to the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] and filed in its office.

Section 255. KRS 134.270 is amended to read as follows:

Neither the sheriff nor a surety shall be liable for any act or default of the sheriff in connection with his revenue duties unless notice of the act or default of the sheriff giving rise to a claim upon the bond has been given to the surety by the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~], the county judge/executive, the county attorney, or other person asserting the claim within ninety (90) days after discovery or at the latest within one (1) year after the end of the year within which the bond was executed.

Section 256. KRS 134.280 is amended to read as follows:

(1) On the failure of the sheriff to execute bond and qualify as provided in KRS 134.230 he shall forfeit his office, and the county judge/executive may appoint a sheriff to fill the vacancy until a sheriff is elected, or it may appoint a collector for the county of all moneys due the state, county or taxing district authorized to be collected by the sheriff, or it may appoint a separate collector of all the moneys due the state, county or any taxing district thereof during the vacancy in the office of sheriff. If the county judge/executive fails for thirty (30) days to appoint a collector of money due the state, the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] may appoint a collector thereof. These collectors shall, within ten (10) days after their appointment, execute bond as required of the sheriff, to be approved by the county judge/executive, and if the bond is not executed within that time the appointment of another collector may, in like manner, be made, but such collector shall be required to give bond for and collect only the taxes or moneys provided for in the order of the county judge/executive appointing him.

(2) A sheriff who forfeits his office under subsection (1) of this section, or who resigns his office, shall not be appointed deputy sheriff or collector for the county, or elisor, deputy collector or deputy elisor.

Section 257. KRS 134.290 is amended to read as follows:

(1) In counties where the state taxes charged to the sheriff for the year are less than seventy-five thousand dollars ($75,000), he shall be allowed by the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~], for collecting such taxes, a commission of ten percent (10%) upon the first ten thousand dollars ($10,000) and four and one-quarter percent (4.25%) upon the residue. In all other counties, he shall be allowed ten percent (10%) upon the first five thousand dollars ($5,000) and four and one-quarter percent (4.25%) upon the residue.

(2) In counties where county taxes and special district taxes, excluding school taxes, charged to the sheriff for the year are less than one hundred fifty thousand dollars ($150,000), he shall be allowed by the county treasurer for collecting such taxes ten percent (10%) upon the first ten thousand dollars ($10,000) and four and one-quarter percent (4.25%) upon the residue. In all other counties, he shall be allowed ten percent (10%) upon the first five thousand dollars ($5,000) and four and one-quarter percent (4.25%) upon the residue.

(3) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1) of this section, the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] shall allow the sheriff a commission for 1996 and subsequent years equal to the amount allowed the sheriff in 1995, or the amount required by the provisions of subsection (1) of this section, whichever is greater.

(4) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (2) of this section, the county treasurer shall allow the sheriff a commission for 1996 and subsequent years equal to the amount allowed the sheriff in 1995, or the amount required by the provisions of subsection (2) of this section, whichever is greater.

Section 258. KRS 134.310 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The sheriff shall annually settle his accounts for county and district taxes with the fiscal court after making settlement with the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~]. The fiscal court shall appoint some competent person other than the Commonwealth's or county attorney to settle the accounts of the sheriff for money due the county or district. The department[~~cabinet~~], at the request of the fiscal court or any school district, may conduct the local settlement. If no local settlement has been initiated by July 1 of any year, the department[~~cabinet~~] may initiate the local settlement on behalf of the local district. Upon completion of the local settlement, the department[~~cabinet~~] may receive reasonable reimbursement for expenses incurred. The report of the state and local settlement shall be filed in the county clerk's office and approved by the county judge/executive no later than September 1 of each year. The settlement shall show the amount of ad valorem tax collected, and an itemized statement of the money disbursed.

(2) The settlement shall be published pursuant to KRS Chapter 424. The report of the settlement shall be subject to objections by the sheriff or by the county attorney, who shall represent the state and county, and the county judge/executive shall determine the objections. Objections shall be submitted to the county judge/executive within fifteen (15) days of the filing of the settlement in the clerk's office. If no objections are submitted, the settlement will become final.

(3) If the county judge/executive denies the objections, the sheriff may institute an action in Circuit Court within fifteen (15) days of receipt of the denial for review of the settlement and objections. Upon review, the Circuit Court shall issue its determination and the settlement shall become final. The final settlement shall be subject to correction by audit conducted pursuant to KRS 43.070 or 64.810.

(4) On the final settlement, the sheriff shall pay to the county treasurer all money that remains in his hands, and take receipts as provided in KRS 134.300, and shall pay any additional amounts charged against him as a result of the settlements. If the sheriff fails to remit amounts charged against him the department[~~cabinet~~] may issue bills for the subsequent year and may assume all collection duties in the name of and on behalf of the cities, counties, school districts, and other taxing districts to collect the taxes. In the performance of any tax collection duties undertaken by the department[~~cabinet~~], the department[~~cabinet~~] shall have all the powers, rights, and authority for the collection of taxes established in Chapters 131, 132, 133, and 134 of the Kentucky Revised Statutes. The fees and commissions which the sheriff would have been entitled to receive from the taxing districts shall be paid to the department[~~cabinet~~].

(5) In counties containing a population of less than seventy thousand (70,000), the sheriff shall file annually with his final settlement:

(a) A complete statement of all funds received by his office for official services, showing separately the total income received by his office for services rendered, exclusive of his commissions for collecting taxes, and the total funds received as commissions for collecting state, county, and school taxes; and

(b) A complete statement of all expenditures of his office, including his salary, compensation of deputies and assistants, and reasonable expenses.

(6) At the time he files the statements required by subsection (5) of this section, the sheriff shall pay to the fiscal court any fees, commissions, and other income of his office, including income from investments, which exceed the sum of his maximum salary as permitted by the Constitution and other reasonable expenses, including compensation of deputies and assistants. The settlement for excess fees and commissions and other income shall be subject to correction by audit conducted pursuant to KRS 43.070 or 64.810, and the provisions of this subsection shall not be construed to amend KRS 64.820 or 64.830.

(7) If a county's population that equaled or exceeded seventy thousand (70,000) is less than seventy thousand (70,000) after the most recent federal decennial census, then the provisions of KRS 64.368 shall apply.

Section 259. KRS 134.320 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The sheriff shall, by the tenth day of each month, or more often as may be required by the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] to prevent the sheriff from having funds in his possession in excess of the amount of his bond, report under oath to the department[~~cabinet~~] the amount of all state taxes he has collected during the preceding month, or for such period as the department[~~cabinet~~] may require.

(2) The sheriff shall, at the time of making this report, pay to the department[~~cabinet~~], for deposit with the State Treasurer, all taxes he has collected for the state for the preceding month or period.

(3) The department[~~cabinet~~] may report to the grand jury of Franklin County any sheriff failing to report as required. Any sheriff failing to pay over any taxes collected by him and due the state, as provided by law, shall be required by the department[~~cabinet~~] to pay a penalty of one percent (1%) for each thirty (30) day period or fraction thereof plus interest at the legal rate per annum on such taxes. The department[~~cabinet~~] in its settlement with the sheriff shall charge him with such penalties and interest.

(4) The Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] may grant an extension of time, not to exceed fifteen (15) days, for filing the report required by subsection (1) whenever, in its judgment, good cause therefor exists. The extension shall be in writing, and the department[~~cabinet~~] shall keep a record of such extensions. The extension when granted shall suspend the penalty and interest provided by subsection (3) for the duration of the extension. The penalty and interest shall apply at the expiration of the extension.

Section 260. KRS 134.325 is amended to read as follows:

Each sheriff shall conduct the sale of delinquent tax bills required by KRS 134.430 and make his records available for settlement with the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] for all taxes collected for the Commonwealth before April 30 of each year during his term of office. In the event that any sheriff resigns, dies, or otherwise vacates his office, the books and records shall be made available within thirty (30) days from the date that the office is vacated. Any sheriff who fails to make the settlement books and records available or fails to remit any amounts which are due to the taxing districts as required by law shall be subject to indictment in the county of his residence and fined not less than five hundred dollars ($500) nor more than five thousand dollars ($5,000).

Section 261. KRS 134.330 is amended to read as follows:

(1) No tax bill or tax book shall be delivered to the sheriff during the second or any subsequent calendar year of the sheriff's regular term until he exhibits a quietus from the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] and from the fiscal court of his county for the preceding tax period and his revenue bond, if bonding is required by the fiscal court, for the next tax year.

(2) If the tax records of a county are destroyed by fire, lost, stolen, or mutilated so as to require reassessment of the property in the county or a recertification of the tax bills, the sheriff shall have five (5) months from the time he receives the recertified tax bills within which to make settlement with the department[~~cabinet~~] and the fiscal court, and to receive his quietus from the department[~~cabinet~~] and the fiscal court.

Section 262. KRS 134.340 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The sheriff shall, when he collects money from a delinquent taxpayer, record the tax, interest and penalty on his record book kept for that purpose.

(2) If the sheriff fails to record the money collected from a delinquent taxpayer, or fails to collect the tax due from a delinquent taxpayer if it was collectible by sale or otherwise when it came to his hands, he shall be held liable on his bond for the amount of tax, penalties, interest and costs due from the delinquent taxpayer that was collectible, plus thirty percent (30%) penalty thereon, to be recovered in the Circuit Court of the county in which the tax is due, on motion of the county attorney or agent of the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] in the name of the state. The county attorney shall prosecute all such motions, for which services he shall be entitled to the penalties thereon recovered of the sheriff, but only if the tax, interest, costs, and penalties due are recovered and paid to the officers entitled to receive the same. The sheriff shall have ten (10) days' previous notice of the motion.

Section 263. KRS 134.360 is amended to read as follows:

In making his settlements with the fiscal court and the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~], the sheriff shall file a list of uncollectible delinquent taxes, which shall entitle the sheriff to a credit in his official settlement. The sheriff shall also be allowed credit in his official settlement for the tax bills on which certificates of delinquency have properly been issued to the state, county, and taxing districts.

Section 264. KRS 134.380 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The commissioner[~~secretary~~] may act in the name of and in behalf of the state and in the name of and in behalf of any and all counties, consolidated local government, school, and other taxing districts in the state to institute and prosecute any action or proceeding for the collection of delinquent taxes and the assessment of omitted property. If the department[~~cabinet~~] assumes the duties of collecting the delinquent taxes assessed under the authority of KRS Chapter 132, it shall have all the powers, rights, duties, and authority conferred generally upon the department[~~cabinet~~] by the Kentucky Revised Statutes, including but not limited to Chapters 131, 134, and 135.

(2) Field agents, accountants, and attorneys of the department[~~cabinet~~] shall prosecute all actions and proceedings under the direction of the commissioner[~~secretary~~]. Field agents, accountants, attorneys, and all other employees of the department[~~cabinet~~] engaged in the prosecution of the actions shall not be hired by personal service contract. The commissioner[~~secretary~~] shall prosecute diligently, or cause to be prosecuted by field agents, accountants, and attorneys employed by him, the collection of all delinquent taxes due the state.

(3) Nothing contained in this chapter shall prevent the commissioner[~~secretary~~] of revenue from assessing any property in accordance with the provisions of KRS 136.020, 136.030, 136.050, or 136.120 to 136.180.

(4) The department[~~cabinet~~] may require the use of any reports, forms, or databases necessary to administer the law in connection with the collection of delinquent taxes. The department[~~cabinet~~] shall require an index to be kept of all certificates of delinquency.

Section 265. KRS 134.385 is amended to read as follows:

The department[~~cabinet~~] shall conduct a special audit to determine the presence or absence of chronic underassessment in any county for which the sales-assessment ratio studies conducted under the provisions of KRS 133.250 indicates a ratio below eighty percent (80%) for two (2) consecutive calendar years. The audit may be conducted through the use of randomly-selected sample appraisals or other means reasonably calculated to present an accurate determination of assessment practices in the county.

Section 266. KRS 134.390 is amended to read as follows:

A tax bill rendered against omitted property required to be listed with the property valuation administrator or the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] or against an increase in valuation over that claimed by the taxpayer, as finally determined upon appeal as provided for in KRS 133.120, shall become due on the day the bill is prepared, and shall be considered delinquent and subject to a penalty of ten percent (10%) of the tax, penalty and interest due, unless paid within thirty (30) days after it becomes due, except as otherwise provided by law. All provisions of law of the particular taxing district having an interest therein relating to delinquent taxes on the same class of property or taxpayers involved shall apply to the delinquent omitted tax bill unless otherwise provided by law.

Section 267. KRS 134.400 is amended to read as follows:

(1) All penalties imposed by law, either in whole or in part, in favor of or for the benefit of agents of the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~], sheriffs, and other state, county, or district agents or officers, upon or for the recovery of taxes or the assessment of omitted property, shall be paid into the State Treasury and credited as provided for the twenty percent (20%) penalty in subsection (2) of this section.

(2) The twenty percent (20%) penalty collected on taxes due the state, county, school, or other taxing district shall be paid into the State Treasury. One-fourth (1/4) of the moneys thus received shall be credited to the general expenditure fund. The remaining three-fourths (3/4) shall also be credited to the general expenditure fund unless the General Assembly, in its biennial branch budget bill, provides that it be credited to a fund to be designated and known as the delinquent tax fund, in which case it shall be so credited and so much thereof as may be necessary shall be used for the administration and enforcement of the laws relating to the collection of delinquent taxes and the assessment of omitted property. All salaries, fees, and expenses authorized by the laws relating to the collection of delinquent taxes and the assessment of omitted property, except the fees of county attorneys, shall be payable out of the delinquent tax fund upon certifications or requisitions of the commissioner[~~secretary~~] of revenue.

Should any life insurance company, casualty company, marine insurance, fire insurance, security or indemnity company be in debt to the state for back taxes, or should any of such companies fail to pay into the State Treasury the correct amount of taxes due the state, the commissioner[~~secretary~~] of revenue shall cause an investigation to be made of their books and accounts, and employ such expert accountants as he may deem necessary for such work. The granting of power to the commissioner[~~secretary~~] to investigate the books and accounts of those engaged in the business of insurance for the purposes set forth in this section shall not be construed as a denial of power to the commissioner[~~secretary~~] to investigate for the same purposes the books and accounts of individuals or corporations engaged in other types of business, who have failed to pay into the State Treasury the correct amount of tax due the state.

(1) The state and each county, city, or other taxing district shall have a lien on the property assessed for taxes due them respectively for ten (10) years following the date when the taxes become delinquent, and also on any real property owned by a delinquent taxpayer at the date when the sheriff offers the tax claims for sale as provided in KRS 134.430 and 134.440. This lien shall not be defeated by gift, devise, sale, alienation, or any means except by sale to a bona fide purchaser, but no purchase of property made before final settlement for taxes for a particular assessment date has been made by the sheriff shall preclude the lien covering the taxes. The lien shall include all interest, penalties, fees, commissions, charges, costs, reasonable attorney fees, and other expenses incurred by reason of delinquency in payment of the tax bill or certificate of delinquency or in the process of collecting either, and shall have priority over any other obligation or liability for which the property is liable. The lien of any city, county, or other taxing district shall be of equal rank with that of the state. When any proceeding is instituted to enforce the lien provided in this subsection, it shall continue in force until the matter is judicially terminated. Every city of the third, fourth, fifth, and sixth class shall file notice of the delinquent tax liens with the county clerk of any county or counties in which the taxpayer's business or residence is located, or in any county in which the taxpayer has an interest in property. The notice shall be recorded in the same manner as notices of lis pendens are filed, and the file shall be designated miscellaneous state and city delinquent and unpaid tax liens.

(2) If any person liable to pay any tax administered by the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~], other than a tax subject to the provisions of subsection (1) of this section, neglects or refuses to pay the tax after demand, the tax due together with all penalties, interest, and other costs applicable provided by law shall be a lien in favor of the Commonwealth of Kentucky. The lien shall attach to all property and rights to property owned or subsequently acquired by the person neglecting or refusing to pay the tax.

(3) The lien imposed by subsection (2) of this section shall remain in force for ten (10) years from the date the notice of tax lien has been filed by the commissioner[~~secretary~~] of the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~], or his delegate with the county clerk of any county or counties in which the taxpayer's business or residence is located, or any county in which the taxpayer has an interest in property.

(4) The tax lien imposed by subsection (2) of this section shall not be valid as against any purchaser, judgment lien creditor, or holder of a security interest or mechanic's lien until notice of the tax lien has been filed by the commissioner[~~secretary~~] of the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] or his delegate with the county clerk of any county or counties in which the taxpayer's business or residence is located, or in any county in which the taxpayer has an interest in property. The recording of the tax lien shall constitute notice of both the original assessment and all subsequent assessments of liability against the same taxpayer. Upon request, the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] shall disclose the specific amount of liability at a given date to any interested party legally entitled to the information.

(5) Even though notice of a tax lien has been filed as provided by subsection (4) of this section, and notwithstanding the provisions of KRS 382.520, the tax lien imposed by subsection (2) of this section shall not be valid with respect to a security interest which came into existence after tax lien filing by reason of disbursements made within forty-five (45) days after the date of tax lien filing or the date the person making the disbursements had actual notice or knowledge of tax lien filing, whichever is earlier, provided the security interest:

(a) Is in property which:

1. At the time of tax lien filing is subject to the tax lien imposed by subsection (2) of this section; and

2. Is covered by the terms of a written agreement entered into before tax lien filing; and

(b) Is protected under local law against a judgment lien arising, as of the time of tax lien filing, out of an unsecured obligation.

Section 270. KRS 134.430 is amended to read as follows:

(1) All personal property owned by a delinquent taxpayer shall be subject to distraint, and all property owned by him shall be subject to levy and sale by the proper collecting officer at any time from February 1 after the tax claim becomes delinquent until the tax claim is barred by limitations, unless otherwise provided by law.

(2) When any taxpayer becomes delinquent in the payment of a tax bill covering any property assessed by the property valuation administrator, the county board of assessment appeals, the department[~~cabinet~~], or any omitted property irrespective of by whom assessed, the sheriff may distrain a sufficient quantity of the delinquent's personal property in the county to pay the tax claim, and a necessary part of this property shall be sold as under execution for cash. Neglect on the part of the sheriff to distrain and sell personal property shall not affect the validity of the sale of the tax claim, or the lien or the rights of any purchaser. If personal property sufficient to satisfy the tax claim cannot be found in the county, the sheriff may sell so much of the personal property as is found and enter proper credit on the tax bill.

(3) As compensation for services, the sheriff shall be entitled to an additional ten percent (10%) of that part of the tax claim represented by the total taxes plus ten percent (10%) penalty, for all delinquent taxes collected from the time the ten percent (10%) penalty becomes applicable through the sale of the tax claims. This fee shall be added to the total amount due and paid by the person paying the delinquent tax bill.

(4) If no personal property is found, or the amount found is insufficient, the sheriff shall, no later than the first full week in April, advertise for sale the tax claims of the state, county, and other taxing districts, if there is any real property subject to the lien provided in subsection (1) of KRS 134.420. The sheriff shall receive offers for the purchase of tax claims up to fifteen (15) business days following the date of the initial advertisement or no later than April 30, or the last business day prior to April 30, if April 30 falls on a weekend or holiday.

(5) No sheriff shall knowingly sell a tax claim on the same tract of land more than once for the same tax.

Section 271. KRS 134.450 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The sheriff shall sell all tax claims for which payment by the delinquent taxpayer has not been made by the closing date for the acceptance by the sheriff of offers to purchase delinquent tax claims. If there is more than one (1) willing purchaser who has made an offer, the one having made the most recent purchase of a tax claim against the same delinquent or the same property shall have preference; if there is no such person, the person being the first, in the judgment of the sheriff, to offer to pay cash in the full amount of the tax claim shall receive priority for the purchase of the tax claim. If the total of all offers to purchase exceeds ten percent (10%) of the total dollar amount of the delinquent bills offered for sale, or the sum of two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000), whichever is less, the sheriff shall notify the Finance and Administration Cabinet of the offers of purchase within five (5) business days of the closing date when the offers were received. Upon receipt of the notice, the Finance and Administration Cabinet shall purchase the delinquent tax bills upon which the sheriff has received an offer of purchase and shall tender payment to the sheriff within fifteen (15) business days of the receipt of the sheriff's notice. Upon purchase of the tax claims, the state shall be the owner of the tax bills and may contract with the county attorney to collect all amounts due on its behalf under the terms and conditions of the county attorney's contract with the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] to collect delinquent taxes. If the county attorney has not contracted with the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] to collect delinquent taxes, the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] shall collect all amounts due on behalf of the Finance and Administration Cabinet. If the Finance and Administration Cabinet does not purchase all of the delinquent tax bills, within fifteen (15) days of the closing date, the sheriff shall complete the sale of those tax claims for which the sheriff has received responsible offers to purchase. When a sale is made the tax bill shall be known as a certificate of delinquency and the sheriff shall inscribe thereon the date of sale, the sale price, and the name and address of the purchaser, in the place and manner prescribed by the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~], and the purchaser shall be entitled to a certified copy of the certificate of delinquency.

(2) If no responsible offer in the amount of the tax claim is received, the sheriff shall purchase it for the state, county, and taxing districts having an interest in the tax claim. In such case, the tax bill shall also be known as a certificate of delinquency, and the sheriff shall inscribe thereon the same information required when one other than the state, county, or taxing district is the purchaser.

(3) The sheriff shall file all certificates of delinquency in the county clerk's office immediately upon completion of the tax sale, or in a county containing a city of the first class or consolidated local government, within fourteen (14) working days of the sale, and the clerk shall retain them. The county clerk shall acknowledge receipt of the certificates by signing a receipt form that has been prepared in a manner prescribed by the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~]. If the sheriff fails to file the certificates, he shall be liable on his official bond for the aggregate amount of the certificates not returned, but the claim of the purchaser shall not be affected by this neglect. If the sheriff fails to return any certificate, the purchaser may file his certified copy with the clerk, with the same effect as the original.

(4) The clerk shall make, execute, and deliver a certified copy of a certificate of delinquency to the payor, or the clerk may provide for a certified electronic register of the certificates of delinquency in the clerk's record in lieu of delivering a certified copy of the certificate of delinquency.

(5) The certificate of delinquency is assignable by endorsement. The clerk shall note the assignment on the certificate of delinquency or the clerk may provide for a certified electronic certificate of delinquency in the clerk's records in lieu of delivering a certified copy of the certificate of delinquency. An assignment when noted on the record in the office of the county clerk vests in the assignee all rights and title of the original purchaser.

Section 272. KRS 134.480 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The delinquent taxpayer or any person owning or having a legal or equitable interest in real property covered by a certificate of delinquency may at any time pay the total amount of the certificate to any purchaser thereof, and any person whatsoever may likewise pay a certificate of delinquency when the state, county, or taxing district was the purchaser. When a certificate is paid to an owner other than the state, county, or taxing district, the assignee shall mark paid in full on the certified copy of the certificate and shall surrender the certified copy of the certificate of delinquency to the person making payment, and if he is the person primarily liable on the certificate he may file it with the county clerk and have the certificate released of record. When a certificate of delinquency has been fully paid to the state, county, and taxing districts, the clerk shall note the name and address of the person making the payment, the amount paid by him, and such other information as the Department of Revenue[~~Cabinet~~] may require. The clerk shall mark the certificate of delinquency paid in full. Payment in such instance by one other than the person primarily liable on the certificate will amount to an assignment thereof. The clerk shall note the assignment on the certificate of delinquency and provide the assignee a certified copy of the certificate of delinquency, or the clerk may provide for a certified electronic certificate of delinquency in the clerk's records in lieu of delivering a certified copy of the certificate of delinquency. Anyone other than the person primarily liable who pays a certificate or purchases it from an owner other than the state, county, and taxing district may, by paying a fee of fifty cents ($0.50), have the clerk record the payment or purchase and such recordation shall constitute an assignment thereof. Failure to obtain such an assignment shall render the claim of such payor or purchaser to any real estate represented thereby inferior to rights of other bona fide purchasers, payors, or creditors. Any owner of a certificate of delinquency once having paid the assignment fee may have a change of his address noted of record by the clerk without paying an additional charge, otherwise he shall pay a fee of fifty cents ($0.50) to the clerk for entering such change on the certificate.

(2) The county clerk may receive payment of the amount due on certificates of delinquency owned by the state, county, and taxing districts, and he shall give a receipt to the payor and make a report to the Department of Revenue[~~Cabinet~~], the county treasurer, and the proper officials of the taxing districts as often as such units may require, and not less than once in every thirty (30) days. The clerk may accept payment of taxes due by any commercially acceptable means, including credit cards. He shall pay to the Department of Revenue[~~Cabinet~~] for deposit with the State Treasurer all moneys collected by him due the state, to the county treasurer all moneys due the county, and to the authorized officers of the taxing districts the amount due each such district. He shall pay the amount of fees, costs, commissions, and penalties to the persons, agencies, or parties entitled thereto. He shall retain ten percent (10%) of the amount due each taxing unit for his services as a fee. This fee shall be added to the amount of the tax claim and paid by the persons paying the tax claim.

(3) If the person entitled to pay a certificate of delinquency sends a registered letter addressed to the owner of record of the certificate, other than the state, county, or taxing district, and the letter is returned by mail unclaimed, the sender thereof may make payment to the county clerk, who shall make the necessary assignment or release and deposit the money to the account of the owner of record in the nearest bank having its deposits insured with the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation. The clerk may deduct the sum of fifty cents ($0.50) as a fee for such service. The name of the bank in which the money is deposited shall be noted on the certificate.

(4) If any clerk fails to pay to the person entitled thereto, upon demand, the money received in payment of a certificate of delinquency, he and his sureties shall be liable for the same and twenty percent (20%) interest thereon annually from the time he received it until paid.

(5) Copies of the records provided for in KRS 134.450 and this section, certified by the county clerk, shall be evidence of the facts stated in them in all the courts of this state.

Section 273. KRS 134.500 is amended to read as follows:

(1) (a) Certificates of delinquency shall bear interest at twelve percent (12%) per annum simple interest from the date the certificate of delinquency is issued. A fraction of a month is counted as an entire month. The five dollar ($5) sheriff's fee, the advertising costs provided in KRS 134.420, the clerk's add-on fee provided in KRS 134.480, and the county attorney's add-on fee provided in this section shall be included in the interest calculation in counties containing cities of the first class or consolidated local government and shall be excluded in other counties, except upon adoption of an ordinance by a county to include in the interest calculation the fees provided for in KRS 134.420, the clerk's add-on fee provided in KRS 134.480, and the county attorney's add-on fee provided in this section. All tax bills on omitted property that were not turned over to the sheriff in time to be collected or to make the sale provided for in KRS 134.430 and 134.440 shall also be submitted to the fiscal court but shall be carried over as a charge against the sheriff at the time he or she makes the next regular settlement.

(b) A certificate of delinquency shall bear interest at twelve percent (12%) per annum simple interest from the date the certificate of delinquency is issued. A fraction of a month is counted as an entire month. The total amount of the certificate of delinquency, the clerk's add-on fee provided in KRS 134.480, and the county attorney's add-on fee provided in this section shall be included in the base for the interest calculation. All tax bills on omitted property that were not turned over to the sheriff in time to be collected or to make the sale provided for in KRS 134.430 and 134.440 shall also be submitted to the fiscal court but shall be carried over as a charge against the sheriff at the time he makes his next regular settlement.

(2) The department[~~cabinet~~] shall be responsible for the collection of certificates of delinquency and delinquent personal property tax bills; however, the department[~~cabinet~~] shall first offer the collection duties to the county attorney, unless the department[~~cabinet~~] determines that the county attorney has previously failed to perform collection duties in a reasonable and acceptable manner. Any county attorney desiring to perform the duties associated with the collection of delinquent tax claims shall enter into a contract with the department[~~cabinet~~] on an annual basis. The terms of the contract shall specify the duties to be undertaken by the county attorney. These duties shall include but are not limited to the following actions:

(a) Within fifty (50) days after the issuance of a certificate of delinquency to the state, county, and taxing district, the county attorney or the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] shall cause a notice of the purchase to be mailed by regular mail to the property owner at the address on the records of the property valuation administrator. The notice shall advise the owner that the certificate is a lien of record against all property of the owner, and bears interest at the rate of twelve percent (12%) per annum, and if not paid will be subject to collection by the county attorney as provided by law.

(b) The county attorney shall file in the office of the county clerk a list of the names and addresses to which the notice was mailed along with a certificate that the notice was mailed in accordance with the requirements of this section.

(c) All notices returned as undeliverable shall be submitted to the property valuation administrator. The property valuation administrator shall attempt to correct inadequate or erroneous addresses and, if property has been transferred, shall determine the new owner and the current mailing address. The property valuation administrator shall return the notices with the corrected information to the county attorney prior to the expiration of the one (1) year tolling period provided in KRS 134.470.

(d) Within ninety (90) days after the expiration of the one (1) year tolling period provided in KRS 134.470, the county attorney shall cause a notice of his intention to enforce the lien to be mailed to all owners whose tax bills remain delinquent. No second notice shall be required for addresses previously determined to be undeliverable and for which the property valuation administrator has not provided corrected information.

(e) Failure to mail the notices shall not affect the validity of the claim of the state, county, and taxing district. The postal cost of mailing the notices shall be added to the certificate of delinquency and, upon collection, the county attorney shall be reimbursed for the postage. The county attorney shall deliver at the same time a list of the owners whose tax bills remain delinquent to the property valuation administrator. The property valuation administrator shall review this list in accordance with the provisions of KRS 132.220 to establish that the properties on the list can be identified and physically located.

(3) The county attorney who enters into a contract with the department[~~cabinet~~] shall have a period of two (2) years after the expiration of the one (1) year tolling period provided in KRS 134.470 to collect delinquent tax bills or to initiate court action for their collection. At the expiration of the two (2) years the department[~~cabinet~~] may assume responsibility for all uncollected bills except those with pending court action.

(4) The county attorney who enters into a contract with the department[~~cabinet~~] and performs his or her duties in respect to the certificate of delinquency and delinquent personal property tax bills shall be entitled to twenty percent (20%) of the amount due each taxing unit, whether the tax claim is voluntarily paid or is paid through sale or under court order, and the fee shall be paid to him by the county clerk when making distribution, as provided in KRS 134.480. This fee shall be added to the amount of the tax claims and paid by the persons paying the tax claims. They shall not be paid by the taxing districts or deducted from the taxes due the taxing districts. This fee shall be waived if the certificate of delinquency is paid by the taxpayer only within five (5) days of the sheriff's sale. If more than one (1) county attorney renders necessary services in an effort to collect a tax claim, the attorney serving the last notice or rendering the last substantial service preceding collection shall be entitled to the fee. When the county attorney's office, in an effort to collect a certificate of delinquency, or delinquent personal property tax bills files a court action which is litigated by the taxpayer, an additional county's attorney fee equal to thirteen percent (13%) of the total tax plus ten percent (10%) penalty, may be added to the certificate or the bill and shall become part of the tax claim.

(5) If a county attorney chooses not to contract for these collection duties or if a county attorney fails to perform the duties required by the contract, the department[~~cabinet~~] shall assume responsibility for the collection process. In the performance of those duties, the department[~~cabinet~~] shall have all the powers, rights, duties, and authority with respect to the collection, refund, and administration of the amount due on the certificate of delinquency conferred generally upon the department[~~cabinet~~] by Kentucky Revised Statutes including, but not limited to, KRS Chapters 131, 134, and 135. The twenty percent (20%) fee that would have otherwise been paid to the county attorney shall be paid to the department[~~cabinet~~] for deposit in the delinquent tax fund provided for under KRS 134.400.

(6) Any action on behalf of the state, county, and taxing districts authorized by this section or by KRS 134.470, 134.490, or 134.540 shall be filed on relation of the commissioner[~~secretary~~], and the petition may be sent to the department[~~cabinet~~], which may require revision in instances where it deems revision or amendment necessary. The department[~~cabinet~~] shall advise the county attorney in all actions, and may send him or her special assistance when the commissioner[~~secretary~~] deems assistance necessary. A copy of the judgment shall also be sent to the department[~~cabinet~~]. If the department[~~cabinet~~] sends assistance to a county attorney who contracts to prosecute the suits or proceedings, the county attorney shall be entitled to his or her full fee. On the same day that suit is filed, the county clerk shall be given notice of its filing. Costs incident to the suit shall become a part of the tax claim.

(7) The department[~~cabinet~~] may make its delinquent tax collection databases and other technical resources, including but not limited to income tax refund offsetting, available to the county attorney upon request from the county attorney. The county attorney seeking assistance shall enter into any agreements required by the department[~~cabinet~~] to protect taxpayer confidentiality, to ensure database integrity, or to address other concerns of the department[~~cabinet~~].

(8) The county attorney may, at any time after assuming collection duties, enter into an agreement with the delinquent taxpayer to accept installment payments on the delinquent tax bill. The agreement shall not waive the county attorney's right to initiate court action or other authorized collection activities if the taxpayer does not make payments in accordance with the agreement.

Section 274. KRS 134.505 is amended to read as follows:

Any person while serving as county attorney who was required by law by reason of his office to prosecute an action or to assist the commissioner[~~secretary~~] of revenue in prosecuting an action to enforce a claim of the state, county, school district and any other taxing district to any land which was purchased by such districts at a sheriff's sale or sales for delinquent taxes and who did not institute such action before he relinquished his office or otherwise failed to perform substantially all the duties of his office relative to the claim, shall not be entitled to receive any commission or compensation for any such sale or sales when the redemption costs are paid. Any county clerk or other person authorized to collect funds to satisfy unredeemed land sales shall be liable for any such money distributed as a commission to any former county attorney who is not entitled to it.

(1) After the state, county and taxing districts obtain real property as authorized by KRS 134.490, the designated agent of the commissioner[~~secretary~~] of revenue may advertise and sell at public sale any of the lands, and the commissioner[~~secretary~~] may convey the lands by deed to the purchaser. The commissioner[~~secretary~~] shall, within thirty (30) days from receipt of payment, pay to the county and taxing district the amount of the proceeds due each. The Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] shall be entitled to an administration fee equal to fifteen percent (15%) of the sale price of the property, which shall be paid into the delinquent tax fund provided for in KRS 134.400.

(2) The sales shall be advertised by a written or printed notice posted at the courthouse door for fifteen (15) days before the date of sale, and by publication pursuant to KRS Chapter 424, and may in addition be advertised by printed handbills posted for fifteen (15) days before the date of sale in three (3) or more conspicuous places in the taxing districts.

(3) Any real property acquired by the state, county and taxing districts pursuant to KRS 134.490 may be redeemed at any time before the commissioner[~~secretary~~] gives a deed to a purchaser, by paying to the county clerk the amount due at the time the property was acquired, plus subsequent costs and interest at the rate of twelve percent (12%) per annum.

Section 276. KRS 134.540 is amended to read as follows:

(1) When the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] has reason to believe that any sale made under the authority of Section 32 of Article VIII of Chapter 22 of the Acts of 1906, or Section 3 of Chapter 43 of the Acts of 1908, or Section 2 or 5 of Chapter 21 of the Acts of the first Extraordinary Session of 1938, is for any reason invalid, the invalidity may be alleged in an action to establish the lien provided for in Chapter 152 of the Acts of 1934. The action shall be brought on the relation of the commissioner[~~secretary~~] of revenue, who shall publish notice on the courthouse door for fourteen (14) days before instituting the action, notifying all delinquents that actions will be instituted unless the delinquent taxes against land subject to such actions are paid at once. If the owner does not redeem the land within ten (10) days after the expiration of the fourteen (14) day period, and the commissioner[~~secretary~~] is required to institute action, the state shall be entitled to a fee equal to fifteen percent (15%) of the amount of the taxes, penalties and interest, which shall be paid into the delinquent tax fund provided under KRS 134.400, to be used by the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] to cover the expenses of filing and administering such actions. If the property is redeemed after action is instituted, the fee shall become a part of the redemption price. The commissioner[~~secretary~~] may, if he deems necessary, institute action without giving the notice provided in this section, in which event the fifteen percent (15%) fee shall not apply.

(2) The county attorney shall assist the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] in filing and prosecuting the actions. For these services he shall be entitled to twenty percent (20%) of the taxes, penalties and interest. If he fails or refuses to assist in filing and prosecuting the actions, he shall not be entitled to this fee.

(3) An action shall not be instituted on behalf of the state to establish the lien provided for in Chapter 152 of the Acts of 1934 until after the expiration of the time that must expire before action to recover possession can be instituted.

Section 277. KRS 134.580 is amended to read as follows:

(1) As used in this section, unless the context requires otherwise:

(a) "Agency" means the agency of state government which administers the tax to be refunded or credited.

(b) "Overpayment" or "payment where no tax was due" means the tax liability under the terms of the applicable statute without reference to the constitutionality of the statute.

(2) When money has been paid into the State Treasury in payment of any state taxes, except ad valorem taxes, whether payment was made voluntarily or involuntarily, the appropriate agency shall authorize refunds or credits, to the person who paid the tax, or to his heirs, personal representatives or assigns, of any overpayment of tax and any payment where no tax was due. When a bona fide controversy exists between the agency and the taxpayer as to the liability of the taxpayer for the payment of tax claimed to be due by the agency, the taxpayer may pay the amount claimed by the agency to be due, and if an appeal is taken by the taxpayer from the ruling of the agency within the time provided by KRS 131.340 and it is finally adjudged that the taxpayer was not liable for the payment of the tax or any part thereof, the agency shall authorize the refund or credit as the Kentucky Board of Tax Appeals or courts may direct.

(3) Refunds or credits shall be authorized with interest as provided in KRS 131.183. The refunds authorized by this section shall be made in the same manner as other claims on the State Treasury are paid. They shall not be charged against any appropriation, but shall be deducted from tax receipts for the current fiscal year.

(4) Nothing in this section shall be construed to authorize the agency to make or cause to be made any refund except within four (4) years of the date prescribed by law for the filing of a return including any extension of time for filing the return, or the date the money was paid into the State Treasury, whichever is the later, except in any case where the assessment period has been extended by written agreement between the taxpayer and the department[~~cabinet~~], the limitation contained in this subsection shall be extended accordingly. Nothing in this section shall be construed as requiring the agency to authorize any refund or credit to a taxpayer without demand from the taxpayer, if in the opinion of the agency the cost to the state of authorizing the refund or credit would be greater than the amount that should be refunded or credited.

(5) This section shall not apply to any case in which the statute may be held unconstitutional, either in whole or in part.

(6) In cases in which a statute has been held unconstitutional, taxes paid thereunder may be refunded to the extent provided by KRS 134.590, and by the statute held unconstitutional.

(c) When ad valorem taxes on a vehicle become delinquent for sixty (60) days, as defined by KRS 134.810, a second notice shall be sent within ten (10) working days to the January 1 owner of record. The notice shall inform the delinquent owner of the lien provisions provided by KRS 134.810 on all vehicles owned or acquired by the owner of the vehicle at the time the tax liability arose.

(d) These notices shall be calculated, prepared, and mailed first class on behalf of county clerks by the AVIS. Nonreceipt of the notices required herein shall not constitute any defense against applicable penalty, interest, lien fees, or costs recovery.

The county clerk making such collections shall receive commissions on collections as set out for other collections on motor vehicles.

(5) All moneys collected under this section by a county clerk on motor vehicles which had a taxable situs in another county shall be reported and deposited with the state, after he has deducted the appropriate commissions due from these collections, and such collections shall be distributed to the proper tax district.

(6) The department[~~cabinet~~] shall provide procedures governing receipt and disbursement of all moneys collected under subsections (4) and (5) of this section.

(3) In all actions brought under subsection (1) of this section in which a judgment is recovered, the party in default shall, in addition to the amount found to be due the state or any county, school or other taxing district, be adjudged to pay a penalty of twenty percent (20%) on the amount due.

Section 285. KRS 135.080 is amended to read as follows:

(1) When an action is brought in the Franklin Circuit Court against a sheriff or clerk, or against the sureties on his official bond, or against his heirs, devisees or representatives, or against any other person required to pay money into the State Treasury or to do any other act required by law to be done in connection with the payment of money into the State Treasury after it has been collected, the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] shall, twenty (20) days before the trial, mail to the defendant in the action, directed to him at the courthouse of his county, a notice in writing stating the amount judgment will be asked for and the time the court will be held. The department[~~cabinet~~] shall file a copy of this notice, with the name of the person to whom sent and the time when and the place where sent, with the clerk of the court, to be filed by him and kept with the papers in the action.

(2) The court, without further notice to the parties, shall proceed with the action. The department[~~cabinet~~] shall file with the clerk of the court a memorandum of the names of the parties, the amount due from each defaulter against whom judgment is demanded, and a copy of the bond if any. The clerk shall docket the action in the order in which the names stand on the memorandum.

(3) Judgments, when given against the defendants in the cases referred to in this section, shall be for the principal due with interest at the rate of ten percent (10%) per annum from the time the amount was due until paid.

Section 286. KRS 135.090 is amended to read as follows:

If any of the defendants in an action brought under KRS 135.080 shall, upon oath, deny the execution of the bonds or instruments whereby they are sought to be made liable, a jury, if required, shall be impaneled to try the facts. All other facts may be tried by the court. Nothing but a receipt from the State Treasurer for the payment of the taxes or money claimed shall be admitted on the trial, except orders of the court and receipts in pursuance thereof, the records of the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] and the State Treasurer, and the delinquent list. No tender of payment nor any offset shall be pleaded or given in evidence.

Section 287. KRS 135.100 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Judgments in the name of the state or county against sheriffs and other public collectors, their sureties, or their heirs, devisees or personal representatives, or any of them, shall bind the estate, legal or equitable, of all of the defendants to the judgments from the commencement of the action until satisfied. No execution thereon shall be stayed by replevin or sale on credit, but in all such cases the estate taken in execution shall be sold for money, except that the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] may, with the consent of the Attorney General, indorse the right to replevy on the execution where the tax is payable to the department[~~cabinet~~], and a like privilege is given to the sheriff, with the consent of the county attorney, when the taxes are payable to the sheriff.

(2) Any officer who makes a false return on such execution shall be subjected to the payment of the whole amount of the execution and costs, in addition to the penalty provided by subsection (3) of KRS 135.990.

(3) No person shall attempt, by any fraudulent execution, conveyance, encumbrance or otherwise, to stop or injure the sale of the estate under the execution.

Section 288. KRS 135.120 is amended to read as follows:

When the property of the defendant in execution, upon a judgment against a defaulting public officer, is encumbered by a previous bona fide mortgage, deed of trust or other encumbrance or prior lien, the officer shall, if no other property is found upon which to levy the execution, levy it upon the encumbered property and return the same. He shall make return of all the facts known to him, giving the date and consideration of the instrument creating the lien, to whom made, when recorded, the evidences of any prior lien, and the names of the parties who claim the same. Proceedings may be instituted by the sheriff or the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~], in the name of the state, in the county where the property is located, to have the property sold, the claims and demands, if just, satisfied, all encumbrances removed, and the proceeds of the sale of the property rightfully applied.

Section 289. KRS 135.130 is amended to read as follows:

(1) If return is made on an execution against a sheriff or other public defaulter to the state and his sureties that there was no sale of personal property for the want of bidders, the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] may direct the property levied upon to be removed from county to county for sale, as often as may be necessary, the cost of removal to be paid out of the sale of the estate as other costs. The officer who levied the execution may sell the property in any county to which it is so removed. If real property is levied upon, the place of sale may be changed to another county, and the officer may there sell and convey the property as in the county where the levy was made.

(2) The state may have executions in the hands of collecting officers in any number of counties at the same time.

Section 290. KRS 136.030 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Every corporation organized under the laws of this state, or doing business in this state, and domestic life insurance companies, shall by February 15, of each year make a true and correct report to the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] signed by its president, secretary, treasurer, or other chief officer, giving the names and addresses of residents of this state who hold its outstanding bonds as of January 1 previous thereto, and also the transfer of any of its bonds by residents of this state to nonresidents within thirty (30) days previous to January 1.

(2) Every broker-dealer or his agent doing business in this state pursuant to KRS Chapter 292, shall on or before March 1, each year, as of the preceding January 1, furnish the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] the following information:

  (a) Name and address of all Kentucky residents whose stocks, bonds, or other securities, excluding stocks and mutual funds, are held in a name other than that of the actual owner and which are in the possession of or subject to the control of such broker-dealer or his agent, for the benefit of such actual owner. This shall be construed to include all accounts fully paid;

  (b) Name of company by whom bonds or other securities were issued;

  (c) Interest rate, maturity date, par value, and number of bonds held, and sufficient information to measure the quantity of other securities; and

  (d) Market value as of the previous January 1.

Section 291. KRS 136.050 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Except where otherwise specially provided, all corporations required to make reports to the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] shall pay all taxes due the state from them into the State Treasury at the same time as natural persons are required to pay taxes, and when delinquent shall pay the same rate of interest and penalties as natural persons who are delinquent.

(2) All state taxes assessed against any corporation under the provisions of KRS 136.120 to 136.200 shall be due and payable as provided in KRS 131.110. All county, city, school, and other taxes so assessed shall be due and payable thirty (30) days after notice of the amount of the tax is given by the collecting officer. The state, county, city, school, and other taxes found to be due on any protested assessment or portion thereof shall begin to bear legal interest on the sixty-first day after the Kentucky Board of Tax Appeals acknowledges receipt of a protest of any assessment or enters an order to certify the unprotested portion of any assessment until paid, except that in no event shall interest begin to accrue prior to January 1 following April 30 of the year in which the report is due. Every corporation so assessed that fails to pay its taxes when due shall be deemed delinquent, a penalty of ten percent (10%) on the amount of the tax shall attach, and thereafter the tax shall bear interest at the tax interest rate as defined in KRS 131.010(6).

Section 292. KRS 136.070 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Every corporation organized under the laws of this state, every corporation having its commercial domicile in this state, and every foreign corporation owning or leasing property located in this state or having one (1) or more individuals receiving compensation in this state, except financial institutions as defined in KRS 136.500, savings and loan associations organized under the laws of this state and under the laws of the United States and making loans to members only, open-end registered investment companies organized under the laws of this state and registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940, production credit associations, insurance companies, including farmers' or other mutual hail, cyclone, windstorm or fire insurance companies, insurers and reciprocal underwriters, public service companies subject to taxation under KRS 136.120, those corporations exempted by Section 501 of the Internal Revenue Code, any property or facility which has been certified as an alcohol production facility as defined in KRS 247.910, any property or facility which has been certified as a fluidized bed energy production facility as defined in KRS 211.390, and any other religious, educational, charitable, or like corporations not organized or conducted for pecuniary profit, shall pay to the state an annual license tax of two dollars and ten cents ($2.10) on each one thousand dollars ($1,000) of the capital employed in the business as computed under the provisions of subsections (2) and (3) of this section, subject to the credit provided in subsection (6) of this section.

(2) (a) The term "capital" as used in this section means capital stock, surplus, advances by affiliated companies, intercompany accounts, borrowed moneys or any other accounts representing additional capital used and employed in the business. Accounts properly defined as "capital" in this section shall be reported at the value reflected on financial statements prepared for book purposes as of the last day of the calendar or fiscal year;

(b) "Capital employed," in the case of corporations having property or payroll only in this state, means "capital" as defined above;

(c) "Capital employed," in the case of corporations having property or payroll both within and without this state means "capital" as defined above and as apportioned under subsection (3) of this section;

(d) Property means either real property or tangible personal property which is either owned or leased. Payroll means compensation, paid to one (1) or more individuals, as described in subsection (3) of this section. Property and payroll are deemed to be entirely within this state if all other states are prohibited by Public Law 86-272, as it existed on December 31, 1975, from enforcing income tax jurisdiction.

(3) The total capital, as determined under subsection (2) of this section, shall be apportioned as follows:

(a) The total capital shall be multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the property factor plus the payroll factor, plus the sales factor, and the denominator of which is three (3); provided, however, that effective with taxable years beginning after July 31, 1985, in lieu of the equally weighted three (3) factor apportionment fraction based on property, payroll, and sales, an apportionment fraction composed of a sales factor representing fifty percent (50%) of the fraction, a property factor representing twenty-five percent (25%) of the fraction, and a payroll factor representing twenty-five percent (25%) of the fraction shall be used;

(b) The property factor is a fraction, the numerator of which is the average value of the taxpayer's real and tangible personal property owned or rented and used in this state during the tax period and the denominator of which is the average value of all the taxpayer's real and tangible personal property owned or rented and used during the tax period; provided, however, that property which has been certified as a pollution control facility as defined in KRS 224.01-300 shall be excluded from the property factor:

1. Property owned by the taxpayer is valued at its original cost. If the original cost of any property is not determinable or is nominal or zero, such property shall be valued by the department~~[cabinet]~~ under regulations promulgated by the department~~[cabinet]~~. Property rented by the taxpayer is valued at eight (8) times the net annual rental rate. Net annual rental rate is the annual rental rate paid by the taxpayer less any annual rental rate received by the taxpayer from subrentals, provided that such rental and such subrentals are reasonable. If the department~~[cabinet]~~ determines that the annual rental or subrental rate is unreasonable, or if nominal or zero rate is charged, the department~~[cabinet]~~ may determine and apply such rental rate as will reasonably reflect the value of the property rented by the taxpayer; and

2. The average value of property shall be determined by averaging the values at the beginning and ending of the tax period but the department~~[cabinet]~~ may require the averaging of monthly values during the tax period if reasonably required to reflect properly the average value of the taxpayer's property;

(c) The payroll factor is a fraction, the numerator of which is the total amount paid or payable in this state during the tax period by the taxpayer for compensation, and the denominator of which is the total compensation paid or payable everywhere during the tax period. Compensation is paid or payable in this state if:

1. The individual's service is performed entirely within the state;

2. The individual's service is performed both within and without the state, but the service performed without the state is incidental to the individual's service within the state; or

3. Some of the service is performed in the state and the base of operations or, if there is no base of operations, the place from which the service is directed or controlled is in the state, or the base of operations or the place from which the service is directed or controlled is not in any state in which some part of the service is performed, but the individual's residence is in this state;

(d) The sales factor is a fraction, the numerator of which is the total sales of the taxpayer in this state during the tax period, and the denominator of which is the total sales of the taxpayer everywhere during the tax period. Sales of tangible personal property are in this state if:

1. The property is delivered or shipped to a purchaser, other than the United States government, or to the designee of the purchaser within this state regardless of the f.o.b. point or other conditions of the sale;

2. The property is shipped from an office, store, warehouse, factory, or other place of storage in this state and the purchaser is the United States government; or

3. Sales, other than sales of tangible personal property, are in this state if the income-producing activity is performed in this state; or the income-producing activity is performed both in and outside this state and a greater proportion of the income-producing activity is performed in this state than in any other state, based on costs of performance.

(4) If the apportionment provisions of this section do not fairly measure the taxpayer's capital in this state, the taxpayer may petition for or the department[~~cabinet~~] may require:

(a) The exclusion of any one (1) or more of the factors;

(b) The inclusion of one (1) or more additional factors which will fairly measure the taxpayer's capital in this state; or

(c) The employment of any other method to produce an equitable apportionment of the taxpayer's capital.

(5) No corporation required to pay an annual license tax under this section shall pay less than thirty dollars ($30).

(6) Every corporation with a gross income of not more than five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000) shall be entitled to a credit equivalent to one dollar and forty cents ($1.40) per one thousand dollars ($1,000) of the initial three hundred and fifty thousand dollars ($350,000) of capital employed in the business, as computed under the provisions of KRS 136.070(2) and (3).

(1) As used in this section, unless the context requires otherwise:

(a) "Approved company" means a company approved under KRS 154.26-010 and subject to license tax under KRS 136.070;

(b) "Economic revitalization project" shall have the same meaning as set forth in KRS 154.26-010; and

(c) "Tax credit" means the tax credit allowed in KRS 154.26-090(1)(c)2.

(2) An approved company that entered into a revitalization agreement prior to July 13, 2004, shall:

(a) Compute the company's total license tax due as provided by KRS 136.070; and

(b) Compute the license tax due excluding the capital attributable to an economic revitalization project.

(3) The tax credit shall be the amount by which the tax computed under subsection (2)(a) of this section exceeds the tax computed under subsection (2)(b) of this section; however, the credit shall not exceed the limits set forth in KRS 154.26-090.

(4) The capital attributable to an economic revitalization project shall be determined by a formula approved by the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~].

(5) For an approved company that enters into a revitalization agreement after July 13, 2004, the tax credit shall be negotiated pursuant to KRS 154.26-090, but shall not exceed one hundred percent (100%) of the computed license tax attributable to the location of the economic revitalization project. In no case shall the tax credit exceed the limits set forth in KRS 154.26-090.

(6) The license tax attributable to a revitalization project shall be determined by a formula approved by the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~].

(7) The Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] may promulgate administrative regulations and require the filing of forms designed by the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] to reflect the intent of KRS 154.26-010 to 154.26-100 and the allowable income tax credit which an approved company may retain under KRS 154.26-010 to 154.26-100.

Section 294. KRS 136.073 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Every open-end registered investment company organized under the laws of this state and registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940 shall on or before the fifteenth day of the fourth month following the close of each fiscal year, if the company operates on a fiscal year basis or calendar year, file a report on forms prescribed by the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] and pay directly to the State Treasury a tax of two dollars and ten cents ($2.10) for each one thousand dollars ($1,000) of "average net capital" as computed under subsections (2) and (3) of this section.

(2) The term "net capital" as used in this section means capital stock, surplus, borrowed moneys or any other accounts representing capital of the company less the amount of such capital which by said company is invested in Kentucky municipal securities which are obligations issued by the State of Kentucky, its political subdivisions, and the districts, authorities, agencies and instrumentalities of the state and its political subdivisions, the interest on which is exempt from federal and Kentucky income tax.

(3) The term "average net capital" as used in this section means the average of the net capital of the company as shown on financial statements of the company as of the first and last days of the fiscal or calendar year of the company, whichever is applicable.

(4) The Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] shall examine and audit each report as soon as practicable after each report is received. Failure to make reports and pay taxes as provided in this section shall subject the company to the same penalties imposed for such failure on the part of other corporations.

Section 295. KRS 136.076 is amended to read as follows:

(1) As soon as practicable after each return is received, the department[~~cabinet~~] shall examine and audit it. If the amount of tax computed by the department[~~cabinet~~] is greater than the amount returned by the taxpayer, the additional tax shall be assessed and a notice of assessment mailed to the taxpayer by the department[~~cabinet~~] within four (4) years from the date the return was filed, except that in the case of a failure to file a return, or of a fraudulent return, the additional tax may be assessed at any time. The time provided in this section may be extended by agreement between the taxpayer and the department[~~cabinet~~].

(2) For the purpose of subsection (1) of this section, a return filed before the last day prescribed by law for filing the return thereof shall be considered as filed on the last day. For taxable years beginning after December 31, 1993, any extension of time granted for filing the return shall also be considered as extending the last day prescribed by law for filing the return.

Section 296. KRS 136.090 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Corporations liable to taxation under KRS 136.070 shall file with the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] each year, on forms prepared by the department[~~cabinet~~], a return signed by the president, vice president, secretary, treasurer, assistant secretary, assistant treasurer, or chief accounting officer. This report shall give the name of the corporation; the name of the state or government under the laws of which it is incorporated; the date of incorporation; the place of its principal office in and out of this state; the name and address of its president and secretary; the name and address of its authorized agent or attorney upon whom process may be executed in this state; the name and address of the officer or agent in charge of its business in this state; and the nature and kind of business in which it is engaged.

(2) The report shall also give the total value of all the property owned and used by the corporation; the value of the property owned and used by it in this state; the aggregate amount of business transacted by it during the preceding calendar year or fiscal year; the amount of such business transacted in this state; and such other facts as the department[~~cabinet~~] requires.

Section 297. KRS 136.100 is amended to read as follows:

(1) If the corporation operates on a calendar year basis, the reports required under KRS 136.090 shall be filed on or before April 15 in each year. If the corporation operates on a fiscal year basis, the reports shall be filed on or before the fifteenth day of the fourth month following the close of each fiscal year. The reports shall cover operations for the preceding calendar or fiscal year, as the case may be. Domestic corporations hereafter incorporated, and foreign corporations hereafter becoming the owners of property or transacting business in this state, shall make their reports to the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] on or before the first filing date succeeding their incorporation or succeeding their becoming the owners of property or transacting business in this state, and shall in all respects be subject to the provisions of KRS 136.070 to 136.100 the same as corporations already in existence.

(2) A corporation may change its reporting period from a calendar year to a fiscal year, or from a fiscal year to a calendar year, by securing written permission from the department[~~cabinet~~]. If a corporation so changes its basis of reporting, the first report filed on the new filing date shall cover operations for the period between the close of the old accounting period and the close of the new accounting period. The assessment of value shall be computed in the same manner as on any other return, but the tax due shall be computed on that proportionate part of the assessment that the period between the close of the old accounting period and the close of the new accounting period bears to the entire twelve (12) month period.

(3) In any case where two (2) or more corporations merge, consolidate or otherwise combine into a single corporation after the close of the taxable year, but before the beginning of the succeeding taxable year, all factors used to determine the corporation license tax assessment shall be computed on the basis of the consolidated accounting records of such corporations.

Section 298. KRS 136.120 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Every railway company, sleeping car company, chair car company, dining car company, gas company, water company, ferry company, bridge company, street railway company, interurban electric railroad company, express company, electric light company, electric power company, telephone company, telegraph company, commercial air carrier, air freight carrier, pipeline company, common carrier water transportation company, privately owned regulated sewer company, cable television company, municipal solid waste disposal facility, as defined by KRS 224.01-010(15), where solid waste is disposed by landfilling, railroad car line company, which means any company, other than a railroad company, which owns, uses, furnishes, leases, rents, or operates to, from, through, in, or across this state or any part thereof, any kind of railroad car including, but not limited to, flat, tank, refrigerator, passenger, or similar type car, and every other like company or business performing any public service, except bus line companies, regular and irregular route common carrier trucking companies, and taxicab companies, shall annually pay a tax on its operating property to the state and to the extent the property is liable to taxation shall pay a local tax thereon to the county, incorporated city, and taxing district in which its operating property is located.

(2) The property of the taxpayers shall be classified as operating property, nonoperating tangible property, and nonoperating intangible property. Nonoperating intangible property within the taxing jurisdiction of the Commonwealth shall be taxable for state purposes only at the same rate as the intangible property of other taxpayers not performing public services, and operating property and nonoperating tangible property shall be subject to state and local taxes at the same rate as the tangible property of other taxpayers not performing public services.

(3) The Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] shall have sole power to value and assess all of the property of every corporation, company, association, partnership, or person performing any public service, including those enumerated above and all others to whom this section may apply, whether or not the operating property, nonoperating tangible property, or nonoperating intangible property has heretofore been assessed by the department[~~cabinet~~], and shall allocate the assessment as provided by KRS 136.170, and shall certify operating property liable to local taxation and nonoperating tangible property to the counties, cities, and taxing districts as provided in KRS 136.180. In the case of a taxpayer whose business is predominantly nonpublic service and the public service business in which he is engaged is merely incidental to his principal business, the department[~~cabinet~~] shall in the exercise of its judgment and discretion determine, from evidence which it may have or obtain, what portion of the operating property is devoted to the public service business subject to assessment by the department[~~cabinet~~] under this section and shall require the remainder of the property not so engaged to be assessed by the local taxing authorities.

Section 299. KRS 136.130 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Each corporation included in KRS 136.120(1) shall annually, between December 31, and April 30, following, make and deliver to the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] a report in such form as the department[~~cabinet~~] may prescribe, showing such of the following facts as may be requested by the department[~~cabinet~~]: The name and principal place of business of the corporation; the kind of business engaged in; the amount of capital stock, preferred and common, and the number of shares of each; the amount of stock paid up; the par and fair cash value of the stock; the highest price at which the stock was sold at a bona fide sale within twelve (12) months next before December 31 of the year for which the report is required to be made; the amount of surplus funds and undivided profits; the total amount of indebtedness as principal; the cost and year acquired of all operating property owned, operated, or leased, including property under construction, property held for future use, and the depreciation attributable thereto as of December 31, the cost and year acquired of all nonoperating tangible property and the depreciation attributable thereto; the cost and market value as of December 31 of all intangible property; the value of all other assets; the operating and nonoperating revenues, the net utility operating income before and after depreciation and before and after income taxes, the net income from operations, the net income including income from investments, and income from all other sources for twelve (12) months next preceding December 31 of the year for which the report is required; the amount and kind of operating property in this state, and where situated in each county, city, and taxing district, assessed or liable to assessment in this state, and the fair cash value thereof, the length and description of all the lines operated, owned, or leased in this state and in each county, city, and taxing district; and such other facts as the department[~~cabinet~~] may require.

(2) The report shall cover the period of twelve (12) months ending December 31. The department[~~cabinet~~] may change the date of the reports to conform to any change in date established by federal regulations.

(3) If any corporation is in the hands or under the control of a receiver or other person, by order of a court, the receiver or other person shall make the reports required by this section and by KRS 136.140.

(4) All public service corporations included in KRS 136.120 shall file with the report required by subsection (1) of this section a copy of all reports to their stockholders and a complete copy of their report to the Kentucky regulating authority for the year ending December 31.

(5) The Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] may grant an extension of thirty (30) days to file the public service property tax return when, in its judgment, good cause exists. The department[~~cabinet~~] shall keep a record of every extension and the taxpayer shall attach a copy of the approved extension to his return when filed.

(6) A taxpayer may be granted a thirty (30) day extension for filing the public service company property tax return if it requests the extension before the due date of the return and includes with the extension request a report of any increases or decreases in property of fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) or more in any taxing district.

(2) The Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] shall, when valuing the property of corporations or companies assessable by it, value the vehicles at no less than the value used by the property valuation administrator.

(3) In certifying the assessment of property of public service companies subject to local taxation, the department[~~cabinet~~] shall separately certify the amount of the assessment representing the valuation of motor vehicles and trailers or an apportionment thereof.

Section 301. KRS 136.140 is amended to read as follows:

(1) If a public service corporation, foreign or domestic, operates and conducts its business in other states as well as in this state, the report required by KRS 136.130 shall show the following additional facts: the cost and year acquired of the operating property operated, owned, or leased, including property under construction, property held for future use, and depreciation attributable thereto for the property in this state as of December 31; and such other facts as the department[~~cabinet~~] may require.

(2) All public service corporations included in KRS 136.120 shall file with the report required by KRS 136.130 and this section a copy of all reports to their stockholders and a complete copy of their report to the federal regulating agency if their operations are interstate.

Section 302. KRS 136.150 is amended to read as follows:

If any corporation fails to report as required by KRS 136.130 and 136.140 on or before April 30 of each year, or May 30 if the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] has granted the corporation an extension, the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] shall ascertain the required facts and values in such manner and by such means as it deems proper, at the cost of the corporation failing to make the report.

Section 303. KRS 136.160 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] shall determine the fair cash value of the operating property of a domestic public service corporation as a unit. The fair cash value of the operating property shall be equalized.

(2) The Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] shall determine the fair cash value of the operating property of a foreign public service corporation or a domestic public service corporation with property or routes in Kentucky and outside Kentucky as a unit according to subsection (1). The fair cash value of the operating property everywhere valued as a unit shall be apportioned to Kentucky based on the average of the property factor and the business factor. The fair cash value of the operating property in Kentucky shall be equalized.

   (a) The property factor shall fairly reflect the amount of operating property operated, owned, or leased in Kentucky compared to the total amount of operating property operated, owned, or leased everywhere. An allocable portion of the rolling stock, aircraft, and watercraft of a common carrier shall be included in the operating property, operated, owned, or leased in Kentucky. This factor may be a single factor or an average of several factors.

   (b) The business factor shall fairly reflect the utilization of the operating property operated, owned, or leased in Kentucky compared to the utilization of the operating property operated, owned, or leased everywhere. This factor may be a single factor or an average of several factors.

(3) The nonoperating tangible and nonoperating intangible property of public service corporations whose operating property is valued according to either subsection (1) or (2) shall be valued by the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] in the same manner and according to the same standards as if this property were valued by the property valuation administrator in the county where the property has a taxable situs.

Section 304. KRS 136.170 is amended to read as follows:

The Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] shall allocate the assessed value of the operating property in this state among the counties, cities, and other taxing districts. The location of operating property and the proportion which the length of line or route operated in such taxing district bears to the total length of lines or route operated in this state shall be considered in this allocation and such other reasonable evidence of value as the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] may by regulations prescribe; provided, however, that the assessed value of nonoperating tangible property shall be allocated to the county, city, or other taxing district where the property is situated.

(1) The Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] shall, immediately after fixing the assessed value of the operating property and other property of a public service corporation for taxation, notify the corporation of the valuation and the amount of assessment for state and local purposes. When the valuation has been finally determined, the department[~~cabinet~~] shall immediately certify, unless otherwise specified, to the county clerk of each county in which any of the operating property or nonoperating tangible property assessment of the corporation is liable to local taxation, the amount of property liable for county, city, or district tax.

(2) No appeal shall delay the collection or payment of taxes based upon the assessment in controversy. The taxpayer shall pay all state, county, and district taxes due on the valuation which the taxpayer claims as the true value as stated in the protest filed under KRS 131.110. When the valuation is finally determined upon appeal, the taxpayer shall be billed for any additional tax and interest at the tax interest rate as defined in KRS 131.010(6), from the date the tax would have become due if no appeal had been taken. The provisions of KRS 134.390 shall apply to the tax bill.

(3) The Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] shall compute annually a multiplier for use in establishing the local tax rate for the operating property of railroads or railway companies that operate solely within the Commonwealth. The applicable local tax rates on the operating property shall be adjusted by the multiplier. The multiplier shall be calculated by dividing the statewide locally taxable business tangible personal property by the total statewide business tangible personal property.

(4) The Department of Revenue[~~Cabinet~~] shall annually calculate an aggregate local rate for each local taxing district to be used in determining local taxes to be collected for railroad carlines. The rate shall be the statewide tangible tax rate for each type of local taxing district multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the commercial and industrial tangible property assessment subject to full local rates and the denominator of which is the total commercial and industrial tangible personal property assessment. Effective January 1, 1994, state and local taxes on railroad carline property shall become due forty-five (45) days from the date of notice and shall be collected directly by the Department of Revenue[~~Cabinet~~]. The local taxes collected by the Department of Revenue[~~Cabinet~~] shall be distributed to each local taxing district levying a tax on railroad carlines based on the statewide average rate for each type of local taxing district. However, prior to distribution any fees owed to the Department of Revenue[~~Cabinet~~] by any local taxing district under the provisions of subsection (4) of this section shall be deducted.

(5) The certification of valuation shall be filed by each county clerk in his office, and shall be certified by the county clerk to the proper collecting officer of the county, city, or taxing district for collection. Any district which has the value certified by the department[~~cabinet~~] shall pay an annual fee to the department[~~cabinet~~] which represents an allocation of department[~~cabinet~~] operating and overhead expenses incurred in generating the valuations. This fee shall be determined by the department[~~cabinet~~] and shall apply to valuations for tax periods beginning on or after December 31, 1981.

Section 306. KRS 136.181 is amended to read as follows:

Boats, tugs, barges, and other watercraft of any nonresident person, corporation, partnership, or any other business association whose route or system is partly within this state and partly within another state or states, shall be valued by the Department of Revenue[~~Cabinet~~] for purposes of taxation and shall be assessed as of January 1 each year by the Department of Revenue[~~Cabinet~~]; and the department[~~cabinet~~] shall fairly divide, allocate, and certify such assessments to each county, city, town, or other taxing district within this state, within or through which such route or system is operated, the division, allocation, and certification to be determined in the following manner:

(1) The proportion of the value of the property which the length of the lines or route operated in this state bears to the total length of lines or route operated in this state and elsewhere, shall be considered in fixing the value of the property for taxation in this state. Any other reasonable evidence of value shall be considered in fixing the value, but such evidence must be prescribed by department[~~cabinet~~] regulations;

(2) After ascertaining the portion of the system valuation of such property attributable to this state, the Department of Revenue[~~Cabinet~~] shall allocate the value of the property among the counties, cities, towns, and other taxing districts. The proportion which the length of line or route operated in that jurisdiction or taxing district bears to the total length of lines or route operated in this state shall be considered in this allocation and such other reasonable evidence of value as the Department of Revenue[~~Cabinet~~] may by regulations prescribe.

Section 307. KRS 136.182 is amended to read as follows:

On or before March 1, 1955, and each year thereafter, each nonresident person, corporation, partnership or other business association owning or operating boats, tugs, barges, or other watercraft whose route or system is partly within this state and partly within another state or states, shall on forms provided by the Department of Revenue[~~Cabinet~~] provide the Department of Revenue[~~Cabinet~~] with a detailed description of all such property as well as a detailed description of the entire route or system traversed and such other information as the Department of Revenue[~~Cabinet~~] may by regulation prescribe.

Section 308. KRS 136.183 is amended to read as follows:

The taxes on the above property shall become due at the same time and shall be subject to the same discount and penalties as provided by KRS 134.020, and shall be collected in the same manner as taxes on other tangible property; except that the state tax on such property shall be collected directly by the Department of Revenue[~~Cabinet~~].

Section 309. KRS 136.184 is amended to read as follows:

Any taxpayer who has been assessed by the Department of Revenue[~~Cabinet~~] in the manner outlined above shall have thirty (30) days from the date of the department's[~~cabinet's~~] notice of the tentative assessment in which to protest and ask for a change thereof in the manner provided by KRS 131.110.

Section 310. KRS 136.186 is amended to read as follows:

When the Department of Revenue[~~Cabinet~~] has made a final determination as to the valuation of any such property owned or operated by such nonresident person, corporation, partnership or other business association, it shall immediately certify the amount thereof to the county clerk of each county in which any such property is liable for taxation. The certification shall be filed by each county clerk in his office and the county clerk shall certify to the proper collecting officer of the county, city, town, or taxing district for collection.

Section 311. KRS 136.1873 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Notwithstanding the provisions of KRS 132.487, trucks, trailers, tractors, semitrailers, and buses of any person, corporation, partnership, or any other business association whose route or system is partly within this state and partly within another state or states, shall be assessed by the Department of Revenue[~~Cabinet~~] for purposes of taxation as of January 1 each year.

(2) The proportion of miles operated in this state compared to the total miles operated everywhere shall be considered in fixing the value of the property for taxation. Other reasonable evidence shall be considered in fixing the value. However, pick-up and delivery vehicles operating from a terminal within this state or vehicles which do not leave this state in the normal course of business shall not be valued on an apportioned basis.

Section 312. KRS 136.1875 is amended to read as follows:

On or before April 15, 1991, and each year thereafter, each person, corporation, partnership, or other business association owning or operating trucks, tractors, trailers, semitrailers, and buses whose route or system is partly within this state and partly within another state or states, shall on forms provided by the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] provide the department[~~cabinet~~] with a detailed description of all its vehicles operating within this state along with the necessary mileage data to be used in apportioning the value.

Section 313. KRS 136.1877 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] shall immediately, after fixing the assessed value of the trucks, tractors, trailers, semitrailers, and buses, notify the taxpayer of the valuation determined. Any taxpayer who has been assessed by the department[~~cabinet~~] in the manner outlined in KRS 136.1873 shall have forty-five (45) days from the date of the department's[~~cabinet's~~] notice of the tentative assessment to protest as provided by KRS 131.110.

(2) No appeal shall delay the collection or payment of taxes based upon the assessment in controversy. The taxpayer shall pay all state, county, and district taxes due on the valuation which the taxpayer claims as the true value as stated in the protest filed under KRS 131.110. When the valuation is finally determined upon appeal, the taxpayer shall be billed for any additional tax and interest at the tax interest rate as defined in KRS 131.010(6), from the date the tax would have become due if no appeal had been taken. The provisions of KRS 134.390 shall apply to the tax bill.

(3) The state and local taxes on the property are due forty-five (45) days from the date of notice and shall be collected directly by the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~].

(4) The Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] shall annually calculate an aggregate local rate to be used in determining the local taxes to be collected. The rate shall be the statewide average motor vehicle tax rate for each type of local taxing district multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the commercial and industrial tangible personal property assessment subject to full local rates and the denominator of which is the total commercial and industrial tangible personal property assessment.

(5) The local taxes collected by the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] shall be distributed to each local taxing district levying a tax on motor vehicles based on the statewide average rate for each type of local taxing district. However, prior to distribution any fees owed to the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] by any local taxing district under the provisions of KRS 136.180(5) shall be deducted.

(1) The superintendent of schools in each district in which any individual, group of individuals or corporation, operates public utility or other franchise taxpaying property assessed under KRS 136.120 shall, on or before the first day of January, 1957, furnish to the county clerk of the county in which the district is situated, to each franchise taxpayer within the district, and to the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~], the boundary of his school district. The superintendent of schools in each district in which any franchise-paying corporation, individual, or group of individuals operates shall, on or before the first day of January, 1958, and each year thereafter, furnish to the county clerk, to each franchise taxpayer within the district, and to the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~], any changes made in the boundary of his school district during the immediately preceding twelve (12) months.

(2) The engineer of cities of the first class and the city clerk of cities of the second, third, fourth, fifth, and sixth classes shall notify the county clerk, each franchise taxpayer within the city, and the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] of their boundaries in the same manner as required of the superintendent of schools in subsection (1).

(3) The responsible governing official or the chairman of the governing body of any taxing district other than the county, school district, or city shall notify the county clerk, each franchise taxpayer within the district, and the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] of their boundaries in the same manner as required of the superintendent of schools in subsection (1).

Section 315. KRS 136.290 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Every federally or state chartered savings and loan association, savings bank, and other similar institutions operating solely in Kentucky shall, during January of each year, file with the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] a report containing such information and in such form as the department[~~cabinet~~] may require.

(2) The department[~~cabinet~~] shall fix the total value, as of January 1 of each year, of the capital of each financial institution included in subsection (1) of this section. Capital shall include certificates of deposit, savings accounts, demand deposits, undivided profits, surplus, and general reserves, excepting the share of borrowing members where the amount borrowed equals or exceeds the amount paid in by those members. For Agricultural Credit Associations chartered by the Farm Credit Administration, capital shall be computed by deducting the book value of the association's investment in any other wholly owned institution chartered by the Farm Credit Administration that is either subject to the tax imposed by KRS 136.300 or 136.310 or that is exempt from state taxation by federal law. The department[~~cabinet~~] shall immediately notify each institution of the value so fixed.

Section 316. KRS 136.310 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Every federally or state chartered savings and loan association, savings bank, and other similar institution authorized to transact business in this state, with property and payroll within and without this state, shall, during January of each year, file with the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] a report containing information and in such form as the department[~~cabinet~~] may require.

(2) The Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] shall fix the fair cash value, as of January 1 of each year, of the capital attributable to Kentucky in each financial institution included in subsection (1) of this section. The methodology employed by the department[~~cabinet~~] shall be a three (3) step process as follows:

(a) The total value of deposits maintained in Kentucky less any amounts where the amount borrowed equals or exceeds the amount paid in by those members.

(b) The Kentucky apportioned value of capital shall include undivided profits, surplus, general reserves, and paid-up stock. For Agricultural Credit Associations chartered by the Farm Credit Administration, capital shall be computed by deducting the book value of the association's investment in any other wholly owned institution chartered by the Farm Credit Administration that is either subject to the tax imposed by KRS 136.300 or this section or that is exempt from state taxation by federal law. The Kentucky value of capital shall be determined by a fraction, the numerator of which is the receipts factor plus the outstanding loan balance factor plus the payroll factor, and the denominator of which is three (3).

(c) The values determined in steps (a) and (b) of this subsection shall be added together to determine total Kentucky capital and then reduced by the influence of ownership in tax-exempt United States obligations to determine Kentucky taxable capital. The influence of tax-exempt United States obligations is to be determined from the reports of condition filed with the applicable supervisory agency as follows: the average amount of tax-exempt United States obligations for the calendar year, over the average amount of total assets for the calendar year multiplied by total Kentucky capital. The department[~~cabinet~~] shall immediately notify each institution of the value so fixed.

(3) The receipts factor specified in subsection (2)(b) of this section is a fraction, the numerator of which is all receipts derived from loans and other sources negotiated through offices or derived from customers in Kentucky, and the denominator of which is total business receipts for the preceding calendar year.

(4) The outstanding loan balance factor specified in subsection (2)(b) of this section is a fraction, the numerator of which is the average balance of outstanding loans negotiated from offices or made to customers in Kentucky. The denominator is the average balance of all outstanding loans. The average outstanding loan balance is determined by adding the outstanding loan balance at the beginning of the preceding calendar year to the outstanding loan balance at the end of the preceding calendar year and dividing by two (2). However, if the yearly beginning balance and ending balance results in an inequitable factor, the average outstanding loan balance may be computed on a monthly average balance.

(5) The payroll factor specified in subsection (2)(b) of this section shall be determined for the preceding calendar year under the provisions of KRS 141.120(8)(b) and regulations promulgated thereunder.

(6) By July 1 succeeding the filing of the report as provided in subsection (1) of this section, each financial institution included in subsection (1) of this section shall pay directly into the State Treasury a tax of one dollar ($1) for each one thousand dollars ($1,000) paid in on its Kentucky taxable capital as fixed in subsection (2)(c) of this section. The institution shall not be required to pay local taxes upon its capital stock, surplus, undivided profits, notes, mortgages, or other credits, and the tax provided by this section shall be in lieu of all taxes for state purposes on intangible property of the institution, nor shall any depositor of the institution be required to list his deposits for taxation under KRS 132.020. Failure to make reports and pay taxes as provided in this section shall subject the institution to the same penalties imposed for such failure on the part of the other corporations.

(7) If a financial institution included in subsection (1) of this section selects, it may deduct taxes imposed in subsection (6) of this section from the dividends paid or credited to a nonborrowing shareholder.

(8) Every Agricultural Credit Association chartered by the Farm Credit Administration being authorized to transact business in Kentucky but having no employees located within or without the state shall be subject to the same tax imposed pursuant to either KRS 136.300 or this section as that imposed upon its wholly owned Production Credit Association subsidiary. For purposes of computing Kentucky apportioned value of capital pursuant to subsection (2) of this section, those Agricultural Credit Associations subject to the tax imposed by this section shall utilize that Kentucky apportionment fraction computed and utilized by its wholly owned Production Credit Association subsidiary for the same report period.

Section 317. KRS 136.320 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Each life insurance company incorporated under the laws of and doing business in Kentucky shall value as of January 1 and report to the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] by April 1 each year, on forms prescribed by the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~], the following:

(a) The fair cash value of the company's intangible personal property, hereinafter referred to as "capital," consisting of all money in hand, shares of stock, notes, bonds, accounts, and other credits, exclusive of due and deferred premiums, whether secured by mortgage, pledge, or otherwise, or unsecured.

(c) The aggregate amount of the company's reserves, reduced by the amount of due and deferred premiums, maintained in accordance with the applicable provisions of KRS 304.6-040 and 304.6-130 to 304.6-180, on all outstanding policies and contracts supplementary thereto.

(d) Other information as may be required by the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] to accurately determine the fair cash value of each company's "taxable capital" and "taxable reserves."

(2) Based on information supplied by each company and other information that may be available, the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] shall value each company's "taxable capital" and "taxable reserves" as follows:

(a) "Taxable capital" shall be determined by deducting "taxable reserves" from "capital," less exempt intangible personal property.

(b) "Taxable reserves" shall be determined by multiplying the aggregate amount of reserves as computed in subsection (1)(c) of this section by the percentage determined by dividing "capital," less exempt intangible personal property, by "capital," including exempt intangible personal property.

(3) (a) An annual tax for state purposes shall be imposed against the fair cash value of "taxable capital" for calendar years beginning before 2000, at a rate of seventy cents ($0.70) on each one hundred dollars ($100).

(b) An annual tax for state purposes shall be imposed against every company making an election pursuant to KRS 136.335 to be taxed under this section, against the fair cash value of taxable capital for calendar years beginning in 2000 as follows:

1. For calendar year 2000, fifty-six cents ($0.56) on each one hundred dollars ($100);
2. For calendar year 2001, forty-two cents ($0.42) on each one hundred dollars ($100);

(c) An annual tax for state purposes shall be imposed at a rate of one-tenth of one cent ($0.001) on each one hundred dollars ($100) of the fair cash value of "taxable reserves"

(d) Beginning in tax year 2004 an insurer may offset the tax liability imposed under this subsection against the tax liability imposed under subsection (4) of this section.

(4) For calendar year 2000, and each calendar year thereafter, every company subject to the tax imposed by subsection (3) of this section, and making an election pursuant to KRS 136.335 to be taxed under this section, shall pay the following rates of tax upon each one hundred dollars ($100) of premium receipts:

Every company subject to the tax imposed by this subsection shall, by March 1 of each year, return to the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] a statement under oath of all premium receipts on business done in this state during the preceding calendar year or since the last return was made. "Premium receipts" includes single premiums, premiums received for original insurance, premiums received for renewal, revival, or reinstatement of the policies, annual and periodical premiums, dividends applied for premiums and additions, and all other premium payments received on policies that have been written in this state, or on the lives of residents of this state, or out of this state on business done in this state, less returned premiums. No deduction shall be made for dividends on life insurance but dividends on accident and health insurance policies may be deducted.

(5) The taxes imposed under subsections (3) and (4) of this section shall be in lieu of all excise, license, occupational, or other taxes imposed by the state, county, city, or other taxing district, except as provided in subsections (6) and (7) of this section.

(6) The county in which the principal office of the company is located may impose a tax of fifteen cents ($0.15) on each one hundred dollars ($100) of "taxable capital."

(7) The city in which the principal office of the company is located may impose a tax of fifteen cents ($0.15) on each one hundred dollars ($100) of "taxable capital."

(8) The Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] shall by September 1 each year bill each company for the state taxes. It shall immediately certify to the county clerk of the county in which the principal office of the company is located the value of "taxable capital" subject to local taxation. The county clerk shall prepare and deliver a bill to the sheriff for collection of taxes collectible by the sheriff and shall certify the value to all other collecting officers of districts authorized to levy a tax.

(9) Each company's real and tangible personal property shall be subject to taxation at fair cash value by the state, county, school, and other taxing districts in which the property is located in the same manner and at the same rates as all other property of the same class.

(10) Taxes on property subject to taxation under this section shall be subject to the same discount and penalties as provided in KRS 134.020 and shall be collected in the same manner as taxes on property locally assessed, except that the state tax on the "taxable capital" and "taxable reserves" shall be collected directly by the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~].

(11) Any taxpayer subject to taxation under this section may protest in the manner provided in KRS 131.110.

(2) All foreign mutual assessment companies, associations, individual firms, underwriters or Lloyd's, having resident members doing business in this state, who shall enter into contracts of insurance with each other or into agreements to indemnify each other against losses by fire, lightning, windstorm or other casualties for which there is no premium charged or collected at the time insurance is made, shall be deemed to be doing an insurance business in this state, and shall annually, by July 30, pay to the Department of Revenue[~~Cabinet~~] a license tax of two dollars ($2) upon each one hundred dollars ($100) of assessments paid or collected in any one (1) year. Each resident member shall be liable to the state for the license tax and all interest and penalties.

(3) No person shall fail or refuse to make a report giving all the data and information necessary to determine the amount of revenue due under subsection (2) of this section, or fail to make the report provided for in subsection (2) of this section, or fail to pay the tax due thereon.

Section 325. KRS 136.392 is amended to read as follows:

(1) (a) Every domestic, foreign, or alien insurer, other than life and health insurers, which is either subject to or exempted from Kentucky premium taxes as levied pursuant to the provisions of either KRS 136.340, 136.350, 136.370, or 136.390, shall charge and collect a surcharge of one dollar and fifty cents ($1.50) upon each one hundred dollars ($100) of premium, assessments, or other charges, except for those municipal premium taxes, made by it for insurance coverage provided to its policyholders, on risk located in this state, whether the charges are designated as premiums, assessments, or otherwise. The premium surcharge shall be collected by the insurer from its policyholders at the same time and in the same manner that its premium or other charge for the insurance coverage is collected. The premium surcharge shall be disclosed to policyholders pursuant to administrative regulations promulgated by the commissioner of insurance. However, no insurer or its agent shall be entitled to any portion of any premium surcharge as a fee or commission for its collection. On or before the twentieth day of each month, each insurer shall report and remit to the Department of Revenue[~~Cabinet~~], on forms as it may require, all premium surcharge moneys collected by it during its preceding monthly accounting period less any moneys returned to policyholders as applicable to the unearned portion of the premium on policies terminated by either the insured or the insurer. Insurers with an annual liability of less than one thousand dollars ($1,000) for each of the previous two (2) calendar years may report and remit to the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] all premium surcharge moneys collected on a calendar year basis on or before the twentieth (20th) day of January of the following calendar year. The funds derived from the premium surcharge shall be deposited in the State Treasury, and shall constitute a fund allocated for the uses and purposes of the Firefighters Foundation Program fund (KRS 95A.220 and 95A.262) and the Law Enforcement Foundation Program fund (KRS 15.430).

(b) Effective July 1, 1992, the surcharge rate in paragraph (a) of this subsection shall be adjusted by the commissioner[~~secretary~~] of revenue to a rate calculated to provide sufficient funds for the uses and purposes of the Firefighters Foundation Program fund as prescribed by KRS 95A.220 and 95A.262 and the Law Enforcement Foundation Program fund as prescribed by KRS 15.430 for each fiscal year. The rate shall be calculated using as its base the number of local government units eligible for participation in the funds under applicable statutes as of January 1, 1994. To allow the commissioner[~~secretary~~] of revenue to calculate an appropriate rate, the secretary for the Public Protection and Regulation Cabinet and the secretary for the Justice Cabinet shall certify to the commissioner[~~secretary~~] of revenue, no later than January 1 of each year, the estimated budgets for the respective funds specified above, including any surplus moneys in the funds, which shall be incorporated into the consideration of the adjusted rate for the next biennium. As soon as practical, the commissioner[~~secretary~~] of revenue shall advise the commissioner of insurance of the new rate and the commissioner of revenue shall inform the affected insurers. The rate adjustment process shall continue on a biennial basis.

(2) Within five (5) days after the end of each month, all insurance premium surcharge proceeds deposited in the State Treasury as set forth in this section shall be paid by the State Treasurer into the Firefighters Foundation Program fund trust and agency account and the Law Enforcement Foundation Program fund trust and agency account. The amount paid into each account shall be proportionate to each fund's respective share of the total deposits, pursuant to KRS 42.190. Moneys deposited to the Law Enforcement Foundation Program fund trust and agency account shall not be disbursed, expended, encumbered, or transferred by any state official for uses and purposes other than those prescribed by KRS 15.410 to 15.500, except that beginning with fiscal year 1994-95, through June 30, 1999, moneys remaining in the account at the end of the fiscal year in excess of three million dollars ($3,000,000) shall lapse. On and after July 1, 1999, moneys in this account shall not lapse. Money deposited to the Firefighters Foundation Program fund trust and agency account shall not be disbursed, expended, encumbered, or transferred by any state official for uses and purposes other than those prescribed by KRS 95A.200 to 95A.300, except that beginning with fiscal year 1994-95, through June 30, 1999, moneys remaining in the account at the end of the fiscal year in excess of three million dollars ($3,000,000) shall lapse, but moneys in the revolving loan fund established in KRS 95A.262 shall not lapse. On and after July 1, 1999, moneys in this account shall not lapse.

(3) Insurance premium surcharge funds collected from the policyholders of any domestic mutual company, cooperative, or assessment fire insurance company shall be deposited in the State Treasury, and shall be paid monthly by the State Treasurer into the Firefighters Foundation Program fund trust and agency account as provided in KRS 95A.220 to 95A.262. However, insurance premium surcharge funds collected from policyholders of any mutual company, cooperative, or assessment fire insurance company which transfers its corporate domicile to this state from another state after July 15, 1994, shall continue to be paid into the Firefighters Foundation Program fund and the Law Enforcement Foundation Program fund as prescribed.

(4) No later than July 1 of each year, the Department of Insurance shall provide the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] with a list of all Kentucky-licensed property and casualty insurers and the amount of premium volume collected by the insurer for the preceding calendar year as set forth on the annual statement of the insurer. No later than September 1 of each year, the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] shall calculate an estimate of the premium surcharge due from each insurer subject to the insurance premium surcharge imposed pursuant to this section, based upon the surcharge rate imposed pursuant to this section and the amount of the premium volume for each insurer as reported by the Department of Insurance. The Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] shall compare the results of this estimate with the premium surcharge paid by each insurer during the preceding year, and shall provide the Legislative Research Commission, the Commission on Fire Protection Personnel Standards and Education, the Kentucky Law Enforcement Council, and the Department of Insurance with a report detailing its findings on a cumulative basis. In accordance with KRS 131.190, the Department of Revenue[~~cabinet~~] shall not identify or divulge the confidential tax information of any individual insurer in this report.

(1) A financial institution whose business activity is taxable both within and without this Commonwealth shall apportion its net capital pursuant to the provisions of this section.

(2) Net capital shall be apportioned to this Commonwealth by multiplying total net capital by the apportionment percentage.

The apportionment percentage is determined by adding together the financial institution's receipts factor as determined under the provisions of KRS 136.530, property factor as determined under the provisions of KRS 136.535, and payroll factor as determined under the provisions of KRS 136.540 and dividing the sum by three (3). If one (1) of the factors is missing, the two (2) remaining factors are added and the sum is divided by two (2). If two (2) of the factors are missing, the remaining factor is the apportionment percentage. A factor is missing if both its numerator and denominator are zero (0), but it is not missing merely because the numerator is zero (0).

(3) Each factor shall be calculated by the method of accounting used by the financial institution for the taxable year.

(4) If the apportionment provisions of KRS 136.500 to 136.575 do not fairly represent the extent of the financial institution's business activity in this Commonwealth, the financial institution may petition for or the department~~[cabinet]~~ may require, in respect to all or any part of the financial institution's business activity, if reasonable:

(a) Separate accounting;

(b) The exclusion of any one (1) or more of the factors;

(c) The inclusion of one (1) or more additional factors which will fairly represent the financial institution's business activity in this Commonwealth; or

(d) The employment of any other method to effectuate an equitable apportionment of the financial institution's net capital.

Section 329. KRS 136.530 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The receipts factor is a fraction, the numerator of which is the receipts of the financial institution in this Commonwealth during the taxable year as determined by subsection (2) of this section and the denominator of which is the receipts of the financial institution within and without this Commonwealth during the taxable year. Receipts shall include the following:

(a) Receipts from the lease or rental of real property owned by the financial institution;

(b) Receipts from the lease or rental of tangible personal property owned by the financial institution;

(c) Interest and fees or penalties in the nature of interest from loans secured by real property;

(d) Interest and fees or penalties in the nature of interest from loans not secured by real property;

(e) Net gains from the sale of loans. Net gains from the sale of loans includes income recorded under the coupon stripping rules of Section 1286 of the Internal Revenue Code;

(f) Interest and fees or penalties in the nature of interest from credit card receivables and receipts from fees charged to card holders, such as annual fees;

(g) Net gains, but not less than zero (0), from the sale of credit card receivables;

(h) All credit card issuer's reimbursement fees;

(i) Receipts from merchant discount. Receipts from merchant discount shall be computed net of any cardholder charge backs, but shall not be reduced by any interchange transaction fees or by any issuer's reimbursement fees paid to another for charges made by its card holders;

(j) Loan servicing fees derived from loans secured by real property;

(k) Loan servicing fees derived from loans not secured by real property;

(l) Interest, dividends, net gains, but not less than zero (0), and other income from investment assets and activities and from trading assets and activities. Investment assets and activities and trading assets and activities include but are not limited to investment securities, trading account assets, federal funds, securities purchased and sold under agreements to resell or repurchase, options, futures contracts, forward contracts, notional principal contracts such as swaps, equities, and foreign currency transactions. The receipts factor shall include the following amounts:

1. The amount by which interest from federal funds sold and securities purchased under resale agreements exceeds interest expense on federal funds purchased and securities sold under repurchase agreements; and

2. The amount by which interest, dividends, gains, and other income from trading assets and activities, including but not limited to assets and activities in the matched book, in the arbitrage book, and foreign currency transactions, exceed amounts paid in lieu of interest, amounts paid in lieu of dividends, and losses from these assets and activities;

(m) All receipts derived from sales that would be included in the factor established by KRS 136.070(3)(d)1., 2., and 3.; and

(n) Receipts from services not otherwise specifically listed.

(2) A determination of whether receipts should be included in the numerator of the fraction shall be made as follows:

(a) Receipts from the lease or rental of real property owned by the financial institution shall be included in the numerator if the property is located within this Commonwealth or receipts from the sublease of real property if the property is located within this Commonwealth.

(b) 1. Except as described in subparagraph 2. of this paragraph, receipts from the lease or rental of tangible personal property owned by the financial institution shall be included in the numerator if the property is located within this Commonwealth when it is first placed in service by the lessee.

2. Receipts from the lease or rental of transportation property owned by the financial institution are included in the numerator of the receipts factor to the extent that the property is used in this Commonwealth. The extent an aircraft will be deemed to be used in this Commonwealth and the amount of receipts that is to be included in the numerator of this Commonwealth's receipts factor is determined by multiplying all the receipts from the lease or rental of the aircraft by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of landings of the aircraft in this Commonwealth and the denominator of which is the total number of landings of the aircraft. If the extent of the use of any transportation property within this Commonwealth cannot be determined, then the property shall be deemed to be used wholly in the state in which the property has its principal base of operations. A motor vehicle shall be deemed to be used wholly in the state in which it is registered.

(c) 1. Interest and fees or penalties in the nature of interest from loans secured by real property shall be included in the numerator if the property is located within this Commonwealth. If the property is located both within this Commonwealth and one (1) or more other states, receipts shall be included if more than fifty percent (50%) of the fair market value of the real property is located within this Commonwealth. If more than fifty percent (50%) of the fair market value of the real property is not located within any one (1) state, then the receipts described in this subparagraph shall be included in the numerator if the borrower is located in this Commonwealth.

2. The determination of whether the real property securing a loan is located within this Commonwealth shall be made as of the time the original agreement was made, and any subsequent substitutions of collateral shall be disregarded.

(d) Interest and fees or penalties in the nature of interest from loans not secured by real property shall be included in the numerator if the borrower is located in this Commonwealth.

(e) Net gains from the sale of loans shall be included in the numerator as provided in subparagraphs 1. and 2. of this paragraph. Net gains from the sale of loans includes income recorded under the coupon stripping rules of Section 1286 of the Internal Revenue Code.

1. The amount of net gains, but not less than zero (0), from the sale of loans secured by real property included in the numerator is determined by multiplying net gains by a fraction the numerator of which is the amount included in the numerator of the receipts factor pursuant to paragraph (c) of this subsection and the denominator of which is the total amount of interest and fees or penalties in the nature of interest from loans secured by real property.

2. The amount of net gains, but not less than zero (0), from the sale of loans not secured by real property included in the numerator is determined by multiplying net gains by a fraction the numerator of which is the amount included in the numerator of the receipts factor pursuant to paragraph (d) of this subsection and the denominator of which is the total amount of interest and fees or penalties in the nature of interest from loans not secured by real property.

(f) Interest and fees or penalties in the nature of interest from credit card receivables and receipts from fees charged to card holders, such as annual fees, shall be included in the numerator if the billing address of the card holder is in this Commonwealth.

(g) Net gains, but not less than zero (0), from the sale of credit card receivables to be included in the numerator shall be determined by multiplying the amount established in paragraph (g) of subsection (1) of this section by a fraction the numerator of which is the amount included in the numerator of the receipts factor pursuant to paragraph (f) of this subsection and the denominator of which is the financial institution's total amount of interest and fees or penalties in the nature of interest from credit card receivables and fees charged to card holders.

(h) Credit card issuer's reimbursement fees to be included in the numerator shall be determined by multiplying the amount established in paragraph (h) of subsection (1) of this section by a fraction the numerator of which is the amount included in the numerator of the receipts factor pursuant to paragraph (f) of this subsection and the denominator of which is the financial institution's total amount of interest and fees or penalties in the nature of interest from credit card receivables and fees charged to card holders.

(i) Receipts from merchant discount shall be included in the numerator if the commercial domicile of the merchant is in this Commonwealth. Receipts from merchant discount shall be computed net of any cardholder charge backs but shall not be reduced by any interchange transaction fees or by any issuer's reimbursement fees paid to another for charges made by its card holders.

(j) 1. a. Loan servicing fees derived from loans secured by real property to be included in the numerator shall be determined by multiplying the amount determined under paragraph (j) of subsection (1) of this section by a fraction the numerator of which is the amount included in the numerator of the receipts factor pursuant to paragraph (c) of this subsection and the denominator of which is the total amount of interest and fees or penalties in the nature of interest from loans secured by real property.

b. Loan servicing fees derived from loans not secured by real property to be included in the numerator shall be determined by multiplying the amount determined under paragraph (k) of subsection (1) of this section by a fraction the numerator of which is the amount included in the numerator of the receipts factor pursuant to paragraph (d) of this subsection and the denominator of which is the total amount of interest and fees or penalties in the nature of interest from loans not secured by real property.

2. In circumstances in which the financial institution receives loan servicing fees for servicing either the secured or the unsecured loans of another, the numerator of the receipts factor shall include the fees if the borrower is located in this Commonwealth.

(k) Receipts from services not otherwise apportioned under this section shall be included in the numerator if the service is performed in this Commonwealth. If the service is performed both within and without this Commonwealth, the numerator of the receipts factor includes receipts from services not otherwise apportioned under this section, if a greater proportion of the income-producing activity is performed in this Commonwealth based on cost of performance.

(l) 1. The numerator of the receipts factor includes interest, dividends, net gains, but not less than zero (0), and other income from investment assets and activities and from trading assets and activities described in paragraph (l) of subsection (1) of this section that are attributable to this Commonwealth.

a. The amount of interest, dividends, net gains, but not less than zero (0), and other income from investment assets and activities in the investment account to be attributed to this Commonwealth and included in the numerator is determined by multiplying all income from the assets and activities by a fraction the numerator of which is the average value of the assets that are properly assigned to a regular place of business of the financial institution within this Commonwealth and the denominator of which is the average value of all the assets.

b. The amount of interest from federal funds sold and purchased and from securities purchased under resale agreements and securities sold under repurchase agreements attributable to this Commonwealth and included in the numerator is determined by multiplying the amount described in subparagraph 1. of paragraph (l) of subsection (1) of this section from funds and securities by a fraction the numerator of which is the average value of federal funds sold and securities purchased under agreements to resell which are properly assigned to a regular place of business of the financial institution within this Commonwealth and the denominator of which is the average value of all funds and securities.

c. The amount of interest, dividends, gains, and other income from trading assets and activities, including but not limited to assets and activities in the matched book, in the arbitrage book, and foreign currency transactions, but excluding amounts described in subdivisions a. and b. of this subparagraph, attributable to this Commonwealth and included in the numerator is determined by multiplying the amount described in subparagraph 2. of paragraph (l) of subsection (1) of this section by a fraction the numerator of which is the average value of trading assets which are properly assigned to a regular place of business of the financial institution within this Commonwealth and the denominator of which is the average value of all assets.

d. For purposes of this subparagraph, average value shall be determined using the rules for determining the average value of tangible personal property set forth in KRS 136.535(3) and (4).

2. In lieu of using the method set forth in subparagraph 1. of this paragraph, the financial institution may elect, or the department~~[cabinet]~~ may require in order to fairly represent the business activity of the financial institution in this Commonwealth, the use of the method set forth in this subparagraph.

a. The amount of interest, dividends, net gains, but not less than zero (0), and other income from investment assets and activities in the investment account to be attributed to this Commonwealth and included in the numerator is determined by multiplying all income from assets and activities by a fraction the numerator of which is the gross income from assets and activities which are properly assigned to a regular place of business of the financial institution within this Commonwealth and the denominator of which is the gross income from all assets and activities.

b. The amount of interest from federal funds sold and purchased and from securities purchased under resale agreements and securities sold under repurchase agreements attributable to this Commonwealth and included in the numerator is determined by multiplying the amount described in subparagraph 1. of paragraph (l) of subsection (1) of this section from funds and securities by a fraction the numerator of which is the gross income from funds and securities which are properly assigned to a regular place of business of the financial institution within this Commonwealth and the denominator of which is the gross income from all funds and securities.

c. The amount of interest, dividends, gains, and other income from trading assets and activities, including but not limited to assets and activities in the matched book, in the arbitrage book and foreign currency transactions, but excluding amounts described in subdivisions a. and b. of this subparagraph, attributable to this Commonwealth and included in the numerator is determined by multiplying the amount described in subparagraph 2. of paragraph (l) of subsection (1) of this section by a fraction the numerator of which is the gross income from trading assets and activities which are properly assigned to a regular place of business of the financial institution within this Commonwealth and the denominator of which is the gross income from all assets and activities.

3. If the financial institution elects or is required by the department[~~cabinet~~] to use the method set forth in subparagraph 2. of this paragraph, it shall use this method on all subsequent returns unless the financial institution receives prior permission from the department[~~cabinet~~] to use, or the department[~~cabinet~~] requires, a different method.

4. The financial institution shall have the burden of proving that an investment asset or activity or trading asset or activity was properly assigned to a regular place of business outside this Commonwealth by demonstrating that the day-to-day decisions regarding the asset or activity occurred at a regular place of business outside this Commonwealth. Where the day-to-day decisions regarding an investment asset or activity or trading asset or activity occur at more than one (1) regular place of business and one (1) regular place of business is in this Commonwealth and one (1) regular place of business is outside this Commonwealth, the asset or activity shall be considered to be located at the regular place of business of the financial institution where the investment or trading policies or guidelines with respect to the asset or activity are established. Unless the financial institution demonstrates to the contrary, the policies and guidelines shall be presumed to be established at the commercial domicile of the financial institution.

(m) The numerator of the receipts factor includes all other receipts derived from sales as determined pursuant to the provisions set forth in KRS 136.070(3)(d)1., 2., and 3.

(n) 1. All receipts that would be assigned under this section to a state in which the financial institution is not taxable shall be included in the numerator of the receipts factor, if the financial institution's commercial domicile is in this Commonwealth.

2. For purposes of subparagraph 1. of this paragraph, "taxable" means either:

a. That a financial institution is subject in another state to a net income tax, a franchise tax measured by net income, a franchise tax for the privilege of doing business, a corporate stock tax including a bank shares tax, a single business tax, an earned surplus tax, or any tax which is imposed upon or measured by net income; or

b. That another state has statutory authority to subject the financial institution to any of the taxes in subdivision a. of this subparagraph, whether in fact the state does or does not impose the tax.

(1) As used in this section:

(a) "Administration" means the process of managing an account. The process includes bookkeeping, collecting the payments, corresponding with the customer, reporting to management regarding the status of the agreement and proceeding against the borrower or the security interest if the borrower is in default. The activity is located at the regular place of business that oversees this activity;

(b) "Approval" means the procedure whereby employees or the board of directors of the financial institution make the final determination whether to enter into the agreement. The activity is located at the regular place of business which the financial institution's employees making the final determination are regularly connected with or working out of, regardless of where the services of the employees were actually performed. If the board of directors makes the final determination, the activity is located at the commercial domicile of the financial institution;

(c) "Investigation" means the procedure whereby employees of the financial institution determine the credit worthiness of the customer as well as the degree of risk involved in making a particular agreement. The activity is located at the regular place of business which the financial institution's employees making the investigation are regularly connected with or working out of, regardless of where the services of the employees were actually performed;

(d) "Negotiation" means the procedure whereby employees of the financial institution and its customer determine the terms of the agreement, including the amount, duration, interest rate, frequency of repayment, currency denomination, and security required. The activity is located at the regular place of business which the financial institution's employees are regularly connected with or out of, regardless of where the services of the employees were actually performed;

(e) "Participation" means an extension of credit in which an undivided ownership interest is held on a pro rata basis in a single loan or pool of loans and related collateral. In a loan participation, the credit originator initially makes the loan and then subsequently resells all or a portion of it to other lenders. The participation may or may not be known to the borrower; and

(f) "Solicitation" occurs when:

1. An employee of the financial institution initiates contact with the customer. The activity is located at the regular place of business which the financial institution's employee making the contact is regularly connected with or working out of, regardless of where the services of the employee were actually performed; or

2. The customer initiates the contact with the financial institution. If the customer's initial contact was not at a regular place of business of the financial institution, the regular place of business, if any, where the solicitation occurred is determined by the facts in each case.

(2) The property factor is a fraction, the numerator of which is the average value of real property and tangible personal property rented to the financial institution that is located or used within this Commonwealth during the taxable year, the average value of the financial institution's real and tangible personal property owned that is located or used within this Commonwealth during the taxable year, and the average value of the financial institution's loans and credit card receivables that are located within this Commonwealth during the taxable year, and the denominator of which is the average value of all such property located or used within and without this Commonwealth during the taxable year. Average value of property is determined under subsection (4) of this section.

(3) (a) The value of real property and tangible personal property owned by the financial institution is the original cost or other basis of property for federal income tax purposes without regard to depletion, depreciation, or amortization.

(b) Loans are valued at their outstanding principal balance, without regard to any reserve for bad debts. If a loan is charged off in whole or in part for federal income tax purposes, the portion of the loan charged off is not outstanding. A specifically-allocated reserve established pursuant to regulatory or financial accounting guidelines which is treated as charged off for federal income tax purposes shall be treated as charged off for purposes of this section.

(c) Credit card receivables are valued at their outstanding principal balance, without regard to any reserve for bad debts. If a credit card receivable is charged off in whole or in part for federal income tax purposes, the portion of the receivable charged off is not outstanding.

(4) The average value of property owned by the financial institution is computed on an annual basis by adding the value of the property on the first day of the taxable year and the value on the last day of the taxable year and dividing the sum by two (2). If averaging on this basis does not properly reflect average value, the department[~~cabinet~~] may require averaging on a more frequent basis. The financial institution may request permission from the department[~~cabinet~~] to average on a more frequent basis. When averaging on a more frequent basis is authorized by the department[~~cabinet~~], the same method of valuation shall be used consistently by the financial institution with respect to property within and without this Commonwealth and on all subsequent returns unless the financial institution receives prior permission from the department[~~cabinet~~] or the department[~~cabinet~~] requires a different method of determining average value.

(5) (a) The average value of real property and tangible personal property that the financial institution has rented from another and which is not treated as property owned by the financial institution for federal income tax purposes shall be determined annually by multiplying the gross rents payable during the taxable year by eight (8).

(b) Where the use of the general method described in this subsection results in inaccurate valuations of rented property, any other method which properly reflects the value may be adopted by the department[~~cabinet~~] or by the financial institution when approved in writing by the department[~~cabinet~~]. Once approved, the alternative method of valuation shall be used on all subsequent returns unless the financial institution receives prior approval from the department[~~cabinet~~] or the department[~~cabinet~~] requires a different method of valuation.

(6) (a) Except as described in paragraph (b) of this subsection, real property and tangible personal property owned by or rented to the financial institution is considered to be located within this Commonwealth if it is physically located, situated, or used within this Commonwealth.

(b) Transportation property is included in the numerator of the property factor to the extent that the property is used in this Commonwealth. The extent to which an aircraft shall be deemed to be used in this Commonwealth and the amount of value that is to be included in the numerator of this Commonwealth's property factor is determined by multiplying the average value of the aircraft by a fraction the numerator of which is the number of landings of the aircraft in this Commonwealth and the denominator of which is the total number of landings of the aircraft everywhere. If the extent of the use of any transportation property within this Commonwealth cannot be determined, then the property shall be deemed to be used wholly in the state in which the property has its principal base of operations. A motor vehicle shall be deemed to be used wholly in the state in which it is registered.

(7) (a) 1. A loan is considered to be located within this Commonwealth if it is properly assigned to a regular place of business of the financial institution within this Commonwealth.

2. A loan is properly assigned to the regular place of business with which it has a preponderance of substantive contacts. A loan assigned by the financial institution to a regular place of business without the Commonwealth shall be presumed to have been properly assigned if:

a. The financial institution has assigned, in the regular course of its business, the loan on its records to a regular place of business consistent with federal or state regulatory requirements;

b. The assignment on its records is based upon substantive contacts of the loan to the regular place of business; and

c. The financial institution uses the records reflecting assignment of loans for the filing of all state and local tax returns for which an assignment of loans to a regular place of business is required.

3. The presumption of proper assignment of a loan provided in subparagraph 2. of this paragraph may be rebutted upon a showing by the department[~~cabinet~~], supported by a preponderance of the evidence, that the preponderance of substantive contacts regarding the loan did not occur at the regular place of business to which it was assigned on the financial institution's records. When the presumption has been rebutted, the loan shall then be located within this Commonwealth if the financial institution had a regular place of business within this Commonwealth at the time the loan was made and the financial institution fails to show, by a preponderance of the evidence, that the preponderance of substantive contacts regarding the loan occurred outside this Commonwealth.

(b) For financial institutions with commercial domicile in this Commonwealth as defined in KRS 136.500, it shall be presumed, subject to rebuttal by the financial institution on a showing supported by the preponderance of evidence, that the preponderance of substantive contacts regarding the loan occurred within this Commonwealth.

(c) To determine the state in which the preponderance of substantive contacts relating to a loan have occurred, the facts and circumstances regarding the loan at issue shall be reviewed on a case-by-case basis, and consideration shall be given to activities such as the solicitation, investigation, negotiation, approval, and administration of the loan as defined in subsection (1) of this section.

(8) Credit card receivables shall be treated as loans and shall be subject to the provisions of subsection (7) of this section.

(9) A loan that has been properly assigned to a state shall, absent any change of material fact, remain assigned to that state for the length of the original term of the loan. Thereafter, the loan may be properly assigned to another state if that loan has a preponderance of substantive contacts to a regular place of business there.

Section 331. KRS 136.545 is amended to read as follows:

(1) On or before the March 15 following each taxable year, a return for the preceding taxable year shall be filed with the department[~~cabinet~~] in the form and manner prescribed by the department[~~cabinet~~], together with payment of any tax due.

(2) A return shall be filed by each financial institution.

(3) The return shall show the amount of taxes for the period covered by the return and other information necessary for the proper administration of KRS 136.500 to 136.575.

(4) The department[~~cabinet~~] shall, upon written request received on or prior to the due date of the return and tax, grant an automatic extension of up to ninety (90) days for the filing of returns. An extension of time to file a return does not extend the payment of tax due, which shall be estimated by the financial institution and paid on or before the date specified in subsection (1) of this section.

(5) If the time for filing a return is extended, the financial institution shall pay, as part of the tax, an amount equal to the tax interest rate as defined in KRS 131.010(6) on the tax shown due on the return but not previously paid, from the time the tax was due until the return is actually filed with the department[~~cabinet~~].

Section 332. KRS 136.550 is amended to read as follows:

(1) As soon as practicable after each return is received, the department[~~cabinet~~] shall examine and audit it. If the amount of tax computed by the department[~~cabinet~~] is greater than the amount returned by the financial institution, the excess shall be assessed by the department[~~cabinet~~] within four (4) years from the date prescribed by law for the filing of a return including an extension of time for filing, except as provided in this subsection. A notice of the assessment shall be mailed to the financial institution.

(a) In the case of a failure to file a return or of a fraudulent return, the excess may be assessed at any time.

(b) In the case of a return wherein a financial institution understates its net capital or omits from net capital an amount properly includible therein or both, which understatement or omission or both is in excess of twenty-five percent (25%) of the amount of net capital stated in the return, the excess may be assessed at any time within six (6) years after the return was filed.

(2) For the purpose of subsection (1) of this section, a return filed before the last day prescribed by law for the filing shall be considered as filed on the last day. The times provided for in subsection (1) of this section may be extended by agreement between the financial institution and the department[~~cabinet~~].

Section 333. KRS 136.560 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Every financial institution shall keep records, receipts, invoices, and other pertinent papers in the form as the department[~~cabinet~~] may require.

(2) Every financial institution that files the returns required under KRS 136.545 shall keep records for not less than six (6) years from the making of records unless the department[~~cabinet~~] in writing authorizes their destruction at an earlier date.

Section 334. KRS 136.575 is amended to read as follows:

(1) As used in this section, "deposits" means all demand and time deposits, excluding deposits of the United States government, state and political subdivisions, other financial institutions, public libraries, educational institutions, religious institutions, charitable institutions, and certified and officers' checks.

(2) Counties, cities, and urban-county governments may impose a franchise tax on financial institutions measured by the deposits in the institutions located within the jurisdiction of the county, city, or urban-county government at a rate not to exceed twenty-five thousandths of one percent (0.025%) of the deposits if imposed by counties and cities and at a rate not to exceed fifty thousandths of one percent (0.050%) of the deposits if imposed by urban-county governments. The amount and location of deposits in the financial institutions shall be determined by the method used for filing the summary of deposits report with the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation. The accounting method used to allocate deposits for completion of the summary of deposits shall be the same as has been utilized in prior periods. Any deviation from prior accounting methods may only be adopted with the permission of the department[~~cabinet~~].

(3) By August 15, 1997, and annually thereafter, each financial institution shall file with the department[~~cabinet~~], on a form prescribed by the department[~~cabinet~~], a report of all deposits located within this Commonwealth as of the preceding June 30, along with a copy of the most recent summary of deposits filed with the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation. The department[~~cabinet~~] shall review the report and certify to the local jurisdictions that have enacted the franchise tax by October 1 of each year the amount of deposits within the jurisdiction and amount of the tax due. The local taxing authority shall issue bills to the financial institution by December 1 and require payment, with a two percent (2%) discount by December 31, or without discount by January 31 of the next year.

(4) For calendar year 1996 only, each financial institution shall file with the department[~~cabinet~~] on or before September 15, 1996, a report of all deposits located within this Commonwealth as of June 30, 1996, along with a copy of the most recent summary of deposits filed with the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation. The department[~~cabinet~~] shall review the report after being given notice by the local jurisdiction that the tax under this section was enacted during 1996, and shall certify to the local jurisdiction the amount of deposits within the jurisdiction and the amount of tax due by March 1, 1997. The local taxing authority shall issue bills to the financial institution by May 1, 1997, and require payment with a two percent (2%) discount by May 31, 1997, or without discount by June 30, 1997.

(5) The local jurisdiction shall notify the department[~~cabinet~~] of the tax rate imposed upon the enactment of the tax. The local jurisdiction shall also notify the department[~~cabinet~~] of any subsequent rate changes.

If any tax imposed by KRS 136.330 to 136.395, 299.530 and 304.4-030, whether assessed by the department[~~cabinet~~], or the taxpayer, or any installment or portion of any tax is not paid on or before the date prescribed for its payment, there shall be collected interest upon the unpaid amount at the tax interest rate as defined in KRS 131.010(6) from the date prescribed for its payment until payment is actually made to the department[~~cabinet~~].

Section 336. KRS 136.990 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Any corporation that fails to pay its taxes, penalty, and interest as provided in subsection (2) of KRS 136.050, after becoming delinquent, shall be fined fifty dollars ($50) for each day the same remains unpaid, to be recovered by indictment or civil action, of which the Franklin Circuit Court shall have jurisdiction.

(2) Any public service corporation, or officer thereof, that willfully fails or refuses to make reports as required by KRS 136.130 and 136.140 shall be fined one thousand dollars ($1,000), and fifty dollars ($50) for each day the reports are not made after April 30 of each year.

(3) Any superintendent of schools or county clerk who fails to report as required by KRS 136.190, or who makes a false report, shall be fined not less than fifty dollars ($50) nor more than one hundred dollars ($100) for each offense.

(4) Any company or association that fails or refuses to return the statement or pay the taxes required by KRS 136.330 or 136.340 shall be fined one thousand dollars ($1,000) for each offense.

(5) Any insurance company that fails or refuses for thirty (30) days to return the statement required by KRS 136.330 or 136.340 and to pay the tax required by KRS 136.330 or 136.340, shall forfeit one hundred dollars ($100) for each offense. The commissioner of insurance shall revoke the authority of the company or its agents to do business in this state, and shall publish the revocation pursuant to KRS Chapter 424.

(6) Any person who violates subsection (3) of KRS 136.390 shall be fined not less than one hundred dollars ($100) nor more than five hundred dollars ($500) for each offense.

(7) Where no other penalty is mentioned for failing to do an act required, or for doing an act forbidden by this chapter, the penalty shall be not less than ten dollars ($10) nor more than five hundred dollars ($500).

(8) The Franklin Circuit Court shall have jurisdiction of all prosecutions under subsections (4) to (6) of this section.

(9) Any person who violates any of the provisions of KRS 136.073 or KRS 136.090 shall be subject to the uniform civil penalties imposed pursuant to KRS 131.180.

(10) If the tax imposed by KRS 136.070 or KRS 136.073, whether assessed by the department[~~cabinet~~] or the taxpayer, or any installment or portion of the tax, is not paid on or before the date prescribed for its payment, interest shall be collected upon the nonpaid amount at the tax interest rate as defined in KRS 131.010(6) from the date prescribed for its payment until payment is actually made to the department[~~cabinet~~].

Section 337. KRS 137.130 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Every person engaged in the transportation of crude petroleum in this state from receptacles located at the place of production in this state shall be considered a transporter of crude petroleum. Every transporter of crude petroleum shall make a verified report to the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] by the twentieth day of the month succeeding each month in which crude petroleum is so received for transportation, showing the quantity of each kind or quality of crude petroleum so received from each county in this state and the market value of the crude petroleum on the first business day after the tenth day of the month in which the report is made. The report shall show any sales of crude petroleum so received, the quantity of crude petroleum in each sale, the date of each sale, and the market price of the crude petroleum on each date of sale for the preceding month. This report shall be made upon blanks furnished and prescribed by the department[~~cabinet~~]. The department[~~cabinet~~] may require additional reports from time to time, on blanks prepared by it, from all producers and transporters of crude petroleum.

(2) Every person required to report under subsection (1) of this section shall register as a transporter of crude petroleum in the office of the county clerk in each county in which such business is carried on by him, in a book which the department[~~cabinet~~] shall provide, showing the name, residence and place of business of the transporter. The county clerk shall immediately certify to the department[~~cabinet~~] a copy of each registration as made.

Section 338. KRS 137.140 is amended to read as follows:

Every transporter of crude petroleum shall be liable for the taxes imposed under KRS 137.120 on all crude petroleum received by him. He shall collect from the producer, in money or crude petroleum, the taxes imposed. If collection is in crude petroleum, the transporter may sell the same and pay the taxes by check or cash to the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] or sheriff, as provided in KRS 137.150 and 137.160.

Section 339. KRS 137.150 is amended to read as follows:

Any county imposing a tax under KRS 137.120 shall immediately after the levy of the tax give notice thereof to each transporter of crude petroleum registered in the county. The transporter shall, after the first day of the month immediately following such notice, proceed as provided in KRS 137.140 to collect the county tax and pay it to the sheriff of the county in the manner and at the time payment of such taxes is required to be made to the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~]. Each county imposing the tax shall, upon the fixing of the levy, certify the same to the department[~~cabinet~~], which shall make the assessment for the county tax in the same manner and at the same value as provided for the state tax, which shall be certified to the county for collection.

Section 340. KRS 137.160 is amended to read as follows:

(1) When the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] has received the reports provided for in KRS 137.130, it shall, upon such reports and such other reports and information as it may secure, assess the value of all grades or kinds of crude petroleum reported for each month.

(2) Where the report shows no sale of crude petroleum during the month covered by the report, the market value of crude petroleum on the first business day after the tenth day of the month in which the report is made shall be fixed by the department[~~cabinet~~] as the assessed value of all crude petroleum covered by the report. Where the report shows that all crude petroleum reported has been sold during the month covered by the report, the market price of such crude petroleum on each day of sale shall be the assessed value of all crude petroleum sold on that date of sale, and the total amount of the tax to be reported as the assessment on the report shall be the total of the assessments made on such sales. If the report shows that part of the crude petroleum reported has been sold and part remains unsold, the market price of the crude petroleum on the first business day after the tenth day of the month following the month covered by the report shall be fixed as the assessed value of the portion of the crude petroleum unsold, the market price of the crude petroleum on each day of sale shall be the assessed value of the portion sold, and the total amount of the tax to be reported as the assessment on the report shall be the total of the assessments made on the sold and unsold crude petroleum. The department[~~cabinet~~], in making its assessments, shall take into consideration transportation charges.

(3) The department[~~cabinet~~] shall, by the last day of the month in which the reports are required to be made, notify each transporter of his assessment, and certify the assessment to the county clerk of each county that has reported the levy of a county tax under KRS 137.150. The county clerk shall immediately deliver a copy thereof to the sheriff for collection of the county tax. The transporter so notified of the assessment shall have the right to an appeal to the Kentucky board of tax appeals.

(1) Each person engaged in the business of conducting a race track shall, on or before thirty (30) days following the close of each duly licensed race meeting, furnish the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] a verified report of the number of days on which races were conducted on that race track during the race meeting, together with a statement of its daily mutuel handle for each day during the meeting, and at the same time pay to the state the tentatively correct amount of the license tax apparently due it pursuant to KRS 137.170.

(2) On or before December 31 in each year, each person engaged in the business of conducting a race track shall file a final report with the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] giving in summary form a recapitulation of the information furnished by the previous tentative reports filed during the year, computing the final license tax due the state for the year ending November 30 and showing the amount of tentative license tax actually paid during the year. Any balance of license tax due the state as shown on the final report shall be paid at the same time as the filing. Any overpayment in license tax disclosed by the final report shall, at the option of the taxpayer, be promptly refunded by the state or credited against the license tax to be due from the taxpayer in the following year.

(3) Any person who violates any provision of this section or KRS 137.170 shall be subject to the uniform civil penalties imposed pursuant to KRS 131.180 and interest at the tax interest rate as defined in KRS 131.010(6) upon the unpaid amount from the date prescribed for its payment until payment is actually made to the department~~[cabinet]~~.

(1) (a) Any person who engages in any business or sells or offers to sell or has on hand for the purpose of sale any article or exercises any privilege for which a license is required or imposed by KRS 137.115 before procuring the license and paying the tax shall be fined not less than twenty-five dollars ($25) nor more than two hundred dollars ($200) for each offense, unless otherwise specifically provided;

(b) Any county clerk who violates any of the provisions of KRS 137.115, or any administrative regulation promulgated by the Department of Revenue~~[Cabinet]~~ thereunder, shall be fined not less than fifty dollars ($50) nor more than one thousand dollars ($1,000) for each offense; and

(c) Any person who makes a false statement in securing a license under KRS 137.115 shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor.

(2) (a) Any person who violates any provision of KRS 137.120 to 137.160 shall be subject to the uniform civil penalties imposed pursuant to KRS 131.180; and

(b) Any person who violates any of the provisions of KRS 137.120 to 137.160 may be fined not less than one hundred dollars ($100) nor more than five hundred dollars ($500) or imprisoned for not less than thirty (30) days nor more than six (6) months, or both.

(3) Any person who violates any of the provisions of KRS 137.170 or 137.180 shall be fined not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000) or imprisoned in the county jail not more than thirty (30) days, or both so fined and imprisoned. If the offender is a corporation, the principal officer or the officer or employee directly responsible for the violation, or both, shall be punished as provided in this subsection.

(1) The cigarette tax imposed by KRS 138.130 to 138.205 shall be due when any licensed wholesaler or unclassified acquirer takes possession within this state of untax-paid cigarettes.

(2) The tax shall be paid by the purchase of stamps by a resident wholesaler within forty-eight (48) hours after the cigarettes are received by him. A stamp shall be affixed to each package of an aggregate denomination not less than the amount of the tax upon the contents thereof. Unless such stamps have been previously affixed, they shall be so affixed by each resident wholesaler prior to the delivery of any cigarettes to a retail location or any person in this state. The evidence of tax payment shall be affixed to each individual package of cigarettes by a nonresident wholesaler prior to the introduction or importation of the cigarettes into the territorial limits of this state. The evidence of tax payment shall be affixed by an unclassified acquirer within twenty-four (24) hours after the cigarettes are received by him.

(3) The department[~~cabinet~~] shall by regulation prescribe the form of cigarette tax evidence, the method and manner of the sale and distribution of such cigarette tax evidence, and the method and manner that such evidence shall be affixed to the cigarettes. All cigarette tax evidence prescribed by the department[~~cabinet~~] shall be designed and furnished in a fashion to permit identification of the person that affixed the cigarette tax evidence to the particular package of cigarettes, by means of numerical rolls or other mark on the cigarette tax evidence. The department[~~cabinet~~] shall maintain for at least three (3) years information identifying the person that affixed the cigarette tax evidence to each package of cigarettes. This information shall not be kept confidential or exempt from disclosure to the public through open records.

(4) Units of cigarette tax evidence shall be sold at their face value, but the department[~~cabinet~~] shall allow as compensation to any licensed wholesaler an amount of tax evidence equal to thirty cents ($0.30) face value for each three dollars ($3) of tax evidence purchased at face value. The department[~~cabinet~~] shall have the power to withhold compensation from any licensed wholesaler for failure to abide by any provisions of KRS 138.130 to 138.205 or any regulations promulgated thereunder. Any refund or credit for unused cigarette tax evidence shall be reduced by the amount allowed as compensation at the time of purchase.

(5) No tax evidence may be affixed, or used in any way, by any person other than the person purchasing such evidence from the department[~~cabinet~~]. Such tax evidence may not be transferred or negotiated, and may not, by any scheme or device, be given, bartered, sold, traded, or loaned to any other person. Unaffixed tax evidence may be returned to the department[~~cabinet~~] for credit or refund for any reason satisfactory to the department[~~cabinet~~].

(6) In the event any retailer shall receive into his possession cigarettes to which evidence of Kentucky tax payment is not properly affixed, he shall within twenty-four (24) hours notify the department[~~cabinet~~] of such fact. Such notice shall be in writing, and shall give the name of the person from whom such cigarettes were received, and the quantity of such cigarettes, and such written notice may be given to any field agent of the department[~~cabinet~~]. The written notice may also be directed to the commissioner of the Department of Revenue[~~secretary of revenue~~], Frankfort, Kentucky. If such notice is given by means of the United States mail, it shall be sent by certified mail. Any such cigarettes shall be retained by such retailer, and not sold, for a period of fifteen (15) days after giving the notice provided in this subsection. The retailer may, at his option, pay the tax due on any such cigarettes according to rules and regulations to be prescribed by the department[~~cabinet~~], and proceed to sell the same after such payment.

(7) Cigarettes stamped with the cigarette tax evidence of another state shall at no time be commingled with cigarettes on which the Kentucky cigarette tax evidence has been affixed, but any licensed wholesaler, licensed sub-jobber, or licensed vending machine operator may hold cigarettes stamped with the tax evidence of another state for any period of time, subsection (2) of this section notwithstanding.

In lieu of the affixing of cigarette tax evidence to individual packages of cigarettes as the means of denoting payment of the cigarette tax imposed by KRS 138.130 to 138.205, the department[~~cabinet~~] may prescribe, by rules and regulations sufficient to protect the revenue of this state, a method of reporting, payment and collection of such tax, without the affixing of tax evidence to individual packages of cigarettes. In the event such a system is adopted no compensation for reporting for the purpose of such tax in excess of two percent (2%) of the tax due shall be allowed to any person.

(1) It is declared to be the legislative intent of KRS 138.130 to 138.205 that any untax-paid cigarettes held, owned, possessed, or in control of any person other than as provided in KRS 138.130 to 138.205 are contraband and subject to seizure and forfeiture as set out in this section.

(2) Whenever any peace officer of this state, or any representative of the department[~~cabinet~~], finds any untax-paid cigarettes within the borders of this state in the possession of any person other than a licensee authorized to possess untax-paid cigarettes by the provisions of KRS 138.130 to 138.205, such cigarettes shall be immediately seized and stored in a depository to be selected by the officer or agent. At the time of seizure, the officer or agent shall deliver to the person in whose custody the cigarettes are found a receipt for the cigarettes. The receipt shall state on its face that any inquiry concerning any goods seized shall be directed to the commissioner of the Department of Revenue[~~secretary of revenue~~], Frankfort, Kentucky. Immediately upon seizure, the officer or agent shall notify the commissioner of the Department of Revenue[~~secretary of revenue~~] of the nature and quantity of the goods seized. Any seized goods shall be held for a period of twenty (20) days and if after such period no person has claimed the cigarettes as his property, the commissioner[~~secretary~~] shall cause the same to be exposed to public sale to any person authorized to purchase untax-paid cigarettes. The sale shall be on notice published pursuant to KRS Chapter 424. All proceeds, less the cost of sale, from the sale shall be paid into the Kentucky State Treasury for general fund purposes.

(3) It is declared to be the legislative intent that any vending machine used for dispensing cigarettes on which Kentucky cigarette tax has not been paid is contraband and subject to seizure and forfeiture. In the event any peace officer or agent of the department[~~cabinet~~] finds any vending machine within the borders of this state dispensing untax-paid cigarettes, he shall immediately seize the vending machine and store the same in a safe place selected by him. He shall thereafter proceed as provided in subsection (2) of this section and the commissioner of the Department of Revenue[~~secretary of revenue~~] shall cause the vending machine to be sold, and the proceeds applied, as set out in subsection (2) of this section.

(4) No cigarettes, on which the tax imposed by KRS 138.130 to 138.205 has not been paid, shall be transported within this state by any person other than a manufacturer or a person licensed under the provisions of KRS 138.195. It is declared to be the legislative intent that any motor vehicle used to transport any such cigarettes by other persons is contraband and subject to seizure and forfeiture. In the event any peace officer or agent of the department[~~cabinet~~] finds any such motor vehicle, he shall immediately seize the motor vehicle and store it in a safe place specified by him. He shall thereafter proceed as provided in subsection (2) of this section and the commissioner of the Department of Revenue[~~secretary of revenue~~] shall cause the motor vehicle to be sold, and the proceeds applied, as set out in subsection (2) of this section.

(5) The owner or any person having an interest in any goods, machines or vehicles seized as provided under subsections (1) to (4) of this section may apply to the commissioner of the Department of Revenue[~~secretary of revenue~~] for remission of the forfeiture for good cause shown. If it is shown to the satisfaction of the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] that the owner was without fault in the possession, dispensing or transportation of the untax-paid cigarettes, he shall remit the forfeiture. In the event he determines that the possession, dispensing or transportation of untax-paid cigarettes was willful or intentional he may nevertheless remit the forfeiture on condition that the owner pay a penalty to be prescribed by him of not more than fifty percent (50%) of the value of the thing forfeited. All taxes due on untax-paid cigarettes shall be paid in addition to the penalty, if any.

(6) Any party aggrieved by an order entered hereunder may appeal to the Kentucky Board of Tax Appeals in the manner provided by law.

Section 347. KRS 138.195 is amended to read as follows:

(1) No person other than a manufacturer shall acquire cigarettes in this state on which the Kentucky cigarette tax has not been paid, nor act as a resident wholesaler, nonresident wholesaler, vending machine operator, sub-jobber, transporter or unclassified acquirer of such cigarettes without first obtaining a license from the department[~~cabinet~~] as set out in this section.

(2) Each resident wholesaler shall secure a separate license for each place of business at which cigarette tax evidence is affixed or at which cigarettes on which the Kentucky cigarette tax has not been paid are received. Each nonresident wholesaler shall secure a separate license for each place of business at which evidence of Kentucky cigarette tax is affixed or from where Kentucky cigarette tax is reported and paid. Such a license or licenses shall be secured on or before July 1 of each year, and each licensee shall pay the sum of five hundred dollars ($500) for each such year or portion thereof for which such license is secured.

(7) Nothing in KRS 138.130 to 138.205 shall be construed to prevent the department[~~cabinet~~] from requiring a person to purchase more than one (1) license if the nature of such person's business is so diversified as to justify such requirement.

(8) The department[~~cabinet~~] may by regulation require any person licensed under the provisions of this section to supply such information concerning his business, sales or any privilege exercised, as is deemed reasonably necessary for the regulation of such licensees, and to protect the revenues of the state. Failure on the part of such licensee to comply with the provisions of KRS 138.130 to 138.205 or any regulations promulgated thereunder, or to permit an inspection of premises, machines or vehicles by an authorized agent of the department[~~cabinet~~] at any reasonable time shall be grounds for the revocation of any license issued by the department[~~cabinet~~], after due notice and a hearing by the department[~~cabinet~~]. The commissioner of the Department of Revenue[~~secretary of revenue~~] may assign a time and place for such hearing and may appoint a conferee who shall conduct a hearing, receive evidence and hear arguments. Such conferee shall thereupon file a report with the commissioner[~~secretary~~] together with a recommendation as to the revocation of such license. From any revocation made by the commissioner of the Department of Revenue[~~secretary of revenue~~] on such report, the licensee may prosecute an appeal to the Kentucky Board of Tax Appeals as provided by law. Any person whose license has been revoked for the willful violation of any provision of KRS 138.130 to 138.205 shall not be entitled to any license provided for in this section, or have any interest in any such license, either disclosed or undisclosed, either as an individual, partnership, corporation or otherwise, for a period of one (1) year after such revocation.

(9) No license issued pursuant to the provisions of this section shall be transferable or negotiable except that a license may be transferred between an individual and a corporation, if that individual is the exclusive owner of that corporation, or between a subsidiary corporation and its parent corporation.

(10) Every manufacturer located or doing business in this state shall keep written records of all shipments of cigarettes to persons within this state, and shall submit reports of such shipments as the department[~~cabinet~~] may require by regulation.

(1) An excise tax at the rate of nine percent (9%) of the average wholesale price rounded to the third decimal when computed on a per gallon basis shall be paid on all gasoline and special fuel received in this state. Except as provided by KRS Chapter 138, no other excise or license tax shall be levied or assessed on gasoline or special fuel by the state or any political subdivision of the state. The tax herein imposed shall be paid by the dealer receiving the gasoline or special fuel to the State Treasurer in the manner and within the time specified in KRS 138.230 to 138.340 and all such tax may be added to the selling price charged by the dealer or other person paying the tax on gasoline or special fuel sold in this state. Nothing herein contained shall authorize or require the collection of the tax upon any gasoline or special fuel after it has been once taxed under the provisions of this section, unless such tax was refunded or credited.

(2) In addition to the excise tax provided in subsection (1) of this section, there is hereby levied a supplemental highway user motor fuel tax to be paid in the same manner and at the same time as the tax provided in subsection (1) of this section. Such tax shall be calculated, starting with the quarter beginning July 1, 1986, by taking the excise tax resulting from the calculation provided for in subsection (1) of this section and adjusting such tax calculated, for each quarter, to reflect decreases in the average wholesale price, as defined in KRS 138.210(10)(a). The adjustment shall be made by calculating the difference between the average wholesale price computed for the quarter beginning October 1, 1985, as provided for in subsection (3) of this section, and the average wholesale price computed for the quarter beginning July 1, 1986 and each succeeding quarter, as provided for in subsection (3) of this section. In the event of a decrease in the average wholesale price computed for the quarter beginning October 1, 1985, and ending December 31, 1985, and the average wholesale price computed for the quarter beginning July 1, 1986, and each succeeding quarter, the excise tax shall be adjusted upward for that quarter. The upward adjustment shall equal one-half (1/2) of the decrease between the two (2) quarterly periods, rounded to the third decimal. In no case shall the adjustment provided by this subsection result in a supplemental highway user motor fuel tax greater than five cents ($0.05) on gasoline or two cents ($0.02) on special fuel and, notwithstanding any adjustment which may be calculated as provided by this subsection, in no case shall the supplemental highway user motor fuel tax for any quarter be less than the previous quarter. The supplemental highway user motor fuel tax provided by this subsection and the provisions of subsection (1) of this section shall constitute the tax on motor fuels imposed by KRS 138.220.

(3) Effective with the calendar quarter beginning July 1, 1980, the department[~~cabinet~~] shall determine on a consistent basis the average wholesale price for each calendar quarter, on the basis of sales data accumulated for the first month of the preceding quarter. Notification of the average wholesale price shall be given to all licensed dealers at least twenty (20) days in advance of the first day of each calendar quarter.

(4) Dealers with a tax-paid gasoline or special fuel inventory at the time an average wholesale price becomes effective, shall be subject to additional tax or appropriate tax credit to reflect the increase or decrease in the average wholesale price for the new quarter. The department[~~cabinet~~] shall promulgate such rules and regulations to properly administer this provision.

It shall be presumed that all untaxed motor fuels are subject to the tax levied under KRS 138.220 unless the contrary is established pursuant to KRS 138.210 to 138.500 or administrative regulations promulgated thereunder by the Department of Revenue[~~Cabinet~~]. The tax shall be paid by the licensed dealer to the department[~~cabinet~~]. Any dealer or other person who imports, causes to be imported, receives, uses, sells, stores, or possesses untaxed motor fuels but fails to comply with all statutory and regulatory restrictions applicable to the fuel shall be jointly and severally liable for payment of the tax due on the fuel. A person's liability shall not be extinguished until the tax due has been paid to the department[~~cabinet~~].

Section 353. KRS 138.226 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The department[~~cabinet~~] shall administer the taxes provided under KRS 138.210 to 138.500, except KRS 138.463 and 138.4631 and may prescribe, adopt and enforce administrative regulations relating to the administration and enforcement thereof.

Every person purchasing gasoline or special fuel from a dealer for resale shall keep, and preserve for a period of five (5) years, a record of all such gasoline or special fuel so purchased and sold or used, and the amount of tax paid to the dealers as part of the purchase price, together with delivery tickets, invoices, bills of lading and such other records as the department[~~cabinet~~] shall require.

(1) Every gasoline dealer and every special fuels dealer, or the treasurer or other proper officer or agent of every such dealer, shall, by the twenty-fifth day of each month, transmit to the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] reports on the forms the department[~~cabinet~~] may prescribe, of the total number of gallons of gasoline and special fuel received in this state during the next preceding calendar month. This report shall include the following information:

  (a) An itemized statement of the number of gallons received that have been produced, refined, manufactured, or compounded by the dealer in this state during the next preceding calendar month; and

  (b) An itemized statement of the number of gallons received by the dealer in this state from any source during the next preceding calendar month, as shown by shippers' invoices, other than the gasoline and special fuel falling within the provisions of paragraph (a) of this subsection, together with a statement showing the date of receipt, the name of the person from whom purchased, the date of receipt of each shipment, the point of origin and the point of destination, the quantity of each purchase or shipment, the name of the carrier, the initials and number of each tank car, the date of receipt, and the number of gallons contained in each car if shipped by rail or the name and owner of the boat, ship, truck, transport, barge, or vessel if shipped by water.

(2) The reports required by subsection (1) of this section shall also contain an itemized statement of the number of gallons received by the dealer during the preceding calendar month of:

2. All the fuel will be used exclusively in the operation of a commercial ship or vessel.

(f) Special fuel delivered to a railroad company principally engaged in the commercial transportation of property for others as a common carrier or in the conveyance of persons for hire, if the railroad company is the holder of a Kentucky motor fuels tax refund permit and certifies that the fuel is to be used exclusively for the purpose of powering locomotives and unlicensed company vehicles or equipment for nonhighway use. The remaining gasoline and special fuel placed in storage must be fully accounted for as in physical inventory, accountable loss, withdrawn for export or withdrawn from storage and received for taxable purposes.

(4) The number of gallons of gasoline or special fuel added to marine, pipeline or refinery storage shall be determined by the department[~~cabinet~~] by actual measurement of terminal storage tanks in the manner it deems necessary.

Section 358. KRS 138.270 is amended to read as follows:

(1) (a) From the total number of gallons of gasoline and special fuel received by the dealer within this state during the next preceding calendar month, deductions shall be made for the total number of gallons received by the dealer within this state that were sold or otherwise disposed of during the next preceding calendar month as set forth in subsection (2) of KRS 138.240.

(b) To cover evaporation, shrinkage, unaccountable losses, collection costs, bad debts, and handling and reporting the tax, each dealer shall be allowed compensation equal to two and one-fourth percent (2.25%) of the net tax due the Commonwealth pursuant to KRS 138.210 to 138.500 before all allowable tax credits, except the credit authorized pursuant to KRS 138.358. No compensation shall be allowed if the completed tax return and payment are not submitted to the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] within the time prescribed by KRS 138.210 to 138.500.

(2) The tax imposed by KRS 138.220(1) and (2) shall be computed on the number of gallons remaining after the deductions set forth in subsection (1) of this section have been made, and shall constitute the amount of tax payable for the next preceding calendar month.

(3) Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter to the contrary, any person who shall remit to the department[~~cabinet~~], by the twenty-fifth day of the next month, an estimated tax due amount equal to not less than ninety-five percent (95%) of his tax liability, as finally determined for the report month, shall not be required to file the monthly reports required by this chapter until the last day of the month following the report month, and shall be permitted to claim as a credit against the tax liability shown due on the report the estimated tax due amount so paid.

(1) The reports required by KRS 138.240 shall be accompanied by a certified or cashier's check, payable to the State Treasurer, for the amount of tax due for the preceding calendar month, computed as provided in KRS 138.270; except that the department[~~cabinet~~] may waive this requirement and accept the dealer's check where the dealer is of sound financial condition and has established a good record of compliance with the requirements of KRS 138.210 to 138.340.

(2) By virtue of the allowance provided by KRS 138.270 to dealers for collecting and remitting the tax, every dealer is a trust officer of the state.

Section 360. KRS 138.300 is amended to read as follows:

No dealer or other person shall fail or refuse to make the returns and pay the tax prescribed by KRS 138.220 to 138.280, or refuse to permit the Department of Revenue[~~revenue cabinet~~] or its representatives appointed by the commissioner of the Department of Revenue[~~secretary of revenue~~] in writing to examine his records, papers, files and equipment pertaining to the taxable business. No person shall make an incomplete, false or fraudulent return, or do or attempt to do anything to avoid a full disclosure of the amount of business done or to avoid the payment of the whole or any part of the tax or penalties due. No person shall fail to keep and preserve records of gasoline and special fuel manufactured, transported, received, used, sold or delivered or to make reports as required by KRS 138.230 to 138.280.

Section 361. KRS 138.310 is amended to read as follows:

(1) No person shall refine, produce, distill, manufacture, blend, compound, receive, use, sell, transport, store, or distribute any gasoline or special fuel upon which the tax due has not been paid or assumed or engage in the sale, storage or transportation of any gasoline or special fuel within this state upon which the tax has not been paid unless he is the holder of an uncanceled license issued by the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] to engage in the business.

(2) Any transporter, other than a regularly licensed gasoline or special fuel dealer, transporting gasoline or special fuel by motor vehicle shall have plainly painted on the vehicle the name, address, and permit number of the transporter.

(3) Any person who engages in the business of refining, producing, distilling, manufacturing, blending, compounding, receiving, using, selling, transporting, storing, or distributing gasoline or special fuel in this state as a dealer, storage operator, or transporter without holding an uncanceled license to engage in that business, or who without the license, refines, produces, distills, manufacturers, blends, compounds, receives, uses, sells, transports, stores, or distributes any gasoline or special fuel upon which the tax imposed by KRS 138.220 has not been reported and paid, shall be subject to the uniform civil penalties imposed pursuant to KRS 131.180 and interest at the tax interest rate as defined in KRS 131.010(6) from the date due until the date of payment.

(1) To procure the license required by KRS 138.310, every dealer or transporter so required shall file with the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] an application in such form and containing such information as the department[~~cabinet~~] may deem necessary.

(2) If the dealer or transporter is a corporation organized under the laws of another state, it shall file with its application a certified copy of the certificate or license issued by the Secretary of State of this state showing that the corporation is authorized to transact business in this state.

(3) At the time of filing application for a license, a bond of the character stipulated and in the amount provided for in KRS 138.330 shall be filed with the department[~~cabinet~~]. No license shall be issued upon any application unless accompanied by this bond.

(4) If application for such a license is filed by any person whose license has at any time previously been canceled for cause by the department[~~cabinet~~], or if the department[~~cabinet~~] is of the opinion that the application is not filed in good faith, or that the application is filed by some person as a subterfuge for the real person in interest whose license or registration has previously been canceled for cause by the department[~~cabinet~~], the department[~~cabinet~~] may, after a hearing of which the applicant has been given five (5) days' notice in writing, and in which the applicant shall have the right to appear in person or by counsel and present testimony, refuse to issue a license to that person.

(5) The application in proper form having been accepted for filing, and the bond having been accepted and approved, the department[~~cabinet~~] shall issue to the applicant a license, subject to cancellation as provided by KRS 138.340. The license shall not be assignable, and shall be valid only for the person in whose name it is issued, and shall be displayed conspicuously in the principal place of business of the dealer in this state.

(6) The department[~~cabinet~~] shall keep and file all applications and bonds, with an alphabetical index thereof, together with a record of all licensed dealers or transporters. The department[~~cabinet~~] shall publish and keep currently up to date a list of licensed dealers and transporters, and transmit a copy of list and all revisions thereof to all licensed dealers and transporters.

(7) All licenses shall be valid and remain in full force and effect until suspended or revoked for cause or otherwise canceled.

Section 363. KRS 138.321 is amended to read as follows:

Any gasoline dealer or special fuels dealer having a license revoked for the violation of any of the provisions contained in KRS Chapter 138 may, within the discretion of the department[~~cabinet~~], be denied the issuance of a gasoline dealer or special fuels dealer license, and any such licensee shall not have an interest in any such license, either disclosed or undisclosed, whether as an individual, partnership, corporation or otherwise.

Section 364. KRS 138.330 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Every dealer or transporter required to be licensed under KRS 138.310 shall file with the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] a financial instrument in an amount not to exceed three (3) months' estimated liability as computed by the department[~~cabinet~~] or five thousand dollars ($5,000) whichever is greater, or in the case of a new licensee in the minimum amount of five thousand dollars ($5,000) until such time as an estimated three (3) months' liability can be established, provided that the maximum amount of any financial instrument may be reduced to an amount sufficient in the opinion of the department[~~cabinet~~], considering the financial rating and reputation of the company, to insure payment to the department[~~cabinet~~] of the amount of tax, penalties and interest for which the dealer or transporter may become liable. The financial instrument shall be on a form and with a surety approved by the department[~~cabinet~~]. The dealer or transporter shall be the principal obligor and the state the obligee. The financial instrument shall be conditioned upon the prompt filing of true reports by the dealer and transporter and the payment by the dealer to the State Treasurer of all gasoline and special fuel excise taxes now or hereafter imposed by the state, together with all penalties and interest thereon, and generally upon faithful compliance with the provisions of KRS 138.210 to 138.340.

(2) If liability upon the financial instrument is discharged or reduced, whether by judgment rendered, payment made, or otherwise, or if in the opinion of the department[~~cabinet~~] any surety on the financial instrument has become unsatisfactory or unacceptable, the department[~~cabinet~~] may require the licensee to file a new financial instrument with satisfactory sureties in the same amount, failing which the department[~~cabinet~~] shall cancel the license of the licensee in accordance with the provisions of KRS 138.340. If a new financial instrument is furnished as provided above, the department[~~cabinet~~] shall cancel and surrender the financial instrument for which the new financial instrument is substituted.

(3) If upon hearing, of which the licensee shall be given five (5) days' notice in writing, the department[~~cabinet~~] decides that the amount of the existing financial instrument is insufficient to insure payment to the state of the amount of tax, penalties, and interest for which the licensee is or may become liable, the licensee shall, upon the written demand of the department[~~cabinet~~], file an additional financial instrument in the same manner and form with a surety thereon approved by the department[~~cabinet~~], in any amount determined by the department[~~cabinet~~] to be necessary, failing which the department[~~cabinet~~] shall cancel the license of the licensee in accordance with the provisions of KRS 138.340.

(4) Any surety on a financial instrument furnished as required by this section shall be released from all liability to the state accruing on the financial instrument after the expiration of sixty (60) days from the date upon which the surety has lodged with the department[~~cabinet~~] a written request to be released, but this request shall not operate to release the surety from any liability already accrued or which shall accrue before the expiration of the sixty (60) day period. The department[~~cabinet~~] shall promptly, upon receipt of a request, notify the licensee who furnished the financial instrument, and unless the licensee, before the expiration of the sixty (60) day period, files with the department[~~cabinet~~] a new financial instrument with a surety satisfactory to the department[~~cabinet~~] in the amount and form prescribed in this section, the department[~~cabinet~~] shall cancel the license of the licensee in accordance with the provisions of KRS 138.340. If an approved new financial instrument is filed, the department[~~cabinet~~] shall cancel and surrender the financial instrument for which the new bond is substituted.

(1) If any dealer or transporter required to be licensed under KRS 138.310 files a false report of the data or information required by KRS 138.210 to 138.280, or fails, refuses or neglects to file the reports required by those sections, even though no tax is due, or to pay the full amount of tax as required by those sections, or fails to meet the qualifications of a dealer as set out in KRS 138.210(2), or violates any other provision of this chapter, the license of the dealer or transporter may be revoked by the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~]. The licensee shall be notified by certified or registered letter or summons. The letter or summons shall apprise the licensee of the charge or charges made against him and he shall have a reasonable opportunity to be heard before his license may be revoked. The summons may be served in the same manner and by the same officers or persons as provided by the Rules of Civil Procedure, or it may be served in that manner by an employee of the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~]. The hearing shall be set at least five (5) days after the summons is served or the letter delivered. Any aggrieved licensee may appeal from an order of revocation by the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] to the Kentucky Board of Tax Appeals as provided by law, subject to the condition that the licensee has made bond sufficient in the opinion of the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] to protect the Commonwealth from loss of revenue.

(2) The department[~~cabinet~~] may cancel the license:

(a) Upon request in writing from the licensee, the cancellation to become effective sixty (60) days from the date of receipt of the request; or

(b) Upon determination that the licensee has had no reportable activity in Kentucky for at least the immediately preceding six (6) consecutive monthly reporting periods.

Section 366. KRS 138.341 is amended to read as follows:

(1) When gasoline or special fuel on which the tax has been paid pursuant to the provisions of KRS 138.210 to 138.340 has been used for the purpose of operating any aircraft engaged in the transportation of persons or property, the purchaser of the liquid fuel so used shall be reimbursed for the tax paid. No tax shall be refunded except that paid upon the fuel used exclusively in aircraft motors.

(2) No person shall be entitled to a refund hereunder unless he shall have first filed with the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] a bond with approved surety in an amount of not less than one hundred dollars ($100) nor more than one thousand dollars ($1,000) to be determined by the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~], conditioned upon faithful compliance with this section and KRS 138.342 and upon the payment to the Commonwealth of any refunds to which he was not entitled.

(3) The right to receive any refund pursuant to subsection (1) of this section shall be assignable by the purchaser to the seller of the gasoline or special fuel if the seller has posted a bond with the department[~~cabinet~~] and the aviation gasoline or special fuel purchased by the assignor is delivered directly into the fuel tank of aircraft owned or operated by him or his authorized agent. Any assignment shall be evidenced by noting upon the face and all copies of the retail sale invoice the following: "TAX REFUND ASSIGNED TO SELLER. Signed: (Purchaser or Agent.)"

Section 367. KRS 138.342 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Applications for refund pursuant to KRS 138.341 shall be made to the department[~~cabinet~~] on a calendar quarter or calendar year basis on forms and in the manner prescribed by it for the refund of tax paid on aviation motor fuel used during the calendar quarter or calendar year. Each application for a refund shall show the number of gallons of aviation motor fuel purchased during the preceding month; the date and quantity of each purchase; the vendor from whom the fuel was purchased; the number of gallons on which refund is claimed; and other information the department[~~cabinet~~] may require.

(2) The department[~~cabinet~~] shall audit the application and make other investigation it deems necessary to determine whether it constitutes a proper claim. When the department[~~cabinet~~] is satisfied that a refund is proper, it shall authorize the tax paid to be refunded as other refunds are made and the amount refunded shall be deducted from current motor fuel tax receipts. The tax shall be refunded with interest at the tax interest rate as defined in KRS 131.010(6).

(3) When the department[~~cabinet~~] finds that an application for a refund contains a false or fraudulent statement or that a refund has been fraudulently obtained, the department[~~cabinet~~] shall refuse to grant any refunds to the person making the false or fraudulent statement or fraudulently obtaining a refund for a period of two (2) years from the date of the finding.

(1) Except as otherwise provided in KRS 138.220 to 138.500, any person who shall purchase gasoline or special fuel, on which the tax as imposed by KRS 138.220 has been paid, for the purpose of operating or propelling stationary engines or tractors for agricultural purposes, or who shall purchase special fuels, on which the tax as imposed by KRS 138.220 has been paid, for consumption in unlicensed vehicles or equipment for nonhighway purposes shall be reimbursed for the tax so paid on the gasoline or special fuel. No refund shall be authorized unless applications and all necessary information are filed with the department[~~cabinet~~] on a calendar quarter or calendar year basis on forms and in the manner prescribed by it for refund of the tax paid on the fuel. In lieu of the tax refund procedure, the tax on special fuels and the tax on gasoline used for the purpose of operating or propelling stationary engines or tractors for agricultural purposes may be credited by the dealer to the purchaser as provided in KRS 138.358. The dealer and the purchases shall be subject to the same rules, conditions, and responsibilities as provided in KRS 138.344 to 138.355. The tax shall be refunded with interest at the tax interest rate as defined in KRS 131.010(6).

(2) The information to be required from the permit holder, by the department[~~cabinet~~], in order that the refund may be allowed, shall be as follows:

(a) Name and address of permit holder .... permit number .....

(b) Total number of gallons purchased .... and total purchase price ..... (Invoices to be attached to refund application.)

(c) Total number of gallons used on highways .....

(d) Total number of gallons on which refund is claimed ..... (Line b minus line c.)

(e) Other information as the department[~~cabinet~~] may require to reasonably protect the revenues of the Commonwealth.

Section 369. KRS 138.345 is amended to read as follows:

No person shall secure a refund of tax under KRS 138.344 unless the person is the holder of an unrevoked refund permit issued by the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] before the purchase of the gasoline or special fuel, which permit shall entitle the person to make application for a refund under KRS 138.344 to 138.355. To procure a permit, every person shall file with the department[~~cabinet~~] an application under oath, on forms furnished by the department[~~cabinet~~], setting forth the information incident to the refunding of the tax paid on gasoline or special fuel as the department[~~cabinet~~] may require. The properly completed and signed application shall be filed with the department[~~cabinet~~] on or before the date the permit, if approved by the department[~~cabinet~~], is to become effective.

Section 370. KRS 138.346 is amended to read as follows:

Such bond shall be in an amount equal to an applicant's one (1) year estimated refund claim, but not less than one thousand dollars ($1,000).

Section 371. KRS 138.347 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Each licensed gasoline and special fuel dealer shall, in accordance with the department's[~~cabinet's~~] requirements, keep at his principal place of business in this state a complete record of all such gasoline and special fuel sold by him under gasoline refund invoices provided for in KRS 138.351, which records shall give the date of each such sale, the number of gallons sold, the name of the person to whom sold and the sale price.

(2) Every person to whom a refund permit has been issued under KRS 138.345 shall, in accordance with the department's[~~cabinet's~~] requirements, keep at his residence or principal place of business in this state a record of each purchase of gasoline and special fuel from a licensed dealer or the dealer's authorized agent, the number of gallons purchased, the name of the seller, and the date of purchase.

(3) The records required to be kept under subsections (1) and (2) of this section shall at all reasonable hours be subject to inspection by the department[~~cabinet~~] or by any person duly authorized by it. Such records shall be preserved and shall not be destroyed until five (5) years after the date the gasoline and special fuel to which they relate was sold and purchased.

Section 372. KRS 138.348 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The department[~~cabinet~~] may require any dealer or any dealer's authorized agent to identify refund gasoline or special fuel sold by him by adding thereto any chemical or substance, which shall be furnished by the cabinet and used in the manner as prescribed by the department[~~cabinet~~].

(2) The refund permit holder shall receive and store all the gasoline and special fuel in containers plainly marked with distinguishing letters "Refund Motor Fuel," or comparable letters prescribed by the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~], and shall keep the containers on his premises accessible to agents of the department[~~cabinet~~] and separate from other gasoline and special fuel stored on his premises.

(3) The Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] may, within its discretion, issue a refund permit for a portable storage facility if the applicant satisfies the department[~~cabinet~~] that the facility will be used exclusively for the purpose of fueling unlicensed vehicles or equipment at multiple locations for nonhighway purposes, and fueling the vehicles or equipment from a nonportable facility would not be practical.

(4) Every refund permit holder who uses on the public highways motor fuel of the type for which refund is claimed shall keep detailed records of all the motor fuel acquired, monthly odometer readings of all licensed motor vehicles owned or operated by the holder which use the fuel, and other records the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] may, in writing, require to protect the revenues of the Commonwealth.

(5) Agents of the department[~~cabinet~~] may go upon the premises of any permit holder or of any licensed gasoline or special fuel dealer or his authorized agent to make inspections to ascertain any matter connected with the operation of KRS

138.344 to 138.355 or the enforcement thereof. No agent shall enter the dwelling of any person without the occupant's consent or the authority from a court of competent jurisdiction.

(1) When gasoline or special fuel is sold to a person who shall claim to be entitled to refund under KRS 138.344, the licensed dealer or his duly authorized agent who sells the gasoline or special fuel shall make out in duplicate a gasoline or special fuel refund invoice supplied or approved in writing by the department[~~cabinet~~], which invoice shall have printed thereon that the liability to the Commonwealth of Kentucky for the excise tax imposed under KRS 138.220 with respect to the gasoline or special fuel has been assumed by the seller and that the excise tax has already been paid or will be paid by the seller when the same shall become payable, a statement setting forth the name and address of the purchaser, the number of gallons of gasoline or special fuel so sold, the proposed use for which the gasoline or special fuel is purchased, and other information as the department[~~cabinet~~] shall require. The original gasoline or special fuel refund invoice shall be given to the purchaser, and the duplicate shall be retained by the seller.

(2) The refund permit holder shall file with the department[~~cabinet~~] an application for refund on forms furnished by the department[~~cabinet~~], stating the quantity of gasoline and special fuel used for the purposes as set out in KRS 138.344. The application shall be accompanied by the original invoice, or certified copy thereof, showing the purchase, and, if required by the department[~~cabinet~~], evidence of payment therefor. When the department[~~cabinet~~] is satisfied that a refund is proper, it shall authorize the tax paid to be refunded as other refunds are made; and the amount refunded shall be deducted from gasoline or special fuel tax receipts as appropriate.

(3) The right to receive any refund under the provisions of this section shall not be assignable, except to the executor or administrator, or to the receiver, trustee in bankruptcy, or assignee in insolvency proceedings of the person entitled thereto.

(4) Interest on refunds authorized under the provisions of this section shall be paid at the tax interest rate, as defined in KRS 131.010(6), and shall begin to accrue sixty (60) days after the postmark date of the application for refund.

Section 374. KRS 138.353 is amended to read as follows:

If any excise taxes on gasoline or special fuel be erroneously refunded, the department[~~cabinet~~] shall issue an assessment for the amount erroneously refunded. The refund error shall be assessed, collected, and paid in the same manner as if it were a deficiency.

Section 375. KRS 138.354 is amended to read as follows:

(1) No person shall make a false or fraudulent statement in an application for a refund permit or in a gasoline or special fuel refund invoice, or in an application for a refund of any taxes as set out in KRS 138.344 to 138.355; or fraudulently obtain a refund of such taxes; or knowingly aid or assist in making any such false or fraudulent statement or claim; or having bought gasoline or special fuel under the provisions of KRS 138.344 to 138.355, shall use or permit such gasoline or special fuel or any part thereof to be used for any purpose other than as provided in KRS 138.344.

(2) The refund permit of any person who shall violate any provision of subsection (1) of this section may be revoked by the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] subject to appeal to the Kentucky Board of Tax Appeals as provided by law, and may not be reissued until two (2) years have elapsed from the date of such revocation.

(3) The refund permit of any person who shall violate any provision of KRS 138.344 to 138.355, other than those contained in subsection (1) of this section, may be suspended by the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] for any period in its discretion not exceeding six (6) months with the right of appeal to the Kentucky Board of Tax Appeals.

If the department[~~cabinet~~] reasonably believes that any dealer or refund permit holder has been guilty of a violation of KRS 138.344 to 138.355, which would subject the dealer or permit holder to a suspension or revocation of his license or permit under the provisions of subsections (2), (3) or (4) of KRS 138.354, said dealer or permit holder may be cited by the department[~~cabinet~~] to show cause at a public hearing before the Department of Revenue[~~ cabinet~~] why his license or permit should not be suspended or revoked. The dealer or refund permit holder shall be notified by certified or registered letter. The letter shall inform the dealer or refund permit holder of the charge or charges made against him and he shall have a reasonable opportunity to be heard before his license or permit may be revoked or suspended. The hearing shall be set at least five (5) days after the receipt of the letter. The Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] may require dealers claiming the credit authorized herein to submit information required by the department[~~cabinet~~] to reasonably protect the revenues of the Commonwealth.

(3) Any special fuels dealer who delivers special fuels, on which the tax imposed by KRS 138.220 has been paid, into a nonhighway use storage tank of a resident nonprofit religious, charitable, or educational organization or state or local governmental agency which has qualified for exemption from Kentucky sales and use tax pursuant to KRS 139.470(7) or 139.495 shall be entitled to claim a credit against the tax due pursuant to KRS 138.220 equal to the tax paid on the fuel if the dealer obtains from the purchaser and retains in his files a signed and dated statement certifying the purchaser's sales and use tax purchase exemption authorization issued pursuant to KRS Chapter 139. The Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] may require dealers claiming the credit authorized herein to submit information required by the department[~~cabinet~~] to reasonably protect the revenues of the Commonwealth.

No person making the certification shall use the special fuels for any other purpose. Sales made from a retail filling station do not qualify for the credit. The Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] may require dealers claiming the credit authorized in this subsection to submit information required by the department[~~cabinet~~] to reasonably protect the revenues of the Commonwealth. The application shall set forth the total amount of the liquid fuel purchased and used by the applicant in the operation or propulsion of watercraft.

(2) (a) When liquid fuel on which the tax has been paid pursuant to the provisions of KRS 138.220 to 138.340 has been used for the purpose of operating any watercraft and was delivered directly to the fuel tanks installed in or attached to the watercraft, the purchaser of the liquid fuel so used shall be reimbursed for the tax paid. No tax shall be refunded except that paid upon the fuel used exclusively in watercraft motors; and

(b) No person shall be entitled to a refund hereunder unless he shall have first filed with the department[~~cabinet~~] a bond with approved surety in the amount of not less than one hundred dollars ($100) nor more than one thousand dollars ($1,000) to be determined by the department[~~cabinet~~] and upon the payment to the Commonwealth of any refunds to which he was not entitled.

If the application for refund is mailed to the department[~~cabinet~~], the date of mailing as shown by the postmark shall be taken as the time and date of filing with the department[~~cabinet~~].

(4) Refunds shall be made only on gasoline and special fuels purchased by locations designated by the department[~~cabinet~~]. The tax shall be refunded with interest at the tax interest rate as defined in KRS 131.010(6).

When the department[~~cabinet~~] is satisfied that a refund is proper, it shall authorize seven-ninths (7/9) of the amount of the tax paid to be refunded as other refunds are made and the amount refunded shall be deducted from current motor fuel tax receipts. The tax shall be refunded with interest at the tax interest rate as defined in KRS 131.010(6).

(6) When the department[~~cabinet~~] finds that an application for a refund contains a false or fraudulent statement or that a refund has been fraudulently obtained, the department[~~cabinet~~] shall refuse to grant any refunds to the person making the false or fraudulent statement or fraudulently obtaining a refund for a period of two (2) years from the date of the findings.

(7) The department[~~cabinet~~] may prescribe, promulgate and enforce administrative regulations relating to the administration and enforcement of this section.

(b) The financial instrument shall be on a form and with a surety to do business in this state.

(c) The dealer shall be the principal obligor and the state the obligee.

(d) The financial instrument shall be conditioned upon the prompt filing of true reports and the payment by the dealer to the State Treasurer of all gasoline and special fuel excise taxes now or hereafter imposed by the state, together with all penalties and interest thereon, and generally upon faithful compliance with the provisions of KRS 138.210 to 138.340.

The personal and individual liability shall apply to each and every person holding a corporate office at the time the tax becomes or became due. No person shall be personally and individually liable under this subsection who had no authority to collect, truthfully account for, or pay over any tax imposed by KRS 138.210 to 138.446 at the time the tax imposed becomes or became due. (2) Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, KRS 275.150, or KRS 362.220(2) to the contrary, the managers of a limited liability company and the partners of a registered limited liability partnership or any other person holding any equivalent office of a limited liability company or a registered limited liability partnership subject to the provisions of KRS 138.210 to 138.446 shall be personally and individually liable, both jointly and severally, for the tax imposed under KRS 138.210 to 138.446. Dissolution, withdrawal of the limited liability company or registered limited liability partnership from the state, or the cessation of holding any office shall not discharge the liability of any person. The personal and individual liability shall apply to each and every manager of a limited liability company and partner of a registered limited liability partnership at the time the tax becomes or became due. 3. Agreeing to initiate an Automated Clearing House credit transaction to electronically transfer the amount of tax from the dealer's account to the Kentucky State Treasurer on the twenty-fifth day of that month.

For the purpose of this paragraph, a "financial instrument" means a bond issued by a corporation authorized to do business in Kentucky, a line of credit, or an account with a financial institution maintaining a compensating balance.

(b) If a dealer fails to certify the amount of tax collected or does not perform the electronic fund transfer prescribed by paragraph (a) of this subsection, the department[~~cabinet~~] may immediately make demand of the financial instrument and revoke the license of the dealer notwithstanding the provisions of KRS 138.340, and the provisions of this section shall apply.

(2) The tax shall be collected by the county clerk or other officer with whom the vehicle is required to be registered:

(a) When he collects the registration fee for registering and licensing a motor vehicle the first time it is offered for registration in this state;

(b) Or upon the transfer of ownership of any motor vehicle previously registered in this state.

(3) The tax collected by the county clerk under this section shall be reported and remitted to the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] on forms provided by the department[~~cabinet~~] and on those forms as the department[~~cabinet~~] may prescribe. The department[~~cabinet~~] shall provide each county clerk affidavit forms which the clerk shall provide to the public free of charge to carry out the provisions of KRS 138.450. (4) A county clerk or other officer shall not register or issue any license tags to the owner of any motor vehicle subject to this tax, when the vehicle is then being offered for registration for the first time, or transfer the ownership of any motor vehicle previously registered in this state, unless the owner or his agent pays the tax levied under this section in addition to the transfer, registration, and license fees.

A person shall not be entitled to a refund unless he shall have filed with the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] a report from the dealer or manufacturer identifying the vehicle that was replaced.

(a) The owner, if he or she is a natural person;

(b) A member or partner, if the entity is an association, limited liability company, limited liability partnership, or partnership;

(c) An executive officer, if the entity is a corporation, or some person specifically authorized by the corporation to sign the application, to which shall be attached written evidence of his or her authority; or

(d) A licensed certified public accountant, or an attorney licensed to practice law in the Commonwealth of Kentucky, specifically authorized by and acting on behalf of an owner, an association, a partnership, a limited liability company, a limited liability partnership, a corporation, or other business entity.

(4) A written signature shall not be required if the applicant registers electronically.

Section 409. KRS 139.250 is amended to read as follows:

After compliance with KRS 139.240 and 139.660 by the applicant, the department[~~cabinet~~] shall grant and issue to each applicant a separate permit for each place of business within the state. A permit shall not be assignable, and shall be valid only for the person in whose name it is issued and for the transaction of business at the place designated therein. It shall at all times be conspicuously displayed at the place for which issued.

Section 410. KRS 139.260 is amended to read as follows:

For the purpose of the proper administration of this chapter and to prevent evasion of the duty to collect the taxes imposed by KRS 139.200 and 139.310, it shall be presumed that all gross receipts and all tangible personal property sold by any person for delivery in this state are subject to the tax until the contrary is established. The burden of proving the contrary is upon the person who makes the sale unless he takes from the purchaser a certificate to the effect that the property is either:

(1) Purchased for resale according to the provisions of KRS 139.270;

(2) Purchased through a properly executed certificate of exemption in accordance with KRS 139.270;

(3) Purchased according to regulations of the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] governing a direct pay authorization; or

(4) Purchased under a form issued pursuant to KRS 139.776 or 139.777.

Section 411. KRS 139.270 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The resale certificate or certificate of exemption relieves the retailer or seller from the burden of proof only if taken in good faith from a person who, at the time of purchasing the tangible personal property:

(a) Indicates an intention to sell it in the regular course of business by executing the resale certificate; or

(b) Indicates that the property purchased will be used in an exempt manner by executing a certificate of exemption.

This relief from liability does not apply to a retailer or seller who fraudulently fails to collect the tax or solicits purchasers to participate in the unlawful claiming of an exemption.

(2) "Good faith" shall be demonstrated by the retailer or seller if the retailer or seller:

(a) Accepts a properly completed resale certificate or certificate of exemption; and

(3) If the department[~~cabinet~~] later finds that the retailer or seller exercised good faith according to the provisions of subsection (2) of this section but that the purchaser used the property in a manner that would not have qualified for resale status or the purchaser issued a certificate of exemption and used the property in some other manner or for some other purpose, the department[~~cabinet~~] shall hold the purchaser liable for the remittance of the tax and may apply penalties provided in KRS 139.990.

Section 412. KRS 139.280 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The resale certificate shall:

(a) Be signed by and bear the name and address of the purchaser;

(b) Indicate the number of the permit issued to the purchaser;

(c) Indicate the general character of the tangible personal property sold by the purchaser in the regular course of business.

(2) The certificate shall be substantially in a form as the department[~~cabinet~~] may prescribe.

(3) A signature shall not be required if the purchaser provides the retailer with an electronic resale certificate.

Section 413. KRS 139.320 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The use tax of six percent (6%) is hereby levied upon the storage, use, or other consumption in this state of any machines, machinery, tools, or other equipment brought, imported or caused to be brought into this state for use in constructing, building, or repairing any building, highway, street, sidewalk, bridge, culvert, sewer or water system, drainage, or dredging system, electric or steam railway system, reservoir or dam, hydraulic or power plant, transmission line, tower, dock, wharf, excavation, grading, or other improvement or structures, or any part thereof. The owner or, if the property is leased the lessee of any such machine, machinery, tools, or other equipment shall be liable for the tax provided for in this chapter, to be computed as set out below. The useful life of such machines, tools, or other equipment shall be determined by the department~~[cabinet]~~ in accordance with the depreciable value permitted under KRS Chapter 141 and regulations issued pursuant thereto. Said use tax shall be computed on the basis of such proportion of the original purchase price of such property as the duration of time of use in this state bears to the total useful life. Such tax shall become due immediately upon such property's being brought into this state, and in the absence of satisfactory evidence as to the period of use intended in this state, it shall be presumed that such property will remain in this state for the remainder of its useful life.

(2) The provisions of this section shall not be applicable with respect to sales of such property within this state or to the use, storage, or consumption of such property when purchased for use in this state, and in such cases the full sales or use tax shall be paid as in all other cases, irrespective of the period of intended use in this state.

(3) For the purposes of this section, the total useful life of property which is fully depreciated at the time of being brought into this state or becomes fully depreciated while in use in this state shall be extended to include the time of use in this state. In the absence of satisfactory evidence as to the period of use in this state, the tax shall be computed on an annual basis and shall be paid as provided by KRS 139.540.

Section 414. KRS 139.330 is amended to read as follows:

Every person storing, using or otherwise consuming in this state tangible personal property purchased from a retailer is liable for the use tax levied under KRS 139.310. His liability is not extinguished until the tax has been paid to this state, except that a receipt from a retailer engaged in business in this state or from a retailer who is authorized by the department~~[cabinet]~~, under such rules and regulations as it may prescribe, to collect the tax and who is, for the purpose of this chapter relating to the use tax, regarded as a retailer engaged in business in this state, given to the purchaser pursuant to KRS 139.340 is sufficient to relieve the purchaser from further liability for the tax to which the receipt refers.

Section 415. KRS 139.340 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Except as provided in KRS 139.470 and 139.480, every retailer engaged in business in this state shall collect the tax imposed by KRS 139.310 from the purchaser and give to the purchaser a receipt therefor in the manner and form prescribed by the department~~[cabinet]~~. The taxes collected or required to be collected by the retailer under this section shall be deemed to be held in trust for and on account of the Commonwealth of Kentucky.

(2) "Retailer engaged in business in this state" as used in this chapter includes any of the following:

(a) Any retailer maintaining, occupying, or using, permanently or temporarily, directly or indirectly, or through a subsidiary, or agent, by whatever name called, an office, place of distribution, sales or sample room or place, warehouse or storage place, or other place of business. Property owned by a person who has contracted with a printer for printing, which consists of the final printed product, property which becomes a part of the final printed product, or copy from which the printed product is produced, and which is located at the premises of the printer, shall not be deemed to be an office, place of distribution, sales or sample room or place, warehouse or storage place, or other place of business maintained, occupied, or used by the person;

(b) Any retailer having any representative, agent, salesman, canvasser, or solicitor operating in this state under the authority of the retailer or its subsidiary for the purpose of selling, delivering, or the taking of orders for any tangible personal property. An unrelated printer with which a person has contracted for printing shall not be deemed to be a representative, agent, salesman, canvasser, or solicitor for the person;

(c) Any retailer soliciting orders for tangible personal property from residents of this state on a continuous, regular, or systematic basis in which the solicitation of the order, placement of the order by the customer or the payment for the order utilizes the services of any financial institution, telecommunication system, radio or television station, cable television service, print media, or other facility or service located in this state;

(d) Any retailer deriving receipts from the lease or rental of tangible personal property situated in this state; or

(e) Any retailer soliciting orders for tangible personal property from residents of this state on a continuous, regular, systematic basis if the retailer benefits from an agent operating in this state under the authority of the retailer to repair or service tangible personal property sold by the retailer.

Section 416. KRS 139.390 is amended to read as follows:

Every retailer selling tangible personal property for storage, use or other consumption in this state shall register with the department~~[cabinet]~~ and give:

(1) The name and address of all agents operating in this state;

(2) The location of all distribution or sales houses or offices or other places of business in this state;

(3) Such other information as the department~~[cabinet]~~ may require.

Section 417. KRS 139.470 is amended to read as follows:

There are excluded from the computation of the amount of taxes imposed by this chapter:

(1) Gross receipts from the sale of, and the storage, use, or other consumption in this state of, tangible personal property which this state is prohibited from taxing under the Constitution or laws of the United States, or under the Constitution of this state;

(2) Gross receipts from sales of, and the storage, use, or other consumption in this state of:

(a) Nonreturnable and returnable containers when sold without the contents to persons who place the contents in the container and sell the contents together with the container; and

(b) Returnable containers when sold with the contents in connection with a retail sale of the contents or when resold for refilling;

As used in this section the term "returnable containers" means containers of a kind customarily returned by the buyer of the contents for reuse. All other containers are "nonreturnable containers";

(3) Gross receipts from the sale of, and the storage, use, or other consumption in this state of, tangible personal property used for the performance of a lump-sum, fixed-fee contract of public works executed prior to February 5, 1960;

(4) Gross receipts from occasional sales of tangible personal property and the storage, use, or other consumption in this state of tangible personal property, the transfer of which to the purchaser is an occasional sale;

(5) Gross receipts from sales of tangible personal property to a common carrier, shipped by the retailer via the purchasing carrier under a bill of lading, whether the freight is paid in advance or the shipment is made freight charges collect, to a point outside this state and the property is actually transported to the out-of-state destination for use by the carrier in the conduct of its business as a common carrier;

(6) Gross receipts from sales of tangible personal property sold through coin-operated bulk vending machines, if the sale amounts to fifty cents ($0.50) or less, if the retailer is primarily engaged in making the sales and maintains records satisfactory to the cabinet. As used in this subsection, "bulk vending machine" means a vending machine containing unsorted merchandise which, upon insertion of a coin, dispenses the same in approximately equal portions, at random and without selection by the customer;

(7) Gross receipts from sales to any cabinet, department, bureau, commission, board, or other statutory or constitutional agency of the state and gross receipts from sales to counties, cities, or special districts as defined in KRS 65.005. This exemption shall apply only to purchases of property or services for use solely in the government function. A purchaser not qualifying as a governmental agency or unit shall not be entitled to the exemption even though the purchaser may be the recipient of public funds or grants;

(8) (a) Gross receipts from the sale of sewer services, water, and fuel to Kentucky residents for use in heating, water heating, cooking, lighting, and other residential uses. As used in this subsection, "fuel" shall include but not be limited to natural gas, electricity, fuel oil, bottled gas, coal, coke, and wood. Determinations of eligibility for the exemption shall be made by the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~];

(b) In making the determinations of eligibility, the department[~~cabinet~~] shall exempt from taxation all gross receipts derived from sales:

1. Classified as "residential" by a utility company as defined by applicable tariffs filed with and accepted by the Public Service Commission;

2. Classified as "residential" by a municipally owned electric distributor which purchases its power at wholesale from the Tennessee Valley Authority;

3. Classified as "residential" by the governing body of a municipally owned electric distributor which does not purchase its power from the Tennessee Valley Authority, if the "residential" classification is reasonably consistent with the definitions of "residential" contained in tariff filings accepted and approved by the Public Service Commission with respect to utilities which are subject to Public Service Commission regulation.

If the service is classified as residential, use other than for "residential" purposes by the customer shall not negate the exemption;

(c) The exemption shall not apply if charges for sewer service, water, and fuel are billed to an owner or operator of a multi-unit residential rental facility or mobile home and recreational vehicle park other than residential classification; and

(d) The exemption shall apply also to residential property which may be held by legal or equitable title, by the entireties, jointly, in common, as a condominium, or indirectly by the stock ownership or membership representing the owner's or member's proprietary interest in a corporation owning a fee or a leasehold initially in excess of ninety-eight (98) years;

(9) Any rate increase for school taxes and any other charges or surcharges added to the total amount of a residential telephone bill;

(10) Gross receipts from sales to an out-of-state agency, organization, or institution exempt from sales and use tax in its state of residence when that agency, organization, or institution gives proof of its tax-exempt status to the retailer and the retailer maintains a file of the proof;

(11) Gross receipts derived from the sale of, and the storage, use, or other consumption in this state of, tangible personal property to be used in the manufacturing or industrial processing of tangible personal property at a plant facility and which will be for sale. The property shall be regarded as having been purchased for resale. "Plant facility" shall have the same meaning as defined in KRS 139.170(3). For purposes of this subsection, a manufacturer or industrial processor includes an individual or business entity that performs only part of the manufacturing or industrial processing activity and the person or business entity need not take title to tangible personal property that is incorporated into, or becomes the product of, the activity.

(a) Industrial processing includes refining, extraction of petroleum and natural gas, mining, quarrying, fabricating, and industrial assembling. As defined herein, tangible personal property to be used in the manufacturing or industrial processing of tangible personal property which will be for sale shall mean:

1. Materials which enter into and become an ingredient or component part of the manufactured product.

2. Other tangible personal property which is directly used in manufacturing or industrial processing, if the property has a useful life of less than one (1) year. Specifically these items are categorized as follows:

a. Materials. This refers to the raw materials which become an ingredient or component part of supplies or industrial tools exempt under subdivisions b. and c. below.

b. Supplies. This category includes supplies such as lubricating and compounding oils, grease, machine waste, abrasives, chemicals, solvents, fluxes, anodes, filtering materials, fire brick, catalysts, dyes, refrigerants, explosives, etc. The supplies indicated above need not come in direct contact with a manufactured product to be exempt. "Supplies" does not include repair, replacement, or spare parts of any kind.

c. Industrial tools. This group is limited to hand tools such as jigs, dies, drills, cutters, rolls, reamers, chucks, saws, spray guns, etc., and to tools attached to a machine such as molds, grinding balls, grinding wheels, dies, bits, cutting blades, etc. Normally, for industrial tools to be considered directly used in manufacturing, they shall come into direct contact with the product being manufactured.

3. Materials and supplies that are not reusable in the same manufacturing process at the completion of a single manufacturing cycle, excluding repair, replacement, or spare parts of any kind. A single manufacturing cycle shall be considered to be the period elapsing from the time the raw materials enter into the manufacturing process until the finished product emerges at the end of the manufacturing process.

(b) It shall be noted that in none of the three (3) categories is any exemption provided for repair, replacement, or spare parts. Repair, replacement, or spare parts shall not be considered to be materials, supplies, or industrial tools directly used in manufacturing or industrial processing. "Repair, replacement, or spare parts" shall have the same meaning as set forth in KRS 139.170;

(12) Any water use fee paid or passed through to the Kentucky River Authority by facilities using water from the Kentucky River basin to the Kentucky River Authority in accordance with KRS 151.700 to 151.730 and administrative regulations promulgated by the authority;

(13) Gross receipts from the sale of newspaper inserts or catalogs purchased for storage, use, or other consumption outside this state and delivered by the retailer's own vehicle to a location outside this state, or delivered to the United States Postal Service, a common carrier, or a contract carrier for delivery outside this state, regardless of whether the carrier is selected by the purchaser or retailer or an agent or representative of the purchaser or retailer, or whether the F.O.B. is retailer's shipping point or purchaser's destination.

(a) As used in this subsection:

1. "Catalogs" means tangible personal property that is printed to the special order of the purchaser and composed substantially of information regarding goods and services offered for sale; and

2. "Newspaper inserts" means printed materials that are placed in or distributed with a newspaper of general circulation.

(b) The retailer shall be responsible for establishing that delivery was made to a non-Kentucky location through shipping documents or other credible evidence as determined by the cabinet;

(14) Gross receipts from the sale of water used in the raising of equine as a business;

(15) Gross receipts from the sale of metal retail fixtures manufactured in this state and purchased for storage, use, or other consumption outside this state and delivered by the retailer's own vehicle to a location outside this state, or delivered to the United States Postal Service, a common carrier, or a contract carrier for delivery outside this state, regardless of whether the carrier is selected by the purchaser or retailer or an agent or representative of the purchaser or retailer, or whether the F.O.B. is the retailer's shipping point or the purchaser's destination.

(a) As used in this subsection, "metal retail fixtures" means check stands and belted and nonbelted checkout counters, whether made in bulk or pursuant to specific purchaser specifications, that are to be used directly by the purchaser or to be distributed by the purchaser.

(b) The retailer shall be responsible for establishing that delivery was made to a non-Kentucky location through shipping documents or other credible evidence as determined by the cabinet;

(16) Gross receipts from the sale of unenriched or enriched uranium purchased for ultimate storage, use, or other consumption outside this state and delivered to a common carrier in this state for delivery outside this state, regardless of whether the carrier is selected by the purchaser or retailer, or is an agent or representative of the purchaser or retailer, or whether the F.O.B. is the retailer's shipping point or purchaser's destination;

(17) Amounts received from a tobacco buydown. As used in this subsection, "buydown" means an agreement whereby an amount, whether paid in money, credit, or otherwise, is received by a retailer from a manufacturer or wholesaler based upon the quantity and unit price of tobacco products sold at retail that requires the retailer to reduce the selling price of the product to the purchaser without the use of a manufacturer's or wholesaler's coupon or redemption certificate;

(18) Gross receipts from the sale of property returned by a purchaser when the full sales price is refunded either in cash or credit. This exclusion shall not apply if the purchaser, in order to obtain the refund, is required to purchase other property at a price greater than the amount charged for the property that is returned;

(19) Gross receipts from the sales of gasoline and special fuels subject to tax under KRS Chapter 138;

(20) The amount of any tax imposed by the United States upon or with respect to retail sales, whether imposed on the retailer or the consumer, not including any manufacturer's excise or import duty;

(21) Gross receipts from the sale of any motor vehicle as defined in KRS 138.450 which is registered for use on the public highways and upon which any applicable tax levied by KRS 138.460 has been paid;

(22) Gross receipts from the sale of a semi-trailer as defined in KRS 189.010(12) and trailer as defined in KRS 189.010(17); and

(23) Gross receipts from the sale of distilled spirits, wine, and malt beverages not consumed on the premises licensed for their sale under the provisions of KRS Chapter 243.

Section 418. KRS 139.505 is amended to read as follows:

(1) For the purpose of this section, "gross receipts" means:

(a) Sales of tangible personal property in this state if:

1. The property is delivered or shipped to a purchaser, other than the United States government, or to the designee of the purchaser within this state regardless of the f.o.b. point or other conditions of the sale; or

2. The property is shipped from an office, store, warehouse, factory, or other place of storage in this state and the purchaser is the United States government; and

(b) Sales other than sales of tangible personal property in this state if the income-producing activity is performed in this state; or the income-producing activity is performed both in and outside this state and a greater proportion of the income-producing activity is performed in this state than in any other state, based on cost of performance, or gross receipt allocation method as provided by statute and elected by the taxpayer.

(2) Any business whose communications service, subject to the sales tax imposed under KRS Chapter 139 and deducted for federal income tax purposes, exceeds five percent (5%) of the business's Kentucky gross receipts during the preceding calendar year is entitled to a refundable credit. The refundable credit shall be equal to the sales tax paid on the difference by which the communications service purchased by the business exceeds five percent (5%) of the business's Kentucky gross receipts.

(3) Any business that qualifies for the refundable credit authorized by subsection (2) of this section shall make an annual application for the refund on or after June 1, 2002, and on or after every June 1 thereafter. The application shall be made to the department[~~cabinet~~] on forms as the department[~~cabinet~~] may prescribe and shall contain any information deemed necessary for the department[~~cabinet~~] to determine the business's eligibility to receive a refund.

(4) Notwithstanding the provisions of KRS 134.580 to the contrary, the department[~~cabinet~~], upon receipt of a properly documented refund application, shall cause a timely refund to be made directly to the business. Interest shall not be allowed or paid on any refund made under this section.

(5) Any refund application submitted under this section is subject to examination by the department[~~cabinet~~]. The examination shall occur within four (4) years from the date the refund application is received by the department[~~cabinet~~]. Any overpayment resulting from the examination shall be repaid to the State Treasury. In addition, the amount required to be repaid is subject to the interest provisions of KRS 131.183 and to the penalty provisions of KRS 131.180.

(6) If a business owns directly or indirectly fifty percent (50%) or more of another business, the credit computed under subsection (2) of this section shall be computed on a combined basis, excluding any intercompany Kentucky gross receipts.

Section 419. KRS 139.510 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The tax levied by KRS 139.310 shall not apply with respect to the storage, use, or other consumption of tangible personal property in this state upon which a tax substantially identical to the tax levied under KRS 139.200 (not including any special excise taxes such as are imposed on alcoholic beverages, cigarettes, and the like) equal to or greater than the amount of tax imposed by KRS 139.310 has been paid in another state. Proof of payment of such tax shall be according to rules and regulations of the department[~~cabinet~~]. If the amount of tax paid in another state is not equal to or greater than the amount of tax imposed by KRS 139.310, then the taxpayer shall pay to the department[~~cabinet~~] an amount sufficient to make the tax paid in the other state and in this state equal to the amount imposed by KRS 139.310. No credit shall be given under this section for sales taxes paid in another state if that state does not grant credit for sales taxes paid in this state.

(2) To prevent actual multistate taxation of a communications service subject to taxation under this chapter, any provider or purchaser, upon proof that the provider or purchaser has paid a tax in another state on the same communications services, shall be allowed a credit against the tax imposed by this chapter to the extent of the amount of the tax legally paid in the other state.

Section 420. KRS 139.536 is amended to read as follows:

(1) In consideration of the execution of the agreement as defined in KRS 148.851 and notwithstanding any provision of KRS 139.770 to the contrary, the approved company as defined in KRS 148.851 excluding its lessees, may be granted a sales tax refund from the Kentucky sales tax imposed by KRS 139.200 on the sales generated by or arising at the tourism attraction project as defined in KRS 148.851. The approved company shall have no obligation to refund or otherwise return any amount of this sales tax refund to the persons from whom the sales tax was collected. The term of the agreement granting the sales tax refund shall be ten (10) years, and this time period shall commence on the later of:

(a) The final approval for purposes of the inducements; or

(2) Any sales tax collected by an approved company as defined in KRS 148.851 on sales transacted after final approval but prior to the commencement of the term of the agreement, including any approved company that has received final approval prior to July 15, 2000, shall be refundable as if collected after the commencement of the term and applied to the approved company's first fiscal year's refund after activation of the term and without changing the term.

(3) The total sales tax refund allowed to the approved company over the term of the agreement in subsection (1) of this section shall be equal to the lesser of the total amount of the sales tax liability of the approved company and its lessees or twenty-five percent (25%) of the approved costs. The sales tax refund shall accrue over the term of the agreement in an annual amount equal to two and one-half percent (2.5%) of the approved cost. Notwithstanding the foregoing two and one-half percent (2.5%) limitation, any unused inducements as set forth in KRS 148.851(9) from a previous year may be carried forward to any succeeding year during the term of the agreement until the entire twenty-five percent (25%) of the approved costs have been received through sales tax refunds. By October 1 of each year the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] shall certify to the authority and the secretary of the Tourism Development Cabinet for the preceding fiscal year for all approved companies for which sales tax returns were filed with respect to a tourism attraction project, the sales tax liability of the approved companies receiving inducements under this section and KRS 148.851 to 148.860, and their lessees, and the amount of the sales tax refunds issued pursuant to subsection (1) of this section.

(4) Interest shall not be allowed or paid on any refund made under the provisions of this section.

(5) The Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] may promulgate administrative regulations and require the filing of forms designed by the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] to reflect the intent of this section and KRS 148.851 to 148.860.

(1) On or before the twentieth day of the month following each calendar month, a return for the preceding month shall be filed with the department[~~cabinet~~] in a form the department[~~cabinet~~] may prescribe.

For purposes of the use tax, a return shall be filed by every retailer engaged in business in the state and by every person purchasing tangible personal property, the storage, use or other consumption of which is subject to the use tax, who has not paid the use tax due to a retailer required to collect the tax. If a retailer's responsibilities have been assumed by a certified service provider as defined by KRS 139.795, the certified service provider shall file the return.

(3) Returns shall be signed by the person required to file the return or by a duly authorized agent but need not be verified by oath.

(4) Persons not regularly engaged in selling at retail and not having a permanent place of business, but who are temporarily engaged in selling from trucks, portable roadside stands, concessionaires at fairs, circuses, carnivals, and the like, shall report and remit the tax on a nonpermit basis, under rules as the department[~~cabinet~~] shall provide for the efficient collection of the sales tax on sales.

Section 428. KRS 139.580 is amended to read as follows:

The person required to file the return shall deliver the return together with a remittance of the amount of the tax due to the

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of KRS 139.550, any retailer who desires to file his return on a quarterly basis shall make application in writing to the department[~~cabinet~~] at least ninety (90) days prior to the due date of such quarterly return. When permitted, quarterly returns shall be filed in such manner as the department[~~cabinet~~] may prescribe. No retailer may change from a quarterly reporting system to monthly reporting without authorization of the department[~~cabinet~~].

(3) In no case shall a retailer be permitted to file quarterly unless monthly payments for the immediately preceding month are made on the basis of taxable gross receipts or total sales price of property used, consumed, or stored, as the case may be.

Section 430. KRS 139.600 is amended to read as follows:

For the purposes of the sales tax, gross receipts from rentals or leases of tangible personal property shall be reported and the tax paid in accordance with such rules and regulations as the department[~~cabinet~~] may prescribe.

Section 431. KRS 139.610 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The department[~~cabinet~~] shall upon written request received on or prior to the due date of the return or tax, for good cause satisfactory to the department[~~cabinet~~], extend the time for filing the return or paying the tax for a period not exceeding thirty (30) days.

(2) Any person to whom an extension is granted and who pays the tax within the period for which the extension is granted shall pay, in addition to the tax, interest at the tax interest rate as defined in KRS 131.010(6) from the date on which the tax would otherwise have been due.

Section 432. KRS 139.620 is amended to read as follows:

(1) As soon as practicable after each return is received, the department[~~cabinet~~] shall examine and audit it. If the amount of tax computed by the department[~~cabinet~~] is greater than the amount returned by the taxpayer, the excess shall be assessed by the department[~~cabinet~~] within four (4) years from the date the return was filed, except as provided in subsection (2), and except that in the case of a failure to file a return or of a fraudulent return the excess may be assessed at any time. A notice of such assessment shall be mailed to the taxpayer. The time herein provided may be extended by agreement between the taxpayer and the department[~~cabinet~~].

(2) For the purposes of this section, a return filed before the last day prescribed by law for the filing thereof shall be considered as filed on such last day.

(3) When a business is discontinued, a determination may be made at any time thereafter within the periods specified in subsection (1) as to liability arising out of that business, irrespective of whether the determination is issued prior to the due date of the liability as otherwise specified in this chapter.

Section 433. KRS 139.640 is amended to read as follows:

In making a determination of tax liability the department[~~cabinet~~] may offset overpayments for a period or periods, together with interest on the overpayments, against underpayments for another period or periods, against penalties, and against the interest on the underpayments.

Section 434. KRS 139.660 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Whenever it is deemed necessary to insure compliance with this chapter, the department[~~cabinet~~] may require any person subject thereto to place with it such security as the department[~~cabinet~~] may determine. The amount of the security shall be fixed by the department[~~cabinet~~] but, except as provided in subsection (2), shall not be greater than twice the estimated average liability of persons filing returns for quarterly periods or three (3) times the estimated average liability of persons required to file returns for monthly periods, determined in such manner as the department[~~cabinet~~] deems proper.

(2) In case of persons habitually delinquent in their obligations under this chapter, the amount of the security shall not be greater than three (3) times the average liability of persons filing returns for quarterly periods or five (5) times the average liability of persons required to file returns for monthly periods.

(3) The limitations herein provided apply regardless of the type of security placed with the department[~~cabinet~~].

(4) The amount of the security may be increased or decreased by the department[~~cabinet~~] subject to the limitations herein provided.

(5) (a) The department[~~cabinet~~] may sell the security at public auction if it becomes necessary to do so in order to recover any tax, interest or penalty due. Security in the form of a bearer bond issued by the United States or any state or local governmental unit which has a prevailing market price may, however, be sold by the department[~~cabinet~~] at a private sale at a price not lower than the prevailing market price thereof.

(b) The department[~~cabinet~~] shall give notice of the date, time and place of the sale to the person who placed the security by certified mail addressed to him at his last known address as it appears in the records of the department[~~cabinet~~], or delivery to such person.

(c) Delivery means handing it to such person or leaving it at his place of business with the person in charge thereof; or, if there is no one in charge, leaving it in a conspicuous place therein; or, if the place of business is closed or the person to be served has no place of business, leaving it at his dwelling house with some person of suitable age and discretion residing therein. Said notice, if by certified mail, shall be postmarked no later than ten (10) days prior to said sale; if by delivery, said notice shall be given no later than ten (10) days prior to said sale.

(6) Upon any sale any surplus above the amounts due shall be returned to the person who placed the security.

Section 435. KRS 139.670 is amended to read as follows:

If any retailer liable for any amount under this chapter sells out his business or stock of goods, or otherwise quits business, his successors or assigns shall withhold sufficient of the purchase price to cover such amount until the former owner produces a receipt from the department[~~cabinet~~] showing that it has been paid or a certificate stating that no amount is due.

Section 436. KRS 139.680 is amended to read as follows:

(1) If the purchaser of a business or stock of goods fails to withhold the purchase price as required, he becomes personally liable for the payment of the amount required to be withheld by him to the extent of the purchase price, valued in money. Within sixty (60) days after receiving a written request from the purchaser for a certificate, or within sixty (60) days from the date the former owner's records are made available for audit, whichever period expires the later, but in any event not later than ninety (90) days after receiving the request, the department[~~cabinet~~] shall either issue the certificate or mail notice to the purchaser at his address as it appears on the records of the department[~~cabinet~~] of the amount that must be paid as a condition to issuing the certificate.

(2) Failure of the department[~~cabinet~~] to mail the notice will release the purchaser from any further obligation to withhold the purchase price as above provided.

(3) The time within which the obligation of a successor may be enforced shall start to run at the time the retailer sells out his business or stock of goods or at the time that the determination against the retailer becomes final, whichever event occurs the later.

Section 437. KRS 139.700 is amended to read as follows:

The department[~~cabinet~~] may, in its discretion, upon application authorize the collection of the tax imposed herein by any retailer not engaged in business within this state who, to the satisfaction of the department[~~cabinet~~] furnishes adequate security to insure collection and payment of the tax. Such retailer shall be issued a permit to collect such tax in such manner, and subject to such regulation and agreements as the department[~~cabinet~~] shall prescribe. When so authorized, it shall be the duty of such retailer to collect the tax upon all tangible personal property sold to his knowledge for use within this state, in the same manner and subject to the same requirements as a retailer engaged in business within this state.

Section 438. KRS 139.710 is amended to read as follows:

The department[~~cabinet~~] shall administer the provisions of this chapter and shall have all of the powers, rights, duties, and authority with respect to the assessment, collection, refunding, and administration of the taxes levied by this chapter, conferred generally upon the department[~~cabinet~~] by the Kentucky Revised Statutes including Chapters 131, 134, and 135.

Section 439. KRS 139.720 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Every seller, every retailer, and every person storing, using and otherwise consuming in this state tangible personal property purchased from a retailer shall keep such records, receipts, invoices, and other pertinent papers in such form as the department[~~cabinet~~] may require.

(2) Every such seller, retailer, or person who files the returns required under this chapter shall keep such records for not less than four (4) years from the making of such records unless the department[~~cabinet~~] in writing sooner authorizes their destruction.

Section 440. KRS 139.730 is amended to read as follows:

The report shall be filed at the time specified by the department[~~cabinet~~] and shall contain such information as the department[~~cabinet~~] may require.

Section 441. KRS 139.735 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] shall not promulgate any administrative regulation or policy either written or unwritten whose provisions are more stringent than the provisions of KRS 139.270 and 103 KAR 31.030 regarding the good faith provisions for resale certificates, exemption certificates and direct pay authorizations.

(2) It shall be mandatory upon the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] during any audit process to honor resale certificates, exemption certificates and direct pay authorizations when executed according to the good faith provisions defined and described in KRS 139.270 and 103 KAR 31.030.

Section 442. KRS 139.740 is amended to read as follows:

(1) No judgment shall be entered and no garnishment or attachment shall be permitted by any court in this Commonwealth in an action for the collection of a debt arising out of the sale of tangible personal property unless an affidavit containing a certificate of service is executed by the plaintiff to the effect that all use taxes due the Commonwealth have been paid.

(2) Prior to the filing of the affidavit, required under subsection (1) of this section, the plaintiff (including counterclaimants or crossclaimants) shall, by first-class mail, serve upon the department[~~cabinet~~] a copy of the affidavit. Within fifteen (15) days from the date of the filing of the affidavit the department[~~cabinet~~] may file a counteraffidavit. In such event no judgment shall be entered or garnishment or attachment issued until proof has been taken concerning the matters at issue in the affidavit and counteraffidavit.

(3) In the event the use tax levied by this chapter is found to be due and unpaid the plaintiff may elect to pay the tax to the department[~~cabinet~~], and the amount of the tax paid by the plaintiff shall be recovered as a part of any judgment entered. If the plaintiff does not elect to pay the use tax found to be due and unpaid, judgment for the amount of the tax shall be awarded to the Commonwealth.

(4) Any judgment awarded to the Commonwealth under this section shall constitute a prior claim to any judgment obtained by the plaintiff.

(5) Tax as defined herein includes interest accrued thereon at the tax interest rate as defined in KRS 131.010(6).

(6) The provisions of this section shall not apply to a plaintiff holding a retail permit issued pursuant to this chapter.

Section 443. KRS 139.760 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Whenever any person fails to comply with any provisions of this chapter or any rule or regulation of the department[~~cabinet~~] relating to the provisions of this chapter, the department[~~cabinet~~] may revoke or suspend any one (1) or more of the permits held by the person.

(2) The department[~~cabinet~~] shall not issue a new permit after the revocation of a permit unless it is satisfied that the former holder of the permit will comply with the provisions of this chapter and the regulations relating thereto.

(3) No suit shall be maintained in any court to restrain or delay the collection or payment of any tax levied by this chapter.

Section 444. KRS 139.770 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The taxes paid pursuant to the provisions of this chapter shall be refunded or credited in the manner provided in KRS 134.580.

(2) A claim for refund or credit shall be made on a form prescribed by the department[~~cabinet~~] and shall contain such information as the department[~~cabinet~~] may require.

(3) No taxpayer or certified service provider as provided by KRS 139.795 shall be entitled to a refund or credit of the taxes paid pursuant to the provisions of this chapter where the taxes have been collected from a purchaser as provided by KRS 139.210 and 139.340, unless the amount of taxes collected from the purchaser are refunded to the purchaser by the taxpayer or certified service provider as provided by KRS 139.795 who paid the taxes to the State Treasury.

(4) Where applicable, the amount of any claim for refund or credit shall be reduced by the amount deducted by the taxpayer or certified service provider as provided by KRS 139.795 pursuant to KRS 139.570 at the time the taxes were paid to the State Treasury.

Section 445. KRS 139.785 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The department[~~cabinet~~] is authorized and directed to enter into the agreement with one (1) or more states to simplify and modernize sales and use tax administration in order to substantially reduce the burden of tax compliance for all sellers and for all types of commerce. To further the agreement, the department[~~cabinet~~] is authorized to act jointly with other states that are members of the agreement to establish standards for certification of a certified service provider and certified automated system and establish performance standards for multistate sellers.

(2) The department[~~cabinet~~] is further authorized to take other actions reasonably required to implement the provisions set forth in KRS 139.780 to 139.795. Other actions authorized by this section include, but are not limited to, the adoption of rules and regulations and the joint procurement, with other member states, of goods and services to further the cooperative agreement. Notwithstanding the provisions of KRS Chapter 13A, the department[~~cabinet~~] may issue educational bulletins to the extent necessary to enhance the understanding of and compliance with terms of the agreement.

(3) The commissioner of the Department of Revenue[~~secretary of the cabinet~~] or the commissioner's[~~secretary's~~] designee, the state budget director or the director's designee, and two (2) legislators are authorized to represent this state before the other states that are signatories to the agreement. One (1) member of the Senate shall be appointed by the President of the Senate, and one (1) member of the House of Representatives shall be appointed by the Speaker of the House of Representatives.

Section 446. KRS 139.789 is amended to read as follows:

The department[~~cabinet~~] shall not enter into the agreement unless the agreement requires each state to abide by the following requirements:

(1) The agreement shall set restrictions to achieve more uniform state rates through the following:

    (a) Limiting the number of state rates;

(b) Limiting the application of maximums on the amount of state tax that is due on a transaction; and

(c) Limiting the application of thresholds on the application of state tax.

(4) The agreement shall provide a central, electronic registration system that allows a seller to register to collect and remit sales and use taxes for all signatory states.

(5) The agreement shall provide that registration with the central registration system and the collection of sales and use taxes in the signatory state will not be used as a factor in determining whether the seller has nexus with a state for any tax.

(6) The agreement shall provide for a reduction of the burdens of complying with local sales and use taxes through the following:

(a) Restricting variances between the state and local tax bases;

(b) Requiring states to administer any sales and use taxes levied by local jurisdictions within the state so that sellers collecting and remitting these taxes will not have to register or file returns with, remit funds to, or be subject to independent audits from local taxing jurisdictions;

(c) Restricting the frequency of changes in the local sales and use tax rates and setting effective dates for the application of local jurisdictional boundary changes to local sales and use taxes; and

(d) Providing notice of changes in local sales and use tax rates and of changes in the boundaries of local taxing jurisdictions.

(7) The agreement shall outline any monetary allowances that are to be provided by the states to sellers or certified service providers.

(9) The agreement shall require each state to adopt a uniform policy for certified service providers that protects the privacy of consumers and maintains the confidentiality of tax information.

(10) The agreement shall provide for the appointment of an advisory council of private sector representatives and an advisory council of non-member state representatives to consult with in the administration of the agreement.

Section 447. KRS 139.980 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Any person who violates any provision of this chapter shall be subject to the uniform civil penalties imposed pursuant to KRS 131.180 and interest upon the unpaid amount at the tax interest rate as defined in KRS 131.010(6) from the date prescribed for its payment until payment is actually made to the department[~~cabinet~~].

Section 448. KRS 139.990 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Any person who executes:

(a) A resale certificate for property in accordance with KRS 139.270 knowing at the time of purchase that such property is not to be resold by him in the regular course of business, for the purpose of evading the tax imposed under this chapter;

(b) An exemption certificate for property in accordance with KRS 139.270, knowing at the time of the purchase that he is not engaged in an occupation that would entitle him to exemption status or any person who does not intend to use the property in the prescribed manner;

(c) A direct pay authorization for property not in accordance with 103 KAR 31.030; or

(d) An MPU exemption form or Direct Mail Form issued not in accordance with the provisions KRS 139.776 or 139.777; shall be guilty of a Class B misdemeanor.

(2) A person who engages in business as a seller in this state without a permit or permits as required by this chapter or after a permit has been suspended, and each officer of any corporation which is so engaged in business, shall be guilty of a Class B misdemeanor.

(4) Any person who violates any of the regulations promulgated by the department[~~cabinet~~] shall be guilty of a Class B misdemeanor.

(5) Any person, business, or motion picture production company falsifying expenditure reports, applications, or any other statements made in securing the tax credit afforded by KRS 139.5382 to 139.5386 shall be guilty of a Class D felony. Such motion picture production companies shall be denied any tax credit to which they would otherwise be entitled, and shall be prohibited from applying for any future credit afforded by KRS 139.5382 to 139.5386.

Section 449. KRS 140.040 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Whenever any person shall exercise a power of appointment derived from any disposition of property (whether by will, deed, trust agreement, contract, insurance policy or other instrument) regardless of when made, such appointment shall be deemed a transfer taxable under the provisions of this chapter in the same manner as though the property to which such appointment relates belonged absolutely to the donee of such power and had been bequeathed or devised by such donee by will; and whenever any person possessing such a power of appointment so derived shall omit or fail to exercise the same in whole or in part, within the time provided therefor, a transfer taxable under the provisions of this chapter shall be deemed to take place to the person or persons receiving such property as a result of such omission or failure to the same extent that such property would have been subject to taxation if it had passed under the will of the donee of such power. The time at which such transfer shall be deemed to take place, for the purpose of taxation, shall be governed by the provisions of subsections (2) to (4) of this section.

(2) In the case of a power of appointment which passes to the donee thereof at the death of the donor, under any instrument, and if the donor dies on or after April 24, 1936, the transfer shall be deemed to take place, for the purpose of taxation, at the time of the death of the donor and the assessment be made at that time against the life interest of the donee and the remainder against the corpus. The value of the property to which the power of appointment relates shall be determined as of the date of the death of the donor and shall be taxed at the rates and be subject to the exemptions in effect at the death of the donor. The determination of the applicable rates and exemptions (in effect at the death of the donor) shall be governed by the relationship of the beneficiary to the donee of the power of appointment. In the event the payment of the tax at the death of the donor should operate to provide an exemption for any beneficiary of a donee not authorized by KRS 140.080, then such exemption shall be retrospectively disallowed at the time of the death of the donee. It is further provided that the remainder interest passing under the donee's power of appointment, whether exercised or not, shall be added to and made a part of the distributable share of the donee's estate for the purpose of determining the exemption and rates applicable thereto.

(3) In all cases other than that described in subsection (2) the transfer shall be deemed to take place, for the purpose of taxation, at the time of the death of the donee. In such cases, the value of the property to which the power of appointment relates shall be determined as of the date of the death of the donee and shall be taxed at the rates and be subject to the exemptions in effect at the death of the donee. The determination of the applicable rates and exemptions (in effect at the death of the donee) shall be governed by the relationship of the beneficiary to the donee of the power of appointment.

(4) The provisions of subsection (2) shall not preclude the taxation, at the death of the donee, of any transfer made by means of a power of appointment if such transfer was not in fact reported to or a tax assessed thereon by the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] within the period of limitation prescribed by KRS 140.160. If the transfer by the power of appointment is not so reported or a tax assessed thereon, the period of limitation prescribed in KRS 140.160 shall not begin to run until the death of the donee of such power.

(5) The amendments to this section, adopted by the 1948 General Assembly, shall apply to all powers of appointment whether created before or after the effective date of said amendments. It is the declared intention of the General Assembly to impose a tax upon every transfer of property by means of a power of appointment, regardless of when or how created, and it is the declared intention of the General Assembly that the use of the power of appointment device shall not permit the transfer of property, to which such a power relates, to escape thereby the payment of state inheritance taxes.

Section 450. KRS 140.080 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The following exemptions chargeable against the lowest bracket or brackets of inheritable interests shall be free from any tax under the preceding provisions of this chapter:

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of KRS 404.040, the debts of a deceased wife, subject to the exception in subsection (1)(a), shall be allowed in calculating the distributive shares of her estate for purposes of this chapter, provided such debts are paid from the proceeds of her estate.

Section 452. KRS 140.100 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The Department of Insurance, on the application of the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~], shall determine, and certify in duplicate to the department[~~cabinet~~], the value of any future or contingent estate, income or interest therein, limited, contingent, dependent or determinable upon the lives of persons in being, upon the facts contained in the application or other facts submitted by the department[~~cabinet~~]. No fee shall be charged by the division for this service. The certificate shall be competent evidence that the method of computation therein is correct.

(2) The value of every future, contingent or limited estate, income or interest for the purpose of this chapter shall be determined by the rules, methods and standards of mortality and of value prescribed by the appropriate United States life mortality tables for ascertaining the value of life estates, annuities and remainder interests except that the rate of interest assessed in computing the present value of all future interests and contingencies shall be four percent (4%) per annum.

(3) When an annuity or a life estate is terminated by the death of the annuitant or life tenant, and the tax upon such interest has not been fixed and determined, the value of the interest for the purpose of taxation shall be that amount of the annuity or income actually paid or payable to the annuitant or life tenant during the period for which the annuitant or life tenant was entitled to the annuity or was in possession of the life estate. The tax on such annuities and life interests shall be payable out of the corpus of the estate, unless otherwise provided under the terms of the will.

(4) Notwithstanding anything in this chapter to the contrary, the value of a surviving spouse's interest in a trust or life estate which was exempt from Kentucky inheritance tax in the first spouse's estate pursuant to an election made under KRS 140.080(1)(a) shall be deemed to be equal to the entire value of the property held in the trust or life estate, at the surviving spouse's death, for Kentucky inheritance tax purposes in the surviving spouse's estate.

Section 453. KRS 140.110 is amended to read as follows:

(1) In the case of estates in expectancy which are contingent or defeasible, a tax shall be levied at the rate which, on the happening of the most probable contingencies or conditions named in the will, deed, trust agreement, contract, insurance policy, or other instrument, would be applicable under the provisions of this chapter. Moneys so collected shall be distributed as are other inheritance tax funds. If the property so taxed shall ultimately vest in possession in persons taxable at a lower rate, or in a person or a corporation exempt from taxation by this chapter, upon application by such beneficiary to the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] for refund of any excess tax, the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~], after investigation, shall certify to the Finance and Administration Cabinet the amount of such refund. The Finance and Administration Cabinet shall refund such excess payment of tax in the same manner as other refunds are made.

(2) Where an estate or interest can be divested by the act or omission of the legatee or devisee, it shall be taxed as if there were no possibility of divesting.

Section 454. KRS 140.160 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] shall have full supervision of the collection of all taxes due under the provisions of this chapter, including the power to institute suit in this and other states. It may employ attorneys and other persons necessary to carry out the full intent and purpose of this chapter. The department[~~cabinet~~] shall furnish, upon application, blank forms covering information as may be necessary to determine the amount of tax due the state on the transfer of all property subject to tax.

(2) The department[~~cabinet~~] may cause personal representatives or beneficiaries to file all statements required by this chapter with the clerks of the proper courts and with the department[~~cabinet~~], and may require them to furnish any additional information deemed necessary to support the computation of the amount of tax that should be paid by the estate. The personal representative, or the beneficiaries in the absence of a personal representative, shall compute the taxes imposed by this chapter on the tax return provided by the department[~~cabinet~~] when:

  (a) 1. A United States estate tax return is required to be filed under federal law and applicable regulations; and

    2. The estate includes property over which Kentucky has jurisdiction for purposes of the taxes imposed by this chapter; or

  (b) Any assets from the estate subject to the taxes imposed by this chapter pass to a beneficiary taxable under KRS 140.070.

The tax return, when required, shall be filed with the department[~~cabinet~~] within eighteen (18) months after the death of the decedent or at the time payment of the tax is made pursuant to KRS 140.210.

(3) Except as herein provided, no action to enforce the collection of the tax imposed by this chapter shall be commenced more than ten (10) years after the cause of action first accrued. In case the settlement of an estate is delayed because of litigation or other unavoidable cause, the delay shall suspend the limitation, prescribed by this subsection, until the cause of delay is removed. In the case of a fraudulent return or any other fraudulent representation affecting the amount of or the liability for the tax imposed by this chapter notwithstanding any provision of limitation provided elsewhere, the tax due by reason thereof may at any time be assessed and collected by the methods set out in this chapter, including action in a court of competent jurisdiction.

Section 455. KRS 140.165 is amended to read as follows:

The department[~~cabinet~~] may make such audits, appraisals, and examinations of records according to KRS 131.130 to properly supervise the collection of all taxes due under the provisions of this chapter. A completed tax return with full payment attached shall be final one (1) year after receipt by the department[~~cabinet~~] unless an audit has been initiated with due notice to the personal representative, except:

(1) If any assets of the estate were not reported on the tax return filed with the department[~~cabinet~~], or

(2) If any information was not revealed to the department[~~cabinet~~] which would affect the amount of tax due.

Section 456. KRS 140.170 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The District Court, upon the request of the personal representative or any interested party, shall appoint some competent person as appraiser of the estate. The appraiser shall give notice to all persons having an interest in the estate and to such other persons as the court may by order direct, and shall then appraise the property belonging to the estate. His report shall be filed with the court and a copy thereof with the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~]. He shall be paid for his services out of the funds of the estate, on the certification of the court, the amount to be fixed by that court. The total compensation of the appraiser shall not exceed one-tenth of one percent (0.1%) of the total appraised value of the estate for inheritance tax purposes, but there shall be a minimum allowance of five dollars ($5), together with the appraiser's actual and necessary traveling expenses.

(2) After investigation, the department[~~cabinet~~] may change the value of the estate for inheritance taxes and advise the representatives of the estate of this changed valuation after the receipt of a completed tax return and full payment as shown by the tax return.

(3) No appraiser shall accept any fee or reward from a personal representative, trustee, legatee, next of kin or heir of the decedent, or from any other person liable to pay the tax or any portion thereof.

(4) No person shall willfully and knowingly subscribe to or make any false statement of fact, or knowingly subscribe to or exhibit any false paper or false report with intent to deceive any appraiser.

(5) The department[~~cabinet~~] shall keep a record of all returns, reports, and schedules attached thereto required by this chapter for twelve (12) years.

Section 457. KRS 140.180 is amended to read as follows:

If real property of a decedent is passed to another person so as to become subject to the tax, his personal representative or trustee shall inform the department[~~cabinet~~] thereof within six (6) months after his appointment, or if the fact is not known to him within that time, then within one (1) month after the fact becomes known to him.

Section 458. KRS 140.210 is amended to read as follows:

(1) All taxes imposed by this chapter, unless otherwise provided in this chapter, shall be due at the death of the decedent and shall be payable to the Department of Revenue[~~Cabinet~~] within eighteen (18) months thereafter. If they are paid within nine (9) months, a discount of five percent (5%) shall be allowed, and if they are paid within eighteen (18) months, no interest shall be charged and collected thereon. If the taxes due are not paid within eighteen (18) months, interest at the tax interest rate as defined in KRS 131.010(6) shall be paid from the expiration of the eighteen (18) months until payment is actually made to the department[~~cabinet~~].

(2) In all cases where the personal representatives or trustees do not pay the taxes within eighteen (18) months from the death of the decedent, they shall be required to give bond, in the form and to the effect prescribed by the department[~~cabinet~~], for the payment of the taxes and interest.

Section 459. KRS 140.222 is amended to read as follows:

(1) When the net tax due from a beneficiary's distributive share exceeds five thousand dollars ($5,000), the beneficiary may elect to pay the inheritance tax in ten (10) equal installments. The first installment shall be due at the time the return is filed with succeeding payments due in annual installments beginning one (1) year after the return is filed.

(2) The portion of the tax deferred under this section shall be charged with interest at the tax interest rate as defined in KRS 131.010(6) commencing eighteen (18) months after the date of death.

(3) When the beneficiary elects to pay the tax on his share as provided in this section, such election must be made in writing and signed by the beneficiary and must be filed with the Department of Revenue[~~Cabinet~~] at the time of filing the tax return for the decedent's estate under KRS 140.160(2). The filing of the election together with payment of the first installment shall relieve the personal representative or trustee of the estate from further liability for the tax payments deferred under this section and the bond requirements of KRS 140.210, subject to the final approval by the Department of Revenue[~~Cabinet~~] of all other taxes due under this chapter.

(4) A beneficiary electing to defer the payment of taxes under this section shall be personally liable for the amount of deferred taxes until paid.

(5) The period of limitations for actions to enforce the collection of taxes imposed by this chapter as provided by KRS 140.160(3) shall be suspended for the period of time for deferred payment granted by this section.

Section 460. KRS 140.224 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Where a beneficiary elects to pay the inheritance tax on the installment basis as provided in this chapter, such beneficiary may be required to post sufficient security at any time the department[~~cabinet~~] reasonably believes collection of the tax may be in jeopardy.

(2) Failure of a beneficiary to pay any installment due or to post the required security shall cause all installments to become immediately due and payable.

Section 461. KRS 140.270 is amended to read as follows:

(1) In the absence of administration in this state upon the estate of a nonresident, the Department of Revenue[~~Cabinet~~], at the request of a personal representative duly appointed and qualified in the state of the decedent's domicile, or of a grantee under a conveyance made during the grantor's lifetime, and upon satisfactory evidence furnished by the personal representative or grantee, or otherwise, may determine whether or not any property of the decedent within this state is subject to the provisions of this chapter. If so, the department[~~cabinet~~] may determine the amount of tax and adjust the same with the personal representative or grantee, and for that purpose may appoint an appraiser to appraise the property.

The expense of appraisal shall be charged upon the property in addition to the tax. The department's[~~cabinet's~~] certificate of the amount of tax and its receipt for the amount therein certified may be filed with the county judge/executive of the county where the property is located, and when so filed shall be evidence of the payment of the tax to the extent of such certification. When the tax is not adjusted within six (6) months after the death of the decedent, the proper District Court, upon application of the department[~~cabinet~~], shall appoint an administrator in this state.

(2) When evidence of ownership of intangible personal property belonging to a nonresident decedent is found to be physically located in this state, the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] shall so inform the state official collecting death tax in the state of domicile of the decedent, if that state furnishes like information to the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] of this state in a reciprocal manner.

Section 462. KRS 140.275 is amended to read as follows:

(1) It is hereby declared to be the legislative policy that Kentucky shall not be a party to interstate double taxation under the terms of the Kentucky inheritance and estate tax laws. Pursuant to this policy, the commissioner of the Department of Revenue[~~secretary of revenue~~] is hereby authorized to omit from the property subject to tax under those laws, any intangible personal property of a nonresident decedent (having a domicile in the United States) held in trust by a Kentucky trustee if the jurisdiction (state, territory or District of Columbia) in which the decedent was domiciled grants similar immunity to residents of Kentucky, but only in the event the personal representative shall present evidence that the tax has been or will be paid to the other jurisdiction. If another state, territory, or the District of Columbia of the United States constitutionally imposes a tax on the transfer of estates or of the distributive shares thereof, but grants immunity from the tax in respect of any intangible property of its resident decedents held in trust by a Kentucky trustee, then the commissioner of the Department of Revenue[~~secretary of revenue~~] is hereby authorized to exclude from the property subject to tax under the Kentucky inheritance and estate tax laws, the intangible personal property of a Kentucky resident held in trust in that jurisdiction but only in the event the personal representative shall present evidence that the tax has been or will be paid to the other jurisdiction.

(2) It is expressly provided, however, in view of the uncertainty now prevailing with respect to the correct interpretation of the Constitution of the United States regarding the jurisdiction of the several states, that the provisions of this section shall be inoperative under the second alternative until and unless an agreement, approved as to legality by the Attorney General, between the commissioner of the Department of Revenue[~~secretary of revenue~~] as agent for Kentucky and the appropriate administrative official of such other state, shall have been executed and an original copy thereof filed with the Kentucky Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~].

(3) This section is intended to apply retroactively to all estates of decedents on or after April 25, 1936, which are subject to Kentucky inheritance tax laws.

Section 463. KRS 140.285 is amended to read as follows:

(1) When the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] claims that a decedent was domiciled in Kentucky at the time of death and the taxing authorities of another state or states make a similar claim with respect to their state or states, the commissioner of the Department of Revenue[~~secretary of revenue~~] may enter into a written agreement with such taxing authorities and the executor, administrator or trustee, fixing the sum acceptable to the department[~~cabinet~~] in full settlement of the inheritance or estate taxes imposable under this chapter. Such agreement shall also fix the sum acceptable to such other state or states in full settlement of the death taxes imposable by such state or states.

(2) If the aggregate amount payable under such agreement to the states involved is less than the maximum sum allowable as a credit to the estate against the federal estate tax imposed thereon, then the executor, administrator or trustee shall also pay to the State of Kentucky as an estate tax so much of the difference between such aggregate amount and the amount of such credit as the amount payable to Kentucky under the agreement bears to such aggregate amount.

Section 464. KRS 140.290 is amended to read as follows:

Whenever debts are proved against the estate of a decedent after the payment of legacies or distribution of property from which the tax has been deducted or upon which it has been paid, and a refund is made by the legatee, devisee, heir or next of kin, a proportion of the tax so deducted or paid shall be repaid to him, by the personal representative or trustee if the tax has not been paid to the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~], or by the department[~~cabinet~~] if it has been so paid.

Section 465. KRS 140.320 is amended to read as follows:

If, within five (5) years after the death of the decedent, a qualified person sells, conveys, or otherwise transfers the ownership, directly or indirectly, of the qualified real estate to any person or persons other than another qualified person who is a joint owner or the qualified real estate is converted to a use other than agricultural or horticultural use, then the qualified persons to whom the property passed at the death of the decedent in whose estate the agricultural or horticultural value was reported shall cause to be paid, pursuant to administrative regulations promulgated by the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~], the additional inheritance tax that would have been due on the decedent's estate if fair market value had been used to compute the tax due on the estate rather than the agricultural or horticultural value, along with interest at the tax interest rate as defined in KRS 131.010(6).

Section 466. KRS 140.330 is amended to read as follows:

In the event the qualified real estate is reported for inheritance tax purposes at its agricultural or horticultural value and that real estate has been assessed at its agricultural or horticultural value for ad valorem tax purposes, then that assessment shall be presumed to be its agricultural or horticultural value for inheritance tax purposes. If, however, the real estate has not been so assessed for ad valorem tax purposes, then the agricultural or horticultural value shall be determined pursuant to KRS Chapter 132 and such regulations as may be promulgated by the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] to determine horticultural or agricultural value for inheritance tax purposes.

Section 467. KRS 140.350 is amended to read as follows:

At such time as the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] accepts the agricultural or horticultural value on qualified real estate comprising a portion of a decedent's estate and issues tax waivers thereon, it shall cause to be filed in the office of the county clerk of the county where the real estate or the greater portion thereof is located, on a form prescribed by the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~], a lien which on its face shall expire in five (5) years and the lien shall secure the payment of any additional tax which may become due as the result of the qualified real estate being sold to others than qualified persons or the qualified real estate being converted to other than a qualified use.

If additional taxes are due as the result of the real estate being transferred to other than a qualified person or its use is converted to other than agricultural or horticultural use, and the additional tax is not paid after assessment of the tax, within the time prescribed by the regulations of the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~], then the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] may proceed to enforce the lien in accordance with law.

If the physical location of the property during the rental or royalty period is unknown or unascertainable by the corporation, the tangible personalty is utilized in the state in which the property was located at the time the rental or royalty payer obtained possession.

If the department[~~cabinet~~] determines that the annual rental or subrental rate is unreasonable, or if a nominal or zero (0) rate is charged, the department[~~cabinet~~] may determine and apply the rental rate as will reasonably reflect the value of the property rented by the corporation.

(9) (a) If the allocation and apportionment provisions of this section do not fairly represent the extent of the corporation's business activity in this state, the corporation may petition for or the department[~~cabinet~~] may require, in respect to all or any part of the corporation's business activity, if reasonable:

The numerator of the fraction shall be the average of the number of shares owned by the investment company's shareholders domiciled in this state at the beginning of and at the end of the investment company's taxable year, and the denominator of the fraction shall be the average of the number of the shares owned by the investment company shareholders everywhere at the beginning of and at the end of the investment company's taxable year.

c. Nonbusiness income shall be allocated to this state as provided in subsections (4) through (7) of this section.

(b) Business income shall be apportioned to this state by multiplying the business income by a fraction, the numerator of which is the property factor plus the payroll factor plus the sales factor and the denominator of which is three (3); provided, however, that effective with taxable years beginning after July 31, 1985, in lieu of the equally weighted three (3) factor apportionment fraction based on property, payroll, and sales, an apportionment fraction composed of a sales factor representing fifty percent (50%) of the fraction, a property factor representing twenty-five percent (25%) of the fraction, and a payroll factor representing twenty-five percent (25%) of the fraction shall be used. The payroll factor shall be determined as provided in subsection (8)(b) of this section. (2) Every person subject to the jurisdiction of this state, in whatever capacity acting, including lessees or mortgagors of real or personal property, fiduciaries and employers, making payment to another person, domiciled in this state, of interest, rent, premiums, annuities, compensations, remunerations, emoluments or other fixed or determinable gains, profits and income not subject to withholding provisions contained in KRS 141.310 of six hundred dollars ($600) or more in any taxable year, shall render a true and accurate report to the department[~~cabinet~~] of the payments made. Every person subject to the jurisdiction of this state, in whatever capacity acting, making payment of wages to another person domiciled in this state, shall render a true and accurate report to the department[~~cabinet~~] of the payments made. Blank forms for returns of income shall be supplied by the department[~~cabinet~~].

(2) Whenever, in the opinion of the department[~~cabinet~~], it is necessary to examine the federal income tax return or a copy thereof of any taxpayer in order to audit his return, the department[~~cabinet~~] may compel the taxpayer to produce for inspection a copy of his federal return and all statements and schedules in support thereof. The department~~[cabinet]~~ may also require copies of reports of adjustments made by the federal government.

Section 481. KRS 141.170 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The Department of Revenue~~[Cabinet]~~ may grant any taxpayer other than a corporation a reasonable extension of time for filing an income tax return whenever good cause exists, and shall keep a record of every extension. In the case of an individual who is abroad, the extension shall not be granted for more than one (1) year.

(2) A corporation may be granted an extension of not more than six (6) months for filing its income tax return, provided the corporation, on or before the date prescribed for payment of the tax, requests the extension and pays the amount properly estimated as its tax.

(3) If the time for filing a return is extended, the taxpayer shall pay, as part of the tax, an amount equal to the tax interest rate as defined in KRS 131.010(6) on the tax shown due on the return, but not previously paid, from the time the tax was due until the return is actually filed with the department~~[cabinet]~~.

(1) Every individual, except as otherwise provided in this section, having for the taxable year an adjusted gross income which exceeds five thousand dollars ($5,000), if single, or if married and not living with husband or wife and every married individual living with husband or wife whose adjusted gross income combined with the adjusted gross income of his or her spouse exceeds five thousand dollars ($5,000) shall make to the department~~[cabinet]~~ a return stating specifically the items which he claims as deductions and tax credits allowed by this chapter.

(2) Any individual who is blind or who has attained the age of sixty-five (65) before the close of his taxable year shall be required to make a return only if he has for the taxable year an adjusted gross income which exceeds five thousand dollars ($5,000). Every married individual living with husband or wife shall, if both spouses have attained the age of sixty-five (65), be required to make a return if the combined adjusted gross income of both spouses exceeds five thousand four hundred dollars ($5,400). If the individual is unable to make his own return, the return shall be made by a duly authorized agent.

(3) Any individual, who is both sixty-five (65) or over and blind before the close of the taxable year, shall make a return if he has for the taxable year an adjusted gross income which exceeds five thousand dollars ($5,000).

(4) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, an individual, having for the taxable year gross income from self-employment of five thousand dollars ($5,000) or more, shall make a return.

(5) Any nonresident individual with gross income from Kentucky sources and a total gross income of five thousand dollars ($5,000) or over shall make a return.

(b) It is shown that the spouse would have qualified for relief under the provisions of Section 6015 of the Internal Revenue Code for the same taxable year if there had been a federal income tax liability.

(8) Any relief granted pursuant to paragraphs (a) and (b) of subsection (7) of this section shall not result in a tax overpayment to the spouse requesting relief.

(9) Each individual return shall be verified by a written declaration that it is made under the penalties of perjury.

Section 483. KRS 141.190 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Every fiduciary, except a receiver appointed by authority of law in possession of part only of the property of an individual, shall make under oath a return for any of the following individuals, estates, or trusts for which he acts, setting forth therein such information as may be prescribed by the department~~[cabinet]~~:

(b) Every estate the gross income of which for the taxable year is twelve hundred dollars ($1,200) or over;

(c) Every trust the gross income of which for the taxable year is one hundred dollars ($100) or over.

(2) Any fiduciary required to make a return under this chapter shall be subject to all the provisions of this chapter that apply to individuals.

Section 484. KRS 141.200 is amended to read as follows:

(1) As used in this section, unless the context requires otherwise:

(a) "Affiliated group" means affiliated group as defined in Section 1504(a) of the Internal Revenue Code and related regulations;

(b) "Consolidated return" means a Kentucky corporation income tax return filed by members of an affiliated group in accordance with this section. The determinations and computations required by this chapter shall be made in accordance with the provisions of Section 1502 of the Internal Revenue Code and related regulations, except as required by differences between this chapter and the Internal Revenue Code. Corporations exempt from taxation under KRS 141.040 shall not be included in the return;

(c) "Separate return" means a Kentucky corporation income tax return in which only the transactions and activities of a single corporation are considered in making all determinations and computations necessary to calculate taxable net income, tax due, and credits allowed in accordance with the provisions of this chapter.

(2) Every corporation doing business in this state, except those exempt from taxation under KRS 141.040, shall, for each taxable year, file a separate return unless the corporation was, for any part of the taxable year, a member of an affiliated group electing to file a consolidated return in accordance with subsection (3) of this section.

(3) (a) An affiliated group, whether or not filing a federal consolidated return, may elect to file a consolidated return which includes all members of the affiliated group.

(b) An affiliated group electing to file a consolidated return under paragraph (a) of this subsection shall be treated for all purposes as a single corporation under the provisions of this chapter. All transactions between corporations included in the consolidated return shall be eliminated in computing net income in accordance with KRS 141.010(13), and in determining the property, payroll, and sales factors in accordance with KRS 141.120.

(c) Any election made in accordance with paragraph (a) of this subsection shall be made on a form prescribed by the department[~~cabinet~~] and shall be submitted to the department[~~cabinet~~] on or before the due date of the return including extensions for the first taxable year for which the election is made.

(d) Any election to file a consolidated return pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection shall be binding on both the department[~~cabinet~~] and the affiliated group for a period beginning with the first month of the first taxable year for which the election is made and ending with the conclusion of the taxable year in which the ninety-sixth consecutive calendar month expires.

(e) For each taxable year for which an affiliated group has made an election in accordance with paragraph (a) of this subsection, the consolidated return shall include all corporations which are members of the affiliated group.

(4) Each corporation included as part of an affiliated group filing a consolidated return shall be jointly and severally liable for the income tax liability computed on the consolidated return, except that any corporation which was not a member of the affiliated group for the entire taxable year shall be jointly and severally liable only for that portion of the Kentucky consolidated income tax liability attributable to that portion of the year that the corporation was a member of the affiliated group.

(5) Every corporation return or report required by this chapter shall be executed by one (1) of the following officers of the corporation: the president, vice president, secretary, treasurer, assistant secretary, assistant treasurer, or chief accounting officer. The Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] may require a further or supplemental report of further information and data necessary for computation of the tax.

(6) In the case of a corporation doing business in this state that carries on transactions with stockholders or with other corporations related by stock ownership, by interlocking directorates, or by some other method, the department[~~cabinet~~] shall require information necessary to make possible accurate assessment of the income derived by the corporation from sources within this state. To make possible such assessment, the department[~~cabinet~~] may require the corporation to file supplementary returns showing information respecting the business of any or all individuals and corporations related by one (1) or more of these methods to the corporation. The department[~~cabinet~~] may require the return to show in detail the record of transactions between the corporation and any or all other related corporations or individuals.

(7) For any taxable year ending on or after December 31, 1995, except as provided under subsection (3) of this section, nothing in this chapter shall be construed as allowing or requiring the filing of:

(a) A combined return under the unitary business concept; or

(b) A consolidated return.

(8) No assessment of additional tax due for any taxable year ending on or before December 31, 1995, made after December 22, 1994, and based on requiring a change from any initially filed separate return or returns to a combined return under the unitary business concept or to a consolidated return, shall be effective or recognized for any purpose.

(9) No claim for refund or credit of a tax overpayment for any taxable year ending on or before December, 31, 1995, made by an amended return or any other method after December 22, 1994, and based on a change from any initially filed separate return or returns to a combined return under the unitary business concept or to a consolidated return, shall be effective or recognized for any purpose.

(10) No corporation or group of corporations shall be allowed to file a combined return under the unitary business concept or a consolidated return for any taxable year ending before December 31, 1995, unless on or before December 22, 1994, the corporation or group of corporations filed an initial or amended return under the unitary business concept or consolidated return for a taxable year ending before December 22, 1994.

(11) This section shall not be construed to limit or otherwise impair the department's[~~cabinet's~~] authority under KRS 141.205.

Section 485. KRS 141.205 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The department[~~cabinet~~] may require either a consolidated return or a combined return from any or all corporations conducting inter-corporate transactions whenever the department[~~cabinet~~] finds that such inter-corporate transactions reduce taxable net income, as defined in KRS 141.010(14), of the corporation(s) below the amount which would result if the transactions were at arm's length.

(2) The department[~~cabinet~~] is authorized and empowered to assess the tax against any of the corporations whose income is included in the consolidated or combined return in such manner as it may determine necessary to prevent the avoidance of income tax.

(3) In the case of corporations not required to file a consolidated or combined return under subsection (1) of this section that carried on transactions with stockholders or affiliated corporations directly or indirectly, the department[~~cabinet~~] shall adjust the net income of such corporations to an amount that would result if such transactions were carried on at arm's length.

Section 486. KRS 141.206 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Every partnership or S corporation owning property or engaging in business in Kentucky, shall, on or before the fifteenth day of the fourth month following the close of its annual accounting period, file a copy of its federal partnership return or S corporation return with the form prescribed and furnished by the department[~~cabinet~~].

(2) Partnerships and S corporations shall determine taxable income in the same manner as in the case of an individual under KRS 141.010(9) to (11) and the adjustment required under Sections 703(a) and 1363(b) of the Internal Revenue Code. Computation of taxable income under this section and the computation of the partners or shareholders distributive share shall be computed as nearly as practicable identical with those required for federal income tax purposes except to the extent required by differences between this chapter and the federal income tax law and regulations.

(3) Individuals or corporations carrying on a business as a partnership or S corporation shall be liable for income tax only in their individual or corporate capacities, and no income tax shall be assessed upon the income of any partnership or S corporation except as prescribed in KRS 141.040(5).

(a) Resident and nonresident individuals who are partners or S corporation shareholders must report and pay tax on the distributive share of net income, gain, loss, deduction, or credit, as determined in subsection (2) of this section, except as provided in subsections (4) and (5) of this section. Partnerships and S corporations may be required to withhold Kentucky income tax on the distributive share under administrative regulations issued by the department[~~cabinet~~].

(b) Corporations which are partners must include their distributive share of net income, gain, loss, deduction or credit, as determined under subsection (2) of this section, except as provided in subsections (4) and (5) of this section.

(4) Resident and nonresident individuals and corporations which are partners in a partnership or shareholders in an S corporation carrying on business only in Kentucky are taxable on all items of income gain, loss, deduction or credit determined under subsection (2) of this section and reported as their distributive share from the partnership or S corporation.

(5) Nonresident individuals and corporations which are partners in a partnership or shareholders in an S corporation which does business within and without Kentucky are taxable on their proportionate share of the distributive income passed through the partnership or S corporation attributable to business done in Kentucky.

(a) Business done in Kentucky is determined by the ratio of gross receipts from sales to purchasers or customers in Kentucky or services performed in Kentucky to the total gross receipts from sales or service everywhere.

(6) Resident partners, S corporation shareholders and corporations which are partners in a multistate partnership or shareholders in a multistate S corporation are taxable on one hundred percent (100%) of the distributive share of income, gains, losses, deductions or credits.

(7) Resident individuals who are partners in a partnership or shareholders in an S corporation which does not carry on business in Kentucky are subject to tax under KRS 141.020 on federal net income, gain, deduction, loss or credit passed through the partnership or S corporation.

(8) S corporation for purpose of this section means a corporation which has elected for federal tax purposes to be taxed as an S corporation. An election for federal tax purposes is a binding election for Kentucky tax purposes.

(9) Nonresident individuals shall not be taxable on investment income distributed by a qualified investment partnership. For purposes of this subsection a "qualified investment partnership" means a partnership formed to hold only investments that produce income that would not be taxable to the nonresident individual if held or owned individually.

(1) As used in this section and KRS 141.235, unless the context requires otherwise:

(a) "Conclusion of the federal audit" means the date that the adjustments made by the Internal Revenue Service to net income as reported on the taxpayer's federal income tax return become final and unappealable; and

(b) "Final determination of the federal audit" means the revenue agent's report or other documents reflecting the final and unappealable adjustments made by the Internal Revenue Service.

(2) As soon as practicable after each return is received, the department[~~cabinet~~] shall examine and audit it. If the amount of tax computed by the department[~~cabinet~~] is greater than the amount returned by the taxpayer, the additional tax shall be assessed and a notice of assessment mailed to the taxpayer by the department[~~cabinet~~] within four (4) years from the date the return was filed, except as otherwise provided in this subsection.

(a) In the case of a failure to file a return or of a fraudulent return the additional tax may be assessed at any time.

(b) In the case of a return where a taxpayer other than a corporation understates his net income or omits an amount properly includable in net income or both which understatement or omission or both is in excess of twenty-five percent (25%) of the amount of net income stated in the return the additional tax may be assessed at any time within six (6) years after the return was filed.

(c) In the case of a return where a corporation understates its taxable net income or omits an amount properly includable in taxable net income or both, which understatement or omission or both is in excess of twenty-five percent (25%) of the amount of taxable net income stated in the return, the additional tax may be assessed at any time within six (6) years after the return was filed.

(d) In the case of an assessment of additional tax relating directly to adjustments resulting from a final determination of a federal audit, the additional tax may be assessed before the expiration of the times provided in this subsection, or six months from the date the department[~~cabinet~~] receives the final determination of the federal audit from the taxpayer, whichever is later.

(e) In the case of the assessment of additional tax resulting from a decrease of a net operating loss deduction or a capital loss deduction, resulting from the carryback of a loss which occurs in a taxable year beginning after December 31, 1993, the additional tax may be assessed at any time before the expiration of the times provided for in this subsection for assessing additional tax for the taxable year which resulted in the net operating loss or capital loss carryback.

The times provided in this subsection may be extended by agreement between the taxpayer and the department[~~cabinet~~]. For the purposes of this subsection, a return filed before the last day prescribed by law for filing the return shall be considered as filed on the last day. For taxable years beginning after December 31, 1993, any extension granted for filing the return shall also be considered as extending the last day prescribed by law for filing the return.

(3) If any additional tax is assessed on account of any income which has been returned for taxation by any other taxpayer, the department[~~cabinet~~], with the consent of the other taxpayer, his personal representatives, or heirs, shall reduce the amount of the additional tax assessed for each year by the amount of the income tax paid for that year by the other taxpayer on account of the income in question.

(4) Every taxpayer shall:

(a) Notify the department[~~cabinet~~] in writing of every audit of the taxpayer's federal income tax return within thirty (30) days after the taxpayer has or should have had knowledge of the beginning of the audit by the Internal Revenue Service, and

(b) Submit a copy of the final determination of the federal audit within thirty (30) days of the conclusion of the federal audit.

Section 488. KRS 141.220 is amended to read as follows:

The full amount of the unpaid tax payable by any taxpayer, as appears from the face of the return, shall be paid to the department[~~cabinet~~] at the time prescribed for filing the income tax return, determined without regard to any extension of time for filing the return.

Section 489. KRS 141.235 is amended to read as follows:

(1) No suit shall be maintained in any court to restrain or delay the collection or payment of the tax levied by this chapter.

(2) Any tax collected pursuant to the provisions of this chapter may be refunded or credited in accordance with the provisions of KRS 134.580, except that:

(a) In any case where the assessment period contained in KRS 141.210 has been extended by an agreement between the taxpayer and the department[~~cabinet~~], the limitation contained in this subsection shall be extended accordingly.

(b) If the claim for refund or credit relates directly to adjustments resulting from a federal audit, the taxpayer shall file a claim for refund or credit within the time provided for in this subsection or six (6) months from the conclusion of the federal audit, whichever is later.

(c) If the claim for refund or credit relates to an overpayment attributable to a net operating loss carryback or capital loss carryback, resulting from a loss which occurs in a taxable year beginning after December 31, 1993, the claim for refund or credit shall be filed within the times prescribed in this subsection for the taxable year of the net operating loss or capital loss which results in the carryback.

For the purposes of this subsection and subsection (3) of this section, a return filed before the last day prescribed by law for filing the return shall be considered as filed on the last day.

(3) Overpayments of taxes collected pursuant to KRS 141.300, 141.310, or 141.315 shall be refunded or credited with interest at the tax interest rate as defined in KRS 131.010(6). The interest shall not begin to accrue until ninety (90) days after the tax was paid, the return was filed, or the last day prescribed by law for filing the return, whichever is later.

(4) Exclusive authority to refund or credit overpayments of taxes collected pursuant to this chapter is vested in the commissioner[~~secretary~~] or his authorized agent. Amounts directed to be refunded shall be paid out of the general fund.

Section 490. KRS 141.300 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Every individual shall, at the time prescribed in subsection (3), make a declaration of his estimated tax for the taxable year if his gross income from sources other than wages upon which Kentucky income tax will be withheld can reasonably be expected to exceed five thousand dollars ($5,000) for the taxable year and his gross income or adjusted gross income can reasonably be expected to be an amount not less than the amount for which a return is required under KRS 141.180. No declaration of estimated tax shall be required if the estimated tax liability can reasonably be expected to be five hundred dollars ($500) or less.

(2) In the declaration required under subsection (1), the individual shall state:

(a) The amount which he estimates as the amount of tax under KRS 141.020 for the taxable year;

(b) The amount which he estimates as the credits for the taxable year under KRS 141.310, 141.315, and 141.065;

(c) The excess of the amount estimated under paragraph (a) over the amount estimated under paragraph (b), which excess for purposes of this chapter shall be considered the estimated tax for the taxable year; and

(d) Other information as may be prescribed in administrative regulations promulgated by the department[~~cabinet~~].

(3) The declaration required under subsection (1) shall be filed with the department[~~cabinet~~] on or before April 15 of the taxable year, except that if the requirements of subsection (1) are first met:

(a) After April 1 and before June 2 of the taxable year, the declaration shall be filed on or before June 15 of the taxable year; or

(b) After June 1 and before September 2 of the taxable year, the declaration shall be filed on or before September 15 of the taxable year; or

(c) After September 1 of the taxable year, the declaration shall be filed on or before January 15 of the succeeding taxable year.

(4) An individual may amend a declaration filed during the taxable year under subsection (3) pursuant to administrative regulations prescribed by the department[~~cabinet~~].

(5) If, on or before January 31 of the succeeding taxable year an individual files a return for the taxable year for which the declaration is required and pays in full the amount computed on the return as payable, then, under administrative regulations prescribed by the department[~~cabinet~~]:

(a) If the declaration is not required to be filed during the taxable year, but is required to be filed on or before January 15 of the taxable year, the return shall, for the purposes of this section, be considered as the declaration; and

(b) If the tax shown on the return, reduced by the credits under KRS 141.350, is greater than the estimated tax shown in a declaration previously made or, in the last amendment thereof, the return shall, for the purposes of this section, be considered as the amendment of the declaration permitted by subsection (4) to be filed on or before January 15 of the taxable year.

(6) The department[~~cabinet~~] shall promulgate administrative regulations governing reasonable extensions of time for filing declarations and paying the estimated tax. Except in the case of an individual who is abroad, no extension shall be for more than six (6) months.

(7) If an individual is unable to make his own declaration, the declaration shall be made by a duly authorized agent or by the guardian, conservator, or other person charged with the care of the person or property of the individual.

(8) For the purposes of KRS 131.190, a declaration of estimated tax shall be held and considered a return of income under this chapter.

(1) The estimated tax provided for in KRS 141.300 shall be paid as follows:

(a) If the declaration is filed on or before April 15 of the taxable year, the estimated tax shall be paid in four (4) equal installments. The first installment shall be paid at the time of the filing of the declaration, the second and third on June 15 and September 15, respectively, of the taxable year, and the fourth on January 15 of the succeeding taxable year;

(b) If the declaration is filed after April 15 and not after June 15 of the taxable year and is not required by subsection

(3) of KRS 141.300 to be filed on or before April 15 of the taxable year, the estimated tax shall be paid in three (3) equal installments. The first installment shall be paid at the time of the filing of the declaration, the second on September 15 of the taxable year, and the third on January 15 of the succeeding taxable year;

(c) If the declaration is filed after June 15 and not after September 15 of the taxable year and is not required by subsection (3) of KRS 141.300 to be filed on or before June 15 of the taxable year, the estimated tax shall be paid in two (2) equal installments. The first installment shall be paid at the time of the filing of the declaration and the second on January 15 of the succeeding taxable year;

(d) If the declaration is filed after September 15 of the taxable year, and is not required by subsection (3) of KRS 141.300 to be filed on or before September 15 of the taxable year, the declaration shall be filed and estimated tax shall be paid on or before January 15 of the succeeding taxable year;

(e) If the declaration is filed after the time prescribed in KRS 141.300, including cases where extensions of time have been granted, paragraphs (b), (c), and (d) of this subsection shall not apply, and there shall be paid at the time of such filing all installments of estimated tax which would have been payable on or before such time if the declaration has been filed within the time prescribed in subsection (3) of KRS 141.300, and the remaining installments shall be paid at the times at which, and in the amounts in which, they would have been payable if the declaration had been so filed. Provided, that payments required under this section for purposes of the taxable year 1954 shall be limited to fifty percent (50%) of the total estimated tax for 1954.

(2) If any amendment of a declaration is filed, the remaining installments, if any, shall be ratably increased or decreased as the case may be, to reflect the respective increase or decrease in the estimated tax by reason of such amendment, and if any amendment is made after September 15 of the taxable year any increase in the estimated tax by reasons thereof shall be paid at the time of making such amendment.

(3) At the election of the individual, any installment of the estimated tax may be paid prior to the date prescribed for its payment.

(4) Payment of the estimated tax, or any installment thereof, shall be considered payment on account of the tax for the taxable year. Assessment in respect of the estimated tax shall be limited to the amount paid.

(5) In the case of an individual whose estimated gross income from farming for the taxable year is at least two-thirds (2/3) of the total estimated gross income from all sources for the taxable year, in lieu of the time prescribed in subsection (3) of KRS 141.300, the declaration for the taxable year may be made at any time on or before January 15 of the succeeding taxable year; and if such an individual files a return on or before March 1 of the succeeding taxable year, and pays in full the amount computed on the return as payable, such return shall have the same effect as that prescribed in subsection (5) of KRS 141.300 in the case of a return filed on or before January 31.

(6) The application of this section and KRS 141.300 to taxable years of less than twelve (12) months shall be as prescribed in administrative regulations promulgated by the department[~~cabinet~~].

(7) In the application of this section and KRS 141.300 to taxpayers reporting income on a fiscal year basis, there shall be substituted for the date specified therein, the months corresponding thereto.

Section 492. KRS 141.310 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Every employer making payment of wages on or after January 1, 1971, shall deduct and withhold upon the wages a tax determined under KRS 141.315 or by the tables authorized by KRS 141.370.

(2) If wages are paid with respect to a period which is not a payroll period, the amount to be deducted and withheld shall be that applicable in the case of a miscellaneous payroll period containing a number of days, including Sundays and holidays, equal to the number of days in the period with respect to which the wages are paid.

(3) In any case in which wages are paid by an employer without regard to any payroll period or other period, the amount to be deducted and withheld shall be that applicable in the case of a miscellaneous payroll period containing a number of days equal to the number of days, including Sundays and holidays, which have elapsed since the date of the last payment of wages by the employer during the calendar year, or the date of commencement of employment with the employer during the year, or January 1 of the year, whichever is the later.

(4) In determining the amount to be deducted and withheld under this section, the wages may, at the election of the employer, be computed to the nearest dollar.

(5) The tables mentioned in subsection (1) of this section take into consideration the deductible federal income tax. If Congress changes substantially the federal income tax, the department[~~cabinet~~] shall make the change in these tables necessary to compensate for any increase or decrease in the deductible federal income tax.

(6) The department[~~cabinet~~] may permit the use of accounting machines to calculate the proper amount to be deducted from wages when the calculation so permitted produces substantially the same result set forth in the tables authorized by KRS 141.370. Prior approval of the calculation shall be secured from the department[~~cabinet~~] at least thirty (30) days before the first payroll period for which it is to be used.

(7) The department[~~cabinet~~] may, by regulations, authorize employers:

(a) To estimate the wages which will be paid to any employee in any quarter of the calendar year;

(b) To determine the amount to be deducted and withheld upon each payment of wages to the employee during the quarter as if the appropriate average of the wages estimated constituted the actual wages paid; and

(c) To deduct and withhold upon any payment of wages to the employee during the quarter the amount necessary to adjust the amount actually deducted and withheld upon the wages of the employee during the quarter to the amount that would be required to be deducted and withheld during the quarter if the payroll period of the employee was quarterly.

(8) The department[~~cabinet~~] may provide by regulation, under the conditions and to the extent it deems proper, for withholding in addition to that otherwise required under this section and KRS 141.315 in cases in which the employer and the employee agree to the additional withholding. The additional withholding shall for all purposes be considered tax required to be deducted and withheld under this chapter.

(9) Effective January 1, 1992, any employer required by this section to withhold Kentucky income tax who assesses and withholds from employees the job assessment fee provided in KRS 154.24-110 may offset a portion of the fee against the Kentucky income tax required to be withheld from the employee under this section. The amount of the offset shall be four-fifths (4/5) of the amount of the assessment fee withheld from the employee or the Commonwealth's contribution of KRS 154.24-110(3) applies. If the provisions in KRS 154.24-150(3) or (4) apply, the offset, the offset shall be one hundred percent (100%) of the assessment.

(10) Any employer required by this section to withhold Kentucky income tax who assesses and withholds from employees an assessment provided in KRS 154.22-070 or KRS 154.28-110 may offset the fee against the Kentucky income tax required to be withheld from the employee under this section.

(11) Any employer required by this section to withhold Kentucky income tax who assesses and withholds from employees the job assessment fee provided in KRS 154.26-100 may offset a portion of the fee against the Kentucky income tax required to be withheld from the employee under this section. The amount of the offset shall be four-fifths (4/5) of the amount of the assessment fee withheld from the employee, or if the agreement under KRS 154.26-090(1)(f)2. is consummated, the offset shall be one hundred percent (100%) of the assessment fee.

(12) Any employer required by this section to withhold Kentucky income tax who assesses and withholds from employees the job development assessment fee provided in KRS 154.23-055 may offset a portion of the fee against the Kentucky income tax required to be withheld from the employee under this section. The amount of the offset shall be equal to the Commonwealth's contribution as determined by KRS 154.23-055(1) to (3).

(13) Any employer required by this section to withhold Kentucky income tax may be required to post a bond with the department[~~cabinet~~]. The bond shall be a corporate surety bond or cash. The amount of the bond shall be determined by the department[~~cabinet~~], but shall not exceed fifty thousand dollars ($50,000).

(14) The Commonwealth may bring an action for a restraining order or a temporary or permanent injunction to restrain or enjoin the operation of an employer's business until the bond is posted or the tax required to be withheld is paid or both. The action may be brought in the Franklin Circuit Court or in the Circuit Court having jurisdiction of the defendant.

Section 493. KRS 141.315 is amended to read as follows:

If payment of wages is made to an employee by an employer:

(1) With respect to a payroll period or other period, any part of which is included in a payroll period or other period with respect to which wages are also paid to such employee by such employer, or

(2) Without regard to any payroll period or other period, but on or prior to the expiration of a payroll period or other period with respect to which wages are also paid to such employee by such employer; or

(3) With respect to a period beginning in one (1) and ending in another calendar year; or

(4) Through an agent, fiduciary, or other person who also has the control, receipt, custody, or disposal of, or pays, the wages payable by another employer to such employee, the manner of withholding and the amount to be deducted and withheld under KRS 141.310 shall be determined in accordance with regulations promulgated by the department[~~cabinet~~] under which the withholding exemption allowed to the employee in any calendar year shall approximate the withholding exemption allowable with respect to an annual payroll period.

Section 494. KRS 141.325 is amended to read as follows:

(1) An employee receiving wages shall on any day be entitled to the following withholding exemptions:

(a) One (1) exemption for himself;

(b) One (1) exemption for each dependent for whom he would be entitled to a tax credit under the provisions of KRS 141.020(3)(c);

(c) If the employee is married, the exemption to which his spouse is entitled, or would be entitled if such spouse were an employee, under subparagraph (a) of this subsection, but only if such spouse does not have in effect a withholding exemption certificate claiming such exemption;

(d) Such other withholding exemptions as the department[~~cabinet~~] may prescribe by regulation.

(2) Every employee shall, on or before July 1, 1954, or before the date of commencement of employment, whichever is later, furnish his employer with a signed withholding exemption certificate relating to the number of withholding exemptions which he claims, which in no event shall exceed the number to which he is entitled.

(3) Withholding exemption certificates shall take effect as of the beginning of the first payroll period ending, or the first payment of wages made without regard to a payroll period, on or after the date on which such certificate is so furnished; provided, that certificates furnished before July 1, 1954, shall be considered as furnished on that date.

(4) A withholding exemption certificate which takes effect under this section shall continue in effect with respect to the employer until another such certificate takes effect under this section. If a withholding exemption certificate is furnished to take the place of an existing certificate, the employer, at his option, may continue the old certificate in force with respect to all wages paid on or before the first status determination date, January 1 or July 1, which occurs at least thirty (30) days after the date on which such new certificate is furnished.

(5) If, on any day during the calendar year, the number of withholding exemptions to which the employee may reasonably be expected to be entitled at the beginning of his next taxable year is different from the number to which the employee is entitled on such day, the employee shall in such cases and at such time as the department[~~cabinet~~] may prescribe, furnish the employer with a withholding exemption certificate relating to the number of exemptions which he claims with respect to such next taxable year, which shall in no event exceed the number to which he may reasonably be expected to be so entitled. Exemption certificates issued pursuant to this subsection shall not take effect with respect to any payment of wages made in the calendar year in which the certificate is furnished.

(6) If, on any day during the calendar year, the number of withholding exemptions to which the employee is entitled is less than the number of withholding exemptions claimed by the employee on the withholding exemption certificate then in effect with respect to him, the employee shall, within ten (10) days thereafter, furnish the employer with a new withholding exemption certificate relating to the number of withholding exemptions which the employee then claims, which shall in no event exceed the number to which he is entitled on such day. If, on any day during the calendar year, the number of withholding exemptions to which the employee is entitled is greater than the number of withholding exemptions claimed, the employee may furnish the employer with a new withholding exemption certificate relating to the number of withholding exemptions which the employee then claims, which shall in no event exceed the number to which he is entitled on such day.

(7) Withholding exemption certificates shall be in such form and contain such information as the department[~~cabinet~~] may by regulations prescribe.

Section 495. KRS 141.330 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Every employer required to deduct and withhold tax under KRS 141.310 and 141.315 shall, for the quarterly period beginning on the first day of January of each year, and for each quarterly period thereafter, on or before the last day of the month following the close of each quarterly period make a return and report to the department[~~cabinet~~] the tax required to be withheld under KRS 141.310 and 141.315, unless the employer is permitted or required to report monthly or annually. Such employer shall, on or before the last day of the month following the close of each quarterly period, pay over to the department[~~cabinet~~] the tax required to be withheld under KRS 141.310 and 141.315; Provided, however, That the department[~~cabinet~~] may, by regulations, require employers to remit the tax withheld under KRS 141.310 and 141.315 within a reasonable time after the payroll period or other period. A return shall be filed by every employer making payment of wages even though no tax has been withheld.

(2) If the department[~~cabinet~~], in any case, has reason to believe that the collection of the tax provided for in subsection (1) of this section is in jeopardy, it may require the employer to make such return and pay such tax at any time.

(3) Every employer, who fails to withhold or pay to the department[~~cabinet~~] any sums required by this chapter to be withheld and paid, shall be personally and individually liable therefor to the Commonwealth; and any sum or sums withheld in accordance with the provisions of KRS 141.310 and 141.315 shall be deemed to be held in trust for the Commonwealth.

(4) The Commonwealth shall have a lien upon all the property of any employer who fails to withhold or pay over to the department[~~cabinet~~] sums required to be withheld under KRS 141.310 and 141.315. If the employer withholds but fails to pay the amounts withheld to the department[~~cabinet~~], the lien shall accrue as of the date the amounts withheld were required to be paid to the department[~~cabinet~~]. If the employer fails to withhold, the lien shall accrue at the time the liability of the employer becomes fixed.

Section 496. KRS 141.335 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Every person required to deduct and withhold from an employee a tax under KRS 141.310 or 141.315, or who would have been required to deduct and withhold a tax under KRS 141.310 or 141.315 if the employee had claimed no more than one (1) withholding exemption, shall furnish to each such employee in respect of the remuneration paid by such person to such employee during the calendar year, on or before January 31 of the succeeding year, or, if his employment is terminated before the close of such calendar year, on the day on which the last payment of remuneration is made, a written statement showing the following:

(a) the name of such person;

(b) the name of the employee and his social security account number;

(c) the total amount of wages as defined in KRS 141.010; and

(d) the total amount deducted and withheld as tax under KRS 141.310 and 141.315.

(2) The statement required to be furnished by this section in respect of any wages shall be furnished at such other times, shall contain such other information, and shall be in such form as the department[~~cabinet~~] may by regulations prescribe. A duplicate of such statement if made and filed in accordance with regulations prescribed by the department[~~cabinet~~] shall constitute the return required to be made in respect of such wages under KRS 141.150.

(3) The department[~~cabinet~~] may promulgate regulations providing for reasonable extensions of time, not in excess of thirty (30) days, to employers required to furnish statements under this section.

Section 497. KRS 141.345 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Where there has been an overpayment of tax under KRS 141.310 or 141.315, refund or credit shall be made to the employer only to the extent that the amount of such overpayment was not deducted and withheld under KRS 141.310 or 141.315 by the employer.

(2) Unless written application for refund or credit is received by the department[~~cabinet~~] from the employer within four (4) years from the date the overpayment was made, no refund or credit shall be allowed.

Section 498. KRS 141.347 is amended to read as follows:

(1) As used in this section, unless the context requires otherwise:

(a) "Approved company" shall have the same meaning as set forth in KRS 154.22-010;

(b) "Economic development project" shall have the same meaning as set forth in KRS 154.22-010;

(c) "Tax credit" means the "tax credit" allowed in KRS 154.22-010 to 154.22-070.

(3) An approved company which is an individual sole proprietorship subject to tax under KRS 141.020, a corporation subject to tax under KRS 141.040(1), or a limited liability company treated as a corporation for federal income tax purposes shall:

(a) Compute the income tax due at the applicable tax rates as provided by KRS 141.020 or 141.040, on net income as defined by KRS 141.010(11) or taxable net income as defined by KRS 141.010(14), including income from an economic development project; and

(b) Compute the income tax due at the applicable tax rates as provided by KRS 141.020 or 141.040, on net income as defined by KRS 141.010(11) or taxable net income as defined by KRS 141.010(14), excluding net income attributable to an economic development project.

(c) The tax credit shall be the amount by which the tax computed under paragraph (a) of this subsection exceeds the tax computed under paragraph (b) of this subsection; however, the credit shall not exceed the limits set forth in KRS 154.22-050.

(4) (a) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this chapter, an approved company which is an S-corporation, partnership, registered limited liability partnership, limited liability company treated as a partnership for federal income tax purposes, or trust shall be subject to income tax on the net income attributable to an economic development project at the rates provided in KRS 141.020(2).

(b) The amount of the tax credit shall be the same as the amount of the tax computed in this subsection or, upon the annual election of the approved company, in lieu of the tax credit, an amount shall be applied as an estimated tax payment equal to the tax computed in this section. Any estimated tax payment made pursuant to this paragraph shall be in satisfaction of the tax liability of the shareholders, partners, members, or beneficiaries of the S-corporation, partnership, registered limited liability partnership, limited liability company, or trust, and shall be paid on behalf of the shareholders, partners, members, or beneficiaries.

(c) The tax credit or estimated payment shall not exceed the limits set forth in KRS 154.22-050.

(d) If the tax computed in this section exceeds the credit, the excess shall be paid by the S-corporation, partnership, registered limited liability partnership, limited liability company, or trust at the times provided by KRS 141.160 for filing the returns.

(e) Any estimated tax payment made by the S-corporation, partnership, registered limited liability partnership, limited liability company, or trust in satisfaction of the tax liability of shareholders, partners, members, or beneficiaries shall not be treated as taxable income subject to Kentucky income tax by the shareholder, partner, member, or beneficiary.

(5) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this chapter, the net income subject to tax, the tax credit, and the estimated tax payment determined under subsection (4) of this section shall be excluded in determining each shareholder's, partner's, member's, or beneficiaries' distributive share of net income or credit of an S-corporation, partnership, registered limited liability partnership, limited liability company, or trust.

(6) If the economic development project is a totally separate facility, net income attributable to the project for the purposes of subsections (3), (4), and (5) of this section shall be determined under the separate accounting method reflecting only the gross income, deductions, expenses, gains, and losses allowed under this chapter directly attributable to the facility and overhead expenses apportioned to the facility.

(7) If the economic development project is an expansion to a previously existing facility, net income attributable to the entire facility shall be determined under the separate accounting method reflecting only the gross income, deductions, expenses, gains, and losses allowed under this chapter directly attributable to the facility, and the net income attributable to the economic development project for the purposes of subsections (3), (4), and (5) of this section shall be determined by apportioning the separate accounting net income of the entire facility to the economic development project by a formula approved by the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~].

(8) If an approved company can show to the satisfaction of the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] that the nature of the operations and activities of the approved company are such that it is not practical to use the separate accounting method to determine the net income from the facility at which the economic development project is located, the approved company shall determine net income from the economic development project using an alternative method approved by the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~].

(9) The Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] may issue administrative regulations and require the filing of forms designed by the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] to reflect the intent of KRS 154.22-020 to 154.22-070 and the allowable income tax credit which an approved company may retain under KRS 154.22-020 to 154.22-070.

Section 499. KRS 141.370 is amended to read as follows:

The tax levied under KRS 141.020 and required to be withheld under KRS 141.310, unless determined by KRS 141.315, shall be withheld in accordance with the tables provided in regulations promulgated by the department[~~cabinet~~].

Section 500. KRS 141.380 is amended to read as follows:

(1) There shall be allowed as a credit against the taxes imposed by KRS 141.020 and 141.040 an amount equal to fifteen percent (15%) of the expenditures, including installation cost, but excluding any finance charges, for qualifying energy property installed on premises in Kentucky which are owned or controlled by the taxpayer. The maximum credit which may be claimed by any taxpayer shall be fifteen hundred dollars ($1,500) during the period specified in subsection (13) of this section. A system or component or piece of equipment shall not be eligible more than once for the credit provided in this section.

(2) The credit in this section may be claimed for the taxable year in which the installation is completed. The credit may be claimed only for expenditures made during the taxable year for which the credit is claimed or during the immediately preceding taxable year, but not for expenditures made before January 1, 1983.

(3) In the case of a husband and wife who file separate returns, the credit may be taken by either, or divided equally, but the combined credit shall not exceed fifteen hundred dollars ($1,500).

(4) In the case of a partnership, of which one (1) or more of the partners are liable for the tax imposed under KRS 141.020, the amount of the credit each partner may claim shall be allocated in the same ratio as profits and losses are shared in the partnership, but the combined credit shall not exceed fifteen hundred dollars ($1,500).

(5) A builder who installs qualifying energy property in a building constructed for resale may elect himself to claim the credit allowed in this section, or may provide the purchaser with necessary documentation or certification so that the purchaser may claim the credit. The credit shall not be claimed by both the builder and the purchaser.

(6) In the case where the credit allowed in this section exceeds the tax due for the taxable year, that portion of the credit which exceeds the tax due may be carried over to the succeeding taxable years until the allowable credit has been fully exhausted, or until the credit has been claimed for three (3) successive years, whichever comes first.

(7) This tax credit shall not apply to trusts or estates.

(8) Before any tax credit can be claimed under the provisions of this section, the Natural Resources and Environmental Protection Cabinet must certify that the taxpayer's system is a viable system for using solar, wind or geothermal energy and documentation must be provided that the system has been completely installed. Any fee charged by the Natural Resources and Environmental Protection Cabinet for review and certification of a system shall not exceed ten dollars ($10).

(9) The Natural Resources and Environmental Protection Cabinet may promulgate such rules and regulations as necessary to maintain commonly accepted energy equipment standards, to effectively conform to the definition of qualifying energy property in KRS 141.375 and to administer the certification requirements in this section. The regulations, including those describing the application procedure, shall be written in nontechnical language understandable to lay citizens untrained in engineering, architecture, or other technical fields.

(10) With the exception of the certification requirements delegated to the Natural Resources and Environmental Protection Cabinet by this section, the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] may promulgate such rules and regulations as necessary to effectively administer the requirements of KRS 141.375 and this section.

(11) All regulations necessary to implement KRS 141.375 and this section shall be filed with the Legislative Research Commission in accordance with KRS Chapter 13A by September 1, 1984.

(12) The Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] shall report as to the impact of KRS 141.375 and this section to the 1986 General Assembly and to the appropriate interim committee preceding the 1986 General Assembly. The report shall include the number and amount of the qualifying energy credits claimed, an estimate of the distribution by income group, the net revenue gain or loss to the Commonwealth attributable to the credits, and such other information as the Department of Revenue~~[Cabinet]~~ deems pertinent to an analysis of KRS 141.375 and this section.

(13) The provisions of KRS 141.375 and this section shall apply to the taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1984, and ending on or before December 31, 1986, and no credit shall be allowed for any taxable year ending after December 31, 1986.

(b) "Recycling equipment" means any machinery or apparatus used exclusively to process postconsumer waste material and manufacturing machinery used exclusively to produce finished products composed of substantial postconsumer waste materials; and

(c) "Composting equipment" means equipment used in a process by which biological decomposition of organic solid waste is carried out under controlled aerobic conditions, and which stabilizes the organic fraction into a material which can easily and safely be stored, handled, and used in a environmentally acceptable manner.

(2) A taxpayer who purchases recycling or composting equipment to be used exclusively within this state for recycling or composting postconsumer waste materials shall be entitled to a credit against the income taxes imposed pursuant to this chapter, in an amount equal to fifty percent (50%) of the installed cost of the recycling or composting equipment. The amount of credit claimed in the tax year during which the recycling equipment is purchased shall not exceed ten percent (10%) of the amount of the total credit allowable and shall not exceed twenty-five percent (25%) of the total of each tax liability which would be otherwise due.

(3) Application for a tax credit shall be made to the Department of Revenue~~[Cabinet]~~ on or before July 1 of the year following the calendar year in which the recycling or composting equipment is purchased. The application shall include a description of each item of recycling equipment purchased, the date of purchase and the installed cost of the recycling equipment, a statement of where the recycling equipment is to be used, and any other information as the Department of Revenue~~[Cabinet]~~ may require. The Department of Revenue~~[Cabinet]~~ shall review all applications received to determine whether expenditures for which credits are required meet the requirements of this section and shall advise the taxpayer of the amount of credit for which the taxpayer is eligible under this section.

(e) Any estimated tax payment made by the S-corporation, partnership, registered limited liability partnership, limited liability company, or trust in satisfaction of the tax liability of shareholders, partners, members, or beneficiaries shall not be treated as taxable income subject to Kentucky income tax by the shareholder, partner, member, or beneficiary.

(5) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this chapter, the net income subject to tax, the tax credit, and the estimated tax payment determined under subsection (4) of this section shall be excluded in determining each shareholder's, partner's, member's, or beneficiaries' distributive share of net income or credit of an S-corporation, partnership, registered limited liability partnership, limited liability company, or trust.

(6) If the economic development project is a totally separate facility, net income attributable to the project for the purposes of subsections (3), (4), and (5) of this section shall be determined under the separate accounting method reflecting only the gross income, deductions, expenses, gains, and losses allowed under this chapter directly attributable to the facility and overhead expenses apportioned to the facility.

(8) If an approved company can show to the satisfaction of the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] that the nature of the operations and activities of the approved company are such that it is not practical to use the separate accounting method to determine the net income from the facility at which the economic development project is located, the approved company shall determine net income from the economic development project using an alternative method approved by the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~].

(9) The Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] may issue administrative regulations and require the filing of forms designed by the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] to reflect the intent of KRS 154.22-020 to 154.22-070 and KRS 154.28-010 to 154.28-090 and this section and the allowable income tax credit which an approved company may retain under KRS 154.22-020 to 154.22-070 and KRS 154.28-010 to 154.28-090 and this section.

(5) In addition to the penalties herein prescribed, any taxpayer or employer, who willfully fails to make a return or willfully makes a false return, or who willfully fails to pay taxes owing or collected, with intent to evade payment of the tax or amount collected, or any part thereof, shall be guilty of a Class D felony.

(9) "Related party" means two (2) or more persons, organizations, or businesses owned or controlled directly or indirectly by the same interest. Control shall exist if a contract or lease, either written or oral, is entered into whereby one (1) party mines or processes coal owned or held by another party and the owner or lessor participates in the mining, processing, or marketing of the coal or receives any value other than an arm's length passive royalty interest. In the case of related parties, the department[~~cabinet~~] may apportion or allocate the receipts between or among the persons, organizations, or businesses if it determines that the apportionment or allocation is necessary in order to more clearly reflect gross value.

(10) "Economic interest" for the purposes of this chapter shall be synonymous with the economic interest ownership required by Internal Revenue Code Section 611 in effect on December 31, 1977, entitling the taxpayer to a depletion deduction for income tax purposes with the exception that a party who only receives an arm's length royalty shall not be considered as having an economic interest.

(11) "Transportation expense" shall mean:

  (a) The amount paid by a taxpayer to a third party for transporting coal from the mine mouth or pit to a processing plant, tipple, or loading dock.

  (b) The expense incurred by a taxpayer using his own facilities in transporting coal from the mine mouth or pit to a processing plant, tipple, or loading dock.

  (c) Transportation expenses shall not include:

    1. The cost of acquisition, improvements, and maintenance of real property;

    2. The cost of acquisition and operating expenses of mining and nonmining loading or unloading facilities;

    3. The cost of acquisition and operating expenses of equipment used to load or unload the coal at the mine, processing facility, and mining and nonmining loading facility.

(12) "Registered taxpayer" as used in subsection (6)(e) and (f) of this section shall mean a "taxpayer" as defined in subsection (5) of this section who holds a valid coal tax certificate of registration required under KRS 143.030(1) and the certificate of registration was valid for the period in which his coal was sold.

(13) "Above-drainage" means coal in a coal bed that outcrops at the surface within a mine permit area and that is accessed at the outcrop location.

(14) "Below-drainage" means coal in a coal bed that does not outcrop at the surface within a mine permit area and that is accessed by mine slopes or other openings that penetrate the coal a minimum of thirty (30) feet below the surface drainage level.

(15) "Mining ratio" means the amount of bank cubic yards of surface material that must be removed before a ton of coal can be mined.

Section 532. KRS 143.040 is amended to read as follows:

The Department of Revenue~~[Cabinet]~~ shall administer the provisions of this chapter and shall, subject to the provisions of KRS 143.090, have all the powers, rights, duties, and authority with respect to promulgation of rules and regulations, assessment, collection, refunding and administration of the taxes levied by this chapter conferred generally on it by the Kentucky Revised Statutes including Chapters 131, 134, and 135 of such statutes.

The amount so certified shall in no case exceed three million dollars ($3,000,000) in any one (1) year.

(3) Upon receiving the certifications provided for in subsections (1) and (2) of this section, the commissioner~~[secretary]~~ of the Department of Revenue~~[Cabinet]~~ shall cause the certified amounts to be deposited from the proceeds of the tax levied by KRS 143.020 to the credit of the transportation fund and the Kentucky Coal Council, respectively, unless otherwise provided by the General Assembly in a budget bill, as follows:

  (a) An amount equal to the amount certified by the Transportation Cabinet shall be deposited to the transportation fund (road fund); and

  (b) An amount equal to the amount certified by the Kentucky Coal Council shall be transferred by appropriate interfund transfer procedures to the Kentucky Coal Council.

(4) All tax levied by KRS 143.020 collected in excess of the amount required to be deposited to the transportation fund (road fund) or transferred to the Kentucky Coal Council shall be deposited by the Department of Revenue~~[Cabinet]~~ to the credit of the general fund.

(5) If the proceeds of the tax levied by KRS 143.020 are less than the amounts certified under subsections (1) and (2) of this section, the commissioner~~[secretary]~~ of revenue shall prorate the proceeds to the transportation fund and the Kentucky Coal Council based upon the ratio of each certified amount to the total of the two (2) certified amounts.

Section 534. KRS 143.025 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Taxpayers severing coal in Kentucky and partially or wholly processing the coal outside of Kentucky thereafter and taxpayers severing coal outside of Kentucky and partially or wholly processing the coal in Kentucky thereafter shall determine and report the gross value of the coal by application of the following formula:

(4) Any taxpayer determining taxable gross value as provided in this section shall submit supporting computations and classifications of cost with each coal tax return, unless the department[~~cabinet~~] authorizes the taxpayer to submit the supporting information on a basis other than monthly.

Notwithstanding any other provisions of this chapter to the contrary, where the department[~~cabinet~~] finds that it would facilitate and expedite the collection of the tax imposed by this chapter, the department[~~cabinet~~] may authorize the taxpayer processing the coal to report and pay the tax which would be due from the taxpayer severing the coal. Authorization from the department[~~cabinet~~] shall be in the form of an agreement executed by the taxpayer processing the coal, the taxpayer severing the coal and the department[~~cabinet~~]. The agreement shall be in such form as the department[~~cabinet~~] may prescribe. (2) A deduction for purchased coal shall not be allowed for purchases of coal originating from persons severing coal in this state who are not registered to report and pay the tax due under this chapter or for purchases of coal which cannot be traced to a person who severed the coal outside this state.

(2) The Commonwealth may bring an action for a restraining order, temporary or permanent injunction to restrain or enjoin the operation of a taxpayer's business until the bond is posted. Such action may be brought in the Franklin Circuit Court or in the Circuit Court having jurisdiction of the taxpayer.

Section 539. KRS 143.060 is amended to read as follows:

(1) As soon as practicable after each return is received, the department[~~cabinet~~] shall examine and audit it. If the amount of tax computed by the department[~~cabinet~~] is greater than the amount returned by the taxpayer, the excess shall be assessed within four (4) years from the date the return was filed, except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, and except that in the case of a failure to file a return or of a fraudulent return, the excess may be assessed at any time. A notice of such assessment shall be mailed to the taxpayer. The time herein provided may be extended by agreement between the taxpayer and the department[~~cabinet~~].

(1) "Department[~~Cabinet~~]" means the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~].

(2) "Natural resource" means all forms of minerals including but not limited to rock, stone, limestone, shale, gravel, sand, clay, natural gas, and natural gas liquids which are contained in or on the soils or waters of this state. For purposes of this chapter, "natural resource" does not include coal and oil which are taxed under KRS 143.020 and 137.120.

(3) "Severing" or "severed" means the physical removal of the natural resource from the earth or waters of this state by any means; however, "severing" or "severed" shall not include the removal of natural gas from underground storage facilities into which the natural gas has been mechanically injected following its initial removal from the earth.

(4) "Taxpayer" means and includes any individual, partnership, joint venture, association, corporation, receiver, trustee, guardian, executor, administrator, fiduciary, or representative of any kind engaged in the business of severing and/or processing natural resources in this state for sale or use. In instances where contracts, either oral or written, are entered into whereby persons, organizations or businesses are engaged in the business of severing and/or processing a natural resource but do not obtain title to or do not have an economic interest therein, the party who owns the natural resource or has an economic interest is the taxpayer.

(5) "Gross value" is synonymous with gross income from property as defined in section 613(c) of the Internal Revenue Code and regulations 1.613-3 and 1.613-4 in effect on December 31, 1977, with the exception that in all instances transportation expense, as defined in subsection (9) of this section incurred in transporting a natural resource shall not be considered as gross income from the property. Gross value is to be reported as follows:

(a) For natural resources severed and/or processed and sold during a reporting period, gross value is the amount received or receivable by the taxpayer.

(b) For natural resources severed and/or processed, but not sold during a reporting period, gross value shall be determined as follows:

1. If the natural resource is to be sold under the terms of an existing contract, the contract price shall be used in computing gross value.

2. If there is no existing contract, the fair market value for that grade and quality of the natural resource shall be used in computing gross value.

(c) In a transaction involving related parties, gross value shall not be less than the fair market value for natural resources of similar grade and quality.

(d) In the absence of a sale, gross value shall be the fair market value for natural resources of similar grade and quality.

(e) If severed natural resources are purchased for the purpose of processing and resale, the gross value is the amount received or receivable during the reporting period reduced by the amount paid or payable to the taxpayer actually severing the natural resource.

(f) If severed natural resources are purchased for the purpose of processing and consumption, the gross value is the fair market value of processed natural resources of similar grade and quality reduced by the amount paid or payable to the taxpayer actually severing the natural resource.

(g) In all instances, the gross value shall not be reduced by any taxes including the tax levied in KRS 143A.020, royalties, sales commissions, or any other expense.

(6) "Processing" includes but is not limited to breaking, crushing, cleaning, drying, sizing, or loading or unloading for any purpose. "Processing" shall not include the act of unloading or loading for shipment natural resources that have not been severed, cleaned, broken, crushed, dried, sized or otherwise treated in Kentucky.

(7) "Related parties" means two (2) or more persons, organizations or businesses owned or controlled directly or indirectly by the same interests.

(8) "Economic interest" for the purpose of this chapter is synonymous with the economic interest ownership required by Internal Revenue Code, Section 611 in effect on December 31, 1977, entitling the taxpayer to a depletion deduction for income tax purposes with the exception that a party who only receives an arm's length royalty shall not be considered as having an economic interest.

(9) (a) "Transportation expense" means:

1. The amount paid by a taxpayer to a third party for transporting natural resources; and

2. The expenses incurred by a taxpayer using his own facilities in transporting natural resources from the point of extraction to a processing plant, tipple, or loading dock.

(b) Transportation expenses shall not include:

1. The cost of acquisition, improvements, and maintenance of real property;

2. The cost of acquisition and operating expenses of mining and nonmining loading or unloading facilities; or

3. The cost of acquisition and operating expenses of equipment used to load or unload the natural resource at the point of extraction, processing facility, or mining and nonmining loading facility.

Section 542. KRS 143A.040 is amended to read as follows:

The Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] shall administer the provisions of this chapter and shall have all the powers, rights, duties and authority with respect to rules and regulations, collection, refunding and administration of the taxes levied by KRS 143A.020 conferred generally on it by the Kentucky Revised Statutes, including KRS Chapters 131, 134 and 135.

Section 543. KRS 143A.050 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Every taxpayer as defined in KRS 143A.010(4) shall, before June 1, 1980, or before engaging in the severing or processing of a natural resource subjected to tax under KRS 143A.020, obtain a certificate of registration by filing with the department[~~cabinet~~] an application in such form and containing such information as the department[~~cabinet~~] may prescribe. Every application shall be signed by the owner if a natural person; in the case of an association or partnership, by a member or partner; in the case of a corporation, by an executive officer or some person specifically authorized by the corporation to sign the application.

(2) Whenever any taxpayer fails to comply with any provisions of this section through KRS 143A.130 or any rule or regulation of the department[~~cabinet~~] relating thereto, the department[~~cabinet~~] may suspend or revoke the certificate of registration held by such taxpayer.

(3) The Commonwealth may bring an action for a restraining order or a temporary or permanent injunction to restrain or enjoin operation of a taxpayer's business being operated without a certificate of registration. Such action may be brought in the Franklin Circuit Court or in the Circuit Court having jurisdiction of the taxpayer.

Section 544. KRS 143A.060 is amended to read as follows:

Notwithstanding any other provisions of this chapter to the contrary:

(1) In the case of natural resources other than natural gas, where the department[~~cabinet~~] finds that it would facilitate and expedite the collection of the tax imposed under KRS 143A.020, the department[~~cabinet~~] may authorize the taxpayer processing the natural resource to report and pay the tax which would be due from the taxpayer severing the natural resource. Authorization from the department[~~cabinet~~] shall be in the form of an agreement executed by the taxpayer processing the natural resource, the taxpayer severing the natural resource, and the department[~~cabinet~~]. The agreement shall be in such form as the department[~~cabinet~~] may prescribe. The agreement must be signed by the owners if the taxpayers are natural persons; in the case of a partnership or association by a partner or member; in the case of a corporation, by an executive officer or some person specifically authorized by the corporation to sign the application. The director of legal services shall sign for the department[~~cabinet~~]. The agreement may be terminated by any party to the agreement upon giving thirty (30) days' written notice to the other parties to the agreement; however, the department[~~cabinet~~] may terminate the agreement immediately upon written notice to the other parties when either the taxpayer processing the natural resource or the taxpayer severing the natural resource fails to comply with the terms of the agreement; and

(2) (a) In the case of natural gas, except for those cases:

1. Where the person severing or severing and processing the natural gas will sell the gas to the ultimate consumer; or

2. Where the department[~~cabinet~~] determines that the collection of the taxes due under KRS 143A.020 would be accomplished in a more efficient and effective manner through the severor, or severor and processor, remitting the taxes, the first person to purchase the natural gas after it has been severed, or in the event that the natural gas has been severed and processed before the first sale, the first person to purchase the natural gas after it has been severed and processed, shall be liable for the collection of the tax imposed under KRS 143A.020. He shall collect the taxes imposed from the person severing, or severing and processing, the natural gas, and he shall remit the taxes to the department[~~cabinet~~]. In those cases where the person severing or severing and processing the natural gas sells the gas to the ultimate consumer, the person so severing or severing and processing the natural gas shall be liable for the tax imposed under KRS 143A.020. In those cases where the department[~~cabinet~~] determines that the collection of the taxes due under KRS 143A.020 from the severance or severance and processing of natural gas would be accomplished in a more efficient and effective manner through the severor, or severor and processor, remitting the taxes, the department[~~cabinet~~] shall set out its determination in writing, stating its reasons for so finding, and so advise the severor or severor and processor at least fifteen (15) days in advance of the first reporting period for which such action would be effective.

(b) On or before the last day of the month following each calendar month, each person first purchasing natural gas as described in paragraph (a) of this subsection, shall report purchases of natural gas during the month, showing the quantities of gas purchased, the price paid, the date of purchase, and any other information deemed necessary by the department[~~cabinet~~] for the administration of the tax levied by KRS 143A.020, and shall pay the amount of tax due, on forms prescribed by the department[~~cabinet~~].

(c) On or before the last day of the month following each calendar month, each person severing, or severing and processing natural gas, shall report the sales of natural gas, showing the name and address of the person to whom sold, the quantity of gas sold, the date of sale, and the sales price on forms prescribed by the department[~~cabinet~~].

Section 545. KRS 143A.070 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Whenever it is deemed necessary to insure compliance with KRS 143A.050 to 143A.130, the department[~~cabinet~~] may require any taxpayer to post a cash or corporate surety bond.

(2) The amount of the bond shall be fixed by the department[~~cabinet~~] but, except as provided in subsection (3) of this section, shall not be greater than three (3) times the average quarterly liability of taxpayers filing returns for quarterly periods, five (5) times the average monthly liability of taxpayers required to file returns for monthly periods, or two (2) times the average periodic liability of taxpayers permitted or required to file returns for other than monthly or quarterly periods.

(3) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (2) of this section, no bond required under this section shall be less than five hundred dollars ($500).

(4) The amount of the bond provided herein may be increased or decreased by the department[~~cabinet~~] at any time subject to the limitations herein provided.

(5) The Commonwealth may bring an action for a restraining order or a temporary or permanent injunction to restrain or enjoin the operation of a taxpayer's business until the bond is posted and any delinquent tax, including applicable interest and penalties, has been paid. Such action may be brought in the Franklin Circuit Court or in the Circuit Court having jurisdiction of the taxpayer.

Section 546. KRS 143A.080 is amended to read as follows:

(2) Returns shall be signed by the taxpayer required to file the return or by his duly authorized agent but need not be verified by oath.

(3) Returns required under this section shall contain such information as the department[~~cabinet~~] deems necessary for the proper administration of this chapter.

(4) The taxpayer required to file the return provided under this section shall deliver the return together with a remittance of the amount of the tax due to the department[~~cabinet~~].

(5) For purposes of facilitating the administration, payment, or collection of the taxes levied by KRS 143A.020, the department[~~cabinet~~] may permit or require returns or tax payments for periods other than monthly. When permitted, returns for other than monthly periods shall be filed and paid in such manner as the department[~~cabinet~~] may prescribe.

(6) No taxpayer shall change from the reporting system required under this section or permitted in writing by the department[~~cabinet~~], without the written authorization of the department[~~cabinet~~].

(7) A tax return is required for each reporting period even though there may be no tax due.

Section 547. KRS 143A.100 is amended to read as follows:

(1) As soon as practicable after each return is received, the department[~~cabinet~~] shall examine and audit it. If the amount of tax computed by the department[~~cabinet~~] is greater than the amount returned by the taxpayer, the excess shall be assessed by the department[~~cabinet~~] within four (4) years from the date the return was filed, except as provided in subsection (4) of this section and except that in the case of a failure to file a return or of a fraudulent return the excess may be assessed at any time. A notice of such assessment shall be mailed to the taxpayer. The time herein provided may be extended by agreement between the taxpayer and the department[~~cabinet~~].

(2) For the purpose of subsections (1) and (4) of this section, a return filed before the last day prescribed by law for the filing thereof shall be considered as filed on such last day.

(3) When a business is discontinued, a determination may be made at any time thereafter within the periods specified in subsection (1) of this section as to liability arising out of that business, irrespective of whether the determination is issued prior to the due date of the liability as otherwise specified in KRS 143A.080.

(4) Notwithstanding the four (4) year time limitation of subsection (1) of this section, in the case of a return where the tax computed by the department[~~cabinet~~] is greater by twenty-five percent (25%) or more than the amount returned by the taxpayer, the excess shall be assessed by the department[~~cabinet~~] within six (6) years from the date the return was filed.

Section 548. KRS 143A.120 is amended to read as follows:

In making a determination of tax liability the department[~~cabinet~~] may offset overpayments for a period or periods, together with interest on the overpayments, against underpayments for another period or periods, against penalties, and against the interest on the underpayments.

Section 549. KRS 143A.130 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Every taxpayer liable for the reporting or payment of the taxes levied by KRS 143A.020 shall keep such records, receipts, invoices, and other pertinent papers in such form as the department[~~cabinet~~] may require.

(2) Every such taxpayer shall keep such records for not less than four (4) years from the making of such records unless the department[~~cabinet~~] in writing sooner authorizes their destruction.

Section 550. KRS 143A.140 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The taxes paid pursuant to the provisions of this chapter shall be refunded or credited in the manner provided in KRS 134.580.

It includes exclusive space leased or owned by the certificated air carrier, common access areas, concession areas, aircraft ramps, taxiways, roadways, and vehicles which are part of an intra-airport train, subway, or automated fixed guideway transit system, but excludes any other ground vehicles and aircraft.

(2) "Investment" means all costs which, consistent with the fundamental project scope, the certificated air carrier, airport operator, or any bond trustee pays, commits to pay, or incurs in any manner for the purchase or acquisition of additional air transportation facilities for which construction was started after the base period, and related equipment which was not located at an airport in this Commonwealth prior to the base period. Included are costs directly related to the design, construction, purchase, acquisition, lease, use, or financing of part or all of the additional air transportation facilities and related equipment whether owned, leased, or used by the carrier or its customers. Financing costs shall be limited to the principal amount of bonds or other obligations, capitalized interest, and any related issuance costs and expenses. The total investment shall not be offset or otherwise reduced if the certificated air carrier or airport operator is or subsequently becomes eligible for any reimbursement from either federal funds or other funds which may be available, including funds generated directly or indirectly from passenger facility charges. Likewise, any subsequent adjustment to the total investment provided in a carrier's contractual obligation shall not adversely affect the amount of the investment if the fundamental project scope is not reduced.

(3) "Annual period" means the certificated air carrier's taxable year as provided in KRS 141.140.

(5) "Contractually obligated" or "contractual obligation" means having entered into a written agreement or commitment to make an investment in air transportation facilities and related equipment in this state.

(6) "Gross Kentucky real wage base" means the wages subject to Kentucky income tax and Kentucky income tax withholding pursuant to KRS Chapter 141, paid by a certificated air carrier during the base period adjusted to reflect changes in the United States Department of Labor's "Employment Cost Index - Wages and Salaries" for the transportation industry or, at the option of the carrier and upon verification by the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~], the carrier's actual general wage increases, through the end of the annual period for which tax credit is claimed pursuant to KRS 144.125.

(7) "Nonqualifying employees" means employees of the certificated air carrier whose employment with the carrier began after the base period; and

(a) The employees perform essentially the same functions which, by contract or otherwise, were performed in this Commonwealth for the carrier by another company at any time after the base period; or

(b) Their employment continued in this Commonwealth as the result of the carrier's purchase, merger, or other acquisition of or combination with another company.

(8) "Fundamental project scope" means the total project consisting of the additional air transportation facilities and related equipment as reflected in the carrier's application filed pursuant to KRS 144.130. It shall be measured by the carrier's increased capacity. Measures of increased capacity may include such factors as square footage, cost, employment, passenger or freight loadings or handling capabilities, number of aircraft departures, and other factors related to the increased investment.

Section 552. KRS 144.120 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Subject to the provisions of subsections (4), (5), and (6) of this section and KRS 144.130, any certificated air carrier which is engaged in the air transportation of persons or property for hire shall be entitled to a Kentucky sales and use tax credit, as computed in subsection (3) of this section, on aircraft fuel, including jet fuel, purchased after June 30, 1991, for any annual period in which the carrier meets or exceeds the investment or fuel purchase qualification requirements prescribed in subsection (2) of this section.

(2) To qualify for the sales and use tax credit provided in subsection (1) of this section, the certificated air carrier shall:

(a) Prior to or during the annual period for which the credit is claimed, have made, caused to be made, or obtained contractual obligations to make, consistent with the fundamental project scope, an investment in the aggregate of at least three hundred million dollars ($300,000,000) in new and expanded air transportation facilities and related equipment in this Commonwealth; or

(b) During the annual period for which the credit is claimed, purchase and place into the fuel supply tank of its aircraft in this state not less than one hundred million (100,000,000) gallons of aircraft fuel, including jet fuel, for the carrier's direct operation of the aircraft in interstate or foreign commerce exclusively for the conveyance of property or passengers for hire. Nominal use of the aircraft fuel in intrastate commerce shall not affect this provision.

(3) The sales and use tax credit shall be an amount equal to the Kentucky sales and use tax otherwise applicable to aircraft fuel, including jet fuel, purchased by the certificated air carrier for its storage, use, or other consumption during the annual period, less four million dollars ($4,000,000). The four million dollar ($4,000,000) amount shall be increased to reflect the Kentucky sales and use tax on aviation fuel attributable to operations of any other company purchased, merged, acquired, or otherwise combined with the certificated air carrier after the base period. The amount of the increase shall be based on the Kentucky sales and use tax applicable to such aircraft fuel purchased during the twelve (12) month period immediately preceding the purchase, merger, or other acquisition by or combination with the certificated air carrier.

(4) To facilitate administration of the tax credit provided pursuant to this section, each qualifying certificated air carrier purchasing aircraft fuel, including jet fuel, on which the Kentucky sales and use tax for the annual period is reasonably expected to exceed the amount provided in subsection (3) of this section shall report and pay directly to the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] the tax applicable to aircraft fuel, including jet fuel, purchased for its storage, use, or other consumption during the annual period, less the credit provided herein.

(5) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1) of this section, no certificated air carrier shall be entitled to any tax credit pursuant to this section unless the carrier meets the requirements of subsection (2) of this section by the annual period ending in 1997.

(6) Each certificated air carrier claiming the sales and use tax credit authorized pursuant to this section shall file an annual sales and use tax reconciliation report with the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] on or before the fifteenth day of the fourth month following the end of each annual period for which the credit is claimed. The report shall be filed as provided in KRS 144.137.

Section 553. KRS 144.125 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Subject to the provisions of subsections (4) through (9) of this section and KRS 144.130, any certificated air carrier which is engaged in the air transportation of persons or property for hire shall be entitled to a general tax credit, as computed in subsection (3) of this section, for any annual period in which the certificated air carrier meets or exceeds the investment and gross wage qualification requirements prescribed in subsection (2) of this section and has elected to begin claiming the credit.

(2) To qualify for the general tax credit provided in subsection (1) of this section, the certificated air carrier shall:

(a) Prior to or during the annual period for which the credit is claimed, have made, caused to be made, or obtained contractual obligations to make, consistent with the fundamental project scope, an investment in the aggregate of at least three hundred million dollars ($300,000,000) in new and expanded air transportation facilities and related equipment in this Commonwealth; and

(b) During the annual period for which the credit is claimed, have gross wages subject to Kentucky income tax and Kentucky income tax withholding pursuant to KRS Chapter 141 which are at least fifteen million dollars ($15,000,000) greater than its gross Kentucky real wage base. In calculating the gross wages paid for the annual period for which the credit is claimed, there shall not be included the wages of any nonqualifying employees of the certificated air carrier.

(3) The general tax credit shall be an amount equal to ten percent (10%) of the increase in gross wages subject to Kentucky income tax and Kentucky income tax withholding paid by the certificated air carrier during the annual period as compared to the carrier's gross Kentucky real wage base. In calculating the gross wages paid for the annual period for which the credit is claimed, there shall not be included the wages of any nonqualifying employees of the certificated air carrier.

(4) The general tax credit may accrue for only five (5) consecutive annual periods of the qualifying certificated air carrier. The five (5) year limitation period shall begin at the election of the qualifying certificated air carrier, but not later than the carrier's annual period beginning in 1997. The tax credit shall accrue to the carrier only for the annual periods during which the carrier meets or exceeds the requirements as provided in subsection (2) of this section.

(5) The general tax credit authorized to a qualifying certificated air carrier shall not exceed three million dollars ($3,000,000) for any annual period.

(6) The general tax credit authorized to a qualifying certificated air carrier shall not exceed a total of fifteen million dollars ($15,000,000).

(7) The general tax credit authorized shall be claimed by the qualifying certificated air carrier first against its Kentucky corporation income tax liability, then against its Kentucky corporation license tax liability, with any remaining balance to be claimed against its Kentucky sales and use tax liability. The credit shall not be applied to any other liability due the Commonwealth. The Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] may prescribe the method or manner for the qualifying certificated air carrier to claim the tax credit on applicable tax returns filed with the department[~~cabinet~~].

(8) If the tax liabilities against which the tax credit is to be claimed pursuant to subsection (7) of this section are not sufficient to fully absorb the allowable tax credit, or if a net operating loss carryback or other subsequent adjustment reduces the carrier's liability against which a credit authorized by this section has previously been claimed, the unused or excess balance of the allowable credit may be applied against the carrier's liabilities for the specified taxes for previous or subsequent annual periods within the five (5) year limitation period. However, no refund in excess of the net tax actually paid by the carrier shall be made by the Commonwealth because of the carrier's application of the unused or excess credit. Interest shall not apply to any tax refunded for a prior period resulting from the credit carryback provisions of this subsection.

(9) Each certificated air carrier claiming the general tax credit authorized pursuant to this section shall file an annual general tax credit reconciliation report with the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] on or before the fifteenth day of the fourth month following the end of each annual period for which the credit is claimed. The report shall be filed as provided in KRS 144.135 to 144.139 for each type tax against which the credit is applied.

Section 554. KRS 144.130 is amended to read as follows:

(1) No certificated air carrier shall claim any tax credit pursuant to KRS 144.110 to 144.130 until its entitlement thereto is first determined by the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~]. Upon application to the department[~~cabinet~~], a certificated air carrier desiring to claim a tax credit pursuant to KRS 144.110 to 144.130 shall present documentation as may reasonably be required by the department[~~cabinet~~] to define the fundamental project scope and verify the required investment, the increased capacity which is to result from the investment, and the anticipated project completion date. Documentation may include the carrier's contractual obligations, its corporation board resolutions or stockholder reports, airport board resolutions or actions, related financial transactions, and any other documentation which defines or describes the fundamental project scope and the carrier's planned investment and increased capacity. The commissioner of the Department of Revenue[~~secretary of the Revenue Cabinet~~] shall, upon the department's[~~cabinet's~~] review of the documentation submitted by the carrier, make a tax credit entitlement determination and immediately give notice thereof to the carrier. In making an entitlement determination, the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] shall seek whatever third-party counsel and advice deemed appropriate to satisfy itself that the fundamental project scope is sufficient to support at least a three hundred million dollar ($300,000,000) investment in additional air transportation facilities and related equipment. An entitlement granted by the commissioner of the Department of Revenue[~~secretary of the Revenue Cabinet~~] for a certificated air carrier to claim any tax credit pursuant to KRS 144.110 to 144.139 shall be subject to the provisions of subsection (2) of this section.

(2) Any certificated air carrier which is granted entitlement to claim any tax credit pursuant to KRS 144.110 to 144.130 shall, by the anticipated project completion date specified in the carrier's application filed pursuant to subsection (1) of this section, but not later than the carrier's annual period ending in 1997, demonstrate to the satisfaction of the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] that an investment of at least three hundred million dollars ($300,000,000) has been made or that the carrier has completed at least ninety percent (90%) of the fundamental project scope. An investment of three hundred million dollars ($300,000,000) or the completion of at least ninety percent (90%) of the fundamental project scope shall constitute fulfillment of the investment requirement. Without precluding the carrier's demonstration by other means, completion of ninety percent (90%) of the projected increased passenger or freight handling or loading capacity, as measured by the number of gates or loading facilities, or completion of at least ninety percent (90%) of the total square footage of the buildings, including the fixtures and equipment therefor, which were to be constructed and equipped as a part of the fundamental project scope shall demonstrate completion of at least ninety percent (90%) of the fundamental project scope. If the carrier has not made an investment of at least three hundred million dollars ($300,000,000) and has not completed at least ninety percent (90%) of the fundamental project scope by the anticipated project completion date, but not later than the carrier's annual period ending in 1997, all or a portion of the tax credit otherwise authorized pursuant to KRS 144.110 to 144.130 shall be forfeited as follows:

Fundamental Project Scope Completion Percentage	Portion of Credit Forfeited
At least 80%, but less than 90%	25%
At least 70%, but less than 80%	50%
Less than 70%	100%

(3) The Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] shall be responsible for determining the extent of the certificated air carrier's completion of the fundamental project scope. In making the determination, the department[~~cabinet~~] shall consult with the certificated air carrier, the affected airport board and, if deemed necessary, with other persons.

(4) Subject to the provisions of KRS 131.110, notwithstanding the provisions of KRS 136.076, 139.620, 141.210, 413.120, or any other provision of the Kentucky Revised Statutes limiting the time for assessing taxes, the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] shall assess against the carrier the amount of any tax credit previously claimed which is forfeited pursuant to subsection (2) of this section. Interest at the tax interest rate as defined in KRS 131.010(6) shall apply to the forfeited tax credit amount from the date the credit was claimed until reimbursement is made to the Commonwealth. The carrier shall be allowed to claim in any applicable subsequent annual periods only that portion of the credit otherwise authorized pursuant to KRS 144.110 to 144.130 which has not been forfeited as provided in this section.

(5) The dates set forth in subsection (2) of this section may be extended by the commissioner of the Department of Revenue[~~secretary of the Revenue Cabinet~~], upon request by the carrier, by an amount of time equal to any delay caused by circumstances reasonably beyond the carrier's control which prevent the carrier from completing the project by the anticipated project completion date, including construction delays and delays resulting from the carrier's compliance with applicable federal, state, or local laws, rules and regulations, or an order or judgment of a court or administrative agency. They may also be extended by the commissioner of the Department of Revenue[~~secretary of the Revenue Cabinet~~] upon the carrier's showing of any other good cause. The Governor and the Legislative Research Commission shall be immediately notified of any extension granted pursuant to this subsection and the reason for granting the same.

(6) Upon the making of an initial tax credit entitlement determination pursuant to subsection (1) of this section, the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] shall immediately give written notification to the Governor and the Legislative Research Commission and shall include a description of the fundamental project scope and a summary of the estimated costs. Upon making a final determination as provided in subsections (2) and (3) of this section, the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] shall immediately give written notification to the Governor and the Legislative Research Commission of the extent to which the fundamental project scope was completed. Such notification shall include a summary of the total costs expended for the completed project and a description of any changes to or deviations from the fundamental project scope.

(1) Subject to the provisions of subsection (2) of this section, any certificated air carrier which is engaged in the air transportation of persons or property for hire shall be entitled to a credit against the Kentucky sales and use tax paid on aircraft fuel, including jet fuel, purchased after June 30, 2000, as determined under subsection (2) of this section.

(2) For fiscal years beginning after June 30, 2000, certificated air carriers shall pay the first one million dollars ($1,000,000) in Kentucky sales and use tax due that is applicable to the purchase of aircraft fuel, including jet fuel. The sales and use tax credit shall be an amount equal to the Kentucky sales and use tax otherwise applicable to the purchase of aircraft fuel, including jet fuel, purchased by the certificated air carrier during each fiscal year beginning after June 30, 2000, in excess of one million dollars ($1,000,000).

(3) Each certificated air carrier purchasing aircraft fuel, including jet fuel, on which Kentucky sales and use tax for the fiscal year is reasonably expected to exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000) shall report and pay directly to the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] the tax applicable to the purchase of aircraft fuel, including jet fuel, purchased for storage use or other consumption during the fiscal year.

(4) Each certificated air carrier claiming the sales and use tax credit authorized pursuant to this section shall file an annual sales and use tax reconciliation report with the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] on or before October 15 of the fiscal year following the fiscal year for which the credit is claimed. The report shall be filed as provided in KRS 144.137.

Section 556. KRS 144.135 is amended to read as follows:

The general tax credit reconciliation report required to be filed by qualifying certificated air carriers pursuant to KRS 144.125 shall be submitted to the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] in a form and contain information and documentation as the department[~~cabinet~~] may reasonably require to verify the carrier's computation of the tax credit and the use of the credit against the tax levied by KRS 136.070.

Section 557. KRS 144.137 is amended to read as follows:

The sales and use tax aviation fuel tax credit reconciliation report and the general tax credit reconciliation report required to be filed by qualifying certificated air carriers pursuant to KRS 144.120, 144.125, and 144.132 shall be submitted to the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] in a form and contain information and documentation as the department[~~cabinet~~] may reasonably require to verify the carrier's computation of the applicable tax credit and the use of the credit against the taxes levied by KRS Chapter 139.

Section 558. KRS 144.139 is amended to read as follows:

The general tax credit reconciliation report required to be filed by qualifying certificated air carriers pursuant to KRS 144.125 shall be submitted to the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] in a form and contain information and documentation as the department[~~cabinet~~] may reasonably require to verify the carrier's computation of the tax credit and the use of the credit against the tax levied by KRS 141.040.

Section 559. KRS 147A.025 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Except as provided in subsection (7) of this section, the Department for Local Government with the advice and approval of the state local finance officer annually shall conduct a program to instruct county clerks, sheriffs, jailers, and county treasurers respecting their duties and responsibilities in the collection and expenditure of public moneys, subject to their control and jurisdiction.

(2) The department with the advice and approval of the state local finance officer shall establish the content and publish instructional materials essential to implementing this program. Subsequent to every regular and extraordinary session of the General Assembly, the department with the state local finance officer shall review and revise, if necessary, the program when it is found not to be consistent with state law.

(3) The department may assess a charge to any person requesting copies of instructional materials published as provided by this section to cover actual costs of printing and handling these materials, except that no county official shall be charged for instructional materials provided for his use. Funds accruing from the sale of instructional materials shall be paid into the State Treasury, and the State Treasurer shall pay these funds into an account of the department to defray the costs of printing and handling these materials.

(4) The commissioner of the department with the advice and approval of the state local finance officer may prescribe completion standards for this program, and may, subject to subsection (6) of this section, establish the number, type and sequence of instructional sessions to be conducted by the department; but the commissioner of the department shall not require the attendance of any county official, nor shall he prescribe any requirement or standard that restricts or impairs a county official or elected candidate in the lawful pursuit or conduct of the office to which he is elected.

(5) The department shall notify in advance each county clerk, sheriff, jailer, and county treasurer respecting instructional session pertinent to his office. Notification shall be by mail, and it shall be posted no later than twenty-one (21) days prior to the instructional session. At a minimum, the notice shall give the date, time, place and title of the instruction session.

(6) The department shall conduct this program by providing a one (1) day session at various locations throughout this state in order to minimize the travel expenses of those officials attending, provided that the aggregate number of all sessions shall not exceed five (5) during any calendar year. Except as provided in subsection (7) of this section, the department may commence instruction anytime during a calendar year.

(7) The department shall not conduct a program as provided by this section during any calendar year when a general election is held for every constitutional county office. The department, however, shall commence instruction for the succeeding year within eighty (80) days following said general election.

(8) Every county official who attends an instructional session shall be paid his actual and necessary expenses in attending from the operating funds of his office.

(9) In fulfilling the requirements of this section, the department shall confer with and coordinate its duties and responsibilities with the Finance and Administration Cabinet[~~, the Revenue Cabinet~~] and the Auditor of Public Accounts. The department shall also confer with those state universities whose mission statements mandate their participation in the training of public officials, the state associations for those officials listed in subsection (1) of this section, and the Kentucky Association of Counties, respecting the implementation of this section.

Section 560. KRS 147B.100 is amended to read as follows:

(1) There is recognized as established the Governor's Financial Policy Council. The purpose of the council shall be to advise the Governor on economic and financial matters relating to revenue, budgetary, and financial management policies.

(2) The council shall consist of the secretary of Finance and Administration Cabinet, [~~the secretary of the Revenue Cabinet,~~] the state budget director, and four (4) at-large members, appointed by the Governor, who shall be persons that are knowledgeable by reason of their experience and academic training, in the fields of business, financial management or public policy. The Governor shall designate one (1) of the four (4) at-large members to serve as chairman of the council.

(3) The terms of the at-large members shall coincide with the elected term of the Governor who appointed them. Vacancies in the at-large membership of the council shall be filled by appointment by the Governor for the unexpired portion of the vacated member's term.

(4) The council shall meet at least annually and shall hold other meetings deemed necessary by a majority of the membership or when requested by the Governor.

(5) The members of the Governor's council shall serve without compensation for their services but shall be reimbursed, subject to the provisions of KRS 45.101 and state travel regulations, for all actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of their duties as members of the council.

Section 561. KRS 148.855 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The secretary of the Tourism Development Cabinet shall establish standards for the making of applications for inducements and the recommendation to the authority of eligible companies and their tourism attraction projects by the promulgation of administrative regulations in accordance with KRS Chapter 13A.

(2) The secretary of the Tourism Development Cabinet shall consult with the authority when establishing standards to ensure that standards established pursuant to subsection (1) of this section and KRS 148.857(1) do not conflict.

(3) With respect to each eligible company making an application to the secretary of the Tourism Development Cabinet for inducements, and with respect to the tourism attraction project described in the application, the secretary of the Tourism Development Cabinet shall make inquiries and request materials of the applicant that shall include, but not be limited to, marketing plans for the project that target individuals who are not residents of the Commonwealth; a description and location of the project; capital and other anticipated expenditures for the project that indicate that the total cost of the project shall exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), except for a theme restaurant destination attraction's project cost, which shall exceed five million dollars ($5,000,000), and the anticipated sources of funding therefor; the anticipated employment and wages to be paid at the project; business plans which indicate the average number of days in a year in which the project will be in operation and open to the public; and the anticipated revenues and expenses generated by the project. If the tourism attraction project is an entertainment destination center, the sales tax refund shall be dedicated to a public infrastructure purpose that shall relate to the tourism attraction project and shall be approved by the secretary of the Tourism Development Cabinet. The applicant shall submit the public infrastructure purpose with its application. Based upon a review of these materials, if the secretary of the Tourism Development Cabinet determines that the eligible company and the tourism attraction project may reasonably satisfy the criteria for final approval in subsection (4) of this section, then the secretary of the Tourism Development Cabinet may submit a written request to the authority requesting that the authority consider a preliminary approval of the eligible company and the tourism attraction project.

(4) After receiving a preliminary approval by the authority, the secretary of the Tourism Development Cabinet shall engage the services of a competent consulting firm to analyze the data made available by the eligible company and to collect and analyze additional information necessary to determine that, in the independent judgment of the consultant, the tourism attraction project:

(a) Shall attract at least twenty-five percent (25%) of its visitors from among persons who are not residents of the Commonwealth, except for a theme restaurant destination attraction, which shall attract a minimum of fifty percent

(50%) of its visitors from among persons who are not residents of the Commonwealth;

(b) Shall have costs in excess of one million dollars ($1,000,000), except for a theme restaurant destination attraction, which shall have costs in excess of five million dollars ($5,000,000);

(c) Shall have a significant and positive economic impact on the Commonwealth considering, among other factors, the extent to which the tourism attraction project will compete directly with existing tourism attractions in the Commonwealth and the amount by which increased tax revenues from the tourism attraction project will exceed the credit given to the approved company;

(d) Shall produce sufficient revenues and public demand to be operating and open to the public for a minimum of one hundred (100) days per year, except for a theme restaurant destination attraction, which shall be operating and open to the public for a minimum of three hundred (300) days per year; and

(e) Shall not adversely affect existing employment in the Commonwealth.

(5) The independent consulting firm shall consult with the authority, the Office of the State Budget Director and~~[,]~~ the Finance and Administration Cabinet~~[, and the Revenue Cabinet]~~ in the development of a report on the proposed tourism attraction project. The Office of the State Budget Director and~~[,]~~ the Finance and Administration Cabinet~~[, and the Revenue Cabinet]~~ shall agree as to the methodology to be used and assumptions to be made by the independent consultant in preparing its report. On the basis of the independent consultant's report and prior to any approval of a project by the authority, the Office of the State Budget Director and~~[,]~~ the Finance and Administration Cabinet~~[, and the Revenue Cabinet]~~ shall certify to the authority whether there is a projected net positive economic impact to the Commonwealth and the expected amount of incremental state revenues from the project. Approval shall not be granted if it is determined that there is no projected net positive economic impact to the Commonwealth.

(6) The eligible company shall pay for the cost of the consultant's report and shall cooperate with the consultant and provide all of the data that the consultant deems necessary to make its determination under subsection (4) of this section.

(7) After a review of relevant materials, the consultant's report, and completion of other inquiries, the secretary of the Tourism Development Cabinet shall, by written notification to the authority, provide a recommendation to the authority regarding final approval of the tourism attraction project.

Section 562. KRS 148.859 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The authority, upon adoption of its final approval, may enter into with any approved company an agreement with respect to its tourism attraction project. The terms and provisions of each agreement shall include, but not be limited to:

(a) The amount of approved costs, which shall be determined by negotiations between the authority and the approved company. Any increase in approved costs incurred by the approved company and agreed to by the authority shall apply retroactively for purposes of calculating the carry forward for unused inducements as set forth in KRS 139.536(3) for tax years commencing on or after July 1, 2004;

(b) A date certain by which the approved company shall have completed the tourism attraction project. Upon request from any approved company that has received final approval prior to or after July 15, 2000, the authority shall grant an extension or change, which in no event shall exceed three (3) years from the date of final approval, to the completion date as specified in the agreement of an approved company. Within three (3) months of the completion date, the approved company shall document the actual cost of the project through a certification of the costs to be provided by an independent certified public accountant acceptable to the authority;

(c) The following provisions:

1. The term shall be ten (10) years from the later of:

a. The date of the final approval of the project; or

b. The original completion date specified in the agreement, if this completion date is within three (3) years of the date of the final approval of the project. An extension of the original completion date shall not alter the commencement date of the term;

2. Within forty-five (45) days after the end of each fiscal year of the approved company, during the term of the agreement, the approved company shall supply the authority with such reports and certifications as the authority may request demonstrating to the satisfaction of the authority that the approved company is in compliance with the provisions of KRS 139.536 and KRS 148.851 to 148.860. Based upon a review of these materials and other documents that may be made available, the authority shall then certify to the Department of Revenue~~[Cabinet]~~ that the approved company is in compliance with this section; and

3. The approved company shall not receive a sales tax refund as prescribed by KRS 139.536 with respect to any fiscal year if:

a. In any year following the fourth year of the agreement, the tourism attraction project fails to attract at least twenty-five percent (25%) of its visitors from among persons who are not residents of the Commonwealth, except for a theme restaurant destination attraction, which shall attract a minimum of fifty percent (50%) of its visitors from among persons who are not residents of the Commonwealth; or

b. In any year following the first year of the agreement, the tourism attraction project is not operating and open to the public for at least one hundred (100) days; and

(d) Upon request from an approved company that has completed at least fifty percent (50%) of an entertainment destination center, the authority shall grant an extension of up to three (3) years to the completion date specified in the agreement of the approved company, in addition to the extension provided for in paragraph (b) of this subsection. In no event shall the completion date be more than six (6) years from the date of final approval. The extension provided for in this paragraph shall be subject to the following conditions:

1. The approved company shall have spent or have contractually obligated to spend an amount equal to or greater than the amount of approved costs set forth in the initial agreement;

2. The term of the agreement shall not be extended; and

3. The scope of the entertainment destination center, as set forth in the initial agreement, shall not be altered to include new or additional entertainment and leisure options.

(2) The agreement shall not be transferable or assignable by the approved company without the written consent of the authority.

(3) In consideration of the execution of the agreement as defined in KRS 148.851 and notwithstanding any provision of KRS 139.770 to the contrary, the approved company as defined in KRS 148.851 excluding its lessees, may be granted a sales tax refund under KRS 139.536 from the Kentucky sales tax imposed by KRS 139.200 on the sales generated by or arising at the tourism attraction project as defined in KRS 148.851.

Section 563. KRS 149.570 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The tax incentive agreement shall set forth the maximum amount of inducements available to the approved company for recovery of the approved costs authorized by the authority and expended by the approved company.

(2) The approved company shall expend the authorized approved costs for the economic development project within three (3) years of the date of the final approval by the authority.

(3) The approved company shall provide the authority with documentation as to the expenditures for approved costs in a manner acceptable to the authority.

(4) The term of the tax incentive agreement shall commence upon the activation date and will terminate upon the earlier of the full receipt of the maximum amount of inducements by the approved company or fifteen (15) years after the activation date.

(5) The tax incentive agreement shall include the activation date. To implement the activation date, the approved company shall notify the authority, the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~], and the approved company's employees of the activation date when the implementation of the inducements authorized in the tax incentive agreement shall occur. If the approved company does not satisfy the minimum investment and minimum employment requirements of KRS 154.22-040(3) by the activation date, the approved company shall not be entitled to receive inducements pursuant to this subchapter until the approved company satisfies the requirements; however, the fifteen (15) year period for the term of the tax incentive agreement shall begin from the activation date. Notwithstanding the previous sentence, if the approved company does not satisfy the minimum investment and minimum employment requirements of KRS 154.22-040(3) within two (2) years from the date of final approval of the tax incentive agreement, then the approved company shall be ineligible to receive inducements under this subchapter unless an extension is approved by the authority.

(6) The tax agreement shall also state that if the total number of new full-time employees at the site of the economic development project who are residents of the Commonwealth and subject to the Kentucky income tax is less than fifteen (15) at any time after activation, the authorized inducements shall be suspended for a period of up to one (1) year. If the company does not have at least fifteen (15) new full-time employees at the site who are residents of the Commonwealth and subject to Kentucky income tax within one (1) year from the date of the initial suspension, the inducements may be terminated at the discretion of the authority.

(7) The approved company shall comply with the hourly wage criteria set forth in KRS 154.22-040(4) and provide documentation in connection with hourly wages paid to its full-time employees hired as a result of the economic development project in a manner acceptable to the authority.

(8) The approved company may be permitted the following inducements during the term of the tax incentive agreement:

(b) The aggregate assessments withheld by the approved company in each year.

(9) The income tax credited to the approved company shall be credited for the fiscal year for which the tax return of the approved company is filed. The total inducements may not exceed authorized cumulative approved costs paid by the approved company in the period commencing with the date of final approval.

(10) The approved company shall not be required to pay estimated income tax payments as prescribed in KRS 141.042 on the Kentucky taxable income generated by or arising from the economic development project.

(11) The tax incentive agreement may be assigned by the approved company only upon the prior written consent of the authority following the adoption of a resolution by the authority to that effect.

(12) The tax incentive agreement shall provide that if an approved company fails to comply with its obligations under the tax incentive agreement then the authority shall have the right, at its option, to:

(a) Suspend the income tax credits and assessments available to the approved company;

(b) Pursue any remedy provided under the tax incentive agreement, including termination thereof; and

(c) Pursue any other remedy at law to which it may be entitled.

(13) All remedies provided in subsection (12) of this section shall be deemed to be cumulative.

(2) By October 1 of each year, the Department of Revenue[~~Cabinet~~] of the Commonwealth shall certify to the authority in the form of an annual report, aggregate income tax credits claimed on tax returns filed during the fiscal year ending June 30 of that year, and assessments taken by approved companies with respect to their economic development projects during the prior calendar year under this subchapter, and shall certify to the authority, within ninety (90) days from the date an approved company has filed its state income tax return, when an approved company has taken income tax credits equal to its total inducements.

(1) Before any approved company engaged in service or technology activity is granted inducements under KRS 154.23-005 to 154.23-079, a service and technology agreement with respect to the approved company's economic development project shall be entered into between the authority and the approved company. The terms and provisions of the service and technology agreement, including the amount of approved costs, shall be determined by negotiations between the authority and the approved company, subject to inclusion of the following mandatory provisions:

(a) The term of the service and technology agreement shall commence upon the activation date and shall terminate upon the earlier of the full receipt of the maximum amount of inducements by the approved company or ten (10) years after the activation date.

(b) The service and technology agreement shall include the activation date, which shall be a date selected by the approved company within two (2) years of the date of final approval by the authority of the service and technology agreement. If the approved company does not satisfy the minimum investment and minimum employment requirements of KRS 154.23-025 by the activation date, the approved company shall not be entitled to receive inducements pursuant to this subchapter until the approved company satisfies the requirements; however, the ten (10) year period for the term of the service and technology agreement shall begin from the activation date. Notwithstanding the previous sentence, if the approved company does not satisfy the minimum investment and minimum employment requirements of KRS 154.23-025 within two (2) years from the date of final approval of the service and technology agreement, then the approved company shall be ineligible to receive inducements under this subchapter unless an extension is approved by the authority.

(c) In order to implement the activation date, the approved company shall notify the authority, the Kentucky Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~], the qualified statewide employees, and the affected local jurisdictions, if any, of the activation date on which implementation of the inducements authorized in the service and technology agreement shall occur;

(d) The approved company may be permitted the following inducements during the term of the service and technology agreement:

2. The assessment, if applicable, withheld by the approved company in each year;

(e) The inducements allowed to the approved company shall be subtracted from the approved cost balance in the fiscal year of the approved company for which the tax return of the approved company is filed;

(f) If the total number of full-time qualified employees at the site of the economic development project is less than ten (10) or, in the case of an existing business, the approved company fails to maintain the increase of at least ten (10) full-time qualified employees, the authorized inducements shall be suspended for a period of up to one (1) year. If the company does not have at least ten (10) new full-time qualified employees at the site within one (1) year from the date of the initial suspension, the inducements may be terminated at the discretion of the authority;

(g) The service and technology agreement may be assigned by the approved company only upon the prior written consent of the authority; and

(h) The approved company shall pay all costs of counsel to the authority resulting from approval of its economic development project.

(2) Before the end of the first year following the activation date, the authority shall, using data supplied by the approved company, verify and determine the total start-up costs for the approved company's economic development project. The initial approved costs shall be up to a maximum of fifty percent (50%) of the start-up costs.

(3) Each year, during the ten (10) year term of the service and technology agreement, up to fifty percent (50%) of the annualized rent shall be added to the unrecouped balance of approved costs, and the inducements earned shall be subtracted from the approved costs.

(4) If, in any fiscal year of the approved company during which the service and technology agreement is in effect, the accumulated inducements equal the unrecouped remaining balance of the approved costs then expended, the assessments collected from the wages of the employees shall cease for the remainder of that fiscal year of the approved company, and the approved company shall resume normal personal income tax and occupational license fee withholdings from the qualified statewide employees' wages for the remainder of that fiscal year.

(5) If, in any fiscal year of the approved company during which the service and technology agreement is in effect, the total of the income tax credit granted to the approved company plus the assessment collected from the wages of the qualified statewide employees exceeds the remaining balance of the approved costs then expended, the approved company shall pay the excess to the Commonwealth as income tax.

(6) If, in any fiscal year of the approved company during which the service and technology agreement is in effect, the assessment collected from the wages of the qualified statewide employees exceeds the unrecouped remaining balance of the approved costs then expended, the assessment collected from the wages of the qualified statewide employees shall cease for the remainder of that fiscal year of the approved company, the approved company shall resume normal personal income tax and occupational license fee withholdings from the qualified statewide employees for the remainder of that fiscal year, and the approved company shall remit to the Commonwealth and applicable local jurisdictions their respective shares of the excess assessment collected on the withholding filing date for qualified statewide employees' wages next succeeding the first date when the approved company collected excess assessments.

The Department of Revenue[~~Cabinet~~] shall certify to the authority, upon written request of the authority, the aggregate income tax credits and assessments taken by an approved company with respect to its economic development project under KRS 154.23-005 to 154.23-079.

The amount of the approved company's income that is attributable to the economic development project shall be determined under KRS 141.407.

(a) The income tax credit allowed to the approved company shall be subtracted from the approved cost balance in the fiscal year of the approved company for which the tax return of the approved company is filed; and

(b) By October 1 of each year, the Department of Revenue[~~Cabinet~~] of the Commonwealth shall certify to the authority, in the form of an annual report, aggregate income tax credits claimed on tax returns filed during the fiscal year ending June 30 of that year, and assessments taken by approved companies with respect to their economic development projects during the prior calendar year under this subchapter, and shall certify to the authority, within ninety (90) days from the date an approved company has filed its state income tax return, when an approved company has taken income tax credits and assessments equal to its total inducements.

(2) The approved company or, with the authority's consent, an affiliate of the approved company may require each employee, subject to state tax imposed by KRS 141.020, as a condition of employment, to agree to pay a service and technology job creation assessment fee up to five percent (5%) of the gross wages exclusive of any noncash benefits provided to an employee for each employee whose job has been deemed by the authority to be created as a result of the economic development project, provided that the service and technology job creation assessment fee shall not exceed the amount determined in accordance with KRS 154.24-150(5) if the circumstances in that subsection apply. Where a person is already employed by the approved company at a site other than the site of the economic development project and where that employee is subject to state tax imposed by KRS 141.020, the employee's job shall be deemed to have been created when the employee is transferred to the site of the economic development project, provided that the employee's existing job is filled with a new employee.

(a) Each employee paying the assessment shall be entitled to a credit against his Kentucky income tax required to be withheld under KRS 141.310 equal to four-fifths (4/5) of the assessment;

(b) If the assessment has been approved by the local jurisdiction as provided in KRS 154.24-150, each employee paying the assessment also shall be entitled, in the local jurisdiction in which the economic development project is located, to a credit against his local occupational license fee in the form of a simultaneous adjustment of his local occupational license fee withholding equal to one-fifth (1/5) of the assessment. If more than one (1) local tax is incurred, the one-fifth (1/5) assessment shall be prorated proportionately among the taxes unless one (1) local jurisdiction agrees to forgo the receipt of these taxes in an amount equal to the one-fifth (1/5) assessment, in which case no proration need be made;

(c) If an approved company elects to impose the assessment as a condition of employment, it shall be authorized to deduct the assessment from each payment of wages to the employee;

(d) No credit, or portion thereof, shall be allowed against any occupational license fee imposed by or dedicated solely to the board of education in a local jurisdiction;

(e) The approved company collecting an assessment shall make its payroll, books, and records available to the authority when the authority shall request, and shall file with the authority documentation pertaining to the assessment as the authority may require; and

Each employee paying the assessment under this subsection shall be entitled to a credit against Kentucky income tax, under KRS 141.350, equal to four percent (4%) and a credit against the local occupational license fee equal to the local occupational license fee that the local jurisdiction has agreed to forgo.

If the company does not have at least fifteen (15) new full-time employees at the site who are residents of the Commonwealth and subject to Kentucky income tax within one (1) year from the date of the initial suspension, the inducements may be terminated at the discretion of the authority;

(c) A provision that, if seventy-five percent (75%) or less of services provided by the approved company from the economic development project should be provided to persons located outside of the Commonwealth during any fiscal year of the approved company as prescribed in KRS 154.24-090, the authorized inducements shall be suspended for a period of up to one (1) year. The authority may employ an independent consultant or utilize technical resources to verify the cost of the project. The approved company shall reimburse the authority for the cost of the consultant.

The credit shall be allowed for each fiscal year of the approved company during the term of the agreement and for which a tax return of the approved company is filed until the amount that the company may recover under paragraph (a) of this subsection has been received through a combination of credits, assessments, if assessments are elected to be imposed, and appropriations made under any appropriation agreement. The approved company shall not be required to pay estimated income tax payments as prescribed under KRS 141.044 or 141.305 on income from the economic revitalization project. (g) If more than one (1) local occupational license fee is imposed upon the employees of the approved company, the assessment imposed upon the employees shall be credited against the local occupational license fee and shall be apportioned to each local occupational license fee according to each local occupational license fee's proportion to the total of all local occupational license fees for such employees. No credit, or portion thereof shall be allowed against any local occupational license fee imposed by or dedicated solely to a local board of education.

(h) If in any fiscal year of the approved company during which the agreement is in effect the total of the tax credits granted to the approved company plus the assessment collected from the wages of the employees exceeds the expended portion of the amount that the approved company may recover under paragraph (a) of this subsection, the approved company shall pay the excess to the Commonwealth as income tax.

(j) All proceeds of any loan or other financing incurred in connection with the economic revitalization project shall be expended by the approved company within five (5) years from the date of the revitalization agreement. In the event that all proceeds of any loan or other financing incurred in connection with the economic revitalization project are not fully expended within the five (5) year period, the authorized inducements shall automatically be reduced to and shall not be greater than the amount of proceeds actually expended by the approved company within the five (5) year period.

(2) If the approved company elects to utilize the assessment as prescribed in KRS 154.26-100, it shall not assess the wages of an employee who is party to an individual employment contract with the approved company.

(3) Neither the appropriation agreement nor the agreement shall be transferable or assignable by the approved company without the expressed written consent of the authority.

Section 580. KRS 154.26-100 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The approved company may require that each employee subject to the income tax imposed by KRS 141.020, whose job was preserved or created as a result of the project, as a condition of employment or the retention of employment, agree to pay an assessment, not to exceed, during any fiscal year of the approved company, five percent (5%) of the gross wages of each employee subject to the income tax imposed by KRS 141.020 whose job was retained or created as a result of the project, unless:

(a) The appropriation agreement is consummated, in which case the credit shall be equal to one hundred percent (100%) of the assessment;

(b) The local government or governments in which the project is located have a local occupational license fee of less than one percent (1%) and agree to forgo all of their local occupational license fee, in which case the credit shall be equal to the total assessment less the local occupational license fee; or

(c) If the local government or governments in which the project is located have no local occupational license fee, in which case the credit shall be equal to one hundred percent (100%) of the assessment.

(3) Each assessed employee also shall be entitled to a credit against his local occupational license fee in the form of a simultaneous adjustment of his local occupational license fee withholding equal to one-fifth (1/5) of the assessment, unless:

(a) The appropriation agreement is consummated; or

(b) The local occupational license fee is less than one percent (1%), in which case the credit shall equal the same amount as the local occupational license fee.

(4) If an approved company shall elect to impose the assessment as a condition of employment or the retention of employment, it shall deduct the assessment from each paycheck of each employee subject to subsections (2) and (3) of this section.

(5) Any approved company collecting an assessment as provided in subsection (1) of this section shall make its payroll books and records available to the authority at such reasonable times as the authority shall request, and shall file with the authority the documentation respecting the assessment the authority may require.

(6) Any assessment of the wages of the employees of an approved company pursuant to subsection (1) of this section shall permanently lapse upon expiration or termination of the agreement.

(7) By October 1 of each year, the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] of the Commonwealth shall certify to the authority, in the form of an annual report, aggregate income tax credits claimed on tax returns filed during the fiscal year ending June 30 of that year and job revitalization assessment fees taken during the prior calendar year by approved companies with respect to their economic revitalization projects under this subchapter, and shall certify to the authority, within ninety (90) days from the date an approved company has filed its state income tax return, when an approved company has taken income tax credits equal to its total inducements.

Section 581. KRS 154.28-090 is amended to read as follows:

The authority, upon adoption of an authorizing resolution, may enter into, with any approved company, an agreement with respect to its economic development project. The terms and provisions of each agreement, including the amount of approved costs, shall be determined by negotiations between the authority and the approved company, except that each agreement shall include the following provisions:

(1) The agreement shall set forth the maximum amount of inducements available to the approved company for recovery of the approved costs authorized by the authority and expended by the approved company.

(2) The approved company shall expend the authorized approved costs within three (3) years of the date of the final approval by the authority.

(3) The approved company shall provide the authority with documentation as to the expenditures for approved costs in a manner acceptable to the authority.

(4) The agreement shall include the activation date and will terminate upon the earlier of the full receipt of the maximum amount of inducements by the approved company or ten (10) years from the activation date. To implement the activation date, the approved company shall notify the authority, the Kentucky Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~], and the approved company's employees of the activation date on which implementation of the inducements authorized in the agreement shall occur. The activation date shall be the time when the maximum dollar value of equipment that constitutes a portion of the economic development project under KRS 154.28-010(11) shall be determined. If the approved company does not satisfy the minimum investment and minimum employment requirements of KRS 154.28-080(3) by the activation date, the approved company shall not be entitled to receive inducements pursuant to this subchapter until the approved company satisfies the requirements; however, the ten (10) year period for the term of the agreement shall begin from the activation date. Notwithstanding the previous sentence, if the approved company does not satisfy the minimum investment and minimum employment requirements of KRS 154.28-080(3) within two (2) years from the date of final approval of the agreement, then the approved company shall be ineligible to receive inducements under this subchapter unless an extension is approved by the authority.

(5) The tax agreement shall also state that if the total number of new full-time employees at the site of the economic development project who are residents of the Commonwealth and subject to the Kentucky income tax is less than fifteen (15) at any time after activation, the authorized inducements shall be suspended for a period of up to one (1) year. If the company does not have at least fifteen (15) new full-time employees at the site who are residents of the Commonwealth and subject to Kentucky income tax within one (1) year from the date of the initial suspension, the inducements may be terminated at the discretion of the authority.

(6) The approved company shall comply with the wage criteria set forth in KRS 154.28-080(4) and provide documentation in connection with wages paid to its full-time employees hired as a result of the economic development project in a manner acceptable to the authority.

(7) The approved company may be permitted one of the following inducements during the term of the agreement and shall select the applicable inducement at the time of final approval by the authority:

  (a) A one hundred percent (100%) credit against the Kentucky income tax that would otherwise be owed in the approved company's fiscal year, as determined under KRS 141.400, to the Commonwealth by the approved company on the income of the approved company generated by or arising from the economic development project; or

  (b) The aggregate assessments pursuant to KRS 154.28-110 withheld by the approved company each year.

(8) Either the total income tax credit or assessments may not exceed authorized cumulative approved costs paid by the approved company in the three (3) year period commencing with the date of final approval.

(9) If the approved company elects to use the income tax credit, the income tax credited to the approved company shall be credited for the fiscal year for which the tax return of the approved company is filed. The approved company shall not be required to pay estimated income tax payments as prescribed in KRS 141.042 on the Kentucky taxable income generated by or arising from the economic development project.

(10) The agreement may be assigned by the approved company only upon the prior written consent of the authority following the adoption of a resolution by the authority to that effect.

(11) The agreement shall provide that if an approved company fails to comply with its obligations under the agreement then the authority shall have the right, at its option, to:

  (a) Suspend either the income tax credits or assessments available to the approved company, pursuant to subsection (5) of this section;

  (b) Pursue any remedy provided under the agreement, including termination thereof; and

  (c) Pursue any other remedy at law to which it may be entitled.

The effective date of said certificate shall be the date of the making of the application for such certificate.

(2) Before issuing a pollution control tax exemption certificate, the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] shall give notice in writing by mail to the secretary of the cabinet, and shall afford to the applicant and to the secretary of the cabinet an opportunity for a hearing. (a) The certificate was obtained by fraud or misrepresentation;

(b) The holder of the certificate has failed substantially to proceed with the construction, reconstruction, installation, or acquisition of the pollution control facilities;

(c) The structure or equipment or both to which the certificate relates has ceased to be used for the primary purpose of pollution control and is being used for a different purpose.

(3) Provided, however, that where the circumstances so require, the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] in lieu of revoking such certificate may modify the same.

(4) On the mailing of notice of the action of the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] revoking or modifying a certificate as provided in subsection (5) of this section, such certificate shall cease to be in force or shall remain in force only as modified as the case may require.

Section 626. KRS 224.50-868 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Until July 31, 2006, a person purchasing a new motor vehicle tire in Kentucky shall pay to the retailer a one dollar ($1) fee at the time of the purchase of that tire. A new tire is a tire that has never been placed on a motor vehicle wheel rim, but it is not a tire placed on a motor vehicle prior to its original retail sale or a recapped tire. The term "motor vehicle" as used in this section shall mean "motor vehicle" as defined in KRS 138.450. The fee shall not be subject to the Kentucky sales tax.

(2) When a person purchases a new motor vehicle tire in Kentucky to replace another tire, the tire that is replaced becomes a waste tire subject to the waste tire program. The retailer shall remit with the report ninety-five percent (95%) of the fees collected for the preceding month and may retain a five percent (5%) handling fee.

(4) A retailer shall:

(a) Accept from the purchaser of a new tire, if offered, for each new motor vehicle tire sold, a waste tire of similar size and type; and

(b) Post notice at the place where retail sales are made that state law requires the retailer to accept, if offered, a waste tire for each new motor vehicle tire sold and that a person purchasing a new motor vehicle tire to replace another tire shall comply with subsection (2) of this section. The notice shall also include the following wording: "State law requires a new tire buyer to pay one dollar ($1) for each new tire purchased. The money is collected and used by the state to oversee the management of waste tires, including cleaning up abandoned waste tire piles and preventing illegal dumping of waste tires."

(5) A retailer shall comply with the requirements of the recordkeeping system for waste tires established by KRS 224.50-874.

(6) A retailer shall transfer waste tires only to a person who presents a letter from the cabinet approving the registration issued under KRS 224.50-858 or a copy of a solid waste disposal facility permit issued by the cabinet, unless the retailer is delivering the waste tires to a destination outside Kentucky and the waste tires will remain in the retailer's possession until they reach that destination.

Section 627. KRS 224.50-870 is amended to read as follows:

The Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] shall transfer monthly fees collected pursuant to KRS 224.50-868 to the State Treasury, for deposit into the waste tire trust fund established by KRS 224.50-880. All assessment and collection powers conveyed to the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] for the assessment and collection of taxes shall apply to the assessment and collection of the fees. The Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] shall be reimbursed from the waste tire trust fund for its costs incurred in assessing and collecting the fees, with the reimbursement not to exceed fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) per year.

Section 628. KRS 224.50-880 is amended to read as follows:

(1) A waste tire trust fund is established in the state treasury. The fund shall be used by the cabinet for the following purposes:

(a) Properly managing waste tires;

(b) Paying the cabinet's costs in implementing the waste tire program to include costs associated with any waste tire amnesty program established by the cabinet that permits waste tires to be turned in without incurring fees, charges, or penalties;

(c) Paying the Department of Revenue's[~~Revenue Cabinet's~~] costs of assessing and collecting the fee established by KRS 224.50-868;

(d) Entering into the agreements described in KRS 224.50-876; and

(e) Awarding the grants described in KRS 224.50-878.

(3) Money unexpended at the end of a fiscal year shall not lapse to the general fund.

(4) Any money remaining in the waste tire trust fund established by KRS 224.50-820 shall be transferred to the fund established by this section.

Section 629. KRS 224.60-145 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, there is established a petroleum environmental assurance fee to be paid by dealers on each gallon of gasoline and special fuels received in this state.

(2) All deductions detailed in KRS 138.240(2), gasoline and special fuels sold for agricultural purposes, and special fuels sold exclusively to heat a personal residence are exempt from the fee. If a dealer has on file, pursuant to KRS Chapter 138, a statement supporting a claimed exemption, an additional statement shall not be required for claiming exemption from the fee.

(3) The fee shall be reported and paid to the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] at the same time and in the same manner as is required for the reporting and payment of the gasoline and special fuels taxes as provided by law.

(4) The petroleum environmental assurance fee shall be set at one and four-tenths cent ($0.014) for each gallon. Four-tenths of a cent ($0.004) per gallon shall be deposited in the financial responsibility account and one cent ($0.01) shall be deposited in the petroleum storage tank account.

(5) Within thirty (30) days of the close of fiscal year 2001-2002 and each fiscal year thereafter, the state budget director shall review the balance of each account to determine if a surplus exists. "Surplus" means funds in excess of the amounts necessary to satisfy the obligations in each account for all eligible facilities, to satisfy future liabilities and expenses necessary to operate each account, and to maintain an appropriate reserve in the financial responsibility account to demonstrate financial responsibility and compensate for third-party claims. The state budget director shall report the determination to the Interim Joint Committee on Appropriations and Revenue. After a determination that a surplus exists, the surplus shall be transferred to a restricted account and retained until appropriated by the General Assembly.

(6) All provisions of law related to the Department of Revenue's[~~Revenue Cabinet's~~] administration and enforcement of the gasoline and special fuels tax and all other powers generally conveyed to the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] by the Kentucky Revised Statutes for the assessment and collection of taxes shall apply with regard to the fee levied by KRS 224.60-105 to 224.60-160.

(7) The Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] shall refund the fee imposed by KRS 224.60-145(1) to any person who paid the fee provided they are entitled to a refund of motor fuel tax under KRS 138.344 to KRS 138.355 and to any person who paid the fee on transactions exempted under KRS 224.60-145(2).

(8) Notwithstanding any other provisions of KRS 65.180, 65.182, 68.600 to 68.606, 139.470, 183.165, 224.60-115, 224.60-130, 224.60-137, 224.60-140, 224.60-142, and this section to the contrary, the small operator assistance account and small operator tank removal account established under KRS 224.60-130 shall continue in effect until July 15, 2008, and thereafter until all eligible claims related to tanks registered by that date are resolved, and sufficient money shall be allocated to and maintained in that account to assure prompt payment of all eligible claims, and to provide for removal of tanks for eligible owners and operators as directed by this chapter.

The application shall be filed at the authority's general office on or before October 1 of the preceding year with respect to applications to conduct live horse race meetings, and with respect to intertrack wagering dates, and on forms prescribed by the authority. The application shall include the following information:

(a) The full name and address of the person making application;

(b) The location of the place, track, or enclosure where the applicant proposes to conduct horse racing meetings;

(c) The dates on which the applicant intends to conduct horse racing, which shall be successive days unless authorized by the authority;

(d) The proposed hours of each racing day and the number of races to be conducted;

(e) The names and addresses of all principals associated with the applicant or licensee;

(f) The type of organizational structure under which the applicant operates, i.e., partnership, trust, association, limited liability company, or corporation, and the address of the principal place of business of the organization;

(g) Any criminal activities in any jurisdiction for which any individual listed under paragraphs (a) and (e) has been arrested or indicted and the disposition of the charges, and any current or on-going criminal investigation of which any of these individuals is the subject; and

(h) Any other information that the authority by administrative regulation deems relevant and necessary to determine the fitness of the applicant to receive a license, including fingerprints of any individual listed under paragraphs (a) and (e), if necessary for proper identification of the individual or a determination of suitability to be associated with a licensed racing association.

(2) An application for license shall be accompanied by the following documents:

(a) For a new license applicant, a financial statement prepared and attested to by a certified public accountant in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, showing the following:

1. The net worth of the applicant;

2. Any debts or financial obligations owed by the applicant and the persons to whom owed; and

3. The proposed or current financing structure for the operation and the sources of financing.

(b) For a license renewal applicant, an audited financial statement for the prior year;

(3) The completed application shall be signed by the applicant or the chief executive officer if the applicant is an organization, sworn under oath that the information is true, accurate, and complete, and the application shall be notarized.

(4) If there is any change in any information submitted in the application process, the applicant or licensee shall notify the authority within thirty (30) days of the change.

(5) The authority shall as soon as practicable, but in no event later than November 1 in any calendar year, award dates for racing in the Commonwealth during the next year. In awarding dates, the authority shall consider and seek to preserve each track's usual and customary dates, as these dates are requested. If dates other than the usual and customary dates are requested, the applicant shall include a statement in its application setting forth the reasons the requested dates are sought. Dates for the conduct of intertrack wagering shall be awarded as provided in KRS 230.377. In the event scheduled racing is canceled by reason of flood, fire, inclement weather, or other natural disaster or emergency, the authority may award after November 1 additional racing dates to make up for those dates canceled.

(6) The authority may issue a license to conduct a horse race meeting to any association making the aforesaid application if the applicant meets the requirements established in KRS 138.530 and other applicable provisions of this chapter, and if the authority finds that the proposed conduct of racing by the association would be in the best interest of the public health, safety, and welfare of the immediate community as well as to the Commonwealth.

(7) As a condition precedent to the issuance of a license, the authority may require a surety bond or other surety conditioned upon the payment of all taxes due the Commonwealth, together with the payment of operating expenses including purses and awards to owners of horses participating in races.

(8) Every license issued under this chapter shall specify among other things the name of the person to whom issued, the address and location of the track where the horse race meeting to which it relates is to be held or conducted, and the days and hours of the day when the meeting will be permitted; provided, however, that no track that is granted overlapping dates for the conduct of a live race meeting with another horse racing track within a fifty (50) mile radius shall be permitted to have a post time after 5:30 p.m., prevailing time for overlapping days between July 1 and September 15, unless agreed to in writing by the tracks affected.

(9) A license issued under this section is neither transferable nor assignable and shall not permit the conduct of a horse race meeting at any track not specified therein. However, if the track specified becomes unsuitable for racing because of flood, fire, or other catastrophe, the authority may, upon application, authorize the meeting, or any remaining portion thereof, to be conducted at any other suitable track available for that purpose, provided that the owner of the track willingly consents to the use thereof.

(10) Horse racing dates may be awarded and licenses issued authorizing horse racing on any day of the year. Horse racing shall be held or conducted only between sunrise and midnight.

(11) The authority may at any time require the removal of any official or employee of any association in those instances where it has reason to believe that the official or employee has been guilty of any dishonest practice in connection with horse racing or has failed to comply with any condition of his license or has violated any law or any administrative regulation of this authority.

(12) Every horse race not licensed under this section is hereby declared to be a public nuisance and the authority may obtain an injunction against the same in the Circuit Court of the county where the unlicensed race is proposed to take place.

As used in KRS 234.310 to 234.440, unless the context requires otherwise:

(1) "Department"[~~"Cabinet"~~] means the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~];

(2) "Person" includes every natural person, fiduciary, association, state, or political subdivision, or corporation. Whenever used in any clause prescribing and imposing imprisonment the term "person" as applied to an association means and includes the partners or members thereof, and as applied to corporations, the officers thereof;

(3) "Liquefied petroleum gas motor fuel" means and includes all combustible gases and liquids as described in KRS 234.100 used for the generation of power in an internal combustion engine to propel vehicles of any kind upon the public highways;

(4) "Motor vehicle" means any vehicle, machine or mechanical contrivance propelled by an internal combustion engine and licensed for operation and operated upon the public highways and any trailer or semitrailer attached to or having its front end supported by such motor vehicle;

(5) "Public highways" means every way or place generally open to the use of the public as a matter of right for the purpose of vehicular travel, notwithstanding that they may be temporarily closed or travel thereon restricted for the purpose of construction, maintenance, repair or reconstruction;

(6) "Liquefied petroleum gas motor fuel dealer" means any person who imports or causes to be imported into this state for resale or use, or any person making sales in this state, of liquefied petroleum gas motor fuel for resale or use in this state by a licensed liquefied petroleum gas motor fuel user-seller;

(7) "Liquefied petroleum gas motor fuel user-seller" means any person, not licensed as a liquefied petroleum gas motor fuel dealer, who dispenses liquefied petroleum gas motor fuel into the fuel tanks of, or attached to, motor vehicles for the propulsion of such motor vehicles on the public highways, and shall include any such person who so dispenses liquefied petroleum gas motor fuel for consumption in such motor vehicles owned, leased, or operated by him.

Section 632. KRS 234.320 is amended to read as follows:

(1) An excise tax at the rate levied in KRS 138.220(1) and (2) is hereby levied and shall be paid by the liquefied petroleum gas motor fuel dealer to the department~~[cabinet]~~ on all taxable liquefied petroleum gas motor fuel delivered to the licensed liquefied petroleum gas motor fuel user-seller or withdrawn by the liquefied petroleum gas motor fuel dealer to propel motor vehicles on the public highways, either within or without this state. An allowance of one percent (1%) of the tax shall be made to the liquefied petroleum gas motor fuel dealer to cover unaccountable losses, bad debts, and handling and reporting the tax.

(2) No other excise or license tax shall be levied or assessed on liquefied petroleum gas motor fuel by any political subdivision of the state, except the licenses under KRS 234.120.

(3) No provision of KRS 234.310 to 234.440 shall in any way affect the surtax imposed on heavy equipment motor carriers under KRS 138.660.

Section 633. KRS 234.330 is amended to read as follows:

(2) Application for a license shall be made to the department~~[cabinet]~~ upon forms prepared and furnished by the department~~[cabinet]~~. The application shall contain such information as the department~~[cabinet]~~ deems necessary.

(3) Concurrently with the filing of an application for a license, a liquefied petroleum gas motor fuel dealer shall file with the department~~[cabinet]~~ a bond as required under KRS 234.340. No license shall be issued to any person unless such person has furnished a bond as provided in KRS 234.340 to secure payment of taxes, penalties and interest imposed by KRS 234.310 to 234.440.

(4) The application in proper form having been accepted for filing, the bond, if required, having been accepted and approved and the other conditions and requirements of this section having been complied with, the department~~[cabinet]~~ shall issue a license. However, if an application for a license is filed by any person whose license has at any time previously been revoked for cause by the department~~[cabinet]~~, or if the department~~[cabinet]~~ is of the opinion that the person who makes the application as a subterfuge for the real party in interest whose license, prior to the time of filing the application, has been revoked for cause, or that the application is not for any other reason filed in good faith or is not for sufficient cause, the department~~[cabinet]~~ may, after a hearing of which the applicant shall be given ten (10) days' notice in writing and in which he shall have the right to appear in person or by counsel and present testimony, refuse to issue a license to that person.

(5) All licenses shall be valid and remain in full force and effect until suspended or revoked for cause or otherwise canceled.

(6) A license shall not be assignable or transferable and shall be valid only for the person in whose name it is issued.

(7) The department~~[cabinet]~~ shall keep and file all applications and bonds, with an alphabetical index thereof.

Section 634. KRS 234.340 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Every liquefied petroleum gas motor fuel dealer shall file with the department~~[cabinet]~~ a corporate bond, cash bond, or securities approved by the department~~[cabinet]~~ in a minimum amount of five hundred dollars ($500) and in a maximum amount of four (4) months' liability for taxes imposed under KRS 234.310 to 234.440 but not to exceed fifty thousand dollars ($50,000). If, however, a liquefied petroleum gas motor fuel dealer is bonded as provided in KRS 138.330 the department~~[cabinet]~~ may waive the bonding requirement in this section provided a rider is attached to the bond to guarantee payment of all liquefied petroleum gas motor fuel taxes together with all penalties and interest thereon and secure faithful compliance with the provisions of KRS 234.310 to 234.440. The applicant for a license shall be the principal obligor and this state shall be the obligee. The bond shall be conditioned upon the prompt filing of true reports and the payment by the licensee to the department~~[cabinet]~~ of all taxes levied under KRS 234.310 to 234.440, together with all penalties and interest thereon and generally upon faithful compliance with the provisions of KRS 234.310 to 234.440.

(2) If the liability upon the bond is discharged or reduced, whether by judgment rendered, payment made, or otherwise or if in the opinion of the department~~[cabinet]~~ any surety has become unsatisfactory or unacceptable, the department~~[cabinet]~~ may require the licensee to file a new bond with satisfactory surety in the same form and amount, failing which the department~~[cabinet]~~ shall cancel the license in accordance with the provisions of this section. If a new bond is furnished by the licensee as above provided, the department~~[cabinet]~~ shall cancel the bond for which the new bond is substituted.

(3) If upon an informal hearing, of which the licensee shall be given ten (10) days' notice in writing, the department~~[cabinet]~~ decides that the amount of the existing bond is insufficient to insure payment to this state of the amount of the tax, penalties, and interest for which the licensee is or may become liable, the licensee shall, upon the written demand of the department~~[cabinet]~~, file an additional bond in the same manner and form with surety thereon approved by the department~~[cabinet]~~, in any amount determined by the department~~[cabinet]~~ to be necessary, failing which the department~~[cabinet]~~ shall cancel the license in accordance with the provisions of this section.

(4) Any surety on a bond furnished by a licensee shall be released from all liability to this state accruing on the bond after the expiration of sixty (60) days from the date upon which the surety has lodged with the department[~~cabinet~~] a written request to be released, but this request shall not operate to release the surety from any liability already accrued or which shall accrue before the expiration of the sixty (60) day period. The department[~~cabinet~~] shall, promptly on the receipt of the request, notify the licensee who furnished the bond, and unless the licensee shall, before the expiration of the sixty (60) day period, file with the department[~~cabinet~~] a new bond with surety satisfactory to the department[~~cabinet~~] in the amount and form prescribed in this section, the department[~~cabinet~~] shall cancel the license in accordance with the provisions of this section. If the new bond is furnished by the licensee as above provided, the department[~~cabinet~~] shall cancel the bond for which the new bond is substituted.

(1) If a licensee at any time files a false monthly report of the information required, or fails or refuses to file the monthly report or to pay the full amount of the tax or violates any other provision of KRS 234.310 to 234.440, without a showing that the failure was due to reasonable cause, the department[~~cabinet~~] may cancel the license and suspend the privilege of acting as a liquefied petroleum gas motor fuel dealer.

(2) Upon voluntary surrender of the license or upon receipt of a written request by a licensee, the department[~~cabinet~~] may cancel his license, effective sixty (60) days from the date of request, but no license shall be canceled upon surrender or request unless the licensee has, prior to the date of cancellation, paid to this state all taxes, penalties, interest, and fines that are due or have accrued, and unless the licensee has surrendered to the department[~~cabinet~~] his license.

(3) If upon investigation the department[~~cabinet~~] ascertains that any person to whom a license has been issued is no longer engaged as a liquefied petroleum gas motor fuel dealer or a liquefied petroleum gas motor fuel user-seller, and has not been so engaged for a period of six (6) months, the department[~~cabinet~~] may cancel the license by giving the person sixty (60) days' notice of cancellation, mailed to his last known address in which event the license shall be surrendered to the department[~~cabinet~~].

(4) Whenever a licensee ceases to engage in business within this state, he shall notify the department[~~cabinet~~] in writing within fifteen (15) days after discontinuance. All taxes that have accrued under KRS 234.310 to 234.440, whether or not then due, shall become due and payable concurrently with the discontinuance. The licensee shall make a report and pay all such taxes and any interest and penalties thereon, and shall surrender to the department[~~cabinet~~] his license.

(5) If the department[~~cabinet~~] takes action to cancel a license as provided in this section, the licensee shall be notified by certified or registered letter or summons of the charges against him, and he shall be afforded an opportunity for an informal hearing on the matter. The hearing shall be set at least five (5) days from the date the letter is delivered or the summons is served. Any licensee aggrieved by a decision to cancel his license after the informal hearing may appeal the decision to the Kentucky Board of Tax Appeals where he shall be granted an administrative hearing in accordance with KRS Chapter 13B.

(6) If the license is canceled by the department[~~cabinet~~] as provided in this section, and if the licensee has paid to this state all taxes, interest, and penalties under KRS 234.310 to 234.440, the department[~~cabinet~~] shall cancel the bond filed by the licensee.

Section 636. KRS 234.360 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Every liquefied petroleum gas motor fuel dealer licensee shall maintain complete records of inventories, purchases, sales, use and other dispositions of liquefied petroleum gas. Such records, together with manifests of lading, invoices, correspondence, and other papers pertaining to liquefied petroleum gas motor fuel shall be retained for a minimum of two (2) years, and if requested by the department[~~cabinet~~], shall be made available for examination by the department[~~cabinet~~].

(2) Where storage of liquefied petroleum gas is for multiple uses, and where the number of gallons taxable of liquefied petroleum gas motor fuel is determined by the liquefied petroleum gas motor fuel dealer and/or the liquefied petroleum gas motor fuel user-seller, based on the best estimate possible from mileage and efficiency records available, all mileage and efficiency records of such motor vehicle must be retained for a minimum period of two (2) years, and, if requested by the department[~~cabinet~~], shall be made available for examination by the department[~~cabinet~~].

Section 637. KRS 234.370 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Every liquefied petroleum motor fuel dealer licensee shall file with the department[~~cabinet~~], on forms prescribed by the department[~~cabinet~~], a monthly tax return. The return shall be made under penalty of perjury and shall show such information as the department[~~cabinet~~] may require. The licensee shall file the return on or before the twenty-fifth day of the next succeeding calendar month following the month to which it relates.

Liquefied petroleum gas motor fuel dealers using, selling, and/or delivering liquefied petroleum gas to motor vehicles, or into storage for use in motor vehicles, shall report and pay the state tax at the rate levied in KRS 138.220(1) and (2) on all such fuel to the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~]. Additional funds shall be set aside to supplement Phase II funding as needed from moneys credited to the agricultural development fund after June 30, 2000.

(2) Phase II payments shall be supplemented each year for tobacco growers and quota owners so that the total amount available for payment is maintained at one hundred fourteen million dollars ($114,000,000) each year. If the Phase II supplement set aside referred to in subsection (1) of this section falls below the amount needed to reach the one hundred fourteen million dollar ($114,000,000) level in any year before the end of the twelve (12) year Phase II funding program, procedures outlined in subsection (3) of this section shall be followed.

(3) (a) If the moneys set aside for Phase II supplement before June 30, 2000, become insufficient to continue to meet the yearly one hundred fourteen million dollar ($114,000,000) funding level, moneys needed to supplement Phase II funding to maintain funding at the 1999 level of one hundred fourteen million dollars ($114,000,000) per year for each of the remaining eleven (11) years of the Phase II funding program shall continue to be provided to the Phase II set aside from funds received in the tobacco settlement agreement fund after June 30, 2000. As used in this subtitle, unless the context requires otherwise:

(1) A "market" is the interaction between buyers and sellers consisting of a product market component and a geographic market component. A product market component consists of identical or readily substitutable products including but not limited to consideration of coverage, policy terms, rate classifications, and underwriting. A geographic market component is a geographical area in which buyers have a reasonable degree of access to insurance sales outlets. Determination of a geographic market component shall consider existing market patterns.

(2) "Supplementary rating information" includes any manual or plan of rates, classification, rating schedule, minimum premium, policy fees, rating rules, or any other similar information needed to determine the applicable rate or premium. This shall include underwriting rules, but only to the extent necessary to determine the rate or premium that will be applicable to a risk should the insurer decide to provide coverage. This does not include guidelines that relate to the selection of those risks that are acceptable to an insurer.

(3) "Supporting information" is the experience and judgment of the filer and the experience or data of other insurers or organizations relied on by the filer, the interpretation of any other data relied on by the filer, descriptions of methods used in making the rates, and any other information required to be filed by the commissioner.

(4) "Personal risks" means homeowners, tenants, private passenger nonfleet automobiles, mobile homes, and other property and casualty insurance for personal, family, or household needs.

(6) "Joint underwriting" is a voluntary arrangement established to provide insurance coverage for a risk pursuant to which two (2) or more insurers jointly contract with the insured at a price and under policy terms agreed on between the insurers.

(7) A "pool" is a voluntary arrangement, other than by a contract of reinsurance, established on a general and continuing basis pursuant to which two (2) or more insurers participate in the sharing of risks on a predetermined basis. A pool may operate through an association, syndicate or other pooling agreement.

(8) A "residual market mechanism" is an agreement, either voluntary or mandated by law, involving participation by insurers in the equitable apportionment among them of insurance that may be afforded applicants who are unable to obtain insurance through ordinary methods.

(9) An "advisory organization" is any entity, including its affiliates or subsidiaries, which either has two (2) or more member insurers or is controlled either directly or indirectly by two (2) or more insurers and which assists insurers in ratemaking related activities. Two (2) or more insurers having a common ownership or operating in this state under common management or control constitute a single insurer for purposes of this definition.

(10) A "competitive market" is a market that has not been found to be noncompetitive pursuant to KRS 304.13-041 and for which no such order is in effect.

(11) A "noncompetitive market" is a market for which there is an order in effect pursuant to KRS 304.13-041 that a reasonable degree of competition does not exist.

(12) "Trending" is any procedure for projecting developed losses to the average date of loss, or premiums or exposures to the average date of writing, for the period during which the policies are to be effective.

(13) "Expenses" are those portions of any rate attributable to acquisition, field supervision, and collection expenses, general expenses, and premium taxes, licenses, and fees.

(14) "Profit" is the portion of any rate attributable to funds needed for growth, contingencies, and return to stockholders.

(16) "Classification system" or "classification" means the process of grouping risks with similar risk characteristics so that differences in cost may be recognized.

(17) "Developed losses" means losses (including loss adjustment expenses) adjusted, using standard actuarial techniques, to their ultimate anticipated value.

(18) "Experience rating" means a rating procedure utilizing past insurance experience of the individual policyholder to forecast future losses by measuring the policyholder's loss experience against the loss experience of policyholders in the same classification to produce a prospective premium credit, debit, or unity modification.

(19) "Form provider" means a person who prepares, files, and distributes policy contract forms and endorsements and consults with members, subscribers, customers, or others relative to their use and application, but is not an advisory organization as defined in this subtitle.

(20) "Loss adjustment expenses" means the expenses incurred by the insurer in the course of settling claims.

(21) "Prospective loss costs" means that portion of a rate that does not include provisions for expenses (other than loss adjustment expenses) or profit, and are based on historical aggregate losses or output from simulation models and loss adjustment expenses adjusted through development to their ultimate value and projected through trending to a future point in time. Loss costs, derived in part or entirely upon output form simulation models, must be approved by the commissioner before they become effective.

(22) "Rate" means the expected value of the future cost of insurance per exposure unit which accounts for the treatment of losses, expenses, and profit prior to any application of individual risk variations based on loss or expense considerations, but does not include minimum premium.

(23) "Special assessments" means guaranty fund assessments, residual market mechanism assessments, and other similar assessments which are included in ratemaking. Special assessments shall not be considered as either expenses or losses. Additional charges collected by the insurer and returned to a governmental agency on behalf of an insured are not special assessments. Examples of these additional charges include, but are not limited to, the special fund charge for workers' compensation imposed by KRS Chapter 342, local government premium tax imposed by KRS 91A.080, and the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] surcharge imposed by KRS Chapter 136.

(24) "Statistical agent" means an entity that has been licensed by the commissioner to collect statistics from insurers and provide reports developed from these statistics to the commissioner for the purpose of fulfilling the statistical reporting obligations of those insurers under this chapter.

(2) Every captive insurer holding a certificate of authority under KRS 304.49-010 to 304.49-230 shall return to the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] a statement under oath of all assumed reinsurance premium receipts during the preceding year and shall pay, on or before March 1 in each year, a tax at the rate of two hundred twenty-five thousandths of one percent (0.225%) on the first twenty million dollars ($20,000,000) of assumed reinsurance premiums, and one hundred fifty thousandths of one percent (0.150%) on the next twenty million dollars ($20,000,000), and fifty thousandths of one percent (0.050%) on the next twenty million dollars ($20,000,000), and twenty-five thousandths of one percent (0.025%) of each dollar thereafter. However, no reinsurance tax applies to premiums for risks or portions of risks which are subject to taxation on a direct basis pursuant to subsection (1) of this section. No reinsurance premium tax shall be payable in connection with the receipt of assets in exchange for the assumption of loss reserves and other liabilities of another insurer under common ownership and control if the transaction is part of a plan to discontinue the operations of the other insurer, and if the intent of the parties to the transaction is to renew or maintain the business with the captive insurer.

(3) If the aggregate taxes to be paid by a captive insurer calculated under subsections (1) and (2) of this section amount to less than five thousand dollars ($5,000) in any year, the captive insurer shall pay a tax of five thousand dollars ($5,000) for such year.

(4) Two (2) or more captive insurance companies under common ownership and control shall be taxed as though they were a single captive insurer.

(5) For the purposes of this section, common ownership and control shall mean:

(a) In the case of stock corporations, the direct or indirect ownership of eighty percent (80%) or more of the outstanding voting stock of two (2) or more corporations by the same shareholder or shareholders; and

(b) In the case of mutual corporations, the direct or indirect ownership of eighty percent (80%) or more of the surplus and the voting power of two (2) or more corporations by the same member or members.

(6) In the case of a branch captive insurer, the tax provided for in this section shall apply only to the branch business of the company.

(7) The tax provided for in this section shall constitute all taxes collectible under the laws of Kentucky from any captive insurer, and the taxes imposed under this section shall be in lieu of all excise, license, occupational, or other taxes imposed by the state, county, city, or other taxing district except as provided in KRS 136.320(6) and (7).

(8) The Kentucky Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] shall annually distribute ten percent (10%) of the premium tax revenues collected pursuant to this section to the Department of Insurance for the regulation of captive insurance companies under KRS 304.49-010 to 304.49-230.

Section 678. KRS 342.122 is amended to read as follows:

(1) (a) For calendar year 1997 and for each calendar year thereafter, for the purpose of funding and prefunding the liabilities of the special fund, financing the administration and operation of the Kentucky Workers' Compensation Funding Commission, and financing the expenditures for all programs in the Labor Cabinet, except the Division of Employment Standards, Apprenticeship and Training and the Office of Labor-Management Relations and Mediation, as reflected in the enacted budget of the Commonwealth and enacted by the General Assembly, the funding commission shall impose a special fund assessment rate of nine percent (9%) upon the amount of workers' compensation premiums received on and after January 1, 1997, through December 31, 1997, by every insurance carrier writing workers' compensation insurance in the Commonwealth, by every group of self-insurers operating under the provisions of KRS 342.350(4), and against the premium, as defined in KRS 342.0011, of every employer carrying his or her own risk.

(b) The funding commission shall, for calendar year 1998 and thereafter, establish for the special fund an assessment rate to be assessed against all premium received during that calendar year which, when added to the coal severance tax appropriated to the special fund in accordance with paragraph (c) of this section, shall produce enough revenue to amortize on a level basis the unfunded liability of the special fund as of September 1 preceding January 1 of each year, for the period remaining until December 31, 2018. The interest rate to be used in this calculation shall reflect the funding commission's investment experience to date and the current investment policies of the commission. This assessment shall be imposed upon the amount of workers' compensation premiums received by every insurance carrier writing workers' compensation insurance in the Commonwealth, by every group of self-insurers operating under the provisions of KRS 342.350(4), and against the premium, as defined in KRS 342.0011, of every employer carrying his own risk.

(c) In addition to the assessment imposed in paragraph (a) or (b) of this subsection, and notwithstanding and prior to the transfer of funds to the Local Government Economic Assistance Program under KRS 42.450 to 42.495, the Kentucky Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] shall credit nineteen million dollars ($19,000,000) in coal severance tax revenues levied under KRS 143.020 to the benefit reserve fund within the Kentucky Workers' Compensation Funding Commission each year beginning with fiscal year 1998 and all fiscal years thereafter. The annual transfer of nineteen million dollars ($19,000,000) shall occur in four (4) equal quarterly payments. These transfers shall occur not later than the last day of each quarter of each calendar year and shall consist of four (4) equal payments of four million, seven hundred fifty thousand dollars ($4,750,000).

(d) All assessments imposed by this section shall be paid to the Kentucky Workers' Compensation Funding Commission and shall be credited to the benefit reserve fund within the Kentucky Workers' Compensation Funding Commission.

(e) The assessments imposed in this chapter shall be in lieu of all other assessments or taxes on workers' compensation premiums.

(2) These assessments shall be paid quarterly not later than the thirtieth day of the month following the end of the quarter in which the premium is received. Receipt shall be considered timely through actual physical receipt or by postmark of the United States Postal Service. Employers carrying their own risk and employers defined in KRS 342.630(2) shall pay the annual assessments in four (4) equal quarterly installments.

(3) The assessments imposed by this section may be collected by the insurance carrier from his insured. However, the insurance carrier shall not collect from the employer any amount exceeding the assessments imposed pursuant to this section. If the insurance carrier collects the assessment from an insured, the assessment shall be collected at the same time and in the same proportion as the premium is collected. The assessment for an insurance policy or other evidence of coverage providing a deductible may be collected in accordance with this chapter on a premium amount that equates to the premium that would have applied without the deductible. Each statement from an insurance carrier presented to an insured reflecting premium and assessment amounts shall clearly identify and distinguish the amount to be paid for premium and the amount to be paid for assessments. No insurance carrier shall collect from an insured an amount in excess of the assessment percentages imposed by this chapter. The assessment for an insurance policy or other evidence of coverage providing a deductible may be collected in accordance with this chapter on a premium amount that equates to the premium that would have applied without the deductible. The percentages imposed by this chapter for an insurance policy issued by an insurance company shall be those percentages in effect on the annual effective date of the policy, regardless of the date that the premium is actually received by the insurance company.

(4) A group self-insurance association may elect to report its premiums and to have its assessments computed in the same manner as insurance companies. This election may not be rescinded for at least ten (10) years, nor may this election be made a second time for at least another ten (10) years, except that the board of directors of the funding commission may, at its discretion, waive the ten (10) year ban on a case-by-case basis after formal petition has been made to the funding commission by a group self-insurance association.

(5) The funding commission, as part of the collection and auditing of the special fund assessments required by this section, shall annually require each insurance carrier and each group self-insurer to provide a list of employers which it has insured or which are members and the amount collected from each employer. Additionally, the funding commission shall require each entity paying a special fund assessment to report the SIC code for each employer and the amount of premium collected from each SIC code. An insurance carrier or group self-insurer may require its insureds or members to furnish the SIC code for each of their employees. However, the failure of any employer to furnish said codes shall not relieve the insurance carrier or group self-insurer from the obligation to furnish same to the funding commission. The Department for Employment Services, Cabinet for Workforce Development is hereby directed to make available the SIC codes assigned in its records to specific employers to aid in the reporting and recording of the special fund assessment data.

(6) Each self-insured employer, group self-insurer, or insurance carrier shall provide any information and submit any reports the Department of Revenue[~~ Cabinet~~] or the funding commission may require to effectuate the provisions of this section. In addition, the funding commission may enter reciprocal agreements with other governmental agencies for the exchange of information necessary to effectuate the provisions of this section.

(7) The special fund shall be required to maintain a central claim registry of all claims to which it is named a party, giving each such claim a unique claim number and thereafter recording the status of each claim on a current basis. The registry shall be established by January 26, 1988, for all claims on which payments were made since July 1, 1986, or which were pending adjudication since July 1, 1986, by audit of all claim files in the possession of the special fund.

(8) The fund heretofore designated as the subsequent claim fund is abolished, and there is substituted therefor the special fund as set out by this section, and all moneys and properties owned by the subsequent claim fund are transferred to the special fund.

(9) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this section or this chapter to the contrary, the total amount of funds collected pursuant to the assessment rates adopted by the funding commission shall not be limited to the provisions of this section.

(10) All assessment rates imposed for periods prior to January 1, 1997, under KRS 342.122 shall forever remain applicable to premiums received on policies with effective dates prior to January 1, 1997, by every insurance carrier writing workers' compensation insurance in the Commonwealth, by every group of self-insurers operating under the provision of KRS 342.350(4), and against the premium, as defined in KRS 342.0011, of every employer carrying his own risk.

Section 10. KRS 163.475 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The General Assembly finds that the provision of industrial evaluation, training, and employment opportunities for individuals who are blind or visually impaired is a valuable and necessary component of vocational rehabilitation services. The Office[~~Department~~] for the Blind has sole responsibility for and the obligation to operate and manage a Division of the Kentucky Industries for the Blind. This facility has struggled to meet these mandates but, faced with declining available state revenues, expects a continual diminishment to a submarginal operation with respect to providing viable long-term employment opportunities that are self-sustaining and sufficiently diversified for individuals who are blind or visually impaired.

(2) The General Assembly finds that increased flexibility in contract negotiation, purchasing, and hiring will enhance the competitiveness of the Kentucky Industries for the Blind, resulting in additional production contracts thereby guaranteeing continued and expanded jobs and other opportunities for individuals who are blind or visually impaired. This flexibility and competitiveness can be achieved through the operation of the Kentucky Industries for the Blind by a nonprofit corporation, the members of which have expertise in management skills and background pertaining to sound business practices and rehabilitation philosophy.

(3) The General Assembly finds that a transition period from state division to a nonprofit operation is necessary to ensure the success and continuation of the important functions of the Kentucky Industries for the Blind. Therefore, the General Assembly shall continue to support the Division of the Kentucky Industries for the Blind through appropriations to the Office[~~Department~~] for the Blind for six (6) years in order to eliminate eventually the necessity for annual state appropriations. The Office[~~Department~~] for the Blind shall monitor and safeguard the expenditure of those public moneys for the use and benefit of the Kentucky Industries for the Blind and citizens who are blind and visually impaired in the Commonwealth.

(4) The General Assembly finds that the continued employment of current employees of the Division of the Kentucky Industries for the Blind is a necessary and important outcome. The Office[~~Department~~] for the Blind shall ensure through contractual provisions that the nonprofit corporation it contracts with pursuant to KRS 163.480(2) offers employment to every employee of the Kentucky Industries for the Blind at the time the nonprofit corporation assumes total responsibility for the operation of the workshop. The Office[~~Department~~] for the Blind shall maximize the retirement benefits for each current employee of the Division of Kentucky Industries for the Blind at the time the department contracts for total operation by the nonprofit corporation through the parted employer provisions of KRS 61.510 to 61.705.

(5) The General Assembly finds that at the time the Kentucky Industries for the Blind is operated totally by the nonprofit corporation, the Office[~~Department~~] for the Blind shall have the authority to convey ownership of the workshop to any nonprofit corporation with which it contracts pursuant to KRS 163.480(2) without financial consideration, including real and personal property, inventory of materials, and stores for resale. The instrument of conveyance to such nonprofit corporation shall provide that the real property and production equipment conveyed, or sufficient remuneration therefor, shall revert to the state at any time the nonprofit corporation or its successor shall cease operating the Kentucky Industries for the Blind for the benefit of individuals who are blind or visually impaired.

Section 11. KRS 163.480 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The Office[~~Department~~] for the Blind may contract, to the extent funds are available under this chapter and under conditions and standards established by the department, with any nonprofit corporation able to provide expertise in the operation of workshops for and rehabilitation of individuals who are blind or visually impaired and whose objectives are to carry out the purposes of KRS 163.470(12)[~~(13)~~].

(2) The Office[~~Department~~] for the Blind may[~~shall~~] contract with a nonprofit corporation[~~, effective July 1, 2000,~~] to provide industrial evaluation, training, and employment opportunities for individuals who are blind or visually impaired[~~, as previously provided by the Division of Kentucky Industries for the Blind~~].

In addition to the applicable base hourly wage calculated above, the eligible company shall provide employee benefits equal to at least fifteen percent (15%) of the applicable base hourly wage; however, if the eligible company does not provide employee benefits equal to at least fifteen percent (15%) of the applicable base hourly wage, the eligible company may qualify under this section if it provides the employees hired by the eligible company as a result of the economic development project total hourly compensation equal to or greater than one hundred fifteen percent (115%) of the applicable base hourly wage through increased hourly wages combined with employee benefits.

For an eligible company, within a regional industrial park which lies within two (2) or more counties, the calculation of the wage and benefit requirement shall be determined by averaging the average county hourly wage for all counties within the regional industrial park.

(5) No economic development project which will result in the replacement of agribusiness, manufacturing, or electric generation facilities existing in the state shall be approved by the authority; however, the authority may approve an economic development project that:

Any economic development project satisfying the requirements of this subsection shall only be eligible for inducements to the extent of the expansion, and no inducements shall be available for the equivalent of the agribusiness, manufacturing, or electric generation facility to be replaced. No economic development project otherwise satisfying the requirements of this subsection shall be approved by the authority which results in a lease abandonment or lease termination by the approved company without the consent of the lessor.

(6) With respect to each eligible company making an application to the authority for inducements, and with respect to the economic development project described in the application, the authority shall request materials and make inquiries of the applicant as necessary or appropriate. Upon review of the application and completion of initial inquiries, the authority may, by resolution, give its preliminary approval by designating an eligible company as a preliminarily approved company and authorizing the undertaking of the economic development project. After preliminary approval, the authority may by final approval designate an eligible company to be an approved company.

Section 146. KRS 341.145 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The secretary of the Education Cabinet may enter into arrangements with the appropriate agencies of other states or of the federal government, or both, for the purpose of assisting the secretary and such agencies in the payment of benefits and the furnishing of services to unemployed or underemployed workers. Such arrangements may provide that the respective agencies shall, for and on behalf of each other, act as agents in effecting registrations for work, notices of unemployment, and any other certifications or statements relating to a worker's claim for benefits; in making investigations, taking depositions, holding hearings, or otherwise securing information relating to benefit eligibility and payments; and in such other matters as the secretary considers suitable in effectuating the purpose of these administrative arrangements.

(2) The secretary may enter into arrangements with the appropriate agencies of other states or the federal government whereby workers performing services in this and other states for a single employing unit under circumstances not specifically provided in KRS 341.050, or under similar provisions in the unemployment compensation laws of such other states, shall be deemed to be engaged in employment performed entirely within this state or within one of such other states.

(3) (a) The secretary shall participate in any arrangements for the payment of benefits on the basis of combining an individual's wages and employment covered under this chapter with his wages and employment covered under the unemployment compensation laws of other states or the federal government which are approved by the United States Secretary of Labor in consultation with the state unemployment compensation agencies as reasonably calculated to assure the prompt and full payment of benefits in such situations and which include provisions for applying the base period of a single state law to a claim involving the combining of an individual's wages and employment covered under two (2) or more state unemployment compensation laws, and avoiding the duplicate use of wages and employment by reason of such combining. Reimbursements to another state or the federal government, paid from the fund pursuant to this subsection, shall be deemed to be benefits for the purposes of this chapter and charged to contributory employers' reserve accounts and reimbursing employers' accounts in accordance with the provisions of subsections (2) and (3) of KRS 341.530 to the extent of calculations made on wages paid during the base period established by KRS 341.090 and wages paid after such base period; provided, however, benefits based on a period previous to the base-wage period established by KRS 341.090 shall be charged to the pooled account for contributing employers only. Provided, that if the Secretary of Labor determines that the charging of reimbursements provided above is inconsistent with the requirements of the Federal Unemployment Tax Act, charges of such reimbursements shall then be made in accordance with regulations prescribed by the secretary.

(b) In order that such reciprocal arrangements, when entered into, may be effectuated, wages for insured work under an employment security law of another state or of the federal government shall be deemed to be wages earned in covered employment from a subject employer for the purpose of determining his benefits under this chapter.

(4) Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, benefits shall not be denied or reduced to an individual solely because he files a claim in another state (or a contiguous country with which the United States has an agreement with respect to unemployment compensation) or because he resides in another state (or such a contiguous country) at the time he files a claim for benefits.

(5) To the extent permissible under the laws and Constitution of the United States, the secretary is authorized to enter into or cooperate in arrangements or reciprocal agreements with appropriate and duly authorized agencies of other states or the United States Secretary of Labor or both, whereby:

(a) Overpayments of unemployment benefits, as determined under this chapter, shall be recoverable (after due notice and opportunity for appeal has been provided to the claimant) by offset from unemployment benefits otherwise payable under the unemployment compensation law of another state, in either the current or any subsequent benefit year, in an amount equivalent to the amount of overpayment determined under this chapter, provided the Office of Employment and Training, Department of Workforce Investment,[~~department~~] certifies to the other state the facts involved and that the claimant is liable to repay the benefits and the office[~~department~~] requests the other state to recover the benefits; and

(b) Overpayments of unemployment benefits, as determined under the unemployment compensation law of another state, shall be recoverable (after such state has provided due notice and opportunity for appeal to the claimant) by offset from unemployment benefits otherwise payable under this chapter, in either the current or subsequent benefit year, in an amount equivalent to the amount of overpayment determined by such other state, provided such state certifies to the office[~~department~~] the facts involved and that the individual is liable to repay the benefits and the state requests the office[~~department~~] to recover the benefits; and

(c) Provided there is in effect a reciprocal agreement between this state and the United States Secretary of Labor, as authorized by Section 303(g)(2) of the Social Security Act, the overpayment of unemployment benefits or allowances for unemployment provided under a federal program administered by this state shall be recoverable by offset from benefits otherwise payable under this chapter or any such federal program. Such agreement shall also suffice to permit the offset from unemployment benefits, otherwise payable under a federal program administered by this state, the overpayment of unemployment benefits paid under this chapter.

If another state also has in effect a like agreement with the United States Secretary of Labor, then these provisions for cross-offset of state and federal unemployment benefits shall apply to benefits otherwise payable under this chapter, the laws of the other state or any federal unemployment program administered by either state.

(4) No information or records held confidential under subsection (3) of this section shall be the subject matter or basis for any suit for slander or libel in any court, but no employer or employee, or his representative, testifying before the commission, the secretary, or any duly authorized representative thereof, shall be exempt from punishment for perjury.

(2) The service capacity upgrade fund shall be used solely for acquisition and upgrading of the technology base, program integrity functions, and service delivery capacity in support of the programs administered by the Office of[~~Department for~~] Employment and Training[~~Services~~]. The secretary shall have full power, authority, and jurisdiction over the fund, including all money, property, and securities belonging thereto, and shall perform any act necessary or convenient in the administration of the fund consistent with this section. The secretary shall provide an annual report to the Interim Joint Committee on Labor and Industry detailing all receipts and expenditures of the fund.

(3) Any money collected under the provisions of this section shall be invested at interest in banks or other interest-bearing obligations of the United States. Investments shall at all times be made so that all the assets of the service capacity upgrade fund shall be convertible into cash when needed for the payment of expenses incurred in upgrading the service capacity of the Office of[~~Department for~~] Employment and Training[~~Services~~]. All interest income received under this section shall be credited to the fund. The State Treasurer shall dispose of securities or other property belonging to the fund only under the direction of the secretary and the secretary of the Finance and Administration Cabinet.

(4) Effective January 1, 1999, all rates otherwise established under KRS 341.270 and 341.272 shall be reduced by subtracting seventy-five thousandths percent (0.075%) from each rate, but only if the trust fund balance as of December 31 of the preceding year is equal to or greater than one and eighteen hundredths percent (1.18%) of the total wages paid in the state during the state fiscal year ended as of June 30 of that year.

(a) If the trust fund balance as of December 31, 1999, is less than the trust fund balance as of December 31, 1998, the amount of the rate reduction for calendar year 2000 shall be reduced by forty percent (40%) to the level of forty-five thousandths percent (0.045%).

(b) If the trust fund balance as of December 31, 2000, is less than the trust fund balance as of December 31, 1999, the amount of the rate reduction for calendar year 2001 shall be forty percent (40%) less than the amount of the rate reduction which was in effect in calendar year 2000.

(5) For any calendar year in which all rates have been reduced in accordance with subsection (4) of this section, all contributory employers shall pay into the service capacity upgrade fund an amount equal to the percentage by which rates were reduced multiplied by their taxable wages paid during that calendar year. Payments shall be made at the same time and in the same manner as prescribed for payment of contributions under KRS 341.260 and all regulations prescribed by the secretary in support of that section. The restrictions in KRS 341.470(1) apply equally to the provisions of this section. Failure to make these payments shall be subject to interest and all other collection actions provided for failure to make contributions under KRS 341.300.

(6) All payments required under subsection (5) of this section, along with any interest due to late payment of these assessments, shall be deposited in the service capacity upgrade fund.

(7) The provisions of this section shall expire with regard to rates assigned for calendar years beginning after December 31, 2001, and any balance of moneys or property in the fund not expended or obligated for purposes consistent with this section by June 30, 2002, shall be deposited in the unemployment insurance trust fund.

Section 151. KRS 341.245 is amended to read as follows:

Subject to the provisions of KRS 56.440 to 56.550, inclusive, the secretary of the Education Cabinet is authorized and empowered to use all or any part of the funds accumulated under the provisions of KRS 341.295 for the purpose of acquiring suitable space for either central or district offices of the cabinet by way of purchase, lease, contract, or in any other manner including the right to use said funds or any part thereof to assist in financing the construction of any building erected by the Commonwealth or any of its agencies wherein available space will be provided for the cabinet under lease or contract between the cabinet and the Commonwealth or such other agency whereby said cabinet will continue to occupy such space, rent free, after the cost of financing such building has been liquidated.

Section 152. KRS 341.250 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Any employing unit that becomes subject to this chapter within any calendar year shall be considered a subject employer during the whole of that calendar year, except as specifically provided elsewhere in this section or this chapter.

(2) Except as provided in subsections (3) and (5) of this section, a subject employer shall cease to be a subject employer only as of the first day of January of any calendar year if he files with the Office of Employment and Training, Department of Workforce Investment[~~department~~], on or before the fifteenth day of April of that year, a written application for termination of coverage, and the covered employment performed for such subject employer within the preceding calendar year was not sufficient to render an employing unit a subject employer under KRS 341.070. The secretary may, however, after notifying such employer in writing at his last known address, terminate the coverage of any subject employer as of the first day of January of any calendar year if such subject employer has had no individuals in covered employment in this state at any time during the three (3) preceding calendar years, and the balance of such employer's reserve account may be immediately transferred to the pooled account.

(3) (a) Any employing unit not otherwise subject to this chapter that files with the office[~~department~~] its written election to become a subject employer for not less than two (2) calendar years shall, with the written approval of such election by the secretary, become subject hereto to the same extent as all other subject employers, as of the date stated in such approval, but not with respect to the period previous to such date. Such subject employer shall cease to be subject hereto as of January 1 of any calendar year subsequent to such two (2) calendar years, only if on or before April 15 of such year, it has filed with the office[~~department~~] a written notice to that effect.

(b) Any employing unit for which services that do not constitute covered employment are performed may file with the office[~~department~~] a written election that all such services performed by individuals in its employ in one (1) or more distinct establishments or places of business shall be considered to constitute covered employment by a subject employer for all the purposes of this chapter for not less than two (2) calendar years. Upon written approval of such election by the secretary, such services shall be considered to constitute covered employment from and after the date stated in such approval, but not with respect to the period previous to such date. Such services shall cease to be considered covered employment subject hereto as of January 1 of a calendar year subsequent to such two (2) calendar years, only if on or before April 15 of such year such employing unit has filed with the office[~~department~~] a written notice to that effect.

(c) Any employing unit having service performed in covered employment solely by reason of paragraph (h) of subsection (1) of KRS 341.050 may terminate such service as "covered employment" as of the first day of January of any calendar year if such service does not meet the provisions of paragraph (e), (f) or (g), but only if on or before April 15 of such year, the employing unit has filed with the office[~~department~~] a written request to terminate service as "covered employment."

(4) An employing unit that becomes a subject employer under subsection (7) of KRS 341.070, shall become subject as of the date of acquisition.

(5) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsections (1), (2), and (3) of this section, any subject employer whose entire reserve account has been transferred to a successor in interest as provided for in KRS 341.540 shall immediately cease to be a subject employer and shall thereafter become a subject employer only upon his future employment experience.

Section 153. KRS 341.260 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Contributions shall accrue and become payable by each subject employer for each calendar year in which he is subject to this chapter. Such contributions shall be based upon wages paid during such calendar year for covered employment. Such contributions shall become due and be paid at the offices of the Office of Employment and Training, Department of Workforce Investment,~~[department]~~ in Frankfort by each subject employer to the office~~[department]~~ for the fund in accordance with such regulations as the secretary prescribes, and shall not be deducted in whole or in part from the wages of workers in his employ. In the payment of any contributions, a fractional part of a cent shall be disregarded, unless it amounts to one-half cent ($0.005) or more, in which case it shall be increased to one cent ($0.01).

(2) Any contractor, who is or becomes a subject employer under the provisions of this chapter, who contracts with any subcontractor, who also is or becomes a subject employer under the provisions of this chapter, shall withhold sufficient moneys on said contract to guarantee that all contributions, penalties, and interest are paid upon completion of said contract, or shall require of said subcontractor a good and sufficient bond guaranteeing payment of all contributions, penalties, and interest due, or to become due with respect to wages paid for employment on said contract. Failure to comply with the provisions of this section shall render said contractor directly liable for such contributions, penalties, and interest due from said subcontractor and the wages paid by said subcontractor shall be deemed wages paid by the said contractor with respect to the same periods for all purposes under this chapter, and liens of the same nature are attachable and enforceable in the same manner as liens under KRS 341.310 and 341.315. A person, employing unit, or entity that enters into a verbal or written agreement with another, or between which there exists an implied contract based upon the circumstances, conduct, or acts or relations of the parties:

(b) To have work performed of a kind which is a customary or a recurrent part of the work of the trade, business, occupation, or profession of such person or entity, shall for the purposes of this subsection be deemed a contractor, and such other person or entity a subcontractor. This subsection shall not apply to the owner or lessee of land principally used for agriculture.

Effective for employers who become subject to this chapter on or after January 1, 1999, except as otherwise provided in this section, each employer's contribution rate shall be two and seven-tenths percent (2.7%).

(2) Except as otherwise provided in this section, no subject employer's contribution rate shall be less than two and seven-tenths percent (2.7%), unless he has been an employer subject to the provisions of this chapter for twelve (12) consecutive calendar quarters ended as of the computation date. In any calendar year in which the rate schedule prescribed in paragraph (3)(a) of this section is in effect, no subject employer who was assigned an entry rate of three percent (3.0%) under the provisions of subsection (1) of this section prior to January 1, 1999, shall have a contribution rate less than two and eight hundred fifty-seven thousandths percent (2.857%), unless subject to this chapter for the minimum time period specified above.

(3) For the calendar year 2001 and each calendar year thereafter, employer contribution rates shall be determined in accordance with "Table A" set out in subsection (4) of this section. For each calendar year, the secretary shall determine the rate schedule to be in effect based upon the "trust fund balance" as of December 31 of the preceding year. If the "trust fund balance":

(a) Equals or exceeds one and eighteen hundredths percent (1.18%) of the total wages paid in covered employment in the state during the state fiscal year ended as of June 30 of that year, the rates listed in the "Trust Fund Adequacy Rates" schedule of "Table A" shall be in effect.

(b) Equals or exceeds three hundred fifty million dollars ($350,000,000) but is less than the amount required to effectuate the "Trust Fund Adequacy Rates" schedule as provided in paragraph (a) of this subsection, the rates listed in "Schedule A" of "Table A" shall be in effect.

(c) Equals or exceeds two hundred seventy-five million dollars ($275,000,000) but is less than three hundred fifty million dollars ($350,000,000), the rates listed in "Schedule B" of "Table A" shall be in effect.

(d) Equals or exceeds two hundred fifty million dollars ($250,000,000) but is less than two hundred seventy-five million dollars ($275,000,000), the rates listed in "Schedule C" of "Table A" shall be in effect.

(e) Equals or exceeds one hundred fifty million dollars ($150,000,000) but is less than two hundred fifty million dollars ($250,000,000), the rates listed in "Schedule D" of "Table A" shall be in effect.

(f) Is less than one hundred fifty million dollars ($150,000,000), the rates listed in "Schedule E" of "Table A" shall be in effect.

(4) For the calendar year 1982 and each calendar year thereafter, contribution rates shall be determined upon the basis of an individual employer's reserve ratio as of the computation date and the schedule of rates established under subsection (3) of this section. Except as otherwise provided in this section, the contribution rate for each subject employer for the calendar year immediately following the computation date shall be the rate in that "Schedule" of "Table A," as set out below, effective with respect to the calendar year, which appears on the same line as his reserve ratio as shown in the "Employer Reserve Ratio" column of the same table.

(5) As used in this section and elsewhere in this chapter, unless the context clearly requires otherwise:

(a) "Trust fund balance" means the amount of money in the unemployment insurance fund, less any unpaid advances made to the state under Section 1201 of the Social Security Act. In determining the amount in the fund as of a given date all money received by the Office of Employment and Training, Department of Workforce Investment,[~~department~~] on that date shall be considered as being in the fund on that date.

(b) "Total wages" means all remuneration for services, as defined in KRS 341.030(1) to (7), paid by subject employers.

(c) An employer's "reserve ratio" means the percentage ratio of his reserve account balance as of the computation date to his taxable payrolls for the twelve (12) consecutive calendar quarters ended as of September 30 immediately preceding the computation date.

(d) For the purposes of this section, an employer's "reserve account balance" means the amount of contributions credited to his reserve account as of the computation date, less the benefit charges through September 30 immediately preceding the computation date. If benefits charged to an account exceed contributions credited to the account, the account shall be considered as having a debit balance and a reserve ratio of "less than zero."

(e) "Computation date" is October 31 of each calendar year prior to the effective date of new rates of contributions.

(1) For the purpose of this section, a nonprofit organization is an organization (or group of organizations) described in Section 501(c)(3) of the United States Internal Revenue Code which is exempt from income tax under Section 501(a) of such code. For the purpose of this section, "cabinet" shall mean the Education Cabinet[~~ for Workforce Development~~] and "secretary" shall mean the secretary of the Education Cabinet[~~for workforce development~~].

(2) Any nonprofit organization which, pursuant to KRS 341.070(4), is, or becomes, a subject employer shall pay contributions under the provisions of KRS 341.270, unless it elects, in accordance with this section, to pay to the cabinet for the fund an amount equal to the amount of regular benefits and of one-half (1/2) of the extended benefits paid to workers for weeks of unemployment that is attributable to service in the employ of the nonprofit organization, performed during the effective period of the election but only if the employer is the worker's most recent employer. No employer shall be deemed to be the most recent employer unless the eligible worker to whom benefits are payable shall have worked for that employer in each of ten (10) weeks whether or not consecutive.

(a) Any nonprofit organization which is, or becomes, a subject employer on July 1, 1972, may elect to become liable for payments in lieu of contributions for a period of not less than the remainder of 1972 and the calendar year of 1973, provided it files with the cabinet a written notice of its election within the thirty (30) day period immediately following such date.

(b) Any nonprofit organization which becomes a subject employer after July 1, 1972, may elect to become liable for payments in lieu of contributions for a period of not less than the period of subjectivity during the year in which such subjectivity begins and the following calendar year by filing a written notice of its election with the cabinet not later than thirty (30) days immediately following the date of the determination of such subjectivity.

(c) Any nonprofit organization which makes an election in accordance with paragraph (a) or paragraph (b) of this subsection will continue to be liable for payments in lieu of contributions until it files with the secretary a written notice terminating its election not later than thirty (30) days prior to the beginning of the calendar year for which such termination shall first be effective, except that liability for payments in lieu of contributions shall continue thereafter with respect to wages paid prior to the effective date of such termination.

(d) Any nonprofit organization which has been paying contributions under this chapter for a period subsequent to July 1, 1972, may change to a reimbursable basis by filing with the cabinet not later than thirty (30) days prior to the beginning of any calendar year a written notice of election to become liable for payments in lieu of contributions. Such election shall not be terminable by such organization for that and the following year.

(e) The secretary may for good cause extend the period within which a notice of election, or a notice of termination, must be filed and may permit an election to be retroactive but not any earlier than with respect to benefits paid after December 31, 1969.

(f) The secretary shall notify each nonprofit organization of any determination which may be made of its status as an employer and of the effective date of any election which it makes and of any termination of such election. Such determinations shall be subject to appeal and review in accordance with the provisions of KRS 341.430(2).

(3) Payments in lieu of contributions shall be made in accordance with the provisions of this subsection.

(a) At the end of each calendar quarter, the cabinet shall bill each nonprofit organization (or group of such organizations) which has elected to make payments in lieu of contributions for an amount equal to the full amount of regular benefits plus one-half (1/2) of the amount of extended benefits paid during such quarter plus any prior period adjustments, which are attributable to service performed in covered employment in the employ of such organization.

(b) Payment of any bill rendered under paragraph (a) shall be made not later than thirty (30) days after such bill was mailed to the last known address of the nonprofit organization or was otherwise delivered to it, unless there has been an application for review in accordance with paragraph (d) of this subsection.

(c) Payments made by any nonprofit organization under the provisions of this subsection shall not be deducted or deductible, in whole or in part, from the remuneration of workers in the employ of the organization.

(d) The amount due specified in any bill from the secretary shall be conclusive on the organization unless, not later than fifteen (15) days after the bill was mailed to its last known address or otherwise delivered to it, the organization files an appeal to the commission~~[cabinet]~~, setting forth the grounds for such appeal. Proceedings on appeal to the commission~~[cabinet]~~ from the amount of a bill rendered under this subsection shall be in accordance with the provisions of KRS 341.430 and the decision of the commission~~[cabinet]~~ shall be subject to review under the provisions of KRS 341.460(1).

(e) Past-due payments of amounts in lieu of contributions shall be subject to the same interest, penalties, collection service, and lien provisions that, pursuant to KRS 341.300 to 341.310, apply to past-due contributions.

(4) (a) The secretary may, in accordance with regulations prescribed by the cabinet, require any nonprofit organization that elects to become liable for payments in lieu of contributions to deposit with the cabinet, within thirty (30) days after the effective date of its election as a condition thereof, money equal to two percent (2%) of the organization's total wages paid for employment as defined in KRS 341.050(1)(e) for the four (4) calendar quarters immediately preceding the effective date of such election. If the nonprofit organization did not pay wages in each of such four (4) calendar quarters, the amount of the deposit shall be as determined by the secretary.

(b) Money deposited in accordance with this subsection shall be retained by the cabinet in an escrow account until all possible liability to the fund under the election is terminated, at which time it shall be returned to the organization, less any deductions as hereinafter provided. The cabinet may deduct from the money deposited under this subsection by a nonprofit organization to the extent necessary to satisfy any due and unpaid payments in lieu of contributions and any applicable interest and penalties provided for in paragraph (e) of subsection (3) of this section. The secretary shall require the organization within thirty (30) days following any deduction from a money deposit under the provisions of this subsection to deposit sufficient additional money to make whole the organization's deposit at the prior level. The secretary may, at any time, review the adequacy of the deposit made by any organization. If, as a result of such review, he determines that an adjustment is necessary, he shall require the organization to make additional deposit within thirty (30) days of written notice of his determination or shall return to it such portion of the deposit as he no longer considers necessary, whichever action is appropriate.

(c) If any nonprofit organization fails to make a deposit, or to increase or make whole the amount of a previously made deposit, as provided under this subsection, the secretary may terminate such organization's election to make payments in lieu of contributions and such termination shall continue for not less than the remainder of that calendar year and the following calendar year beginning with the quarter in which such termination becomes effective; provided, that the secretary may extend for good cause the applicable filing, deposit, or adjustment period by not more than sixty (60) days.

(5) If any nonprofit organization is delinquent in making payments in lieu of contributions as required under subsection (3) of this section, the secretary may terminate such organization's election to make payments in lieu of contributions as of the beginning of the next calendar year, and such termination shall be effective for that and the next calendar year.

(6) Notwithstanding any other section of this chapter, no employing unit electing to make payments in lieu of contributions under the provisions of this section shall be entitled to relief of benefit charges.

Section 156. KRS 341.300 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Contributions unpaid on the date on which they are due and payable, as prescribed by the secretary, shall be subject to interest at the rate of one and five-tenths percent (1.5%) per month or fraction thereof, not to exceed ninety percent (90%) of the amount of such contributions, from and after such date until payment is received by the Office of Employment and Training, Department of Workforce Investment~~[department]~~, irrespective of whether such delinquency has been reduced to a judgment or not as provided in subsection (2) of this section or is the subject of an administrative appeal or court action. Such interest shall be paid into the unemployment compensation administration fund.

(2) If, after due notice, any subject employer defaults in any payment of contributions, interest or penalties thereon, the amount due shall be collected by a civil action instituted in the Franklin Circuit Court or the Franklin District Court depending upon the jurisdictional amount in controversy including interest and penalties in the name of the state, and the subject employer adjudged in default shall pay the costs of the action. Civil actions brought under this section shall be heard by the court, without the intervention of a jury, at the earliest possible date, and shall be entitled to preference upon the calendar of the court over all other civil actions except petitions for judicial review under this chapter and cases arising under the workers' compensation law.

(3) At or after the commencement of an action under subsection (2) of this section attachment may be had against the property of the liable subject employer for such contributions, interest and penalties without the execution of a bond, or after judgment has been entered an execution may be issued against the property of such employer without the execution of a bond.

(4) An action for the recovery of contributions, interest or penalties under this section shall be barred and any lien therefor shall be canceled and extinguished unless collected or suit for collection has been filed within five (5) years from the due date of such contributions, except in the case of the filing of a false or fraudulent report the contributions due shall not be barred and may at any time be collected by the methods set out in this chapter, including action in a court of competent jurisdiction.

No worker may be paid benefits for any week of unemployment:

(1) With respect to which a strike or other bona fide labor dispute which caused him to leave or lose his employment is in active progress in the establishment in which he is or was employed, except that benefits may be paid unless the employer notifies the Office of Employment and Training, Department of Workforce Investment,~~[department]~~ in writing within seven (7) days after the beginning of such alleged strike or labor dispute of the alleged existence of such strike or labor dispute. For the purpose of this subsection a lockout shall not be deemed to be a strike or a bona fide labor dispute and no worker shall be denied benefits by reason of a lockout;

(2) For which he has received or is seeking unemployment compensation under an unemployment compensation law of another state or of the United States, except as otherwise provided by an arrangement between this state and such other state or the United States. But if the appropriate agency of such state or of the United States finally determines that he is not entitled to such unemployment compensation, this subsection shall not apply; or

(3) (a) Which, when based on service in an instructional, research, or principal administrative capacity in an institution of higher education as defined in subsection (2) of KRS 341.067 or in an educational institution as defined in subsection (4) of KRS 341.067, begins during the period between two (2) successive academic years, or during a similar period between two (2) regular terms, whether or not successive, or during a period of paid sabbatical leave provided for in the individual's contract, if the worker performs such services in the first of such academic years or terms and if there is a contract or a reasonable assurance that the worker will perform such services in any such capacity for any institution or institutions of higher education or an educational institution in the second of such academic years or such terms; or

(b) Which, when based on service other than as defined in paragraph (a) of this subsection, in an institution of higher education or an educational institution, as defined in subsection (2) or (4) of KRS 341.067, begins during the period between two (2) successive academic years or terms, if the worker performs such services in the first of such academic years or terms and there is a reasonable assurance that the worker will perform such services in the second of such academic years or terms; except that if benefits are denied to any worker under this paragraph and such worker was not offered an opportunity to perform such services for such institution of higher education or such educational institution for the second of such academic years or terms, such worker shall be entitled to a retroactive payment of benefits for each week for which the worker filed a timely claim for benefits and for which benefits were denied solely by reason of this paragraph; or

(c) Which, when based on service in any capacity defined in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this subsection, begins during an established and customary vacation period or holiday recess if the worker performs any such services in the period immediately before such vacation period or holiday recess, and there is a reasonable assurance that such worker will perform any such services in the period immediately following such vacation period or holiday recess; or

(d) Based on service in any capacity defined in paragraph (a) or (b) of this subsection when such service is performed by the worker in an institution of higher education or an educational institution, as defined in subsection (2) or (4) of KRS 341.067, while the worker is in the employ of an educational service agency, and such unemployment begins during the periods and pursuant to the conditions specified in paragraphs (a), (b), and (c) of this subsection. For purposes of this paragraph the term "educational service agency" means a governmental agency or governmental entity which is established and operated exclusively for the purpose of providing such services to one (1) or more institutions of higher education or educational institutions.

(4) Except that any benefits paid to a worker based on service other than as defined in subsection (3)(a) of this section performed in an institution of higher education as defined in subsection (2) of KRS 341.067 shall be deemed to have been paid as a result of Office of Employment and Training, Department of Workforce Investment,~~[departmental]~~ error and not recoverable by the cabinet or such institution if such payment is improper by virtue of the retroactive application to October 30, 1983, of subsection (3)(b) of this section.

(5) Benefits shall not be paid to any individual on the basis of any services, substantially all of which consist of participating in sports or athletic events or training or preparing to so participate, for any week which commences during the period between two (2) successive sport seasons (or similar periods) and there is a reasonable assurance that such individual will perform such services in the later of such seasons (or similar periods).

(6) (a) Benefits shall not be paid on the basis of services performed by an alien unless such alien is an individual who was lawfully admitted for permanent residence at the time such services were performed, was lawfully present for purposes of performing such services, or was residing in the United States under color of law at the time such services were performed (including an alien who was lawfully present in the United States as a result of the application of the provisions of Section 203(a)(7) or Section 212(d)(5) of the Immigration and Nationality Act).

(b) Any data or information required of individuals applying for benefits to determine whether benefits are not payable to them because of their alien status shall be uniformly required from all applicants for benefits.

(c) In the case of an individual whose application for benefits would otherwise be approved, no determination that benefits to such individual are not payable because of his alien status shall be made except upon a preponderance of the evidence.

(7) With respect to which the worker is suspended from work for misconduct, as defined in KRS 341.370(6), connected with the work.

Section 158. KRS 341.370 is amended to read as follows:

(1) A worker shall be disqualified from receiving benefits for the duration of any period of unemployment with respect to which:

(a) He has failed without good cause either to apply for available, suitable work when so directed by the employment office or the secretary or to accept suitable work when offered him, or to return to his customary self-employment when so directed by the secretary; or

(b) He has been discharged for misconduct or dishonesty connected with his most recent work, or from any work which occurred after the first day of the worker's base period and which last preceded his most recent work, but legitimate activity in connection with labor organizations or failure to join a company union shall not be construed as misconduct; or

(c) He has left his most recent suitable work or any other suitable work which occurred after the first day of the worker's base period and which last preceded his most recent work voluntarily without good cause attributable to the employment. No otherwise eligible worker shall be disqualified from receiving benefits for leaving his next most recent suitable work which was concurrent with his most recent work, or for leaving work which is one hundred (100) road miles or more, as measured on a one (1) way basis, from his home to accept work which is less than one hundred (100) road miles from his home, or for otherwise accepting work which is a bona fide job offer with a reasonable expectation of continued employment.

(2) A worker shall be disqualified from receiving benefits for any week with respect to which he knowingly made a false statement to establish his right to or the amount of his benefits, and, within the succeeding twenty-four (24) months, for the additional weeks immediately following the date of discovery, not to exceed a total of fifty-two (52), as may be determined by the secretary.

(3) No worker shall be disqualified under paragraph (b) or (c) of subsection (1) of this section unless the employer, within a reasonable time as prescribed by regulations promulgated by the secretary, notifies the Education Cabinet~~[for Workforce Development]~~ and the worker in writing of the alleged voluntary quitting or the discharge for misconduct. Nothing in this subsection shall restrict the right of the secretary to disqualify a worker whose employer has refused or failed to notify the Education Cabinet~~[for Workforce Development]~~ of the alleged voluntary quitting or discharge for misconduct, if the alleged voluntary quitting or discharge for misconduct is known to the secretary prior to the time benefits are paid to the worker. The exercise of the right by the secretary, in the absence of timely notice from the employer, shall not relieve the employer's reserve account or reimbursing employer's account of benefit charges under the provisions of subsection (3) of KRS 341.530.

(4) As used in this section and in subsection (3) of KRS 341.530, "most recent" work shall be construed as that work which occurred after the first day of the worker's base period and which last preceded the week of unemployment with respect to which benefits are claimed; except that, if the work last preceding the week of unemployment was seasonal, intermittent, or temporary in nature, most recent work may be construed as that work last preceding the seasonal, intermittent, or temporary work.

(5) No worker shall be disqualified or held ineligible under the provisions of this section or KRS 341.350, who is separated from employment pursuant to a labor management contract or agreement, or pursuant to an established employer plan, program, or policy, which permits the employer to close the plant or facility for purposes of vacation or maintenance.

(6) "Discharge for misconduct" as used in this section shall include, but not be limited to, separation initiated by an employer for falsification of an employment application to obtain employment through subterfuge; knowing violation of a reasonable and uniformly enforced rule of an employer; unsatisfactory attendance if the worker cannot show good cause for absences or tardiness; damaging the employer's property through gross negligence; refusing to obey reasonable instructions; reporting to work under the influence of alcohol or drugs or consuming alcohol or drugs on employer's premises during working hours; conduct endangering safety of self or co-workers; and incarceration in jail following conviction of a misdemeanor or felony by a court of competent jurisdiction, which results in missing at least five (5) days work.

(7) "Duration of any period of unemployment," as that term is used in this section, shall be the period of time beginning with the worker's discharge, voluntary quitting, or failure to apply for or accept suitable work and running until the worker has worked in each of ten (10) weeks, whether or not consecutive, and has earned ten (10) times his weekly benefit rate in employment covered under the provisions of this chapter or a similar law of another state or of the United States.

Section 159. KRS 341.420 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The secretary shall appoint one (1) or more impartial referees according to KRS 341.125 to hear and decide appealed claims.

(2) A party to a determination may file an appeal to a referee as to any matter therein within fifteen (15) days after the date such determination was mailed to his last known address.

(3) If benefits are allowed by a determination of the secretary, or a decision of a referee, the commission, the secretary or a reviewing-court, such benefits shall be paid promptly without regard to the pendency of an appeal or period for filing an appeal therefrom. If a determination or decision allowing benefits is modified or reversed by a subsequent determination or decision, benefits shall be paid or denied for weeks of unemployment thereafter in accordance with such modification or denial. No injunction, supersedeas, stay or other writ or process suspending payment of such benefits shall be issued.

(4) Unless such appeal is withdrawn, a referee, after affording the parties reasonable opportunity for a fair hearing, shall affirm or modify the determination. The parties shall be duly notified of his decision, together with the reasons therefor, which shall be deemed to be the final decision unless within fifteen (15) days after the date of mailing of such decision, further appeal is initiated under KRS 341.430.

(5) No finding of fact or law, judgment, conclusion, or final order made with respect to a claim for unemployment compensation under this chapter may be conclusive or binding in any separate or subsequent action or proceeding in another forum, except proceedings under this chapter, regardless of whether the prior action was between the same or related parties or involved the same facts.

Section 160. KRS 341.410 is amended to read as follows:

The secretary[~~commissioner~~] acting through his duly authorized representatives shall, upon request, determine the insured status of a worker. If a worker is found to have fully insured status, as defined in subsection (3) of KRS 341.090, the division shall notify all interested parties. If found to be not fully insured, the division shall notify the worker. The commissioner may, at any time within a worker's benefit year, make such further determinations as may affect the worker's eligibility for benefits or may set aside, reconsider, modify, or amend a determination at any time on the basis of additional information or to correct a clerical mistake. The commission may by regulation prescribe what constitutes a determination as used in this section and subsections (2) and (3) of KRS 341.420.

Section 161. KRS 341.415 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Any person who has received any sum as benefits under this chapter or any other state's unemployment insurance statutes or any United States Department of Labor unemployment insurance benefit program providing the secretary has signed a reciprocal agreement with such other state or the United States Department of Labor as provided in KRS 341.145, while any condition for the receipt of such benefits was not fulfilled in his case, or while he was disqualified from receiving benefits, or if he has received benefits in weeks for which he later receives a back pay award, shall, in the discretion of the secretary, either have such sum deducted from any future benefits payable to him under this chapter or repay the Office of Employment and Training, Department of Workforce Investment,[~~department~~] for the fund a sum equal to the amount so received by him. If after due notice the recipient of such sum fails to remit or arrange for remittance of the sum, the sum may be collected in the manner provided in KRS 341.300(2) for collection of past-due contributions and any sums so collected shall be credited to the pooled account or the appropriate reimbursing employer account. However, if the benefit was paid as a result of office[~~departmental~~] error as defined by administrative regulation, there shall be no recoupment or recovery of an improperly paid benefit, except by deduction from any future benefits payable to him under this chapter. For purposes of this section, overpayments as a result of a reversal of entitlement to benefits in the appeal or review process shall not be construed to be the result of office[~~departmental~~] error.

(2) At or after the commencement of an action under subsection (1) of this section, attachment may be had against property of the recipient of improperly paid benefits in the manner provided in KRS 341.300(3).

(3) A lien on a parity with state, county, and municipal ad valorem tax liens, is hereby created in favor of the department upon all property of any recipient of improperly paid benefits. This lien shall be for a sum equal to the amount of the overpayment finally determined and shall continue until the amount of the overpayment plus any subsequent assessment of additional improperly paid benefits, interest, and fees are fully paid. The lien shall commence from such time as the recipient has exhausted or abandoned the appeal procedure set forth in this chapter and the amount of the overpayment is finally fixed. A notice of lien may be filed in the same manner as that provided for in KRS 341.310.

(4) Any amount paid to a person as benefits, which he has been found liable to repay or to have deducted from future benefits under subsections (1), (2), and (3) of this section, which has neither been repaid nor so deducted within a period of five (5) years following the last day of the benefit year within which it was paid, may be deemed to be uncollectible and shall be permanently charged to the pooled account, except that if such payment was made by reason of fraudulent representations, no future benefits shall be paid such person within a period of ten (10) years of the last day of the benefit year within which such payments were made at which time these amounts may be declared uncollectible. Nothing in this subsection shall be deemed to affect collection of improperly paid benefits pursuant to a judgment or other legal remedy.

(5) In the event benefits have been paid as a result of false statement, misrepresentation, or concealment of material information by a recipient of benefits and have not been repaid by the recipient within one (1) calendar year from the date of the first notice, interest at the rate of one and five-tenths percent (1.5%) per month or any part thereof, shall be imposed on and added to the unpaid balance each successive month, providing due notice has been given to the recipient. Such interest shall be paid into the unemployment compensation administration account.

(6) The deduction from future benefits specified in subsection (1) of this section shall be limited to twenty-five percent (25%) of the benefit amount otherwise payable under this chapter unless the overpayment resulted from a backpay award, false statement, misrepresentation, or concealment of material information by a recipient of benefits. In these instances, the rate of deduction shall be one hundred percent (100%). The rate of deduction from benefits payable by another state or the United States of America shall be determined by the applicable state or federal statute.

(1) The manner in which appeals are presented and hearings and appeals conducted shall be in accordance with regulations prescribed by the secretary for determining the rights of the parties, such hearings to be conducted in a summary manner. A complete record shall be kept of all proceedings in connection with any appeal. All testimony at any hearing upon an appeal shall be recorded either stenographically or mechanically, but need not be transcribed unless further appealed. No examiner, referee or member of the commission shall participate in any hearing in which he is an interested party.

(2) Witnesses subpoenaed pursuant to proceedings under KRS 341.420 and 341.430 shall be allowed fees in accordance with rates allowed by law. Such fees and all expenses of proceedings before the Office of Employment and Training, Department of Workforce Investment,[~~department~~] or commission involving disputed claims shall be deemed a part of the expense of administering this chapter.

(3) In the absence of an appeal therefrom, decisions of the commission shall become final twenty (20) days after the date they are made.

Section 163. KRS 341.470 is amended to read as follows:

(1) No agreement by a worker to waive, release, or commute his rights to benefits or any other rights under this chapter shall be valid. No agreement by any worker to pay any portion of a subject employer's contributions, required under this chapter from such subject employer, shall be valid. No subject employer shall directly or indirectly make or require or accept any deductions from wages to finance the subject employer's contributions required of him. In cases involving awards to a worker by an arbitrator, court, or other administrative body or mediator, the secretary may require the employer to withhold benefits paid under this chapter from the award and pay the amount withheld into the unemployment insurance trust fund. All subject employers are required to notify the Office of Employment and Training, Department of Workforce Investment[~~Department for Employment Services, Cabinet for Workforce Development~~] prior to paying any back pay award.

(2) No worker claiming benefits shall be charged fees of any kind in any proceeding under this chapter by the commission, the secretary, or his or her representatives. Any worker claiming benefits in any proceeding before a referee or the commission may represent himself or herself or may be represented by counsel or other agent duly authorized by such worker and shall be afforded the opportunity to participate in the proceeding without restriction; but no counsel or agent shall either charge or receive for such service more than an amount approved by the commission.

(3) (a) Any employer in any proceeding before a referee or the commission may represent himself or herself or may be represented by counsel or other agent duly authorized by such employer; and

(b) Any person appearing in any proceeding before a referee or the commission who is an officer of, or who regularly performs in a managerial capacity for, a corporation or partnership which is a party to the proceeding in which the appearance is made shall be permitted to represent such corporation or partnership and shall be afforded the opportunity to participate in the proceeding without restriction.

(4) No assignment, pledge, or encumbrance of any right to benefits due or payable under this chapter shall be valid; and such rights to benefits shall be exempt from levy, execution, attachment, or any other remedy for the collection of debt. Benefits received by any worker, as long as they are not mingled with other funds of the recipient, shall be exempt from any remedy for the collection of all debts except debts incurred for necessaries furnished to such worker or his spouse or dependents during the time such worker was unemployed. No waiver of any exemption provided for in this subsection shall be valid.

(5) The provisions of this section shall not be applicable to child support deductions made in accordance with KRS 341.392 and withholding for federal and state income tax in accordance with KRS 341.395.

Section 164. KRS 341.530 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The Office of Employment and Training, Department of Workforce Investment,[~~department~~] shall maintain a reserve account for each subject employer making contributions to the fund and a reimbursing employer account for each subject employer making payment in lieu of contributions, and shall, except as provided in KRS 341.590, credit to such account the total amount of all contributions or benefit reimbursement paid by the employer on his own behalf. Nothing in this section or elsewhere in this chapter shall be construed to grant any employer or individual who is or was in his employ prior claims or rights to the amounts paid by him into the fund.

(2) Except as provided in subsection (3) of this section, all regular benefits paid to an eligible worker in accordance with KRS 341.380 plus the extended benefits paid in accordance with KRS 341.700 to 341.740, subject to the provisions of paragraphs (a) and (b) below, shall be charged against the reserve account or reimbursing employer account of his most recent employer. No employer shall be deemed to be the most recent employer unless the eligible worker to whom benefits are payable shall have worked for such employer in each of ten (10) weeks whether or not consecutive back to the beginning of the worker's base period.

(a) Subject employers, which are not governmental entities as defined in KRS 341.069, shall be charged one-half (1/2) of the extended benefits paid in accordance with KRS 341.700 to 341.740; and

(b) Subject employers which are governmental entities, as defined in KRS 341.069, shall be charged for all extended benefits paid in accordance with KRS 341.700 to 341.740 for compensable weeks occurring on or after January 1, 1979, and for one-half (1/2) of the extended benefits paid for compensable weeks occurring prior to such date.

(3) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (2) of this section, benefits paid to an eligible worker and chargeable to a contributing employer's reserve account under such subsection shall be charged against the pooled account if such worker was discharged by such employer for misconduct connected with his most recent work for such employer, voluntarily left his most recent work with such employer without good cause attributable to the employment, or the employer has continued to provide part-time employment and wages, without interruption, to the same extent that was provided from the date of hire, and the employer within a reasonable time, as prescribed by regulation of the secretary, notifies the office~~[department]~~, in writing, of the alleged voluntary quitting, discharge for misconduct or continuing part-time employment; provided, however, that no employer making payments to the fund in lieu of contributions shall be relieved of charges by reason of this subsection.

(4) Each subject employer's reserve account or reimbursing account shall, unless terminated as of the computation date (as defined in subsection (5) of KRS 341.270), be charged with all benefits paid to eligible workers which are chargeable to such reserve account or reimbursing account under subsection (2) of this section. A subject employer's reserve account or reimbursing account shall be deemed to be terminated if he has ceased to be subject to this chapter, and his account has been closed and any balance remaining therein has been transferred to the fund's pooled account or to a successor's account as provided in KRS 341.540 or has been refunded if the employer is a reimbursing employer.

(5) Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section, two (2) or more nonprofit (Internal Revenue Code sec. 501(c)(3)) organizations may jointly request the secretary to establish a group reserve account or reimbursing account for such nonprofit organizations. Two (2) or more governmental entities may jointly request the secretary to establish a group reserve account or reimbursing account, and once established, such account shall remain in effect at least two (2) calendar years and thereafter until either dissolved at the discretion of the secretary or upon filing application for dissolution by the group members. Each member of a group shall be jointly and severally liable for all payments due under this chapter from each or all of such group members. The secretary shall prescribe such procedures as he deems necessary for the establishment, maintenance, and dissolution of a group reserve account or reimbursing account.

(6) Any subject contributing employer may at any time make voluntary payments to the fund, additional to the contributions required under KRS 341.260 and 341.270. Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, contributions paid on or before the computation date and voluntary payments made within twenty (20) days following the mailing of notices of new rates shall be credited to an employer's reserve account as of the computation date, provided no voluntary payments shall be used in computing an employer's rate unless the payment is made prior to the expiration of one hundred and twenty (120) days after the beginning of the year for which the rate is effective. Voluntary contributions by any employer subject to a minimum rate as provided in KRS 341.270(2) or KRS 341.272(1) shall not exceed any negative balance they may have in their reserve account as of the computation date. Any employer who is delinquent in the payment of contributions, penalties, or interest as of the computation date shall be entitled to make voluntary payments only after the amount of the delinquency is paid in full.

Section 165. KRS 341.540 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Any employing unit which succeeds to or acquires the organization, trade, or business of a subject employer shall assume the resources and liabilities of the predecessor's reserve account, including interest, and shall continue the payment of all contributions and interest due under this chapter, except that the successor or acquirer shall not be required to assume the liability of any delinquent contributions and interest of a predecessor or predecessors unless the cabinet notifies the successor or acquirer of the delinquency within six (6) months after the Office of Employment and Training, Department of Workforce Investment,~~[department]~~ has notice of the succession or acquisition.

(2) The liability for delinquent contributions and interest imposed upon the successor or acquirer by subsection (1) of this section shall be secondary to the liability of the predecessor or predecessors, and if the delinquency has been reduced to judgment, the order of execution on the judgment shall be as follows:

(a) Against the assets, both real and personal, of the predecessor or predecessors;

(b) Against the assets, both real and personal, of the business acquired; and

(c) Against the assets, both real and personal, of the successor or acquirer.

(3) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1), any employing unit which succeeds to or acquires a segregable and identifiable portion of the organization, trade, or business from a subject employer, and who is, or by reason of the succession or acquisition becomes, a subject employer, shall assume the position of an employer with respect to the resources and liabilities of the reserve account in proportion to the percentage of the payroll or employees assignable to the transferred portion. In calculating the transferred portion, the secretary shall utilize the last four (4) calendar quarters, preceding the date of succession or acquisition, for workers employed by the successor subsequent to that date. The taxable payroll, benefit charges and the potential benefit charges shall likewise be assumed by the successors or acquirers in interest in a like proportion.

(4) (a) The contribution rate of a successor or acquirer employing unit, whether in whole or in part, which was a subject employer prior to such succession or acquisition, shall not be affected by the transfer of the reserve account for the remainder of the rate year in which such succession or acquisition occurred.

(b) The contribution rate of a successor or acquirer employing unit, either in whole or in part, which was not a subject employer prior to such succession or acquisition, shall be, for the calendar year in which such succession or acquisition occurred, the same rate as that of its predecessor.

(c) The contribution rate for a successor or acquirer employing unit, which was not a subject employer prior to the simultaneous succession to or acquisition of two (2) or more predecessor reserve accounts, either in whole or in part, shall be the rate determined in accordance with the provisions of KRS 341.270, by combining the reserve accounts succeeded to or acquired as they existed as of the computation date for determining rates for the calendar year in which such succession or acquisition occurred.

(d) The contribution rate of a successor or acquirer employing unit which succeeds to or acquires, either in whole or in part, a predecessor's reserve account after a computation date but prior to the beginning of the calendar year immediately following such computation date shall be the rate determined, in accordance with KRS 341.270, by effecting the transfer of such reserve account as of the computation date immediately preceding the date of such succession or acquisition.

Section 166. KRS 341.990 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Any employee of any state agency[~~department~~] who violates any of the provisions of KRS 341.110 to 341.230 shall be guilty of a Class B misdemeanor.

(2) Any person subpoenaed to appear and testify or produce evidence in an inquiry, investigation, or hearing conducted under this chapter who fails to obey the subpoena shall be guilty of a Class B misdemeanor.

(3) Any subject employer, or officer or agent of a subject employer, who violates subsection (1) of KRS 341.470 shall be guilty of a Class A misdemeanor.

(4) Any person who violates subsection (2) of KRS 341.470 shall be guilty of a Class A misdemeanor.

(5) Any person who knowingly makes a false statement or representation of a material fact or knowingly fails to disclose a material fact to the secretary to obtain or increase any benefit under this chapter or under an employment security law of any other state, or of the federal government, either for himself or for any other person, business entity, or organization shall be guilty of a Class A misdemeanor unless the value of the benefits procured or attempted to be procured is one hundred dollars ($100) or more, in which case he shall be guilty of a Class D felony.

(6) (a) Any person who knowingly makes a false statement or representation, or who knowingly fails to disclose a material fact to prevent or reduce the payment of benefits to any worker entitled thereto, or to avoid becoming or remaining subject to this chapter, or to avoid or reduce any payment required of an employing unit under this chapter shall be guilty of a Class A misdemeanor unless the liability avoided or attempted to be avoided is one hundred dollars ($100) or more, in which case he shall be guilty of a Class D felony.

(b) Any person who willfully fails or refuses to furnish any reports required, or to produce or permit the inspection or copying of records required in this chapter shall be guilty of a Class B misdemeanor. Each such false statement, representation or failure and each day of failure or refusal shall constitute a separate offense.

(7) In any prosecution for the violation of subsection (5) or (6) of this section, it shall be a defense if the person relied on the advice of an employee or agent of the Office of Employment and Training, Department of Workforce Investment[~~department~~].

(8) Any person who willfully violates any provision of this chapter or any rule or regulation under it, the violation of which is made unlawful or the observance of which is required under the terms of this chapter, and for which no specific penalty is prescribed in this chapter or in any other applicable statute, shall be guilty of a violation. Each day the violation continues shall constitute a separate offense.

As used in this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) "Injury" means any work-related traumatic event or series of traumatic events, including cumulative trauma, arising out of and in the course of employment which is the proximate cause producing a harmful change in the human organism evidenced by objective medical findings. "Injury" does not include the effects of the natural aging process, and does not include any communicable disease unless the risk of contracting the disease is increased by the nature of the employment. "Injury" when used generally, unless the context indicates otherwise, shall include an occupational disease and damage to a prosthetic appliance, but shall not include a psychological, psychiatric, or stress-related change in the human organism, unless it is a direct result of a physical injury.

(2) "Occupational disease" means a disease arising out of and in the course of the employment.

(3) An occupational disease as defined in this chapter shall be deemed to arise out of the employment if there is apparent to the rational mind, upon consideration of all the circumstances, a causal connection between the conditions under which the work is performed and the occupational disease, and which can be seen to have followed as a natural incident to the work as a result of the exposure occasioned by the nature of the employment and which can be fairly traced to the employment as the proximate cause. The occupational disease shall be incidental to the character of the business and not independent of the relationship of employer and employee. An occupational disease need not have been foreseen or expected but, after its contraction, it must appear to be related to a risk connected with the employment and to have flowed from that source as a rational consequence.

(4) "Injurious exposure" shall mean that exposure to occupational hazard which would, independently of any other cause whatsoever, produce or cause the disease for which the claim is made.

(5) "Death" means death resulting from an injury or occupational disease.

(6) "Carrier" means any insurer, or legal representative thereof, authorized to insure the liability of employers under this chapter and includes a self-insurer.

(7) "Self-insurer" is an employer who has been authorized under the provisions of this chapter to carry his own liability on his employees covered by this chapter.

(8) "Department" means the Department of Workers' Claims in the Labor Cabinet.

(9) "Commissioner" means the commissioner of the Department of Workers' Claims.

(10) "Board" means the Workers' Compensation Board.

(11) (a) "Temporary total disability" means the condition of an employee who has not reached maximum medical improvement from an injury and has not reached a level of improvement that would permit a return to employment;

(b) "Permanent partial disability" means the condition of an employee who, due to an injury, has a permanent disability rating but retains the ability to work; and

(c) "Permanent total disability" means the condition of an employee who, due to an injury, has a permanent disability rating and has a complete and permanent inability to perform any type of work as a result of an injury, except that total disability shall be irrebuttably presumed to exist for an injury that results in:

1. Total and permanent loss of sight in both eyes;
2. Loss of both feet at or above the ankle;
3. Loss of both hands at or above the wrist;
4. Loss of one (1) foot at or above the ankle and the loss of one (1) hand at or above the wrist;
5. Permanent and complete paralysis of both arms, both legs, or one (1) arm and one (1) leg;
6. Incurable insanity or imbecility; or
7. Total loss of hearing.

(12) "Income benefits" means payments made under the provisions of this chapter to the disabled worker or his dependents in case of death, excluding medical and related benefits.

(13) "Medical and related benefits" means payments made for medical, hospital, burial, and other services as provided in this chapter, other than income benefits.

(14) "Compensation" means all payments made under the provisions of this chapter representing the sum of income benefits and medical and related benefits.

(15) "Medical services" means medical, surgical, dental, hospital, nursing, and medical rehabilitation services, medicines, and fittings for artificial or prosthetic devices.

(16) "Person" means any individual, partnership, including a registered limited liability partnership, limited partnership, limited liability company, firm, association, trust, joint venture, corporation, limited liability company, or legal representative thereof.

(17) "Wages" means, in addition to money payments for services rendered, the reasonable value of board, rent, housing, lodging, fuel, or similar advantages received from the employer, and gratuities received in the course of employment from persons other than the employer as evidenced by the employee's federal and state tax returns.

(18) "Agriculture" means the operation of farm premises, including the planting, cultivation, producing, growing, harvesting, and preparation for market of agricultural or horticultural commodities thereon, the raising of livestock for food products and for racing purposes, and poultry thereon, and any work performed as an incident to or in conjunction with the farm operations. It shall not include the commercial processing, packing, drying, storing, or canning of such commodities for market, or making cheese or butter or other dairy products for market.

(19) "Beneficiary" means any person who is entitled to income benefits or medical and related benefits under this chapter.

(20) "United States," when used in a geographic sense, means the several states, the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, the Canal Zone, and the territories of the United States.

(21) "Alien" means a person who is not a citizen, a national, or a resident of the United States or Canada. Any person not a citizen or national of the United States who relinquishes or is about to relinquish his residence in the United States shall be regarded as an alien.

(22) "Insurance carrier" means every insurance carrier or insurance company authorized to do business in the Commonwealth writing workers' compensation insurance coverage and includes the Kentucky Employers Mutual Insurance Authority and every group of self-insurers operating under the provisions of this chapter.

(23) (a) "Severance or processing of coal" means all activities performed in the Commonwealth at underground, auger, and surface mining sites; all activities performed at tipple or processing plants that clean, break, size, or treat coal; and all activities performed at coal loading facilities for trucks, railroads, and barges. Severance or processing of coal shall not include acts performed by a final consumer if the acts are performed at the site of final consumption.

(b) "Engaged in severance or processing of coal" shall include all individuals, partnerships, including registered limited liability partnerships, limited partnerships, limited liability companies, corporations, joint ventures, associations, or any other business entity in the Commonwealth which has employees on its payroll who perform any of the acts stated in paragraph (a) of this subsection, regardless of whether the acts are performed as owner of the coal or on a contract or fee basis for the actual owner of the coal. A business entity engaged in the severance or processing of coal, including, but not limited to, administrative or selling functions, shall be considered wholly engaged in the severance or processing of coal for the purpose of this chapter. However, a business entity which is engaged in a separate business activity not related to coal, for which a separate premium charge is not made, shall be deemed to be engaged in the severance or processing of coal only to the extent that the number of employees engaged in the severance or processing of coal bears to the total number of employees. Any employee who is involved in the business of severing or processing of coal and business activities not related to coal shall be prorated based on the time involved in severance or processing of coal bears to his total time.

(24) "Premium" for every group of self-insurers means any and all assessments levied on its members by such group or contributed to it by the members thereof. For special fund assessment purposes, "premium" also includes any and all membership dues, fees, or other payments by members of the group to associations or other entities used for underwriting, claims handling, loss control, premium audit, actuarial, or other services associated with the maintenance or operation of the self-insurance group.

(25) (a) "Premiums received" for policies effective on or after January 1, 1994, for insurance companies means direct written premiums as reported in the annual statement to the Kentucky Department of Insurance by insurance companies, except that "premiums received" includes premiums charged off or deferred, and, on insurance policies or other evidence of coverage with provisions for deductibles, the calculated cost for coverage, including experience modification and premium surcharge or discount, prior to any reduction for deductibles. The rates, factors, and methods used to calculate the cost for coverage under this paragraph for insurance policies or other evidence of coverage with provisions for deductibles shall be the same rates, factors, and methods normally used by the insurance company in Kentucky to calculate the cost for coverage for insurance policies or other evidence of coverage without provisions for deductibles, except that, for insurance policies or other evidence of coverage with provisions for deductibles effective on or after January 1, 1995, the calculated cost for coverage shall not include any schedule rating modification, debits, or credits. The cost for coverage calculated under this paragraph by insurance companies that issue only deductible insurance policies in Kentucky shall be actuarially adequate to cover the entire liability of the employer for compensation under this chapter, including all expenses and allowances normally used to calculate the cost for coverage. For policies with provisions for deductibles with effective dates of May 6, 1993, through December 31, 1993, for which the insurance company did not report premiums and remit special fund assessments based on the calculated cost for coverage prior to the reduction for deductibles, "premiums received" includes the initial premium plus any reimbursements invoiced for losses, expenses, and fees charged under the deductibles. The special fund assessment rates in effect for reimbursements invoiced for losses, expenses, or fees charged under the deductibles shall be those percentages in effect on the effective date of the insurance policy. For policies covering leased employees as defined in KRS 342.615, "premiums received" means premiums calculated using the experience modification factor of each lessee as defined in KRS 342.615 for each leased employee for that portion of the payroll pertaining to the leased employee.

(b) "Direct written premium" for insurance companies means the gross premium written less return premiums and premiums on policies not taken but including policy and membership fees.

(c) "Premium," for policies effective on or after January 1, 1994, for insurance companies means all consideration, whether designated as premium or otherwise, for workers' compensation insurance paid to an insurance company or its representative, including, on insurance policies with provisions for deductibles, the calculated cost for coverage, including experience modification and premium surcharge or discount, prior to any reduction for deductibles. The rates, factors, and methods used to calculate the cost for coverage under this paragraph for insurance policies or other evidence of coverage with provisions for deductibles shall be the same rates, factors, and methods normally used by the insurance company in Kentucky to calculate the cost for coverage for insurance policies or other evidence of coverage without provisions for deductibles, except that, for insurance policies or other evidence of coverage with provisions for deductibles effective on or after January 1, 1995, the calculated cost for coverage shall not include any schedule rating modifications, debits, or credits. The cost for coverage calculated under this paragraph by insurance companies that issue only deductible insurance policies in Kentucky shall be actuarially adequate to cover the entire liability of the employer for compensation under this chapter, including all expenses and allowances normally used to calculate the cost for coverage. For policies with provisions for deductibles with effective dates of May 6, 1993, through December 31, 1993, for which the insurance company did not report premiums and remit special fund assessments based on the calculated cost for coverage prior to the reduction for deductibles, "premium" includes the initial consideration plus any reimbursements invoiced for losses, expenses, or fees charged under the deductibles.

(d) "Return premiums" for insurance companies means amounts returned to insureds due to endorsements, retrospective adjustments, cancellations, dividends, or errors.

(26) "Insurance policy" for an insurance company or group self-insurer means the term of insurance coverage commencing from the date coverage is extended, whether a new policy or a renewal, through its expiration, not to exceed the anniversary date of the renewal for the following year.

(27) "Self-insurance year" for a group self-insurer means the annual period of certification of the group created pursuant to KRS 342.350(4).

(28) "Premium" for each employer carrying his own risk pursuant to KRS 342.340(1) shall be the projected value of the employer's workers' compensation claims for the next calendar year as calculated by the commissioner using generally-accepted actuarial methods as follows:

(a) The base period shall be the earliest three (3) calendar years of the five (5) calendar years immediately preceding the calendar year for which the calculation is made. The commissioner shall identify each claim of the employer which has an injury date or date of last injurious exposure to the cause of an occupational disease during each one (1) of the three (3) calendar years to be used as the base, and shall assign a value to each claim. The value shall be the total of the indemnity benefits paid to date and projected to be paid, adjusted to current benefit levels, plus the medical benefits paid to date and projected to be paid for the life of the claim, plus the cost of medical and vocational rehabilitation paid to date and projected to be paid. Adjustment to current benefit levels shall be done by multiplying the weekly indemnity benefit for each claim by the number obtained by dividing the statewide average weekly wage which will be in effect for the year for which the premium is being calculated by the statewide average weekly wage in effect during the year in which the injury or date of the last exposure occurred. The total value of the claims using the adjusted weekly benefit shall then be calculated by the commissioner. Values for claims in which awards have been made or settlements reached because of findings of permanent partial or permanent total disability shall be calculated using the mortality and interest discount assumptions used in the latest available statistical plan of the advisory rating organization defined in Subtitle 13 of KRS Chapter 304. The sum of all calculated values shall be computed for all claims in the base period.

(b) The commissioner shall obtain the annual payroll for each of the three (3) years in the base period for each employer carrying his own risk from records of the department and from the records of the Office of[~~Department for~~] Employment and Training[~~Services~~], Education Cabinet[~~ for Workforce Development~~]. The commissioner shall multiply each of the three (3) years of payroll by the number obtained by dividing the statewide average weekly wage which will be in effect for the year in which the premium is being calculated by the statewide average weekly wage in effect in each of the years of the base period.

(c) The commissioner shall divide the total of the adjusted claim values for the three (3) year base period by the total adjusted payroll for the same three (3) year period. The value so calculated shall be multiplied by 1.25 and shall then be multiplied by the employer's most recent annualized payroll, calculated using records of the department and the Office of[~~Department for~~] Employment and Training[~~Services~~] data which shall be made available for this purpose on a quarterly basis as reported, to obtain the premium for the next calendar year for assessment purposes under KRS 342.122.

(d) For November 1, 1987, through December 31, 1988, premium for each employer carrying his own risk shall be an amount calculated by the board pursuant to the provisions contained in this subsection and such premium shall be provided to each employer carrying his own risk and to the funding commission on or before January 1, 1988. Thereafter, the calculations set forth in this subsection shall be performed annually, at the time each employer applies or renews his application for certification to carry his own risk for the next twelve (12) month period and submits payroll and other data in support of the application. The employer and the funding commission shall be notified at the time of the certification or recertification of the premium calculated by the commissioner, which shall form the employer's basis for assessments pursuant to KRS 342.122 for the calendar year beginning on January 1 following the date of certification or recertification.

(e) If an employer having fewer than five (5) years of doing business in this state applies to carry his own risk and is so certified, his premium for the purposes of KRS 342.122 shall be based on the lesser number of years of experience as may be available including the two (2) most recent years if necessary to create a three (3) year base period. If the employer has less than two (2) years of operation in this state available for the premium calculation, then his premium shall be the greater of the value obtained by the calculation called for in this subsection or the amount of security required by the commissioner pursuant to KRS 342.340(1).

(f) If an employer is certified to carry his own risk after having previously insured the risk, his premium shall be calculated using values obtained from claims incurred while insured for as many of the years of the base period as may be necessary to create a full three (3) year base. After the employer is certified to carry his own risk and has paid all amounts due for assessments upon premiums paid while insured, he shall be assessed only upon the premium calculated under this subsection.

(g) "Premium" for each employer defined in KRS 342.630(2) shall be calculated as set forth in this subsection.

(h) Notwithstanding any other provision of this subsection, the premium of any employer authorized to carry its own risk for purposes of assessments due under this chapter shall be no less than thirty cents ($0.30) per one hundred dollars ($100) of the employer's most recent annualized payroll for employees covered by this chapter.

(29) "SIC code" as used in this chapter means the Standard Industrial Classification Code contained in the latest edition of the Standard Industrial Classification Manual published by the Federal Office of Management and Budget.

(30) "Investment interest" means any pecuniary or beneficial interest in a provider of medical services or treatment under this chapter, other than a provider in which that pecuniary or investment interest is obtained on terms equally available to the public through trading on a registered national securities exchange, such as the New York Stock Exchange or the American Stock Exchange, or on the National Association of Securities Dealers Automated Quotation System.

(31) "Managed health care system" means a health care system that employs gatekeeper providers, performs utilization review, and does medical bill audits.

(32) "Physician" means physicians and surgeons, psychologists, optometrists, dentists, podiatrists, and osteopathic and chiropractic practitioners acting within the scope of their license issued by the Commonwealth.

(33) "Objective medical findings" means information gained through direct observation and testing of the patient applying objective or standardized methods.

(34) "Work" means providing services to another in return for remuneration on a regular and sustained basis in a competitive economy.

(35) "Permanent impairment rating" means percentage of whole body impairment caused by the injury or occupational disease as determined by "Guides to the Evaluation of Permanent Impairment," American Medical Association, latest available edition.

(36) "Permanent disability rating" means the permanent impairment rating selected by an administrative law judge times the factor set forth in the table that appears at KRS 342.730(1)(b).

(1) (a) For calendar year 1997 and for each calendar year thereafter, for the purpose of funding and prefunding the liabilities of the special fund, financing the administration and operation of the Kentucky Workers' Compensation Funding Commission, and financing the expenditures for all programs in the Labor Cabinet, except the Division of Employment Standards, Apprenticeship and Training and the Office of Labor-Management Relations and Mediation, as reflected in the enacted budget of the Commonwealth and enacted by the General Assembly, the funding commission shall impose a special fund assessment rate of nine percent (9%) upon the amount of workers' compensation premiums received on and after January 1, 1997, through December 31, 1997, by every insurance carrier writing workers' compensation insurance in the Commonwealth, by every group of self-insurers operating under the provisions of KRS 342.350(4), and against the premium, as defined in KRS 342.0011, of every employer carrying his or her own risk.

(b) The funding commission shall, for calendar year 1998 and thereafter, establish for the special fund an assessment rate to be assessed against all premium received during that calendar year which, when added to the coal severance tax appropriated to the special fund in accordance with paragraph (c) of this section, shall produce enough revenue to amortize on a level basis the unfunded liability of the special fund as of September 1 preceding January 1 of each year, for the period remaining until December 31, 2018. The interest rate to be used in this calculation shall reflect the funding commission's investment experience to date and the current investment policies of the commission. This assessment shall be imposed upon the amount of workers' compensation premiums received by every insurance carrier writing workers' compensation insurance in the Commonwealth, by every group of self-insurers operating under the provisions of KRS 342.350(4), and against the premium, as defined in KRS 342.0011, of every employer carrying his own risk.

(c) In addition to the assessment imposed in paragraph (a) or (b) of this subsection, and notwithstanding and prior to the transfer of funds to the Local Government Economic Assistance Program under KRS 42.450 to 42.495, the Kentucky Revenue Cabinet shall credit nineteen million dollars ($19,000,000) in coal severance tax revenues levied under KRS 143.020 to the benefit reserve fund within the Kentucky Workers' Compensation Funding Commission each year beginning with fiscal year 1998 and all fiscal years thereafter. The annual transfer of nineteen million dollars ($19,000,000) shall occur in four (4) equal quarterly payments. These transfers shall occur not later than the last day of each quarter of each calendar year and shall consist of four (4) equal payments of four million, seven hundred fifty thousand dollars ($4,750,000).

(d) All assessments imposed by this section shall be paid to the Kentucky Workers' Compensation Funding Commission and shall be credited to the benefit reserve fund within the Kentucky Workers' Compensation Funding Commission.

(e) The assessments imposed in this chapter shall be in lieu of all other assessments or taxes on workers' compensation premiums.

(2) These assessments shall be paid quarterly not later than the thirtieth day of the month following the end of the quarter in which the premium is received. Receipt shall be considered timely through actual physical receipt or by postmark of the United States Postal Service. Employers carrying their own risk and employers defined in KRS 342.630(2) shall pay the annual assessments in four (4) equal quarterly installments.

(3) The assessments imposed by this section may be collected by the insurance carrier from his insured. However, the insurance carrier shall not collect from the employer any amount exceeding the assessments imposed pursuant to this section. If the insurance carrier collects the assessment from an insured, the assessment shall be collected at the same time and in the same proportion as the premium is collected. The assessment for an insurance policy or other evidence of coverage providing a deductible may be collected in accordance with this chapter on a premium amount that equates to the premium that would have applied without the deductible. Each statement from an insurance carrier presented to an insured reflecting premium and assessment amounts shall clearly identify and distinguish the amount to be paid for premium and the amount to be paid for assessments. No insurance carrier shall collect from an insured an amount in excess of the assessment percentages imposed by this chapter. The assessment for an insurance policy or other evidence of coverage providing a deductible may be collected in accordance with this chapter on a premium amount that equates to the premium that would have applied without the deductible. The percentages imposed by this chapter for an insurance policy issued by an insurance company shall be those percentages in effect on the annual effective date of the policy, regardless of the date that the premium is actually received by the insurance company.

(4) A group self-insurance association may elect to report its premiums and to have its assessments computed in the same manner as insurance companies. This election may not be rescinded for at least ten (10) years, nor may this election be made a second time for at least another ten (10) years, except that the board of directors of the funding commission may, at its discretion, waive the ten (10) year ban on a case-by-case basis after formal petition has been made to the funding commission by a group self-insurance association.

(5) The funding commission, as part of the collection and auditing of the special fund assessments required by this section, shall annually require each insurance carrier and each group self-insurer to provide a list of employers which it has insured or which are members and the amount collected from each employer. Additionally, the funding commission shall require each entity paying a special fund assessment to report the SIC code for each employer and the amount of premium collected from each SIC code. An insurance carrier or group self-insurer may require its insureds or members to furnish the SIC code for each of their employees. However, the failure of any employer to furnish said codes shall not relieve the insurance carrier or group self-insurer from the obligation to furnish same to the funding commission. The Office of Employment and Training, Education Cabinet~~[Department for Employment Services, Cabinet for Workforce Development]~~ is hereby directed to make available the SIC codes assigned in its records to specific employers to aid in the reporting and recording of the special fund assessment data.

(6) Each self-insured employer, group self-insurer, or insurance carrier shall provide any information and submit any reports the Revenue Cabinet or the funding commission may require to effectuate the provisions of this section. In addition, the funding commission may enter reciprocal agreements with other governmental agencies for the exchange of information necessary to effectuate the provisions of this section.

(7) The special fund shall be required to maintain a central claim registry of all claims to which it is named a party, giving each such claim a unique claim number and thereafter recording the status of each claim on a current basis. The registry shall be established by January 26, 1988, for all claims on which payments were made since July 1, 1986, or which were pending adjudication since July 1, 1986, by audit of all claim files in the possession of the special fund.

(8) The fund heretofore designated as the subsequent claim fund is abolished, and there is substituted therefor the special fund as set out by this section, and all moneys and properties owned by the subsequent claim fund are transferred to the special fund.

(9) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this section or this chapter to the contrary, the total amount of funds collected pursuant to the assessment rates adopted by the funding commission shall not be limited to the provisions of this section.

(10) All assessment rates imposed for periods prior to January 1, 1997, under KRS 342.122 shall forever remain applicable to premiums received on policies with effective dates prior to January 1, 1997, by every insurance carrier writing workers' compensation insurance in the Commonwealth, by every group of self-insurers operating under the provision of KRS 342.350(4), and against the premium, as defined in KRS 342.0011, of every employer carrying his own risk.

Section 169. KRS 342.143 is amended to read as follows:

For the purposes of this chapter, the average weekly wage of the state shall be determined by the commissioner as follows: On or before September 1 of each year, the total wages reported by subject employers under the Kentucky Unemployment Insurance Law for the preceding calendar year shall be divided by the average monthly number of insured workers (determined by dividing the total number of insured workers reported for the preceding year by twelve (12)). The average annual wage thus obtained shall be divided by fifty-two (52) and the average weekly wage thus determined rounded to the nearest cent. The average weekly wage shall be certified to the commissioner by the Education Cabinet~~[for Workforce Development]~~ in a manner prescribed by the commissioner by administrative regulation. The average weekly wage as so determined shall be applicable for the full period during which income or death benefits are payable, when the date of occurrence of injury or of disability in the case of disease, or of death, falls within the calendar year commencing January 1 following the September 1 determination. Whenever a change in the average weekly wage of the state is of such amount that the minimum weekly income benefits for total disability or for death are increased or decreased by one dollar ($1) or more, or the maximum weekly income benefits for total disability or for death are increased or decreased by two dollars ($2) or more, computed in each case and rounded to the nearest dollar, an adjustment in those minimums or maximums which are affected in the requisite amount by the change in the average weekly wage of the state shall be made which will reflect this increase or decrease, but no change in such limitations shall otherwise be made. Notwithstanding the provisions of this section, KRS 342.140, 342.740, or any other provisions of this chapter to the contrary, the average weekly wage for calendar years 1995 and 1996 shall be determined to be no higher than the average weekly wage determined by the commissioner to be in effect in the calendar year of 1994. If the average weekly wage calculated by the commissioner is determined to be lower than the 1994 calendar year wage, the average weekly wage may be lowered as provided by this section. Beginning in calendar year 1997 and annually thereafter, the average weekly wage shall be calculated based upon the state average weekly wage in effect two (2) years prior to that calculation.

Section 170. KRS 342.710 is amended to read as follows:

(1) One of the primary purposes of this chapter shall be restoration of the injured employee to gainful employment, and preference shall be given to returning the employee to employment with the same employer or to the same or similar employment.

(2) The commissioner shall continuously study the problems of rehabilitation, both physical and vocational, and shall investigate and maintain a directory of all rehabilitation facilities, both private and public.

(3) An employee who has suffered an injury covered by this chapter shall be entitled to prompt medical rehabilitation services for whatever period of time is necessary to accomplish physical rehabilitation goals which are feasible, practical, and justifiable. When as a result of the injury he is unable to perform work for which he has previous training or experience, he shall be entitled to such vocational rehabilitation services, including retraining and job placement, as may be reasonably necessary to restore him to suitable employment. In all such instances, the administrative law judge shall inquire whether such services have been voluntarily offered and accepted. The administrative law judge on his own motion, or upon application of any party or carrier, after affording the parties an opportunity to be heard, may refer the employee to a qualified physician or facility for evaluation of the practicability of, need for, and kind of service, treatment, or training necessary and appropriate to render him fit for a remunerative occupation. Upon receipt of such report, the administrative law judge may order that the services and treatment recommended in the report, or such other rehabilitation treatment or service likely to return the employee to suitable, gainful employment, be provided at the expense of the employer or his insurance carrier. Vocational rehabilitation training, treatment, or service shall not extend for a period of more than fifty-two (52) weeks, except in unusual cases when by special order of the administrative law judge, after hearing and upon a finding, determined by sound medical evidence which indicates such further rehabilitation is feasible, practical, and justifiable, the period may be extended for additional periods.

(4) Where rehabilitation requires residence at or near the facility or institution, away from the employee's customary residence, reasonable cost of his board, lodging, or travel shall be paid for by the employer or his insurance carrier.

(5) Refusal to accept rehabilitation pursuant to an order of an administrative law judge shall result in a fifty percent (50%) loss of compensation for each week of the period of refusal.

(6) The commissioner shall cooperate on a reciprocal basis with the Office~~[Department]~~ of Vocational Rehabilitation and the Office of~~[Department for]~~ Employment and Training~~[Services]~~ of the Education~~[Kentucky]~~ Cabinet~~[for Workforce Development]~~. In the event medical treatment, medical rehabilitation services, or vocational rehabilitation services are purchased for an injured employee by the Office~~[Department]~~ of Vocational Rehabilitation or Office of~~[Department for]~~ Employment and Training~~[Services]~~ following the refusal by the employer or his insurance carrier to provide such services, the administrative law judge, after affording the parties an opportunity to be heard, may order reimbursement of the cost of such treatment or services by the employer or his insurance carrier as apportioned in the award. This section shall not be interpreted to require mandatory evaluation of employees based on length of disability. Any administrative regulations promulgated pursuant to this section that require mandatory referral to a qualified rehabilitation counselor shall expire on April 4, 1994.

(7) An employee who is enrolled and participating in a program of rehabilitation training pursuant to this section may elect to receive an acceleration of benefits as awarded under KRS 342.730. Such acceleration shall be available to the employee during the period of retraining, but in no event shall be paid in a weekly amount greater than sixty-six and two-thirds percent (66-2/3%) of the average weekly wage upon which the award is based, not to exceed one hundred percent (100%) of the state average weekly wage. Upon successful completion of the rehabilitation program, the total of all accelerated benefits paid shall be deducted on a dollar-for-dollar basis, without discount, from weekly benefits otherwise due the employee subject to the maximum amount of the award. Such remaining benefits, if any, shall then be divided by the number of weeks remaining payable under the award, and that amount shall be the weekly benefit due the employee. If a program of rehabilitation training is terminated by the employee prior to completion, all sums paid on an accelerated basis shall be discounted at the rate set forth in KRS 342.265 and then deducted on a dollar-for-dollar basis from weekly benefits otherwise due the employee subject to the maximum amount of the award. Such remaining benefits, after the discount, shall be divided by the number of weeks remaining payable under the award, and that amount shall be the weekly benefit due the employee. In no event shall this subsection be construed as requiring payment of benefits in excess of the total of those benefits which would otherwise be payable under the award.

(1) Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, income benefits and retraining incentive benefits for occupational pneumoconiosis resulting from exposure to coal dust in the severance or processing of coal shall be paid as follows:

(a) 1. If an employee has a radiographic classification of category 1/0, 1/1 or 1/2, coal workers' pneumoconiosis and spirometric test values of eighty percent (80%) or more, the employee shall be awarded a one (1) time only retraining incentive benefit which shall be an amount equal to sixty-six and two-thirds percent (66-2/3%) of the employee's average weekly wage as determined by KRS 342.740, but not more than seventy-five percent (75%) of the state average weekly wage, payable semimonthly for a period not to exceed one hundred four (104) weeks, except as provided in subparagraph 3. of this paragraph.

2. Except as provided in subparagraph 3. of this paragraph, these benefits shall be paid only while the employee is enrolled and actively and successfully participating as a full-time student taking the equivalent of twelve (12) or more credit hours per week in a bona fide training or education program that if successfully completed will qualify the person completing the course for a trade, occupation, or profession and which program can be completed within the period benefits are payable under this subsection. The program must be approved under administrative regulations to be promulgated by the commissioner. These benefits shall also be paid to an employee who is a part-time student taking not less than the equivalent of six (6) nor more than eleven (11) credit hours per week, except that benefits shall be an amount equal to thirty-three and one-third percent (33-1/3%) of the employee's average weekly wage as determined by KRS 342.740, but not more than thirty-seven and one-half percent (37-1/2%) of the state average weekly wage, payable biweekly for a period not to exceed two hundred eight (208) weeks.

3. These benefits shall also be paid biweekly while an employee is actively and successfully pursuing a General Equivalency Diploma (GED) in accordance with administrative regulations promulgated by the commissioner. These benefits shall be paid in the amount of sixty-six and two-thirds percent (66-2/3%) of the employee's average weekly wage not to exceed seventy-five percent (75%) of the state average weekly wage for a maximum period not to exceed seventeen (17) weeks. These income benefits shall be in addition to the maximum amount of retraining incentive benefits payable under this paragraph.

4. The employer shall also pay, directly to the institution conducting the training or education program, instruction, tuition, and material costs not to exceed five thousand dollars ($5,000).

5. The period of weeks during which this benefit is payable shall begin no later than the thirtieth day after the administrative law judge's order awarding the benefit becomes final, except that an employee may elect to defer the beginning of such benefits up to the three hundred sixty-fifth day following the thirtieth day the order becomes final. Unless the employee has requested deferral of income benefits, those income benefits payable under subparagraphs 1. and 2. of this paragraph shall begin no later than thirty (30) days following conclusion of income benefits paid under subparagraph 3. if such benefits were paid.

6. If an employee who is awarded retraining incentive benefits under this paragraph successfully completes a bona fide training or education program approved by the commissioner, upon completion of the training or education program, the employer shall pay to that employee the sum of five thousand dollars ($5,000) for successful completion of a program that requires a course of study of not less than twelve (12) months nor more than eighteen (18) months, or the sum of ten thousand dollars ($10,000) for successful completion of a program that requires a course of study of more than eighteen (18) months. This amount shall be in addition to retraining incentive benefits awarded under this paragraph, and tuition expenses paid by the employer.

7. An employee who is age fifty-seven (57) years or older on the date of last exposure and who is awarded retraining incentive benefits under subparagraph 1. to 4. of this paragraph, may elect to receive in lieu of retraining incentive benefits, an amount equal to sixty-six and two-thirds percent (66-2/3%) of the employee's average weekly wage, not to exceed seventy-five percent (75%) of the state average weekly wage as determined by KRS 342.740 multiplied by the disability rating of twenty-five percent (25%) for a period not to exceed four hundred twenty-five (425) weeks, or until the employee reaches sixty-five (65) years of age, whichever occurs first, KRS 342.730(4) notwithstanding.

8. A claim for retraining incentive benefits provided under this section may be filed, but benefits shall not be payable, while an employee is employed in the severance or processing of coal as defined in KRS 342.0011(23).

9. If an employer appeals an award of retraining incentive benefits, upon an employee's motion, an administrative law judge may grant retraining incentive benefits pending appeal as interlocutory relief.

10. If an employee elects to defer payment of retraining incentive benefits for a period of retraining longer than three hundred sixty-five (365) days, benefits otherwise payable shall be reduced week-for-week for each week retraining benefits are further deferred.

(b) 1. If an employee has a radiographic classification of category 1/0, 1/1, or 1/2 coal workers' pneumoconiosis and respiratory impairment evidenced by spirometric test values of fifty-five percent (55%) or more but less than eighty percent (80%) of the predicted normal values, or category 2/1, 2/2, or 2/3 coal workers' pneumoconiosis and spirometric test values of eighty percent (80%) or more of the predicted normal values, there shall be an irrebuttable presumption that the employee has a disability rating of twenty-five percent (25%) resulting from exposure to coal dust, and the employee shall be awarded an income benefit which shall be an amount equal to sixty-six and two-thirds percent (66-2/3%) of the employee's average weekly wage, but not to exceed seventy-five percent (75%) of the state average weekly wage as determined by KRS 342.740 multiplied by the disability rating of twenty-five percent (25%). The award shall be payable for a period not to exceed four hundred twenty-five (425) weeks.

2. The evidence submitted by the employee shall include one (1) or more arterial blood gas studies performed in accordance with accepted medical standards. Income benefits shall not be awarded in the absence of valid spirometric tests if the claimant's PO2 arterial blood gas value is equal to or higher than one (1) standard deviation from the normal value obtained by the formula (103.5 - 0.42X), where X equals the claimant's age at the time of the arterial blood gas study.
